Dear Mr. de Masi:

We have reviewed your registration statement and have the following comments. In some of our comments, we may ask you to provide us with information so we may better understand your disclosure.

Please respond to this letter by amending your registration statement and providing the requested information. If you do not believe our comments apply to your facts and circumstances or do not believe an amendment is appropriate, please tell us why in your response.

After reviewing any amendment to your registration statement and the information you provide in response to these comments, we may have additional comments.

Registration Statement on Form S-4

General

1. Please tell us whether you will be a "controlled company" under exchange listing rules and, if so, describe the corporate governance exemptions on which you will be entitled to rely and the related risks to investors.
2. Revise your disclosure to show the potential impact of redemptions on the per share value of the shares owned by non-redeeming shareholders by including a sensitivity analysis showing a range of redemption scenarios, including minimum, maximum and interim redemption levels.
3. We note that certain shareholders agreed to waive their redemption rights. Please describe any consideration provided in exchange for this agreement.

4. It appears that underwriting fees remain constant and are not adjusted based on redemptions. Revise your disclosure to disclose the effective underwriting fee on a percentage basis for shares at each redemption level presented in your sensitivity analysis related to dilution.
5. Please revise to disclose all possible sources and extent of dilution that shareholders who elect not to redeem their shares may experience in connection with the business combination. Provide disclosure of the impact of each significant source of dilution, including the amount of equity held by founders, convertible securities, including warrants retained by redeeming shareholders, at each of the redemption levels detailed in your sensitivity analysis, including any needed assumptions.
6. Your charter waived the corporate opportunities doctrine. Please address this potential conflict of interest and whether it impacted your search for an acquisition target.
7. Please revise the conflicts of interest discussion so that it highlights all material interests in the transaction held by the sponsor and the company's officers and directors. This could include fiduciary or contractual obligations to other entities as well as any interest in, or affiliation with, the target company. In addition, please clarify how the board considered those conflicts in negotiating and recommending the business combination.
8. Please highlight material differences in the terms and price of securities issued at the time of the IPO as compared to private placements contemplated at the time of the business combination. Disclose if the SPAC's sponsors, directors, officers or their affiliates will participate in the private placement.
9. Please highlight the material risks to public warrant holders, including those arising from differences between private and public warrants. Clarify whether recent common stock trading prices exceed the threshold that would allow the company to redeem public warrants. Clearly explain the steps, if any, the company will take to notify all shareholders, including beneficial owners, regarding when the warrants become eligible for redemption.
10. Disclose the material risks to unaffiliated investors presented by taking the company public through a merger rather than an underwritten offering. These risks could include the absence of due diligence conducted by an underwriter that would be subject to liability for any material misstatements or omissions in a registration statement.

Interests of dMy IV's Directors and Officers in the Business Combination, page 45

Please includes these transaction costs in your pro forma statements of operations or explain why you believe it is appropriate to exclude them.
27. We note that pro forma adjustment (i) eliminates the convertible preferred stock line item. 28. We note disclosure throughout the filing that Planet Labs stockholders may receive up to an additional 27 million shares in earnout consideration in the form of common stock and that the shares may vest based on future stock price thresholds. Please address the following comments related to your contingent consideration arrangement:
- Within pro forma adjustment (gg), you disclose that "a portion" of the contingent consideration is subject to continued service requirements by employees to receive the shares and will be accounted under ASC 718. Since the earnout consideration appears to vest based on market conditions, tell us and disclose if the related compensation expense will be recognized even if the market condition is not satisfied.
  - Tell us in sufficient detail how you will account for the remaining contingent consideration that is not subject to ASC 718.

Note 2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation, page F-24

33. We note that in April 2021 you identified a misstatement in the accounting treatment for your public and private placement warrants as presented in the audited balance sheet as of March 9, 2021 included in a Form 8-K filed March 15, 2021. We further note that the warrants had been reflected as a component of equity as opposed to liabilities on the balance sheet. Although you indicate on page F-24 that you determined the impact of the error was immaterial, you disclose on page 103 that there was a material weakness in your internal control over financial reporting as of March 31, 2021 and that this material weakness resulted in a "material misstatement." Please file or advise us why you did not file an Item 4.02 Form 8-K related to non-reliance on previously issued financial statements. Refer to the SEC's April 12, 2021 Staff Statement on Accounting and Reporting Considerations for Warrants Issued by Special Purpose Acquisition Companies.

Revenue Recognition, page F-46

34. We note that your imagery licensing arrangements include two separate performance obligations for the access to imagery through your online platform and the ability to download such imagery. Please address the following comments:
- You disclose that contract consideration related to continuously updated imagery content is "recognized ratably over the term of the contract when updated imagery is transferred to the licensee in line with when the content is made available to the customer." Clarify for us what this statement means and revise your disclosures accordingly. In doing so, explain how and when updated imagery content is made available to customers in relation to when the revenue is recognized. Provide an illustrative example to help our understanding.
  - You disclose that contract consideration related to the download of existing or archive imagery content is recognized at commencement of the contract when control of the imagery is transferred. Tell us how you determined up-front revenue recognition is appropriate. In doing so, explain to us if these revenues relate to one-time downloads or if the downloads may occur throughout the subscription period. Also clarify if individual contracts may contain separate download performance obligations related to existing imagery and monitoring imagery content. If so, explain how you allocate contract consideration to the separate download performance obligations.

- You disclose that contract consideration related to the download of monitoring imagery content is recognized over the term of the contract utilizing a "usage-based model." Tell us and revise your disclosures to clarify what a "usage-based model" represents. Explain if and how differences in download access rights, specifically limited versus unlimited access, impacts the timing of your revenue recognition. Also tell us if customers have the ability to pay per download, prepay for an agreed number of downloads, and/or prepay for unlimited downloads and how the different options impact the timing of your revenue recognition.

3. Revenue, page F-54

35. We note that you recognize revenue over time and at a point in time. Please disclose or tell us the consideration given to providing disaggregated revenues based on the timing of revenue as well as by contract duration, such as annual and multi-year contractual terms. Refer to ASC 606-10-50-5 and 606-10-55-91.

- We note that during February 2021 you completed an assessment of the useful lives of your satellites and adjusted the estimated useful life of certain satellites from 6 years to 9 years. Tell us the specific reasons for the significant 50% increase in the useful lives of these satellites. In doing so, tell us the average age of the impacted satellites at the time of the change in estimate and why the changes were not evident in an earlier period(s).
  - On pages 242-243, you disclose a decrease in depreciation due to your RapidEye satellite fleet reaching the end of its useful life in March 2020. Please confirm whether or not the RapidEye satellites are still in service.

14. Subsequent Events, page F-105

37. We note that during July 2021 you amended the terms of your 2020 Convertible Notes to provide for, among other things, the automatic conversion of the outstanding principal and accrued interest into shares of common stock immediately prior to the business combination. We note that you also amended the terms of your Venture Tranche B loans and the convertible preferred stock warrants issued to Venture Lending & Leasing, Inc. and that the amended terms appear to result in automatic conversion of the loans and warrants into common shares immediately prior to the business combination. Citing authoritative accounting literature as applicable, please tell us in sufficient detail how you have or will account for these modifications. To the extent that the amendments will
