About Us

Piecemeal Pies is a British inspired pie shop and local hard cider bar in White River Junction, VT. We specialize in savory meat pies, but really, we love our vegetables and sweets just as much.

Using local, organic, and seasonal ingredients is what we're all about, so we work with farmers to make sure we always have the best vegetables, fruits, and meats possible. We believe that starting with exceptional ingredients grown and raised by people we know, and committing to quality all along the way makes for the tastiest pies. We want to make food that's delicious for the community we love. And we want to offer the best cider around.

OUR STORY

Piecemeal Pies is a British inspired pie shop and local hard cider bar. Our flagship location is in White River Junction, VT. We are building our second location in the bustling resort town of Stowe, VT!

Our MISSION: Using local, organic, and seasonal ingredients is what we're all about, so we work with farmers to make sure we always have the best vegetables, fruits, and meats possible. We believe that starting with exceptional ingredients grown and raised by people we know, and committing to quality all along the way makes for the tastiest pies. We want to make food that's delicious for the community we love. The FOOD: We strive to serve exceptional Michelin-star quality food in an approachable comfortable atmosphere. Our concept and style are completely unique, and we know it will be a crave-able addition to Vermont, while drawing attention from greater New England. Favorites include Rabbit & Bacon Pie, Smoked Trout & Sweet Corn Chowder, Earl Grey Lavender Sticky Toffee Pudding, and many more. Our "Boozy Brunch" has become a huge hit in the Upper Valley, and we are excited to bring Spiced Cider Mimosas and Fried Rabbit & Waffles to Stowe.

The SPACE: Justin is an architect by trade, and he worked in offices in Portland Oregon before embracing the restaurant world over a decade ago. We are in the business of creating exciting experiences and human connections. We believe the space and atmosphere are crucial to that goal. The new location is in a centuries-old red carriage barn on the green in downtown Stowe. We are in the process of completely renovating the interior with large picture windows, pine beams, and a new outdoor seating deck. The space will be bright and vibrant, with plenty of sunlight, white walls, marble tables, and accents of blue and copper. We are taking extreme care in building a Covid-safe restaurant with air purifiers and large operable windows. See the images below for our past restaurant designs and new inspirations!! THE TEAM

Justin Barrett
Chef/Co-Owner

Chef/Owner Justin Barrett arrived in Vermont in 2010. After graduating from the University of Oregon with a degree in architecture, Justin decided to embrace his love of cooking and move to NYC where he worked at April Bloomfield's Michelin-rated The Spotted Pig and designed and built the Lower East Side's The Fat Radish. Leaving the city, Justin came to Vermont looking for a change of pace, and an opportunity to get back to the proverbial land. He wanted to learn to grow his own food, slaughter his own animals, and to do what he loves most: bring people together over delicious food.

In 2012, Justin spent a year in Maine designing and opening Saltwater Farm at Union Hall as head chef. But he had fallen in love with Vermont in general, and with White River Junction in particular, so he returned home to the Upper Valley. His contribution to the community is Piecemeal Pies – an amalgamation of the experiences, values, and tastes that have shaped his view of just how good rural dining can be.

Josh Brown
Co-Owner

Joshua Brown has been a partner since day one. He has managed some of the busiest restaurants in Florida, upholding exceptional service standards. He brings a vast knowledge of quality service combined with a keen eye for aesthetics, efficient processes and procedures, and replicable systems to ensure consistency financial success.

Here's what some people have said about us over the years:

"Worth getting off I-91" "You know that feeling when you are really really hungry but the thought of a diner or fast food makes you speed a little faster to get to more familiar territory? So, if you're headed north through New England, stop in White River Junction and come hungry. This place is world class — a funky little unpretentious place with a menu that is out of this world... The empanadas, the quiche, the incredibly fresh salads, the inventive fresh sodas, the eggs on polenta... Oh and biscuits? Oh my god they are beyond expectations. Yum! Don't get me started on dessert but pie and or warm cookies... so it may not seem like a low cal spot, but the food feels good. Well made, inventive, filling and so so so worth an hour off the interstate." —TripAdvisor review from a happy brunch customer

Here's what some people have said about us over the years:

"My favorite place to go for lunch in white river! The meat and veggie pies are delicious and the salads are fresh and flavorful. I also appreciate this establishment's commitment to hosting community events and contributing to the livelihood of downtown culture and nightlife:))"

Here's what some people have said about us over the years:

"The most amazing food I've had in the area...very refreshing to see and welcome culture! Excellent rotation of sweets, yummy coffee, delicious food."

Here's what some people have said about us over the years:

"Piecemeal has the BEST biscuits ever. Paired with their "dirty chai latte" it's the perfect brunch. Such a great vibe here, the perfect downtown cafe!"

Piecemeal Pies: Pastry Perfection

It takes three days to make a proper meat pie. Perfection cannot be rushed. Justin Barrett has spent years developing and tweaking his British-inspired meat pies, and he can wax rhapsodic about the virtues of a hot water butter crust. "Because it's not flaky, the crust holds together and doesn't sog out with the filling." And that little hole cut into the top crust of each pie? It's not just for steam to escape. "After the pie has baked, I pour some of the braising liquid back in so the filling stays tender and moist."

Calculating pie in the Upper Valley: We sampled as many as we could

Last winter, in the interest of science, we here in the newsroom decided to seek out as many doughnuts as we could and write about them. We sampled and took notes and produced a reasonably thorough accounting of the local doughnut landscape. So in...

Accepting additional investments!

Hello all! There is additional room in this round of investment, so if you were looking to get in, now is the time!

We're meeting with the Architect tomorrow, April 16th, to go over the new and exciting additions, including a deck. All of this wouldn't be possible if it wasn't for everyone who showed support by investing in Main Street Vermont. Piecemeal is and will always be a community-based business.

This window for additional investment won't last long. If you or anyone you know is watching the Piecemeal Pies campaign, jump on this opportunity soon!

Piecemeal Pies is a attraction for Vermont vacations.

Special thanks to Carefree Quechee Vacations for the great feature!

Vermont is bursting back to life, in spring and in spirit. Quechee VT is centrally located between the beautiful quaint New England villages of Woodstock and Hanover. Convenient from Boston and New York, home of the Quechee Gorge and the Quechee Hot Air Balloon Festival, this vacation destination is 30 minutes from some of the best skiing and hiking. And it is only minutes away from Piecemeal Pies.

"During your stay in Vermont, you deserve to treat yourself to some tasty creations found over at Piecemeal Pies. This local pie shop is owned by Chef Justin Barrett and is inspired by the pie making experts of England. Not only will you find sweet pies that make for the perfect dessert but also savory meat and vegetable pies that are great for lunch or dinner."

Proud to be considered an attractive dining spot for vacationers. Imagine what we'll bring to the town of Stowe!

Happy π Pi-day!

3.14 March 14th is a baker's dorkiest excuse to eat pie, and we made a ton of fruit hand pies for the occasion.

*Blueberry Rhubarb with lemon glaze

*Sour Cherry Maple with maple glaze

Folks came to Piecemeal Pies during Sunday brunch, and if they said "Happy Pi-day" at the counter, they got a hand pi(e) for only $3.14 each. That's 30.2223% off!

Also online orders could redeem with coupon code PIDAY21 for the same sweet deal.

Sold 50 in a short time. Loving the community support!

Still going strong...

A huge thank you to everyone who has invested so far. We've reached our minimum goal!!! But we're not done yet. With every additional amount, we will be able to fund more of our project through MainVest. Which means more money to small business investors, not to high interest credit companies.

We are honored to be building something special with the help of individuals, not banks.

Thank you champions of Main Street!

FEBRUARY 21ST, 2021

A week in the life of pie making:

Farmer Phil of Vermont Rabbitry drove some fresh rabbits down from Glover, VT, and we sent him home with a large Tourtière for dinner. Adam butchered all 80 pounds of them yesterday. I taught Sarah how to butcher, then I seared the local bacon, caramelized the onions and garlic, made the thyme bundles, and reduced the stock and red wine today. And the amazing Josh drove all the way back to the shop at night to take the tender rabbit braise out of the oven.

Tomorrow we'll finish the filling with potatoes, carrots, fresh parsley and thyme, and port-soaked prunes. Then Chris will be making and filling the classic hot water crusts.

Talk about labor of love! It takes a village. We cannot wait to share these Rabbit & Bacon pies with Stowe!

Open third location in New England by [May, 2023]

Achieve [$2,000,000] revenue per year by [2023].

Other outstanding debt or equity

As of [01.20.21], Piecemeal Pies has debt of [$150,050] outstanding and a cash balance of [$36,540]. This debt is sourced primarily from [SBA] and will be senior to any investment raised on Mainvest. In addition to the Piecemeal Pies's outstanding debt and the debt raised on Mainvest, Piecemeal Pies may require additional funds from alternate sources at a later date.

Risk Factors

The Company Might Need More Capital

Piecemeal Pies's might need to raise more capital in the future to fund/expand operations, buy property and equipment, hire new team members, market its services, pay overhead and general administrative expenses, or a variety of other reasons. There is no assurance that additional capital will be available when needed, or that it will be available on terms that are not adverse to your interests as an investor. If Piecemeal Pies's is unable to obtain additional funding when needed, it could be forced to delay its business plan or even cease operations altogether.

Competition

The market in which we operate is highly competitive and could become increasingly competitive with new entrants in the market. Piecemeal Pies competes with many other businesses, both large and small, on the basis of quality, price, location, and customer experience. Changes in customer preference away from Piecemeal Pies's core business or the inability to compete successfully against the with other competitors could negatively affect Piecemeal Pies's financial performance.

Reliance on Management

As a securities holder, you will not be able to participate in Piecemeal Pies's management or vote on and/or influence any managerial decisions regarding Piecemeal Pies. Furthermore, if the founders or other key personnel of Piecemeal Pies were to leave Piecemeal Pies or become unable to work, Piecemeal Pies (and your investment) could suffer substantially.

Financial Forecasts Risks

The financial forecasts provided by us herein are reasonable forecasts by us based upon assumption of stable economic conditions and other various assumptions regarding operations. The validity and accuracy of these assumptions will depend in large part on future events over which Piecemeal Pies and the key persons will have no control. Changes in assumptions or their underlying facts could significantly affect the forecasts. To the extent that the assumed events do not occur, the outcome may vary significantly from the projected outcomes. Consequently, there can be no assurance that the actual operating results will correspond to the forecasts provided herein.

Inability to Sell Your Investment

The law prohibits you from selling your securities (except in certain very limited circumstances) for 12 months after you acquire them. Even after that one-year period, a host of Federal and State securities laws may limit or restrict your ability to sell your securities. Even if you are permitted to sell, you will likely have difficulty finding a buyer because there will be no established market. Given these factors, you should be prepared to hold your investment for its full term.

Changes in Economic Conditions Could Hurt Piecemeal Pies

Factors like global or national economic recessions, changes in interest rates, changes in credit markets, changes in capital market conditions, declining employment, changes in real estate values, changes in tax policy, changes in political conditions, and wars and other crises, among other factors are unpredictable and could negatively affect Piecemeal Pies's financial performance or ability to continue to operate. In the event Piecemeal Pies ceases operations due to the foregoing factors, it can not guarantee that it will be able to resume operations or generate revenue in the future.

COVID-19 Impact

The ongoing COVID-19 pandemic may impact the Company's ability to generate revenue and/or continue operations. If operations are ceased due to COVID-19 controls, the Company can not guarantee that it will resume operations in the future.

Limited Services

Piecemeal Pies operates with a very limited scope, offering only particular services to potential clients, making them vulnerable to changes in customer preferences.

Uninsured Losses

Although Piecemeal Pies will carry some insurance, Piecemeal Pies may not carry enough insurance to protect against all risks to the business. Additionally, there are some kinds of risks that are very difficult or impossible to insure against, at least at a reasonable cost. Therefore, Piecemeal Pies could incur an uninsured loss that could damage its business.

You Have a Limited Upside

Notes include a maximum amount you can receive. You cannot receive more than that even if Piecemeal Pies is significantly more successful than your initial expectations.

You Do Have a Downside

Conversely, if Piecemeal Pies fails to generate enough revenue, you could lose some or all of your money.

Subordination

The Notes shall be subordinated to all indebtedness of Piecemeal Pies to banks, commercial finance lenders, leasing and equipment financing institutions, and/or other institutions regularly engaged in the business of lending money.

Lack of Guaranty

The Notes are not personally guaranteed by any of the founders or any other person.

The Notes Are Unsecured and Uninsured

The Notes are not secured by any collateral, nor are they guaranteed or insured by the FDIC or any other entity.

Payments and Return Are Unpredictable

Because your payments are based on the revenue of Piecemeal Pies, and the revenue of Piecemeal Pies can go up or down (or even disappear altogether) unpredictably, it is impossible to predict how much you will receive and when. And because the payments are unpredictable, so is your ultimate return.

This information is provided by Piecemeal Pies. Mainvest never predicts or projects performance, and has not reviewed or audited this information. For additional information, review the official Form C filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission on the EDGAR website.

Hi, it says that you are no longer accepting funds. Is this correct, please let me know. Thanks Paul Sakash

Justin B. White River Junction, VT 2 months ago Piecemeal Pies Entrepreneur

Hi Paul, thank you so much for your interest. We were fortunate enough to reach our maximum target of $125,000 ahead of schedule! We have capped at this amount because the quarterly payback is within the budgeted leverage based on our projections. We will probably be launching another campaign in the future as new projects are realized!

John S. Stowe, VT 2 months ago

Hi Justin, thank you for your response, please keep me on your list and hopefully I will be able to help with your business.

Justin B. White River Junction, VT a month ago Piecemeal Pies Entrepreneur

Hello John, There is room for more investments now! I wanted to let you know first! Thank you for considering, and please let me know if you have any questions.

Christine G. Bridgewater Corners, VT 2 months ago

I invested because I love those little pies! I invested $300 twice, am I eligible for the $50 gift card?

Saw all the good reviews of your first location on Yelp. I am sure this new one will be a success too! I just invested and would like to invest more. I have 1 question. Since the location will open no later than July. And you will start payment once revenue comes in. I believe the document said the first repayment will be at least 90 days after the revenue comes in. So what is a realistic expectation for repayment? Will that be quarterly? thanks!

Justin B. White River Junction, VT 3 months ago Piecemeal Pies Entrepreneur

Hi Hong. Thanks for your support! Yes, the repayment is quarterly and your first payment is 90 days after Revenue begins to come in. We're super excited to be opening in Stowe!

I invested because I like to support local businesses and would like to see how well piecemeal pies is doing from day to day.

Quick questions - does the coffee for a year and coffee for life include both Stowe and WRJ locations? Also, what is the tentative opening date for the Stowe location?

Justin B. White River Junction, VT 3 months ago Piecemeal Pies Entrepreneur

Hi Scott. The coffee for a year and the coffee for life programs will be available at both locations and any future locations. Our opening date is scheduled to be right before June 1st or by the absolute latest July 1st. You can email me at Justin@piecemealvt.com if you would like to discuss further.

Hey Piecemeal! Great work on your first location! Can you share some financial results on 2020? Definitely a difficult year for the F&B space, but some high level numbers would be helpful. Thanks!
