First and foremost we would like to thank each and every investor for believing in our dream. The driving force is a love for all living beings, for community, culture and fellowship. Our hearts are filled with love and gratitude to our community. Every investment that came in took on the form of a big warm hug of support and encouragement.

"An individual has not started living until he can rise above the narrow confines of his individualistic concerns to the broader concerns of his race, his community, his country and his humanity." – Martin Luther King

The funds that you helped us raise through Mainvest will allow us to purchase equipment, furniture, fixtures for our first location in downtown Brockton. We are working closely with the city of Brockton's Redevelopment Authority for an infrastructure loan for the construction of our restaurant. The real construction started with this investment around us to support.

We have partnered up with various organizations here in Brockton and are scheduled at a few pop-up events to await the build out of the restaurant.

As a token of appreciation to the 101 investors that believed in our dream, we would like to host an honorary opening. We built it together, then we open up the doors together! We can proudly say that Cabo Vegan was built by the community. Not just the local community but also the vegan community and folks who simply support because those who invested and have a T-shirt perk coming, we are sending the T-shirts out this following week. Please provide your shirt and the address where we can ship it.

We would like to send out 101 hugs to all of our investors. Thank you again for believing in us! ❤️🙏 customer preferences.

Lack of Accounting Controls

Larger companies typically have in place strict accounting controls. Smaller companies typically lack these controls, which could result in additional risk.

Competition

The market in which we operate is highly competitive and could become increasingly competitive with new entrants. Cabo Vegan competes with many other businesses, both large and small, on the basis of quality, price, location, and customer preference away from Cabo Vegan's core business or the inability to compete successfully against competitors could negatively affect Cabo Vegan's financial performance.

Reliance on Management

As a securities holder, you will not be able to participate in Cabo Vegan's management or vote on and/or influence decisions regarding Cabo Vegan. Furthermore, if the founders or other key personnel of Cabo Vegan were to leave Cabo Vegan (and your investment) could suffer substantially.

Financial Forecasts Risks

The financial forecasts provided by us herein are reasonable forecasts by us based upon assumption of stability and various assumptions regarding operations. The validity and accuracy of these assumptions will depend in large part on Cabo Vegan and the key persons will have no control. Changes in assumptions or their underlying facts could result in the forecasts being materially different. To the extent that the assumed events do not occur, the outcome may vary significantly from the projected results. There can be no assurance that the actual operating results will correspond to the forecasts provided herein. Additionally, Cabo Vegan is a newly established entity and therefore has no operating history from which forecasts could be projected with any degree of certainty.

Inability to Sell Your Investment

The law prohibits you from selling your securities (except in certain very limited circumstances) for 12 months after the date of the offering. During that one-year period, a host of Federal and State securities laws may limit or restrict your ability to sell your securities. If you want to sell, you will likely have difficulty finding a buyer because there will be no established market. Given these restrictions, you may be forced to hold your investment for its full term.

The Company Might Need More Capital

Cabo Vegan might need to raise more capital in the future to fund/expand operations, buy property and equipment, enter new markets, market its services, pay overhead and general administrative expenses, or a variety of other reasons. There is no assurance that additional capital will be available when needed, or that it will be available on terms that are not adverse to your interests. If Cabo Vegan is unable to obtain additional funding when needed, it could be forced to delay its business plan or even cease operations.

Lack of Ongoing Information

Cabo Vegan will be required to provide some information to investors for at least 12 months following the offering, which is more limited than the information that would be required of a publicly-reporting company; and Cabo Vegan is not required to provide information in certain circumstances.

Uninsured Losses

Although Cabo Vegan will carry some insurance, Cabo Vegan may not carry enough insurance to protect against all risks. Additionally, there are some kinds of risks that are very difficult or impossible to insure against, at least at a reasonable cost. Cabo Vegan could incur an uninsured loss that could damage its business.

Changes in Laws

Changes in laws or regulations, including but not limited to zoning laws, environmental laws, tax laws, consumer protection laws, antitrust laws, and health care laws, could negatively affect Cabo Vegan's financial performance or ability to operate. Additional regulation on the industry could significantly negatively affect the business.

Conflict of Interest With Companies and Their Management

In many ways, your interests and the interests of Cabo Vegan's management will coincide: you both want Cabo Vegan to succeed. However, your interests might be in conflict in other important areas, including these: You might want Cabo Vegan to make sure they are best equipped to repay the Note obligations, while Cabo Vegan might prefer to spend money on other business. You would like to keep the compensation of managers low, while managers want to make as much money as possible.

Future Investors Might Have Superior Rights

If Cabo Vegan needs more capital in the future and takes on additional debt or other sources of financing, they might issue securities superior to yours. For example, they might have the right to be paid before you are, to receive larger distributions, to elect members to management, or otherwise.

The Company is Not Subject to the Corporate Governance Requirements of the National Securities Exchange Act

Any company whose securities are listed on a national stock exchange (for example, the New York Stock Exchange) is subject to rules about corporate governance that are intended to protect investors. For example, the major U.S. stock exchanges require companies to have an audit committee made up entirely of independent members of the board of directors (i.e., directors with no material relationships with Cabo Vegan or management), which is responsible for monitoring Cabo Vegan's compliance with these rules. Cabo Vegan is not required to implement these and other investor protections.

You Have a Limited Upside

Notes include a maximum amount you can receive. You cannot receive more than that even if Cabo Vegan is successful. Your initial expectations of return may not be realized.

Lack of Guaranty

The Notes are not personally guaranteed by any of the founders or any other person.

Limitation of Individual Rights in Event of Default

In the event of a default under the Notes, you will not be able to enforce your rights individually (for example, a representative will be appointed according to the procedures set forth in the Note Indenture. It's possible that the representative will do things you believe are wrong or misguided. If an event of default has occurred and a representative has been appointed, all of the representative's reasonable expenses must be paid before any further payments are made.

COVID-19 Impact

The ongoing COVID-19 pandemic may impact the Company's ability to generate revenue and/or continue operations. Due to COVID-19 restrictions, the Company can not guarantee that it will resume operations in the future.
