Presidents' Day Update from Rule G!

Greetings all!

Here is a quick progress update. My sons and I picked up about 60 kegs from Due South Brewing, which we are quickly filling up with equipment, including the glycol chiller, which arrived just after the New Year. I also met with the city to discuss figures and the bottom line for the buildout, as well as progress with obtaining permits from the City of this is progressing well despite the curveballs!

I am looking at starting another round of fund-raising here through Mainvest to cover the costs of the build-out to Rule G by the owner of our building.

Stay tuned and spread the word to anyone who wants to get in on the action! More to come, thanks

End of Year Report!

Greetings all, and Happy New Year!

I hope you have had fun with those you love over the Holidays! I wish you and yours all the best for 2022. Rule City of Coconut Creek regarding our building plans, and we have received favorable consideration from Broward County regarding our demolition permit, so we can start the build-out in earnest.

I expect our brewing equipment to arrive in mid-February, so stay tuned! Thanks again for your support! If you check out RuleGBrewingCompany.com.

December 15 Update!

Greetings Rule G Fans, here is the update from the Engineer's Seat:

Our architect, DBuiltek, is finalizing its package to present to the City of Coconut Creek for approval.

All the licensing paperwork is in; just playing the waiting game...

Our temporary insurance is bonded and in place.

I did our first report to SBA for the grant we received; I do not plan on spending money from that pool until the September 24 Update!

Greetings all!

Our architects are now in tandem with the manufacturer of our brewing equipment, and the plans/permitting process is earnest. This AWESOME new space in nearby Coconut Creek will afford us enough area for a central bar, as well as lounge and table space. I have been gathering up items from my railroad collection for decorating, as well as some the previous owner left us a LOT of furniture that we can use, along with several big screen TVs and a projector/bi

Our equipment should be ready to ship very soon. The shipping container crisis is gradually letting up. More in

September 14 Update for Rule G

Greetings all,

We are progressing! DBuiltek of Miami, our architect and contractor team, is in the process of finalizing their plans for the build out. I have completed the paperwork for our Federal and State licenses, and the applications are in process.

Our brewing equipment will be delayed now several weeks, into October, due to a shortage of shipping containers affecting shipping in many countries...so we will have to play along until we can secure a container. This will push it out a month...so looking now for November/December...in time for the Holidays, all things remaining equal.

Stay tuned friends, and thanks for your support!

New Property Update for Rule G Brewing!

Greetings all,

We have found what I hope to be the landing zone for Rule G Brewing Company. We are currently working with the owner to get permission to occupy a 2500 sq. ft. property that is ready for build-out...a completely clean slate! As mentioned, the property is ready to go...just need to find a place to land.

This location, for you locals, is in the West Creek shopping plaza, where the Duffy's is on Lyons and Hillsboro. It's the original location, and is still right in the middle of our target market. If this goes through, the owner has agreed to sell. Keep your fingers crossed, say a prayer, and hang on!

More to follow, thanks

Property update: Rule G Brewing Company

Greetings all,

Well, after 3 months of sparring with the City of Parkland, and the City Commission, it has become clear that this is no longer feasible. This is disappointing, especially since we had so much support from the City in the beginning. The City is not in favor of about the type of businesses it is willing to accept, since we adjoin a residential area.

Do not despair; I am currently looking for another...better...location within the Coral Springs/Coconut Creek area. The new location is in Parkland, only a mile or two down the road. With our equipment coming in September, I am still planning to open. Stay tuned!

June 23rd Update!

Hello investors and followers of Rule G Brewing!

We will be looking over one last proposal for an architect for the build out this coming Friday morning; the corner is located in Miami for those of you who wish to view their portfolio. Parkland City Commission will have a final review and changes in their code, allowing us to brew on site. After that, we can make a formal application to the planning commission and build-out.

We continue with bi-weekly meetings with the manufacturer of our brewing equipment; everything is on schedule.

Stay tuned folks!

Another progress update on Rule G!

Hello followers, investors and future patrons of Rule G Brewing Company!

Here's an update. We have several architects working on bids for our build out, which we would like to begin building. We are also working on the necessary licenses, insurance and permits. There are only 11 days left in our funding campaign to get interested in becoming a part of the dream, now is your chance! Our MAINVEST account stands at $40,700, just need to reach $50,000 to launch!

We have conference calls every two weeks with the manufacturer of our brewing equipment, which we are pleased to announce we have ordered a 4 by 10 barrel system that should meet the needs and demands of thirsty patrons. Stay tuned! We are launching in October!

Investors and Potential Investor Update: April 22

Hello again,

As you can tell, we have been moving a quick pace to get Rule G up and running. It's been exhilarating, perplexing, and a great experience! We appreciate those who have invested thus far, and encourage those of you who are considering we have done with our own funds to this point:

Secured a 5 year lease with Riverstone Shoppes in Parkland,

Have prepaid rent and security deposits down, and paid through November 1,

Ordered and placed the down payment on the SMARTBREW system, and Engaged a lawyer to assist with all the licensing requirements.

The money raised through MAINVEST, that is, through your kindness, is dedicated to the following major capital expenditures:

Purchase of kitchen and sanitizing equipment,

Purchase of CO2 system and walk in refrigerator,

Purchase and outfitting of tap system, and

General renovations and reconstruction at the site itself.

Your help is crucial...and it is mutually beneficial to you and to us. We anticipate success, but that success cannot come without you. Join us, if you haven't yet, on this adventure, and potentially lucrative business!

Thanks, more to come!

Summary of Terms

Legal Business Name Rule G Brewing Company

Investment Structure Revenue Sharing Note

Investment Multiple 1.5x

Business's Revenue Share 0.4%-3%

Minimum Investment Amount $400

Lack of Accounting Controls

Larger companies typically have in place strict accounting controls. Smaller companies typically lack these controls, which could result in additional risk.

Competition

The market in which we operate is highly competitive and could become increasingly competitive with new entrants. Rule G Brewing competes with many other businesses, both large and small, on the basis of quality, price, location, and customer preference away from Rule G Brewing's core business or the inability to compete successfully against the competition could affect Rule G Brewing's financial performance.

Reliance on Management

As a securities holder, you will not be able to participate in Rule G Brewing's management or vote on and/or in matters regarding Rule G Brewing. Furthermore, if the founders or other key personnel of Rule G Brewing were to leave or become unavailable to work, Rule G Brewing (and your investment) could suffer substantially.

Financial Forecasts Risks

The financial forecasts provided by us herein are reasonable forecasts by us based upon assumption of stable conditions and various assumptions regarding operations. The validity and accuracy of these assumptions will depend in large part on the success of Rule G Brewing and the key persons will have no control. Changes in assumptions or their underlying facts could significantly affect the extent that the assumed events do not occur, the outcome may vary significantly from the projected outcomes. We cannot provide assurance that the actual operating results will correspond to the forecasts provided herein. Additionally, Rule G Brewing is a new entity and therefore has no operating history from which forecasts could be projected with any certainty.

Inability to Sell Your Investment

The law prohibits you from selling your securities (except in certain very limited circumstances) for 12 months after the date of issuance. During this one-year period, a host of Federal and State securities laws may limit or restrict your ability to sell your securities. As a result, you will likely have difficulty finding a buyer because there will be no established market. Given these factors, you may not be able to sell your investment for its full term.

The Company Might Need More Capital

Rule G Brewing might need to raise more capital in the future to fund/expand operations, buy property and equipment, enter new markets, market its services, pay overhead and general administrative expenses, or a variety of other reasons. There is no assurance that additional capital will be available when needed, or that it will be available on terms that are not adverse to your interests as an investor. If Rule G Brewing cannot obtain additional funding when needed, it could be forced to delay its business plan or even cease operations.

Changes in Economic Conditions Could Hurt Rule G Brewing

Rule G Brewing will be required to provide some information to investors for at least 12 months following the offering, which is far more limited than the information that would be required of a publicly-reporting company; and Rule G Brewing will be required to provide annual information in certain circumstances.

Uninsured Losses

Although Rule G Brewing will carry some insurance, Rule G Brewing may not carry enough insurance to protect against all risks. Additionally, there are some kinds of risks that are very difficult or impossible to insure against, at least at a reasonable cost. Rule G Brewing could incur an uninsured loss that could damage its business.

Changes in Laws

Changes in laws or regulations, including but not limited to zoning laws, environmental laws, tax laws, consumer protection laws, antitrust laws, and health care laws, could negatively affect Rule G Brewing's financial performance or ability to operate. Any additional regulation on the industry could significantly negatively affect the business.

Conflict of Interest With Companies and Their Management

In many ways, your interests and the interests of Rule G Brewing's management will coincide: you both want Rule G Brewing to succeed. However, your interests might be in conflict in other important areas, including these: You might want Rule G Brewing to make sure they are best equipped to repay the Note obligations, while Rule G Brewing might prefer to spend money on other business. You would like to keep the compensation of managers low, while managers want to make as much as possible.

Future Investors Might Have Superior Rights

If Rule G Brewing needs more capital in the future and takes on additional debt or other sources of financing, there may be investors with rights superior to yours. For example, they might have the right to be paid before you are, to receive larger distributions, to have more say in management, or otherwise.

The Company is Not Subject to the Corporate Governance Requirements of the National Securities Exchanges

Any company whose securities are listed on a national stock exchange (for example, the New York Stock Exchange) is subject to corporate governance requirements that are intended to protect investors. For example, the major U.S. stock exchange requires an audit committee made up entirely of independent members of the board of directors (i.e., directors with no material relationship with Rule G Brewing or management), which is responsible for monitoring Rule G Brewing's compliance with the law. Rule G Brewing is not subject to these and other investor protections.

You Have a Limited Upside

Notes include a maximum amount you can receive. You cannot receive more than that even if Rule G Brewing increases in value beyond your initial expectations.

You Do Have Some Protections

The Notes are not personally guaranteed by any of the founders or any other person.

Limitation of Individual Rights in Event of Default

In the event of a default under the Notes, you will not be able to enforce your rights individually (for example, a representative will be appointed according to the procedures set forth in the Note Indenture. It's possible that the representative will do things you believe are wrong or misguided. If an event of default has occurred and a representative is appointed, all of the representative's reasonable expenses must be paid before any further payments are made.

COVID-19 Impact

The ongoing COVID-19 pandemic may impact the Company's ability to generate revenue and/or continue operations. Due to COVID-19 restrictions, the Company can not guarantee that it will resume operations in the future.

This information is provided by Rule G Brewing. Mainvest never predicts or projects performance, and has not conducted an audit. For additional information, review the official Form C filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission on the company's website. This is a preview. Just invested as I believe the area needs this industry. Other breweries are 10+ miles away, too far to go & have walk home. :) Looking forward to grand opening & your brews!

Also, as an early investor, can I get any perks when I come in to the Brewery ... :-)

Ralph R. Parkland, FL 10 months ago Rule G Brewing Entrepreneur

Absolutely Prince and Melissa! We will take good care of you! Ralph and Vero :)

I invested because I believe that the Parkland community would strongly support a local brewery, I believe in s have passion for their craft and I want some place closer to home to go to, to enjoy craft beer with my friends.

Ralph R. Parkland, FL 10 months ago Rule G Brewing Entrepreneur

Thanks so much Melissa and Prince! We agree that Parkland is an "untapped"...pun intended...area. We live heri folks to come to. Thanks again! Ralph and Veronica

I'm interested in this project but wanted to ask first about the Financials forecast. You have Rent Expense at $2 Why so low? Tax break or do you own the property? Thanks!

Ralph R. Parkland, FL 10 months ago Rule G Brewing Entrepreneur

Hi Rick, Thanks for your interest! We are paid up through November 1, thanks to a landlord that gave us time to month; the figure you see here was from the original business plan that Mainvest downloaded. Also, I built sala will not be taking salaries until things get moving. Thanks again, Ralph OMG Annette and Tyler!!! Vero and I appreciate this so very much!!! Can't wait until we open!

Noreen P. Miramar, FL 11 months ago

I invested because I believe that a railroad centered brewery will be a phenomenal hit. Also, I personally know has the leadership and expertise to pull this off.

Ralph R. Parkland, FL 11 months ago Rule G Brewing Entrepreneur

Thanks so much Noreen! Vero and I appreciate your confidence and friendship!

LON I. Cheshire, CT about 1 year ago

Hello. Is the business doing any sales now. Who will run the business and be there on site? How much money i data, by yourselves or any other friends/ family

Ralph R. Parkland, FL about 1 year ago Rule G Brewing Entrepreneur

Hello Lon! Thanks for your inquiry. I will be on site, as well as my wife and a couple of select family members. V business manager to assist. Total investment is about 250K; we are almost halfway there. Cheers Ralph

LON I. Cheshire, CT about 1 year ago

Hi. Of the $250k how much is your capital. You can give a percentage

Ralph R. Parkland, FL 12 months ago Rule G Brewing Entrepreneur

Hi Lon; forgive the delay, I was traveling on RR business this week. I plan to put up 25-30% myself. I have a lot planning to invest as well. Thanks again!

Ralph R. Parkland, FL 12 months ago Rule G Brewing Entrepreneur

Hi Lon, forgive the delay. I am a real railroader and was away on business. I will put up 25-30%

LON I. Cheshire, CT 12 months ago

Ok i am in
