0:44

micro brewery and restaurant here in 0:46

Coconut Creek Florida I'm a Korea

0:48

Railroader myself I'm a locomotive

0:50

engineer by trade at this point in time

0:52

we're in the process of getting ready

0:54

for our build out we have a 2 800 square

0:56

foot facility that is here in Coconut

0:59

Creek Florida in a very well frequented

1:01

Plaza there are no microbreweries here

1:04

this would be the first one in Coconut

1:06

Creek my Brew manager is also a

1:08

locomotive engineer he's got over 11

1:10

years experience of home brewing the 1:12

beer is going to be fairly eclectic

1:14

we're looking at a facility that's going

1:17

to hold about 80 people we will have our

1:19

own in-house menu we plan on having live

1:22
music we plan on having special events
1:24
we're going to have a fairly generous 1:26
outside area that folks can sit at room
1:28
for like maybe six tables or so

1:41
this is going to be a neighborhood
1:42
project it's a very beautiful area
1:44
Coconut Creek where the butterfly
1:46
capital of the world we want to make 1:48
this something that's fun I think people 1:50
are tired of the homogenized experience
1:53
of retail anymore this particular 1:55
project I believe it's going to succeed
1:57
beyond my expectation considering what 1:59
I've been receiving as far as feedback
2:01
from the local area et cetera we've got 2:03
a lot of support here and we'd like you 2:05
to be part of the team
2:11
and we can make that
