NOTE 1 - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Organization

M.J. GROSSNICKLE, LLC (the “Company”) was formed for the purpose of doing business as a Capital Acquisition Broker; commercial operations commenced March 15th, 2022 following the acceptance of membership in the Financial Industries Regulatory Authority (“FINRA”). The Company engages in mergers & acquisition advisory and private placement of securities. It does not carry customer accounts, hold customer funds or securities or introduce accounts on a fully-disclosed basis to a clearing firm.

Use of estimates in the preparation of financial statements

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Revenue recognition

The Company follows ASU No. 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606). Revenue from contracts with customers includes fees from investment banking services. The recognition and measurement of revenue is based on the assessment of individual contract terms. Significant judgment is required to determine whether performance obligations are satisfied at a point in time or over time; how to allocate transaction prices where multiple performance obligations are identified; when to recognize revenue based on the appropriate measure of the Company's progress under the contract; and whether constraints on variable consideration should be applied due to uncertain future events. Revenue from these arrangements is recognized at a point in time, generally the closing date of the transaction. There was no revenue from investment banking services during 2022.

Revenue from contracts with customers includes advisory services on mergers and acquisitions (M&A) and private placement activities. The recognition and measurement of revenue is based on the assessment of individual contract terms. Significant judgment is required to determine whether performance obligations are satisfied at a point in time or over time; how to allocate transaction prices where multiple performance obligations are identified; when to recognize revenue based on the appropriate measure of the Company's progress under the contract; and whether constraints on variable consideration should be applied due to uncertain future events.

Revenue from these arrangements is recognized at a point in time, generally the closing date of the transaction. There was no revenue from advisory services during 2022. Revenue for M&A advisory arrangements is generally recognized at the point in time that performance under the arrangement is completed, generally the closing date of the transaction.

Income taxes

The Company is a limited liability company under the Internal Revenue Code. Because of this election, Federal income taxes are not provided for in the accompanying financial statements.

The Company considers any investment with a maturity of three months or less at date of purchase to be cash or cash equivalents. Cash and cash equivalents includes accounts which may, at times, exceed the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) insurance limits. At December 31, 2022, there were no accounts with balances that exceeded the FDIC limits.

Leases

Leases are accounted for in accounting for in accordance with ASC 842 Leases. The company has elected to apply short term lease exception to a term of one year or less. Lease expense under this agreement was $1,205 for 2022.

NOTE 2 - Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission "Uniform Net Capital Rule" (Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital at an amount equal to the greater of $5,000 or 6 2/3 % of aggregate indebtedness and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital not exceed 15 to 1.

SEC Rule 15c3-1 also provides that equity capital may not be withdrawn or cash dividends paid if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1. At December 31 , 2022, the Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was .01 to 1.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 3 - Subsequent Events

The Company has evaluated subsequent events through March 24, 2023. There were no subsequent events identified that would require recognition or disclosure in the financial statements.

NOTE 4 - Going Concern

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. These factors raise a degree of doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern beyond 2023. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.
