Limited Services

Proof Bar + Incubator operates with a very limited scope, offering only particular services to potential customers. Changes in customer preferences.

Lack of Accounting Controls

Larger companies typically have in place strict accounting controls. Smaller companies typically lack to additional risk.

Competition

The market in which we operate is highly competitive and could become increasingly competitive with time. Proof Bar + Incubator competes with many other businesses, both large and small, on the basis of quality, experience. Changes in customer preference away from Proof Bar + Incubator's core business or the entry of new competitors could negatively affect Proof Bar + Incubator's financial performance.

Reliance on Management

As a securities holder, you will not be able to participate in Proof Bar + Incubator's management or voting decisions regarding Proof Bar + Incubator. Furthermore, if the founders or other key personnel of Proof Bar + Incubator or become unable to work, Proof Bar + Incubator (and your investment) could be negatively affected.

Financial Forecasts Risks

The financial forecasts provided by us herein are reasonable forecasts by us based upon assumptions and other various assumptions regarding operations. The validity and accuracy of these assumptions will change over which Proof Bar + Incubator and the key persons will have no control. Changes in assumptions could significantly affect the forecasts. To the extent that the assumed events do not occur, the outcome may differ from the projected outcomes. Consequently, there can be no assurance that the actual operating results will be consistent with the projected outcomes herein. Additionally, Proof Bar + Incubator is a newly established entity and therefore has no operating history to be projected with.

Inability to Sell Your Investment

The law prohibits you from selling your securities (except in certain very limited circumstances) for 1 year after that one-year period, a host of Federal and State securities laws may limit or restrict your ability to sell. If you are permitted to sell, you will likely have difficulty finding a buyer because there will be no established market for your securities. You should be prepared to hold your investment for its full term.

The Company Might Need More Capital

Title III does not require us to provide you with all the information that would be required in some other public offering of shares (for example, publicly-traded firms must generally provide investors with financial statements that have been audited by an independent accounting firm). Although Title III does require us to provide information that you would make a different decision if you had more information.

Lack of Ongoing Information

Proof Bar + Incubator will be required to provide some information to investors for at least 12 months; the information is far more limited than the information that would be required of a publicly-reporting company and we are allowed to stop providing annual information in certain circumstances.

Uninsured Losses

Although Proof Bar + Incubator will carry some insurance, Proof Bar + Incubator may not carry enough insurance to cover all risks to the business. Additionally, there are some kinds of risks that are very difficult or impossible to insure at a reasonable cost. Therefore, Proof Bar + Incubator could incur an uninsured loss that could damage its business.

Changes in Laws

Changes in laws or regulations, including but not limited to zoning laws, environmental laws, tax laws, labor laws, antitrust laws, and health care laws, could negatively affect Proof Bar + Incubator's financial performance and ability to operate. Specifically, any additional regulation on the industry could significantly negatively affect the business.

Conflict of Interest With Companies and Their Management

In many ways, your interests and the interests of Proof Bar + Incubator's management will coincide: we want the business to be as successful as possible. However, your interests might be in conflict in other important areas. For example, Proof Bar + Incubator may want to act conservative to make sure they are best equipped to repay the Note obligations, while you might prefer to spend aggressively to invest in the business. You would like to keep the compensation low, while we want to make as much as they can.

Future Investors Might Have Superior Rights

If Proof Bar + Incubator needs more capital in the future and takes on additional debt or other sources of financing, future investors might have rights superior to yours. For example, they might have the right to be paid before you are paid, or have a greater voice in management, or otherwise.

The Company is Not Subject to the Corporate Governance Requirements of the National Securities Exchange Act

Any company whose securities are listed on a national stock exchange (for example, the New York Stock Exchange) is subject to a set of rules about corporate governance that are intended to protect investors. For example, the major U.S. stock exchanges have rules that require companies to have independent directors on their boards, to disclose certain information to investors, and to follow certain procedures for electing and removing directors. Proof Bar + Incubator is not subject to these rules.
