2. Please clarify your disclosures whether or not you are required to obtain an opinion from an independent investment banking firm if you engage in a business combination with an affiliated entity. For example, on page 9 you indicate that you would obtain an opinion in such a scenario only "if required by applicable law or based upon the determination of our board of directors or a committee," whereas other disclosures imply that you are required to obtain such an opinion anytime a business combination is with an affiliated company.
