Item 1. Description of Business

General

Matters discussed in this document may constitute forward-looking statements. The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 provides safe harbor protections for forward-looking statements in order to encourage companies to provide prospective information about their businesses. Forward-looking statements include statements concerning plans, objectives, goals, strategies, future events or performance, and underlying assumptions and other statements, which are other than statements of historical facts.

Aberdeen Mining Company desires to take advantage of the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 and is including this cautionary statement in connection with this safe harbor legislation. This document and any other written or oral statements made by us or on our behalf may include forward-looking statements, which reflect our current views with respect to future events and financial performance. The words “believe,” “expect,” “anticipate,” “intends,” “estimates,” “forecast,” “project” and similar expressions identify forward-looking statements.

The forward-looking statements in this document are based upon various assumptions, many of which are based, in turn, upon further assumptions, including without limitation, management’s discussion and analysis or plan of operations and elsewhere in this report. Although we believe that these assumptions were reasonable when made, these statements are not guarantees of future performance and are subject to certain risks, uncertainties and other factors, some of which are beyond our control, are difficult to predict and could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed or forecasted in the forward-looking statements. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which reflect our management’s view only as of the date of this report.

History

Aberdeen Idaho Mining Company (the “Company”) was incorporated on April 26, 1946, under the laws of the State of Idaho. The Company was organized to explore for, acquire and develop mineral properties in the State of Idaho. The initial and subsequent efforts in the acquisition, exploration and development of potentially viable and commercial mineral properties were unsuccessful. During the past several years the Company’s activities have been confined to annual assessment and maintenance work on its Idaho mineral properties and other general and administrative functions. At the date hereof, the Company owns no mineral interests, rights or claims and has no active business operations.

In 2003, the Company merged into its wholly-owned Nevada subsidiary, and changed its corporate domicile from the State of Idaho to the State of Nevada. The name of the Company was also changed from Aberdeen Idaho Mining Company to Aberdeen Mining Company.

In June 2002, the Board of Directors of the Company elected to commence implementation of the Company’s principal business purpose, described below under “Item 2, Management’s Discussion and Analysis or Plan of Operation” and to proceed with filing a Form 10-SB to register under the Exchange Act of 1934 (the “Exchange Act”). At this time the Company’s business plan is to locate and consummate a merger or acquisition with a private entity.

Risk Factors

The Company's business is subject to numerous risk factors, including the following:

Independent Certified Public Accountants' Opinion - Going Concern

The Company's financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002, were audited by the Company's independent certified public accountants, whose report includes an explanatory paragraph stating that the financial statements have been prepared assuming the Company will continue as a going concern and that the Company has incurred significant operating losses that raise substantial doubt about its ability to continue as a going concern.

No Revenue and Minimal Assets

The Company has had no revenues or earnings from operations. The Company has no significant assets or financial resources. The Company will, in all likelihood, sustain operating expenses without corresponding revenues, at least until the consummation of a business combination. This may result in our incurring a net operating loss which will increase continuously until we can consummate a business combination with a profitable business opportunity. There is no assurance that we can identify such a business opportunity and consummate such a business combination.

Speculative Nature of Company's Proposed Operations

The success of the Company's proposed plan of operation will depend, to a great extent, on the operations, financial condition and management of the identified business opportunity. While management intends to seek business combinations with entities having established operating histories, there can be no assurance that the Company will be successful in locating candidates meeting such criteria. In the event that the Company completes a business combination, of which there can be no assurance, the success of operations may be dependent upon management of the successor firm or venture partner firm and numerous other factors beyond the Company's control.

Scarcity of and Competition for Business Opportunities and Combinations

The Company is and will continue to be an insignificant participant in the business of seeking mergers with, joint ventures with and acquisitions of small private entities. A large number of established and well-financed entities, including venture capital firms, are active in mergers and acquisitions of companies which may be desirable target candidates for us. Nearly all such entities have significantly greater financial resources, technical expertise and managerial capabilities than Aberdeen Mining Company and, consequently, the Company will be at a competitive disadvantage in identifying possible business opportunities and successfully completing a business combination. Moreover, the Company will also compete in seeking merger or acquisition candidates with numerous other small public companies.

Continued Management Control, Limited Time Availability

While seeking a business combination, management anticipates devoting up to twenty hours per month to the business of the Company. The Company's officers have not entered into written employment agreements with the Company and are not expected to do so in the foreseeable future. The Company has not obtained key man life insurance on any of its officers or directors. Notwithstanding the combined limited experience and time commitment of management, loss of the services of any of these individuals would adversely affect development of the Company's business and its likelihood of continuing operations.

Conflicts of Interest – General

The Company's officers and directors participate in other business ventures which compete directly with the Company. Additional conflicts of interest and non-arms length transactions may also arise in the future in the event the Company's officers or directors are involved in the management of any firm with which the Company transacts business.

Lack of Market Research or Marketing Organization

The Company has neither conducted, nor have others made available to it, results of market research indicating that market demand exists for the transactions contemplated by the Company. Even in the event demand is identified for a merger or acquisition contemplated by the Company, there is no assurance the Company will be successful in completing any such business combination.

Probable Change in Control and Management

A business combination involving the issuance of the Company's stock will, in all likelihood, result in shareholders of a private company obtaining a controlling interest in the Company. The resulting change in control of the Company will likely result in removal of one or more present officers and directors and a corresponding reduction in or elimination of their participation in the future affairs of the Company.

Reduction of Percentage Share Ownership Following Business Combination

The Company's primary plan of operation is based upon a business combination with a private concern which, in all likelihood, would result in the Company issuing securities to shareholders of such private company. The issuance of previously authorized and unissued common stock of the Company would result in reduction in percentage of shares owned by present and prospective shareholders of the Company and would most likely result in a change in control or management of the Company.

Requirement of Audited Financial Statements May Disqualify Business Opportunities

Management of the Company believes that any potential business opportunity must provide audited financial statements for review, and for the protection of all parties to the business combination. One or more attractive business opportunities may choose to forego the possibility of a business combination with the Company, rather than incur the expenses associated with preparing audited financial statements.

Employees

The Company has no paid employees. None of the Company's executive officers are employed by the Company. Management services are provided on an "as needed" basis without compensation, generally less than five hours per week. The Company has no oral or written contracts for services with any member of management.

There is no preliminary agreement or understanding existing or under contemplation by the Company (or any person acting on its behalf) concerning any aspect of the Company's operations pursuant to which any person would be hired, compensated or paid a finder's fee.

Item 2. Description of Properties

The Company had no properties at December 31, 2003. The Company presently operates out of the office of one of its shareholders, Terry Dunne. The office space is provided rent free to the Company.

Item 3. Legal Proceedings

None

Item 4. Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders

On December 4, 2003, the Company held a shareholders' meeting to merge the Company with its wholly Nevada owned subsidiary and elect five directors. In regard to the shareholders' vote for the merger, the results were as follows:

Votes FOR the merger:	7,521,791
Votes AGAINST the merger:	3,250
Abstained:	2,650

The directors were elected by the following votes:

Martyn A. Powell	7,878,565
Robert W. O'Brien	7,875,065
Dale B. Lavigne	7,878,565
Dennis O'Brien	7,878,565
James F. Etter	7,878,065

PART II

Item 5. Market for Common Equity and Related Stockholder Matters

The Company's common stock is listed on the Over the Counter Bulletin Board and is traded under the symbol, "ABED." The following table sets forth the range of high and low closing sale prices for the Company's common stock. Such over-the-counter market quotations reflect inter-dealer prices, without retail mark-ups, mark-downs or commissions and may not represent actual transactions.

	2002		2003
	High	Low	High	Low
First Quarter	.085	.05	.04	.04
Second Quarter	.05	.05	.04	.04
Third Quarter	.05	.05	.04	.04
Fourth Quarter	.10	.03	.14	.06

The approximate number of record holders of common stock at February 9, 2004 is 548.

No dividends have been paid or declared by the Company during the last five years; and the Company does not anticipate paying dividends on its common stock in the foreseeable future. Instead, the Company expects to retain its earnings for the operation and expansion of its business.

There have been no sales of unregistered securities during 2003.

Item 6. Management's Discussion and Analysis or Plan of Operations

General

Certain matters discussed are forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties including changing market conditions and the regulatory environment and other risks. Actual results may differ materially from those projected. These forward-looking statements represent the Company's judgment as of the date of this filing. The Company disclaims, however, any intent or obligation to update these forward-looking statements.

Plan of Operations

The Company's purpose is to seek, investigate and, if such investigation warrants, acquire an interest in business opportunities presented to it by persons or firms who or which desire to seek the perceived advantages of an Exchange Act registered corporation. The primary method the Company will use to find potential merger or acquisition candidates will be to run classified ads seeking companies, which are looking to merge with a public shell. The Company has no recurring revenue from operating activities and plans to fund its future operations through additional sales of its common stock, although there can be no assurances the Company will be able to continue sell its common stock.

Management of the Company, while not especially experienced in matters relating to the new business of the Company, will rely primarily upon their own efforts to accomplish the business purposes of the Company. It is not anticipated that any outside consultants or advisors, other than the Company's legal counsel and accountants, will be utilized by the Company to effectuate its business purposes described herein.

As of December 31, 2003, the Company had $33,640 in cash and $649 in accounts payable. Management believes that the Company has adequate cash in order to pay all necessary expenses for 2004. An estimate of 2004 expenses is as follows: Legal $7,000; Accounting $11,000; Transfer agent $600; Shareholders' Meeting $2,800 and miscellaneous $500. At this time management has no plans to issue additional shares of common stock for cash.

Item 7. Financial Statements

Report of Independent Certified Public Accountants

Board of Directors
Aberdeen Mining Company

We have audited the accompanying balance sheets of Aberdeen Mining Company (“the Company”) as of December 31, 2003 and 2002, and the related statements of operations, stockholders’ equity, and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company’s management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Aberdeen Mining Company as of December 31, 2003 and 2002, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. As discussed in Note 1 to the financial statements, the Company's operating losses raise substantial doubt about its ability to continue as a going concern. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

Aberdeen Mining Company

Notes to Financial Statements

1. Description of Business

Aberdeen Mining Company ("the Company") is a Nevada corporation, and the successor of Aberdeen Idaho Mining Company, an Idaho corporation that was incorporated on April 26, 1947. The Company was organized to explore for, acquire and develop mineral properties in the State of Idaho. During the past several years the Company's activities have been confined to annual assessment and maintenance work on its Idaho mineral properties and other general and administrative functions.

In 2003, the Company merged into its wholly-owned Nevada subsidiary and changed its corporate domicile from the State of Idaho to the State of Nevada. Throughout this report reference to "the Company" may include the Idaho corporation prior to the merger and the Nevada corporation subsequent to the merger.

The Company has incurred losses since its inception and has no recurring source of revenue. These conditions raise substantial doubt as to the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. Management's plans for the continuation of the Company as a going concern include financing the Company's operations through sales of its unregistered common stock and the eventual acquisition of an entity with profitable business operations. There are no assurances, however, with respect to the future success of these plans. The financial statements do not contain any adjustments, which might be necessary, if the Company is unable to continue as a going concern.

Unless otherwise indicated, amounts provided in these notes to the financial statements pertain to continuing operations.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Use of Estimates

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Income Taxes

Income taxes are recognized in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes," whereby deferred income tax liabilities or assets at the end of each period are determined using the tax rate expected to be in effect when the taxes are actually paid or recovered. A valuation allowance is recognized on deferred tax assets when it is more likely than not that some or all of these deferred tax assets will not be realized. At December 31, 2003 and 2002, the Company had recorded no net deferred tax assets or liabilities and recognized no income tax provision as it had no taxable income for the years then ended.

Aberdeen Mining Company
Notes to Financial Statements

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies, Continued:

Net Loss Per Share

Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 128, "Earnings per Share," requires dual presentation of basic earnings per share ("EPS") and diluted EPS on the face of all income statements issued after December 15, 1997 for all entities with complex capital structures. Basic EPS is computed as net income divided by the weighted average number of both classes of common shares outstanding for the period. Diluted EPS reflects the potential dilution that could occur from common stock equivalents such as common shares issuable through stock options, warrants and other convertible securities. At December 31, 2003 and 2002, the Company had no outstanding common stock equivalents, and only basic EPS is reported for the years then ended.

Reclassifications

Certain reclassifications have been made to conform prior year's data to the current presentation. These reclassifications had no effect on previously reported results.

Fair Values of Financial Instruments

The carrying amounts of financial instruments including cash and accounts payable, approximated their fair values as of December 31, 2003 and 2002.

Environmental Matters

The Company has owned property interests on certain public lands in Idaho on which it has explored for commercial mineral deposits. The Company and its properties have been subject to a variety of federal and state regulations governing land use and environmental matters. The Company's management believes it has been in substantial compliance with all such regulations, and is unaware of any pending action or proceeding relating to regulatory matters that would affect the financial position of the Company.

New Accounting Pronouncements

In April 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 145, "Rescission of SFAS Statements No. 4, 44, and 64, Amendment of SFAS No. 13, and Technical Corrections." This statement culminates the current requirements that gains and losses on debt extinguishment must be classified as extraordinary items in the income statement. Instead, such gains and losses will be classified as extraordinary items only if they are deemed to be unusual and infrequent, in accordance with the current GAAP criteria for extraordinary classifications. In addition, SFAS No. 145 eliminates an inconsistency in lease accounting by requiring that modifications of capital leases that result in reclassification as operating leases be accounted for consistent with sales-leaseback accounting rules. The statement also contains other nonsubstantive corrections to authoritative accounting literature. The rescission of SFAS No. 4 is effective in fiscal years beginning after May 15, 2002. The amendment and technical corrections of SFAS No. 13 are effective for transactions occurring after May 15, 2002. All other provisions of SFAS No. 145 are effective for financial statements issued on or after May 15, 2002. SFAS No. 145 has no impact on the Company's financial statements.

In June 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 146, "Accounting for Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities," which addresses accounting for restructuring and similar costs. SFAS No. 146 supersedes previous accounting guidance, principally Emerging Issues Task Force Issue No. 94-3. SFAS No. 146 requires that the liability for costs associated with an exit or disposal activity be recognized when the liability is incurred. SFAS No. 146 also establishes that the liability should initially be measured and recorded at fair value. Accordingly SFAS No. 146 may affect the timing of recognizing future restructuring costs as well as the amount recognized. The provisions of SFAS 146 are effective for exit or disposal activities that are initiated after December 31, 2002. SFAS No. 146 has no impact on the Company's financial statements.

In August 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 147, "Acquisitions of Certain Financial Institutions." SFAS No. 147 removes acquisitions of financial institutions from the scope of SFAS No. 72 and FASB Interpretation No. 9, and requires that those transactions be accounted for in accordance with SFAS No. 141 and SFAS No. 142. In addition, SFAS No. 147 amends SFAS No. 144, to include in its scope long-term customer-relationship intangible assets of financial institutions. The provisions of SFAS No. 147 are generally effective October 1, 2002. SFAS No. 147 has no impact of the Company's financial statements.

In October 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 147, "Acquisitions of Certain Financial Institutions-an amendment of FASB Statements No. 72 and 144 and FASB Interpretation No. 9." SFAS No. 147 has no impact on the Company's financial statements.

In November 2002, the FASB issued FASB Interpretation No. 45, "Guarantor's Accounting for Disclosure Requirements for Guarantees, Including Indirect Guarantees of Indebtedness of Others, an interpretation of FASB Statements No. 5, 57 and 107 and rescission of FASB Interpretation No. 34, Disclosure of Indirect Guarantees of Indebtedness of Others" ("FIN 45"). FIN 45 clarifies the requirements for a guarantor's accounting for and disclosure of certain guarantees issued and outstanding. It also requires a guarantor to recognize, at the inception of a guarantee, a liability for the fair value of the obligation undertaken in issuing the guarantee. This interpretation also incorporates without reconsideration the guidance in FASB Interpretation No. 34, which is being superseded. The adoption of FIN 45 has no material effect on the Company's financial statements.

In November 2002, the Emerging Issues Task Force ("EITF") reached a consensus on EITF 00-21, "Revenue Arrangements with Multiple Deliverables," related to the timing of revenue recognition for arrangements in which goods or services or both are delivered separately in a bundled sales arrangement. The EITF requires that when the deliverables included in this type of arrangement meet certain criteria they should be accounted for separately as separate units of accounting. This consensus is effective prospectively for arrangements entered into in fiscal periods beginning after June 15, 2003. EITF 00-21 will not have an impact upon initial adoption and is not expected to have a material impact on the Company's results of operations, financial position and cash flows.

In December 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 148, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation, Transition and Disclosure, an amendment of FASB Statement No. 123." SFAS No. 148 provides alternative methods of transition for an entity that voluntarily changes to the fair value based method of accounting for stock-based employee compensation. It also amends the disclosure provisions of SFAS No. 123 to require prominent disclosure about the effects of reported net income of an entity's accounting policy decisions with respect to stock-based employee compensation. Finally, this Statement amends APB Opinion No. 28, Interim Financial Reporting, to require disclosure about those effects in interim financial information. The amendments to SFAS No. 123, which provides alternative methods of transition for an entity that voluntarily changes to the fair value based method of accounting for stock-based employee compensation is effective for financial statements for fiscal years ending after December 15, 2002. The amendment to SFAS No. 123 relating to disclosures and the amendment to Opinion 28 is effective for financial reports containing condensed financial statements for interim periods beginning after December 15, 2002. Management does not intend to adopt the fair value accounting provisions of SFAS No. 123 and currently believes that the adoption of SFAS No. 148 will not have a material impact on the Company's financial statements.

In April 2003, the FASB issued SFAS No. 149, "Amendment of Statement 133 on Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities." This standard amends and clarifies the accounting for derivative instruments, including certain derivative instruments embedded in other contracts, and hedging activities under SFAS No. 133, "Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities." This statement is effective prospectively for contracts entered into or modified after June 30, 2003, and for hedging relationships designated after June 30, 2003. SFAS No. 149 will not have an impact upon initial adoption and is not expected to have a material effect on the Company's results of operations, financial position and cash flows.

In May 2003, the FASB issued SFAS No. 150, "Accounting for Certain Financial Instruments with Characteristics of both Liabilities and Equity." SFAS No. 150 establishes standards for the classification and measurement of certain financial instruments with characteristics of both liabilities and equity. The requirements of SFAS No. 150 become effective for the Company for financial instruments entered into or modified after May 31, 2003, and otherwise is effective at the beginning of the first interim period beginning after June 15, 2003. The Company has evaluated the impact of SFAS No. 150 to determine the effect it may have on its results of operations, financial position or cash flows and has concluded that the adoption of this statement is not expected to have a material effect on the Company's financial position or results of operations.

Notes to Financial Statements

3. Merger

Pursuant to a Plan of Merger adopted by the Company's board of directors on August 18, 2003, the Company merged with its wholly-owned subsidiary, Aberdeen Mining Company, a Nevada corporation. The merger was effected by a share-for-share exchange between the constituent corporations, and was subject to the approval of a majority vote of shareholders. On December 4, 2003, at an annual meeting of the shareholders, the merger was ratified and became effective upon the filing of the Articles of Merger with the states of Nevada and Idaho shortly thereafter.

4. Mineral Properties

Up until May 9, 2002, the Company's mineral property consisted of an unpatented mining claim located in the Yreka Mining District in Shoshone County, Idaho. In prior years, the Company believed it held claim to 16 other mining claims contiguous to its Yreka District property, but in 1999, the Bureau of Land Management ("BLM") notified the Company that its interest in these claims was null and void under the premise that the subject lands were never open to mineral entry. Although the Company disagrees with the BLM's decision and has vigorously contested it, no reversal of the BLM's position has occurred to date. In accordance with the provisions of Financial Accounting Standards Board Statement No. 121, "Accounting for the Impairment of Long-Lived Assets and for Long-Lived Assets to be Disposed Of," the Company reduced the carrying value of its mineral properties to zero during 1999.

In prior years, the Company held property interests in a group of mining claims located in Yreka Mining District in Shoshone County, Idaho, that included a mining property known as the Florence Mine. The Florence Mine is currently listed by the Environmental Protection Agency as a potential source of mine-related contamination based on the presence of a waste rock dump, with the potential for erosion. The Company has no record of operating any mining operation at the Florence mine site and has not received any notification of a pending action or proceeding against the Company relating to environmental damages it may be responsible for.

However, in recent years, certain other companies involved in mining activities on neighboring locations have been identified as potentially responsible parties under the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act of 1980, and have entered into consent decrees with the Environmental Protection Agency and the state of Idaho, concerning environmental remediation obligations and damages to or loss of natural resources in the Coeur d' Alene River Basin. During 2002, management engaged an environmental consultant to investigate the potential of the existence of a material liability to the Company resulting from all of its previously held mining properties, and determined that the existence of such is remote.

5. Income Taxes

Income taxes are recognized in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes," whereby deferred income tax liabilities or assets at the end of each period are determined using the tax rate expected to be in effect when the taxes are actually paid or recovered. A valuation allowance is recognized on deferred tax assets when it is more likely than not that some or all of these deferred tax assets will not be realized. The Company has not recorded an income tax provision for the years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002 as it has no taxable income. The Company has net operating loss carryforwards for income tax purposes of approximately $40,000 and $25,000, and an associated deferred tax asset of approximately $13,600 and $8,500, at December 31, 2003 and 2002, respectively. The net operating loss carryforwards will expire through 2023. The deferred tax assets have been fully reserved for as management believes it is more likely than not that the deferred tax assets will not be utilized.

6. Stockholders' Equity

Common Stock

At December 31, 2002, and years prior, the Company had one class of $0.10 par value common stock authorized and outstanding. During an annual meeting of shareholders held on December 4, 2003, a merger with the Company's wholly-owned Nevada subsidiary was ratified (see Note 3). Upon filing the Articles of Merger with the respective states, the merger became effective in December of 2003. The surviving corporation's capitalization authorizes 300,000,000 shares of $0.001 par value common stock for issue. In addition, a class of $0.001 par value preferred stock is also authorized with 100,000,000 shares available for issue. At December 31, 2003, no shares of preferred stock had been issued or were outstanding.

Private Placement

In March of 2002, the Company offered shares of its common stock for sale, in a private placement, to certain accredited investors. The offering, which was exempt from registration under the Securities Act of 1933 ("the Act") pursuant to Section 4(2) of the Act and Rule 506 of Regulation D, resulted in the sale of 3,000,000 shares of the Company's unregistered common stock for $0.03 per share, or $90,000. Net proceeds of $74,174 from the offering were used to fund general and administrative activities necessary to reestablish the Company's compliance with securities regulations and investigate potential business opportunities with other entities.

7. Related Party Transactions

During the years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002, the Company reimbursed a significant shareholder $163 and $7,857, respectively, for legal fees and other general and administrative costs paid by him on the Company's behalf. In addition, during the years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002, the Company paid an entity controlled by an officer and director of the Company $300 and $600, respectively, for stock quotation services.

7. Related Party Transactions, Continued:

Prior to 2002, the Company had advances and accounts payable due to related parties throughout much of its operating history. The related parties, to a large extent, have been business entities owned or controlled by H. F. Magnuson and his immediate family. H. F. Magnuson is a former officer and director of the Company, a shareholder of the Company and the father of John F. Magnuson, the Company's former legal counsel.

On May 9, 2002, the Company entered into a Purchase and Sale Agreement (the "Agreement") with Silver Eagle Mining Company ("Silver Eagle"), a company controlled by H. F. Magnuson. The Agreement provided for the sale of 100% of the Company's interest in its Yreka District mining property for $1.00 and Silver Eagle's agreement to indemnify and hold the Company harmless from any environmental or regulatory liabilities that may be related to the property. The Agreement was pursuant to a stock purchase agreement between H. F. Magnuson and a small group of private investors, whereby the investors agreed to purchase 3,500,000 shares of the Company's common stock held by Mr. Magnuson for $85,000. In connection with the sale of Mr. Magnuson's common stock, H. F. Magnuson and Company agreed to forgive accounts and advances payable of $41,434.

Item 8. Changes in and Disagreements with Accountants on Accounting and Financial Disclosure

None

Item 8A. Controls and Procedures

The Registrant's President and Principal Accounting Officer have evaluated the Registrant's disclosure controls and procedures within 90 days of the filing date of this annual report. Based upon this evaluation, the Registrant's President and Principal Accounting Officer concluded that the Registrant's disclosure controls and procedures are effective in ensuring that material information required to be disclosed is included in the reports that it files with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

There were no significant changes in the Registrant's internal controls or, to the knowledge of the management of the Registrant, in other factors that could significantly affect these controls subsequent to the evaluation date.

PART III

Item 9. Directors, Executive Officers, Promoters and Control Persons, Compliance with Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act (Continued):

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires the Company's officers and directors, and persons who own more than ten percent of a registered class of the Company's equity securities, to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"). Officers, directors and greater than ten percent shareholders are required by SEC regulation to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) forms which they file. Based solely on review of the copies of such forms furnished to the Company, or written representations that no Forms 5 were required, the Company believes that, during and with respect to the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003, all officers and directors complied with applicable Section 16(a) filing requirements.

Audit Committee

At December 31, 2003, the Company had not formed an audit committee or adopted an audit committee charter. In lieu of an audit committee, the Company's board of directors assumes the responsibilities that would normally be those of an audit committee. The Company plans to establish an audit committee during 2004.

Code Of Ethics

The Company has adopted a Code of Ethics that applies to the Company's executive officers. The Company will provide, without charge, a copy of the Code of Ethics on the written request of any person addressed to the Company at, Aberdeen Mining Company, 601 W. Main Ave., Suite 1017 Spokane, WA, 99201.

Item 10. Executive Compensation

No officer receives any compensation for services rendered to the Company. Directors receive no annual compensation nor attendance fees for servicing in such capacity.

Item 11. Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners and Management

A person who directly or indirectly has shares or voting power or investment power with respect to a security is considered a beneficial owner of the security. Voting power is the power to vote or direct the voting of shares and investment power is the power to dispose of or direct the disposition of shares. Shares as to which voting power or investment power may be acquired within 60 days are also considered as beneficially owned.

The following tables set forth certain information, as of February 9, 2004, regarding beneficial ownership of the Company's stock by (1) each person who is known to the Company to own beneficially more than 5% of any class of the Company's voting stock, and (2) (a) each director and each nominee for the election as a director of the Company, and (b) all current directors and current executive officers of the Company as a group.

The information on beneficial ownership in the table and the footnotes thereto is based upon the Company's records and, in the case of holders of more than 5% of the Company's stock, the most recent Forms 3 and 4 filed by each such person or entity and information supplied to the Company by such person or entity. Unless otherwise indicated, to the Company's knowledge each person has sole voting power and sole investment power with respect to the shares shown.

Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners

As of the close of business on February 9, 2004, based on information available to the Company, the following persons own beneficially more than 5% of any class of the outstanding voting securities of Aberdeen Mining Company.

ITEM 14. PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTANT FEES AND SERVICES

The Company's board of directors reviews and approves audit and permissible non-audit services performed by DeCoria, Maichel & Teague P.S., as well as the fees charged by DeCoria, Maichel & Teague P.S. for such services. In its review of non-audit service fees and its appointment of DeCoria, Maichel & Teague P.S. as the Company's independent accountants, the board of directors considered whether the provision of such services is compatible with maintaining DeCoria, Maichel & Teague P.S. independence. All of the services provided and fees charged by DeCoria, Maichel & Teague P.S. in 2003 were pre-approved by the board of directors.

Audit Fees

The aggregate fees billed by DeCoria, Maichel & Teague P.S. for professional services for the audit of the annual financial statements of the Company and the reviews of the financial statements included in the Company's quarterly reports on Form 10-QSB for 2003 and 2002 were $9,500 and $8,000, respectively, net of expenses.

Audit-Related Fees

There were no other fees billed by DeCoria, Maichel & Teague P.S. during the last two fiscal years for assurance and related services that were reasonably related to the performance of the audit or review of the Company's financial statements and not reported under "Audit Fees" above.

Tax Fees

The aggregate fees billed by DeCoria, Maichel & Teague P.S. during the last two fiscal years for professional services rendered by DeCoria, Maichel & Teague P.S. for tax compliance for 2003 and 2002 were $250 and $250, respectively.

All Other Fees

There were no other fees billed by DeCoria, Maichel & Teague P.S. during the last two fiscal years for products and services provided by DeCoria, Maichel & Teague P.S.

ABERDEEN MINING COMPANY CODE OF ETHICS

INTRODUCTION

"Quality and Integrity" has been part of Aberdeen Mining Company's (hereinafter called the Company) since inception. Truthfulness, honesty, fairness, to each other, our Company, and to our investors, customers and suppliers are the ethical standards by which we live and work. Each person who is an officer or director of the Company is a Company "associate" and has a responsibility to deal ethically in all aspects of the Company's business and to comply fully with all laws, regulations, and Company policies. Anyone who is employed by the Company is expected to assume the responsibility for applying these standards of ethical conduct. When in doubt any future employees will have the responsibility to seek clarification from the appropriate Company representative. (See Disclosure, Guidance and Approvals, below).

Each director, officer and employee of the Company is required to comply with this Code of Ethics.

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

A CONFLICT OF INTEREST EXISTS WHEN AN INDIVIDUAL'S PRIVATE INTEREST CONFLICTS WITH THE INTERESTS OF THE COMPANY. WHEN AN INDIVIDUAL'S LOYALTY TO THE COMPANY AND CONDUCT OF RESPONSIBILITIES AND DUTIES TOWARDS THE COMPANY IS PREJUDICED BY ACTUAL OR POTENTIAL BENEFIT FROM ANOTHER SOURCE A CONFLICT OF INTEREST EXISTS.

We are confident of the individual loyalty and honesty of our associates. Good relations with customers and suppliers and the integrity of our associates are critical sources of goodwill and absolutely necessary to our success. Associates should never be in a position where their personal interests or third parties inappropriately influence their judgment on Company matters.

No associate should be subject, or even reasonably appear to be subject, to influences, interests or relationships that conflict with the best interests of the Company. This means avoiding any activity that might compromise or seem to compromise the integrity of the Company or the associate. All associates shall avoid conflicts of interests in connection with the conduct of the Company's business except as expressly permitted by this Code.

Common Sources of Conflicts.

Although it is impossible to prepare a list of all potential conflict of interest situations, conflicts of interest generally arise in four situations:

- INTEREST OF ASSOCIATE - When an associate, a member of the associate's family or a trust in which the associate is involved, has a significant direct or indirect financial interest in, or obligation to, an actual or potential competitor, supplier, lender, service provider or customer of the Company;
- INTEREST OF RELATIVE - When an associate conducts business on behalf of the Company with a supplier or customer of which a relative by blood or marriage is a principal, partner, shareholder, officer, employee or representative;

- GIFTS - When an associate, a member of the employee's household, a trust in which the employee is involved, or any other person or entity designated by the employee, accepts gifts, credits, payments, services or anything else of more than token or nominal value from an actual or potential competitor, supplier or customer; and
- MISUSE OF INFORMATION - When employee misuses information obtained in the course of employment.

Specific Examples

While it is not possible to describe every situation, it is useful to consider a few examples in which clear conflicts of interest are present so that ground rules can be established:

- POSITION OF INFLUENCE - If an associate or a member of that associate's family has a significant financial or other beneficial interest in an actual or potential supplier or customer, the associate may not, without full disclosure and specific written clearance by appropriate Company representatives, influence decisions with respect to business with such supplier or customer. Such positions include situations where associates draw specifications for suppliers' raw materials, products or services; recommend, evaluate, test or approve such raw materials, products or services; or participate in the selection of, or negotiating arrangements with, suppliers.
- OTHER POSITIONS - It is expressly acceptable for individuals of this Company to serve as officers and directors of other companies at their discretion.

Advance Disclosure

Because conflicts of interest have the potential of serious abuse, all conflict of interest circumstances affecting any associate should be disclosed to the appropriate Company representative. While transactions affected by a conflict of interest must generally be avoided, there may be times when such transactions are nevertheless fair and appropriate and in the Company's best interest. An associate who believes a potential transaction that may be affected by a conflict of interest should nevertheless be pursued, must disclose all material terms of the proposed matter to the appropriate Company representative in advance. No such transaction may be pursued, however, unless it is approved in advance by the appropriate, duly authorized and disinterested officers of the Company, the board of directors or an appropriate committee thereof.

LAWFUL CONDUCT

All associates shall carry on the business of the Company in compliance with all applicable laws. Without limiting this obligation, the following conduct is prohibited:

- Employee theft, fraud, embezzlement, misappropriation, or any form of wrongful conversion of property belonging to the Corporation or another employee.
- Any act of fraud, deception or intentional misrepresentation against or involving the Corporation, a customer, a supplier or any other party.
- Any act of bribery, including a promise, offer or gift of money or anything of value made or offered by an employee to:

1. A government official or someone acting for the government; or
 2. A person employed by, or acting on behalf of, a customer, supplier or other organization with which the Corporation does business or has prospective business, (except in the case of certain permitted gifts described below).
- The destruction or alteration of Corporation records in order to falsify, conceal or misrepresent information for any purpose including any motivation to:
 1. Avoid criticism for errors of judgment or to conceal failure to follow a supervisor's instructions;
 2. Show a performance record better than, or different from, performance actually achieved; or
 3. Misrepresent the employee's performance, activities, or other transactions, or those of another employee.
 - Political contributions of money, services, or other property of the Corporation that are in violation of the law when the contributions are made.
 - Violations of securities laws rules or regulations, including concealment of information required to be disclosed in filings the Corporation makes with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

GIFTS

Associates and their families generally shall not solicit or accept gifts, fees, bequests, services or entertainment from customers, suppliers or prospective customers. A gift is regarded as any type of gratuity, favor, loan, legacy, fee, compensation, or anything of monetary value. All such gifts are prohibited except:

- Business entertainment and other courtesies such as meals, sporting events, and the like, that involves no more than ordinary amenities, and can be properly reciprocated by the employee and charged as a business expense. Lavish or extravagant entertainment, such as weekend trips, etc., should not be accepted unless full reimbursement is made by the recipient to the donor.
- Gifts received because of kinship, marriage, or social relationships and not because of any business relationship.
- Unsolicited advertising or promotional materials that are made widely available.
- Customer or supplier paid travel or lodging where the trip has a legitimate business purpose. Any such trips must be approved in advance in writing by an appropriate Company representative.
- Fees or other compensation received from an organization in which membership or an official position is held, subject to prior written approval by an appropriate Company representative.

Associates who believe that acceptance of a permitted gift might make them feel obligated and therefore improperly influenced in the performance of their duties should not accept it, or turn it over to the Company. Associates who are unsure whether a gift is a violation of the law and the Code, should seek guidance from an appropriate Company representative.

GIFTS (CONTINUED)

Likewise, no associate of the Company or members of his or her family may extend a gift to any existing or prospective customer or supplier that will not meet these same criteria.

MISUSE OF INFORMATION

No information obtained as a result of employment or association with the Company may be used for personal profit or as the basis for a "tip" to others unless the Company has made such information generally available to the public. This is true whether or not direct injury to the Company appears to be involved. The requirement is not limited to transactions relating to the Company stock but also applies to securities of any other company and includes any situation in which information may be used as the basis for unfair bargaining with an outsider. The public disclosure of confidential data and trade secrets relating to our business can have a material adverse effect on the Company and is prohibited.

CORPORATE OPPORTUNITIES. A CORPORATE OPPORTUNITY IS AN OPPORTUNITY USEFUL TO THE COMPANY THAT IS DISCOVERED THROUGH THE USE OF COMPANY PROPERTY, OPPORTUNITY OR POSITION AS A THE COMPANY ASSOCIATE.

Associates are prohibited from taking corporate opportunities for themselves. When an associate uses corporate property, corporate information or corporate position for personal gain, he or she is taking a corporate opportunity. You must use corporate opportunities only for advancing the legitimate business interests of the Company.

COMPLETE TRUTHFUL AND FULL DISCLOSURES IN PUBLIC FILINGS

The Company's filings made under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, such as quarterly and annual reports and proxy statements, are to contain all required disclosures. All such filings shall provide required information in a full, fair, accurate, timely, and understandable manner. The Company has procedures in place to achieve these goals with respect to securities reports and shareholder communications. Any employee who has concerns about the accuracy or adequacy of disclosures being made in these documents should feel free to contact the Chief Financial Officer. No employee shall engage in any conduct with the intent of impairing the Company's compliance with this provision.

ACCOUNTING MATTERS

The Company's financial statements and books and records on which they are based must accurately reflect all corporate transactions. All receipts and disbursements of corporate funds shall be promptly and properly recorded on the Company's books, and the Company's records must disclose the nature and purpose of the transactions. The Company's investors, creditors and other decision makers rely on its records and have a right to information which is timely and accurate.

- All employees shall cooperate fully with the independent auditors of the Company and under no circumstances withhold any information from them.
- A director, officer or employee may not maintain the Company's accounting or other records, or cause them to be maintained, in such a way that they do not reflect the true nature of transactions, account balances or other matters with clarity and completeness.
- A director, officer or employee may not establish for any purpose an unauthorized, undisclosed, or unrecorded fund or asset account involving Company assets.

- A director, officer or employee may not allow transactions with a supplier, agent, or customer to be structured or recorded in a way not consistent with normal business practice or generally accepted accounting principles.
- No false, incomplete, misleading or artificial entries or records shall be made on the books or records of the Company or its subsidiaries for any reason. The shifting of charges or costs to inappropriate accounts is prohibited.
- No payment on behalf of the Company shall be made or approved with the understanding that it will or might be used for something other than the stated purposes.
- No undisclosed or unrecorded corporate funds shall be established for any purpose, nor shall the Company funds be placed in any personal or noncorporate account.
- "Slush funds" or similar off-book accounts, where there is no accounting for receipts or expenditures on corporate books, are prohibited.

A system of internal accounting controls shall be maintained which is sufficient to provide reasonable assurances that transactions:

- are executed in accordance with management's authorization,
- are recorded in a manner that permits preparation of the Company's financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles and applicable regulations, and
- are recorded so as to maintain accountability for the Company's assets.

No officer or employee acting on behalf of the Company shall engage in any activity which circumvents or seeks to circumvent the Company's systems of internal controls.

DISCLOSURE, GUIDANCE AND APPROVALS

This Code permits or requires associates in various situations to disclose certain facts to, and seek guidance or obtain approval from "appropriate Company representatives".

For each associate, the "appropriate Company representative" is as follows:

- In the case of any non-officer employee, such employee's supervisor. If such employee has concerns regarding the supervisor's objectivity or independence with respect to the matter, the appropriate Company representative is the Chief Financial Officer.
- In the case of any officer or management employee (other than the CEO, President, CFO or Controller) the appropriate Company representative is the Chief Financial Officer. If such employee has concerns regarding the Chief Financial Officer's objectivity or independence with respect to the matter, the appropriate Company representative is the Chief Executive Officer or the President.
- In the case of the Chief Executive Officer, the President, the Chief Financial Officer or the Controller, and any director, the appropriate Company representative is the Chairman of the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors or, if the Chairman so determines, the full Audit Committee.

These are the persons associates should contact to seek guidance, to clarify issues and to obtain confirmation that a particular course of conduct or transaction is permissible or impermissible under this Code. The Audit Committee has adopted separate procedures for employees to report concerns they may have regarding financial reporting abuses, illegality or violations of this Code on a confidential basis. The Company Corporation Employee Reporting Procedure for Accounting and Auditing Concerns are circulated periodically and a copy may be obtained by any employee from the Chief Financial Officer.

CERTIFICATIONS

Employees may be required periodically to certify their understanding of and intent to comply or past compliance with this Code.

Any employee who violates this Code of Ethics is subject to possible suspension or other disciplinary action, including discharge. Any employee who assists in, or knowingly fails to report, a violation of this Code is also subject to suspension, discharge or other appropriate action. Any employee who suspects a violation of these policies (including any material transaction or relationship that gives rise to a conflict of interest which to the knowledge of such employee has not been disclosed to the appropriate persons) should inform the appropriate Company representatives by using the Company Corporation Employee Reporting Procedure for Accounting and Auditing Concerns.

ADOPTED AND ACCEPTED BY THE BELOW SIGNED DIRECTORS OF ABERDEEN MINING COMPANY.
