TechSpeed Clearing LLC

Notes to Statement of Financial Condition December 31, 2022

1. Organization and Business

TechSpeed Clearing LLC (the "Company") is a limited liability company formed under the laws of the State of Delaware. The Company was approved on February 9, 2022 as a broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and as a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA").

The Company has been approved by FINRA to act as a correspondent clearing broker-dealer; however, the Company cannot commence business until such time as it is approved as a member of National Securities Clearing Corporation ("NSCC") and Depository Trust & Clearing Corporation ("DTCC"). It is currently awaiting approval from both organizations. As of December 31, 2022, the Company has not opened any customer accounts.

Pacific Financial Group owns 99% of the company and an officer owns the remaining 1%.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation

This statement of financial condition was prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America which requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the statement of financial condition. Actual results could differ from the estimates.

Basis of Accounting

Expenses are recorded on the accrual basis of accounting. The Company has not commenced operations and therefore has no revenues. At the time it commences operations it will record revenues on the accrual basis.

Cash

Cash deposits are held by two financial institutions and therefore are subject to the credit risk at those financial institutions. Cash on deposit in U.S. financial institutions may at times exceed federal insurance limits. The Company has not experienced any losses in the accounts and does not believe there to be any significant credit risk with respect to the deposits.

Cash Segregated under Federal and Other Regulations

The Company has established a segregated special reserve bank account for the benefit of customers under Rule 15c3-3 of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). As the Company has no customers, the account did not have a balance as of December 31, 2022.

Income Taxes

The Company is a limited liability company and is treated as a partnership for federal income tax reporting purposes. The Internal Revenue Code provides that any income or loss is passed through to the ultimate beneficial individual members' for federal and state income taxes. Accordingly, the Company has not provided for federal and state income taxes.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

At December 31, 2022, management has determined that the Company had no uncertain tax positions that would require financial statement recognition. This determination will be subject to ongoing reevaluation as facts and circumstances may require. Interest and penalties assessed, if any, are recorded as income tax expense.

Allowance for Credit Losses

The Company follows ASC Topic 326, Financial Instruments – Credit Losses (“ASC 326”). ASC 326 impacts the impairment model for certain financial assets by requiring a current expected credit loss (“CECL”) methodology to estimate expected credit losses over the entire life of the financial asset and certain off-balance sheet exposures.

The Company will consider factors such as historical experience, credit quality, age of balances and current and future economic conditions that may affect the Company’s expectation of the collectability in determining any allowance for credit losses.

The Company did not have any accounts receivable; therefore, it was not impacted by the guidance.

Fixed Assets

Computer equipment, software and furniture are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and amortization. Depreciation is computed on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of the assets.

3. Regulatory Requirements

The Company is subject to the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule 15c3-1 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital, as defined. The Company has elected to use the alternative method of computing its net capital. Under this method, net capital as defined, shall not be less than $250,000. At December 31, 2022, the Company had net capital of approximately $1,311,000 which exceeded requirements by approximately $1,061,000.

The Company has not as yet commenced operations and has not opened any customer accounts. It is waiting for approvals from NSCC and DTCC to begin operations and as such has not cleared any transactions resulting in it holding customers’ cash or securities; therefore, it is not affected by SEC Rule 15c3-3.

4. Concentration Risk

Approximately 98% of the Company’s liquid assets are held at one major financial institution.

The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts and does not believe there to be any significant credit risk with respect to these deposits.

As of December 31, 2022, the Company had no commitments or contingencies that required disclosure.

TechSpeed Clearing LLC

Notes to Statement of Financial Condition December 31, 2022

5. Continuing Operations

As an SEC-registered and FINRA member broker-dealer, the Company must maintain net capital on a daily basis in accordance with the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule. The Company has a net loss for the year ended December 31, 2022.

The Company has applied to become a member of DTCC. Without DTCC membership it cannot begin operations and effectively cannot produce revenue. The Company; therefore, has not opened any customer accounts.

When it receives membership approval the majority owner will contribute the necessary funds to meet the DTCC deposit requirement.

It is the intention of the majority member to continue to operate the Company for the twelve-month period from the date that these financial statements are issued and contribute the necessary capital to maintain the operations, fund its ongoing expenses and meet the net capital requirements of the SEC's Uniform Net Capital Rule.
