Saltflix

Saltflix offers faith based and family friendly content. It is designed for consumers who are interested in having a safe place to watch movies and tv programs with family without having to worry about images and audio that is offensive to Christian faith. Saltflix has about 500 hours of content and is taking on more weekly.

Competitors

Our main competitors are Pureflix and Up Faith & Family. Pureflix is mainly focused on an American audience while Saltflix is geared towards an international, multicultural audience with films from different countries. Pureflix was also recently purchased by a non-faith based media company so I am sure the film offerings will change. Up Faith & Family has a strong family offering but is not as much faith driven as Saltflix and they also are only focused on an American audience.

What We Do

Saltflix is a faith-based multicultural streaming platform that focuses on family-friendly movie, TV, and music content from around the world (not just the U.S.). We created Saltflix because there are limited options for Christians who would like to watch films that don't contradict faith and family. Saltflix has about 500 hours of content and is taking on more weekly.

Saltflix is accessible anywhere internet service is available and can be accessed by all tablets, smartphones, and computers.

We strive to make family-friendly entertainment affordable and only charge $6.99 USD per month. No contracts. If you are not a fan, you can always cancel at any time online, hassle-free.
