As a Senior Vice President of Video at Viewstream where our clients include seventeen of the Fortune 100, including UPS, Coca-Cola and Toyota-Lexus and sixteen of the top one hundred software companies, including Adobe, Autodesk, and Microsoft, it is my job is to know where technology trends are heading I believe Hypnos Virtual has created an exciting and innovative immersive media technology in Scentscape and that it is clearly taking streaming media to a new level. I am excited to be an investor. I look forward to promoting Scentscape and spreading the word to early adopters so they can also use this fascinating technology to create immersive experiences and share them with the world.
