Co-Founder

Liquid Intelligence LLC
Apr 2020 – Present · 1 yr 10 mos

Liquid Intelligence has created a set of algorithms that allow artificial intelligences to access internal and/or external networks of Big Data, in order to sew together fabrics of information together. The artificial intelligences are able to perceive this information through the technology of the Q Language – a language that possesses all of the complexity, structure and precision that other languages do, but now relies on the processes of human languages as well – intelligence, symbolism, and abstract speech.
