PicMii does not make investment recommendations and no communication through this website or in any other medium should be construed as a recommendation for any security offered on or off this investment platform. Equity crowdfunding investments in private placements, Regulation A, D and CF offerings, and start-up investments in particular are speculative and involve a high degree of risk and those investors who cannot afford to lose their entire investment should not invest in start-ups. Companies seeking startup investments through equity crowdfunding tend to be in earlier stages of development and their business model, products and services may not yet be fully developed, operational or tested in the public marketplace. There is no guarantee that the stated valuation and other terms are accurate or in agreement with the market or industry valuations. Additionally, investors may receive illiquid and/or restricted stock that may be subject to holding period requirements and/or liquidity concerns. In the most sensible investment strategy for start-up investing, start-ups should only be part of your overall investment portfolio. Further, the start-up portion of your portfolio may include a balanced portfolio of different start-ups. Investments in startups are highly illiquid and those investors who cannot hold an investment for the long term (at least 5-7 years) should not invest.

Business and Anticipated Business Plan

6. Describe in detail the business of the issuer and the anticipated business plan of the issuer.

Established on August 16th, 2021 as a Delaware corporation, GapNurse was formed to cure specific regulatory, compliance, and staffing challenges causing massive stress and caregiver burnout in healthcare (skilled nursing, long-term care, home healthcare and hospice). At that time, we had no idea the Covid-19 Pandemic would ravage the world, nor the impact it would have on the fragile labor force we endeavored to help. Already motivated by systemic pressure, Covid provided our team a sense of immediate urgency. Before our product was completed, state government agencies were asking for our help. They were desperately searching ways to find clinical labor able and willing to serve on the front lines of Covid. Since we'd already been conducting market research in facilities that would eventually be hit by Covid the hardest, their administrators suggested GapNurse be contacted.

By April, 2021, the company launched the GapNurse software platform - a fully functioning HIPAA-compliant software platform that efficiently distributes employee and contract labor where and when it's needed most. In addition, the platform provides orientation and training modules, visit documentation and quality assurance tools, providing its facility customers a complete (first-of-its-kind) workflow logistics tool for post-acute care. We've received revenue-generation and repeat business validation from our pilot markets in Colorado and Florida, but our technology is just on the cusp of all it will eventually offer with Artificial Intelligence, Meta Data and even clinical robotics both in healthcare and across other regulated industries.

In May, 2021, GapNurse was accepted into the KiwiTech Accelerator program, assuring it has technical expertise and other market resources as needed. We successfully obtained a Trademark (Reg. No. 6,143,373 – September 08, 2020) to protect our identity and are running revenue generating pilot programs in skilled nursing and long-term care facilities with 24/7 operations and owning 1400 facilities collectively. Those customers are so impressed with GapNurse, that they're asking for us to expand into Oregon and Kansas before the end of 2021.

The technology is scalable, and new markets can be up and running in as few as 45-days. The company engages its paying customers through:

- group purchasing organizations (GPOs),
- A team sales approach with a local access specialist and a clinical specialist;
- Association memberships with sales and marketing to existing and new networks; and
- corporate partnerships with formal joint-marketing efforts in place.

GapNurse customers can select levels in a tiered pricing program that determines hourly transaction rates they will be charged per hour worked by a licensed clinician or unlicensed caregiver. In addition, customers may elect to hire independent contractor for a simple flat fee.

All services (subscription, hourly pay and permanent placement) have been successfully piloted, and we are eager to introduce GapNurse to additional markets. At its current trajectory, GapNurse projects it will capture 12% of the available post-acute as needed / part time (/pro re nata) nurse market in 10 U.S. states by operating year 5.

Privacy, Security, Flexibility and Compliance are the foundational pillars of the GapNurse platform. GapNurse is currently engaging clinicians through:

- Targeted social media campaigns to promote program awareness;
- Referral incentives, to accelerate engagement;
- Advertising on job boards for flexible work opportunities;
- Mental health support forums to decompress work related stress;
- In-person & virtual education and competency evaluations with opportunities for continuing education credits; and
- in person and virtual private events.

Risk Factors

Investing in the Securities involves a high degree of risk and may result in the loss of your entire investment. Before making an investment decision with respect to the Securities, we urge you to carefully consider the risks described in this section and other factors set forth in this Form C. In addition to the risks specified below, the Company is subject to same risks that all companies in its business, and all companies in the economy, are exposed to. These include risks relating to economic downturns, political and economic events and technological developments (such as hacking and the ability to prevent hacking). Additionally, early-stage companies are inherently riskier than more developed companies. Prospective Investors should consult with their legal, tax and financial advisors prior to making an investment in the Securities. The Securities should only be purchased by persons who can afford to lose all of their investment.

Risks Related to the Company's Business and Industry

We have a limited operating history upon which you can evaluate our performance, and accordingly, our prospects must be considered in light of the risks that any new company encounters. The Company is still in an early phase and we are just beginning to implement our business plan. There can be no assurance that we will ever operate profitably. The likelihood of our success should be considered in light of the problems, expenses, difficulties, complications and delays usually encountered by early-stage companies. The Company may not be successful in attaining the objectives necessary for it to overcome these risks and uncertainties.

Global crises such as COVID-19 can have a significant effect on our business operations and revenue projections.

There is an ongoing outbreak of a novel and highly contagious form of coronavirus ("COVID-19"), which the World Health Organization declared a global pandemic on March 11, 2020. The outbreak of COVID-19 has caused a worldwide public health emergency with a substantial number of hospitalizations and deaths and has significantly adversely impacted global commercial activity and contributed to both volatility and material declines in equity and debt markets. The global impact of the outbreak is rapidly evolving, and many national, state, and local governments have reacted by instituting mandatory or voluntary quarantines, travel prohibitions and restrictions, closures or reductions of offices, businesses, schools, retail stores, restaurants, and other public venues and/or cancellations, suspensions and/or postponements of certain events and activities, including certain non-essential government and regulatory activities. Businesses are also implementing their own precautionary measures, such as voluntary closures, temporary or permanent reductions in work force, remote working arrangements and emergency contingency plans.

Such measures, as well as the general uncertainty surrounding the dangers, duration, and impact of COVID-19, are creating significant disruption to supply chains and economic activity, impacting consumer confidence and contributing to significant market losses, including by having particularly adverse impacts on transportation, hospitality, healthcare, tourism, sports, entertainment and other industries dependent upon physical presence. Technological infrastructure has, and will likely continue to be, strained for so long as mandatory or voluntary quarantines are instituted, which will change, and potentially disrupt, the operations of the Company. As COVID-19 continues to spread, potential additional adverse impacts, including a global, regional or other economic recession of indeterminate duration, are increasingly likely and difficult to assess and, if the spread of COVID-19 is prolonged, it could adversely affect many economies, global financial markets and the Company even after COVID- 19 is contained.

The extent of the impact of COVID-19 on the Company's operational and financial performance will depend on many factors, all of which are highly uncertain and cannot be predicted. Those factors include the duration and scope of the resulting public health emergency; the extent of any related restrictions implemented; the impact of such public health emergency on overall supply and demand, goods and services, investor liquidity, consumer confidence and levels of economic activity; and the extent of its disruption to important global, regional and local supply chains and economic markets. The effects of the COVID-19 pandemic may materially and adversely impact the value, performance and liquidity of the Company.

In addition, COVID-19 and the resulting changes to global businesses and economies likely will adversely impact the business and operations of the Company and therefore the business and operations of the Company. Certain businesses and activities may be temporarily or permanently halted as a result of government or other quarantine measures, voluntary and precautionary restrictions on travel or meetings and other factors, including the potential adverse impact of COVID-19 on the health of key personnel.

Regulatory changes and uncertainties.

The Company operates in a highly regulated industry subject to substantial change. In addition, both its labor and customer base are licensed and regulated by local, state, and federal governments. Policies may be changed for several reasons including, but not limited to economic conditions, public safety, socio-political factors, and such. As policy changes are made by regulators, there is no guarantee that the company will be able to provide services in its current form, which may place a substantial hardship on operations, causing an Investor to lose all or a portion of their investment.

The amount of capital the Company is attempting to raise in this Offering may not be enough to sustain the Company's current business plan.

In order to achieve the Company's near and long-term goals, the Company may need to procure funds in addition to the amount raised in the Offering. There is no guarantee the Company will be able to raise such funds on acceptable terms or at all. If we are not able to raise sufficient capital in the future, we may not be able to execute our business plan, our continued operations may require a significant pivot in strategy and execution, which could cause an Investor to lose all or a portion of their investment.

We may face potential difficulties in obtaining capital

We may have difficulty raising needed capital in the future as a result of, among other factors, our lack of revenue, as well as the inherent business risks associated with our Company and present and future market conditions.

The Company's success depends on the experience and skill of its manager and other key personnel.

In particular, we are dependent on our managers. The loss of the Managers, the Principals or any other key personnel could harm the Company's business, financial condition, cash flow and performance. Accordingly, you should not invest in the Company unless you are willing to entrust all aspects of the management of the Company and the investment decisions we make on the behalf of the Company.

Although dependent on certain key personnel, the Company does not have any key person life insurance policies on any such people

We are dependent on certain key personnel in order to conduct our operations and execute our business plan, however, the Company has not purchased any insurance policies with respect to those individuals in the event of their death or disability. Therefore, if any of these personnel die or become disabled, the Company will not receive any compensation to assist with such person's absence. The loss of such person could negatively affect the Company and our operations. We have no way to guarantee key personnel will stay with the Company, as many states do not enforce non-competition agreements, and therefore acquiring key man insurance will not ameliorate all of the risk of relying on key personnel.

Damage to our reputation could negatively impact our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Our reputation and the quality of our brand are critical to our business and success and will be critical to our success as we form and advise new markets. Any incident that erodes confidence in our brand could significantly reduce the Company's value and damage our business. We may be adversely affected by any negative publicity, regardless of its accuracy. Also, there has been a marked increase in the use of social media platforms and similar devices, including blogs, social media websites and other forms of internet-based communications that provide individuals with access to a broad audience. The availability of information on social media platforms is virtually immediate as is its impact. Information posted may be adverse to our interests or may be inaccurate, each of which may harm our performance, prospects or business. The harm may be immediate and may disseminate rapidly and broadly, without affording us an opportunity for redress or correct.

Risks Related to the Offering

The U.S. Securities and exchange Commission does not pass upon the merits of the Securities or the terms of the Offering, nor does it pass upon the accuracy or completeness of any Offering document or literature.

You should not rely on the fact that our Form C is accessible through the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission's EDGAR filing system as an approval, endorsement or guarantee of compliance as it relates to this Offering. The U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission has not reviewed this Form C, nor any document or literature related to this Offering.

Neither the Offering nor the Securities have been registered under federal or state securities laws.

No governmental agency has reviewed or passed upon this Offering or the Securities. Neither the Offering nor the Securities have been registered under federal or state securities laws. Investors will not receive any of the benefits available in registered Offerings, which may include access to quarterly and annual financial statements that have been audited by an independent accounting firm. Investors must therefore assess the adequacy of disclosure and the fairness of the terms of this Offering based on the information provided in this Form C and the accompanying exhibits.

The Company's management may have broad discretion in how the Company uses the net proceeds of the Offering.

Unless the Company has agreed to a specific use of the proceeds from the Offering, the Company's management will have considerable discretion over the use of proceeds from the Offering. You may not have the opportunity, as part of your investment decision, to assess whether the proceeds are being used appropriately.

The Company has the right to limit individual Investor commitment amounts based on the Company's determination of an Investor's sophistication.

The Company may prevent any Investor from committing more than a certain amount in this Offering based on the Company's determination of the Investor's sophistication and ability to assume the risk of the investment. This means that your desired investment amount may be limited or lowered based solely on the Company's determination and not in line with relevant investment limits set forth by the Regulation CF rules. This also means that other Investors may receive larger allocations of the Offering based solely on the Company's determination.

The Company has the right to extend the Offering Deadline.

The Company may extend the Offering Deadline beyond what is currently stated herein. This means that your investment may continue to be held in escrow while the Company attempts to raise the Target Amount even after the Offering Deadline stated herein is reached. While you have the right to cancel your investment in the event the Company extends the Offering Deadline, if you choose to reconfirm your investment, your investment will not be accruing interest during this time and will simply be held until such time as the new Offering Deadline is reached without the Company receiving the Target Amount, at which time it will be returned to you without interest or deduction, or the Company receives the Target Amount, at which time it will be released to the Company to be used as set forth herein. Upon or shortly after the release of such funds to the Company, the Securities will be issued and distributed to you.

The Company may also end the Offering early.

If the Target Offering Amount is met after 21 calendar days, but before the Offering Deadline, the Company can end the Offering by providing notice to Investors at least 5 business days prior to the end of the Offering. This means your failure to participate in the Offering in a timely manner, may prevent you from being able to invest in this Offering – it also means the Company may limit the amount of capital it can raise during the Offering by ending the Offering early.

The Company has the right to conduct multiple closings during the Offering.

If the Company meets certain terms and conditions, an intermediate close of the Offering can occur, which will allow the Company to draw down on half of the proceeds committed and captured in the Offering during the relevant period. The Company may choose to continue the Offering thereafter. Investors should be mindful that this means they can make multiple investment commitments in the Offering, which may be subject to different cancellation rights. For example, if an intermediate close occurs and later a material change occurs as the Offering continues, Investors whose investment commitments were previously closed upon will not have the right to re-confirm their investment as it will be deemed to have been completed prior to the material change.

Risks Related to the Securities

The Securities will not be freely tradable under the Securities Act until one year from the initial purchase date. Although the securities may be tradable under federal securities law, state securities regulations may apply, and each Investor should consult with their attorney.

You should be aware of the long-term nature of this investment. There is not now and likely will not ever be a public market for the Securities. Because the Securities have not been registered under the Securities Act or under the securities laws of any state or foreign jurisdiction, the Securities have transfer restrictions and cannot be resold in the United States except pursuant to Rule 501 of Regulation CF. It is not currently contemplated that registration under the Securities Act or other securities laws will be affected. Limitations on the transfer of the Securities may also adversely affect the price that you might be able to obtain for the Securities in a private sale. Investors should be aware of the long-term nature of their investment in the Company. Each Investor in this Offering will be required to represent that they are purchasing the Securities for their own account, for investment purposes and not with a view to resale or distribution thereof.

Although Investors will have no right to voluntarily withdraw capital from the Company or withdraw their Securities, in certain circumstances they may be forced to withdraw from the Company.

An Investor may be forced to withdraw from the Company if the Company reasonably determines that it is necessary or desirable to do so in order to comply with applicable law or regulations, or to avoid a material adverse effect on the Company or the other holders of securities in the Company.

Investors will have no right to control the Company's operations.

The Investors will have no opportunity to control the day-to-day operations of the Company, including, without limitation, the investment and disposition decisions of the Portfolio Companies. In order to safeguard your limited liability for the liabilities and obligations of the Company, you must rely entirely on the Manager and Principals to conduct and manage the business affairs of the Company

Investors will not be entitled to any inspection or information rights other than those required by law.

Investors will not have the right to inspect the books and records of the Company or to receive financial or other information from the Company, other than as required by law. Other security holders of the Company may have such rights. Regulation CF requires only the provision of an annual report on Form C and no additional information. Additionally, there are numerous methods by which the Company can terminate annual report obligations, resulting in no information rights, contractual, statutory or otherwise, owed to Investors. This lack of information could put Investors at a disadvantage in general and with respect to other security holders, including certain security holders who have rights to periodic financial statements and updates from the Company such as quarterly unaudited financials, annual projections and budgets, and monthly progress reports, among other things.

The Company may never undergo a liquidity event and Investors may have to hold the Securities indefinitely.

The Company may never undergo a liquidity event such as a repurchase of the Securities by the Company, a sale of the Company or an initial public or coin offering. If a liquidity event does not occur, Investors could be left holding the Securities in perpetuity. The Securities have numerous transfer restrictions and will likely be highly illiquid, with no secondary market on which to sell them. The Securities have no voting rights or ability to direct the Company or its actions.

The Securities may be significantly diluted as a consequence of subsequent equity financings.

The Company's equity securities will be subject to dilution. The Company may issue additional equity to third-party financing sources in amounts that are uncertain at this time, and as a consequence holders of the Securities will be subject to dilution in an unpredictable amount. Such dilution may reduce the Investor's economic interests in the Company. The amount of additional financing needed by the Company will depend upon several contingencies not foreseen at the time of this Offering. Generally, additional financing (whether in the form of loans or the issuance of other securities) will be intended to provide the Company with enough capital to reach the next major corporate milestone. If the funds received in any additional financing are not sufficient to meet the Company's needs, the Company may have to raise additional capital at a price unfavorable to their existing investors, including the holders of the Securities. The availability of capital is at least partially a function of capital market conditions that are beyond the control of the Company. There can be no assurance that the Company will be able to accurately predict the future capital requirements necessary for success or that additional funds will be available from any source. Failure to obtain financing on favorable terms could dilute or otherwise severely impair the value of the Securities.

The Securities may be substantially different from other equity securities offered or issued by the Company.

The Securities may be materially different from the other equity securities of the Company in many ways, including, but not limited to, liquidation preferences, dividend rights, or anti-dilution protection. The Securities may not provide the holders of such Securities with the same rights, preferences, protections, and other benefits or privileges provided to other investors of the Company.

In the event of the dissolution or bankruptcy of the Company, Investors will not be treated as debt holders and therefore are unlikely to recover any proceeds.

In the event of the dissolution or bankruptcy of the Company, the holders of the Securities will be entitled to distributions as described in the Securities. This means that such holders will only receive distributions once all of the creditors and more senior security holders, including any holders of preferred membership interests, have been paid in full. GapNurse, Inc. ("Company") is offering securities under Regulation CF, through PicMii Crowdfunding LLC ("PicMii"). PicMii is a FINRA/SEC registered funding portal and will receive cash compensation equal to 3.5% of the value of the securities sold through Regulation CF. Investments made under Regulation CF involve a high degree of risk and those investors who cannot afford to lose their entire investment should not invest.

The Company plans to raise between $10,000 and $250,000 through an offering under Regulation CF. Specifically, if we reach the Minimum Raise Amount of $10,000, we may conduct the first of multiple or rolling closings of the offering early if we provide notice about the new offering deadline at least five business days prior to such new offering deadline (absent a material change that would require an extension of the offering and reconfirmation of the investment commitment). Oversubscriptions will be allocated on a first come, first served basis. Changes to the offering, material or otherwise, occurring after a closing, will only impact investments which have not yet to be closed.

In the event The Company fails to reach the minimum offering amount of $10,000, any investments made under the offering will be cancelled and the investment funds will be returned to the investor.

7. What is the purpose of this offering?

If the maximum offering amount is raised, our anticipated use of proceeds is as follows in Question 8.

8. How does the issuer intend to use the proceeds of this offering?

Add rows as necessary to account for all ways you intend to use the proceeds of this offering.

	% of Capital if Target Offering Amount Raised	Amount if Target Offering Amount Raised	% of Capital if Maximum Offering Amount Raised	Amount if Maximum Offering Amount Raised

Sales, Marketing & Memberships	11.5%	$1,150	42%	$105,000

General & Admin. Expenses	10%	$1,000	17.5%	$43,750
Customer Receivables Financing	0%	0%	12%	$30,000
Customer Care Expenses	0%	0%	4%	$10,000
Intermediary Fees	3.5%	$350	3.5%	$8,750
Total	100%	$10,000	100%	$250,000

We reserve the right to change the above use of proceeds if management believes it is in the best interest of the Company.

9. How will the issuer complete the transaction and deliver securities to the investors?

In entering into an agreement on PicMii Crowdfunding's Funding Portal to purchase securities, both investors and the Company must agree that a transfer agent, which keeps records of our outstanding Common Stock (the "Securities"), will issue digital Securities in the investor's name (a paper certificate will not be printed) or that the Company is capable of maintaining investment records on their own. In GapNurse's Case, they will be managing their records on their own.

Stock ownership is recorded in GapNurse's electronic books and records, which may be kept online if directed by the Board, with issuance and transfers of stock made electronically.

10. How can an investor cancel an investment commitment?

You may cancel an investment commitment for any reason until 48 hours prior to the deadline identified in the offering PicMii will notify investors when the target offering amount has been met. If the issuer reaches the target offering amount prior to the deadline identified in the offering materials, it may close the offering early if it provides notice about the new offering deadline at least five business days prior to such new offering deadline (absent a material change that would require an extension of the offering and reconfirmation of the investment commitment). PicMii Crowdfunding will notify investors when the target offering amount has been met. If an investor does not cancel an investment commitment before the 48-hour period prior to the offering deadline, the funds will be released to the issuer upon closing of the offering and the investor will receive securities in exchange for his or her investment. If an investor does not reconfirm his or her investment commitment after a material change is made to the offering, the investor's investment commitment will be cancelled, and the committed funds will be returned.

11. Can the company perform multiple closings or rolling closings for the offering?

If we reach the target offering amount prior to the offering deadline, we may conduct the first of multiple closings of the offering early, if we provide notice about the new offering deadline at least five business days prior (absent a material change that would require an extension of the offering and reconfirmation of the investment commitment). Thereafter, we may conduct additional closings until the offering deadline. We will issue Securities in connection with each closing. Oversubscriptions will be allocated on a first come, first served basis. Changes to the offering, material or otherwise, occurring after a closing, will only impact investments which have yet to be closed.

However, if the terms are modified, and we deem it to be a material change, we need to contact you and you will be given the opportunity to reconfirm your investment. Your reconfirmation must be completed within five business days of receipt of the notice of a material change, and if you do not reconfirm, your investment will be cancelled and your money will be returned to you.

Restrictions on Transfer of the Securities Offered

The securities being offered may not be transferred by any purchaser of such securities during the one-year period beginning when the securities were issued, unless such securities are transferred:

- to the issuer;
- to an accredited investor;
- as part of an offering registered with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission; or to a member of the family of the purchaser or the equivalent, to a trust controlled by the purchaser, to a trust created for the benefit of a member of the family of the purchaser or the equivalent, or in connection with the death or divorce of the purchaser or other similar circumstance.
- The term “accredited investor” means any person who comes within any of the categories set forth in Rule 501(a) of Regulation D, or who the seller reasonably believes comes within any of such categories, at the time of the sale of the securities to that person. The term “member of the family of the purchaser or the equivalent” includes a child, stepchild, grandchild, parent, stepparent, grandparent, spouse or spousal equivalent, sibling, mother-in-law, father-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, brother-in-law, or sister-in-law of the purchaser, and includes adoptive relationships. The term “spousal equivalent” means a cohabitant occupying a relationship generally equivalent to that of a spouse.

Description of Issuer’s Securities

16. What other securities or classes of securities of the issuer are outstanding? Describe the material terms of any other outstanding securities or classes of securities of the issuer.

Class of Security	Amount Authorized	Amount Outstanding	Reserved Options	Voting Rights
Common	50 million	10,000,000	4,310,000	Board Only

Options, Warrants and Other Rights

17. How may the rights of the securities being offered be materially limited, diluted or qualified by the rights of any other class of securities?

1. GapNurse is aware and acknowledges that issuance of shares of its Common Stock could cause dilution to existing shareholders and could significantly increase the outstanding number of Common Stock. While GapNurse is not currently considering the authorization of additional Common Shares, its managers and Board of Directors have concluded that, in its good faith business judgement, the issuance of additional authorized securities will only be authorized if it is in the best interests of the company and its current shareholders.

2. Security options are reserved for key employees and are non-dilutive to subscribers of this offering.
3. A warrant has been issued to Kiwi Tech Accelerator allocating shares in the amount of 150,000 (1.5%) common shares on a non-dilutive basis.

18. Are there any differences not reflected above between the securities being offered and each other class of security of the issuer?

1. Yes. The shares are identical to all other securities of the issuer except that the shares being offered have the voting rights given to the designated member of the board of directors through proxy.

19. How could the exercise of rights held by the principal owners identified in Question 5 above affect the purchasers of Securities being offered?

The holder of a majority of the voting rights in the company may make decisions with which you disagree, or that negatively affect the value of your investment in the company, and you will have no recourse to change those decisions. Your interests may conflict with the interests of other investors, and there is no guarantee that the company will develop in a way that is advantageous to you. For example, the majority shareholder may decide to issue additional shares to new investors, sell convertible debt instruments with beneficial conversion features, or make decisions that affect the tax treatment of the company in ways that may be unfavorable to you. Based on the risks described above, you may lose all or part of your investment in the securities that you purchase, and you may never see positive returns.

20. How are the securities being offered valued? Include examples of methods for how such securities may be valued by the issuer in the future, including during subsequent corporate actions.

The securities being offered are valued at the issuer's discretion. An early-stage company typically sells its shares (or grants options over its shares) to its founders and early employees at a very low cash cost, because they are, in effect, putting their "sweat equity" into the company. When the company seeks cash investments from outside investors, like you, the new investors typically pay a much larger sum for their shares than the founders or earlier investors, which means that the cash value of your stake is immediately diluted because each share of the same type is worth the same amount, and you paid more for your shares than earlier investors did for theirs.

There are several ways to value a company, and none of them is perfect and all of them involve a certain degree of guesswork. Any of these methods, plus others, may be used to determine valuation in the future:

Liquidation Value — The amount for which the assets of the company can be sold, minus the liabilities owed, e.g., the assets of a bakery include the cake mixers, ingredients, baking tins, etc. The liabilities of a bakery include the cost of rent or mortgage on the bakery. However, this value does not reflect the potential value of a business, e.g., the value of the secret recipe. The value for most startups lies in their potential, as many early stage companies do not have many assets.

Book Value — This is based on analysis of the company's financial statements, usually looking at the company's balance sheet as prepared by its accountants. However, the balance sheet only looks at costs (i.e., what was paid for the asset), and does not consider whether the asset has increased in value over time. In addition, some intangible assets, such as patents, trademarks or trade names, are very valuable but are not usually represented at their market value on the balance sheet.

Earnings Approach — This is based on what the investor will pay (the present value) for what the investor expects to obtain in the future (the future return), taking into account inflation, the lost opportunity to participate in other investments, the risk of not receiving the return. However, predictions of the future are uncertain and valuation of future returns is a best guess.

Different methods of valuation produce a different answer as to what your investment is worth. Typically, liquidation value and book value will produce a lower valuation than the earnings approach. However, the earnings approach is also most likely to be risky as it is based on many assumptions about the future, while liquidation value and book value are much more conservative.

Future investors (including people seeking to acquire the company) may value the company differently. They may use a different valuation method, or different assumptions about the company's business and its market. Different valuations may mean that the value assigned to your investment changes. It frequently happens that when a large institutional investor such as a venture capitalist makes an investment in a company, it values the company at a lower price than the initial investors did. If this happens, the value of the investment would go down.

21. What are the risks to purchasers of the securities relating to minority ownership in the issuer?

The company's Certificate of Incorporation or Bylaws can be amended by the holders of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of the Company. As minority owners, the crowdfunding investors are subject to the decisions made by the majority owners. The issued and outstanding shares of common stock give management voting control of the company. As a minority owner, you may be outvoted on issues that impact your investment, such as, among other things: (a) the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the company, or effecting any merger or consolidation; (b) amendment of any provision of the Certificate of Incorporation or Bylaws; (c) creation and issuance of other securities having rights, preferences or privileges senior to the common stock sold to the crowdfunding investors, or increasing the authorized number of shares of stock of the company; or (d) creation of any debt security.

22. What are the risks to purchasers associated with corporate actions including:

1. Additional issuances of securities
2. Issuer repurchases of securities
3. A sale of the issuer or of assets of the issuer
4. Transactions with related parties

The authorization and issuance of additional shares of the company's common stock will dilute the ownership of the crowdfunding investors. As a result, if the company achieves profitable operations in the future, its net income per share will be reduced because of dilution, and the market price of the company's common stock, if there is a market price, could decline as a result of the additional issuances of securities. If the company repurchases securities, so that the above risk is mitigated, and there are fewer shares of common stock outstanding, the company may not have enough cash available for marketing expenses, growth, or operating expenses to reach our goals. If we do not have enough cash to operate and grow, we anticipate the market price of our securities would decline. A sale of the company or of all of the assets of the company may result in an entire loss of your investment. We cannot predict the market value of the company or its assets, and the proceeds of a sale may not be cash, but instead, unmarketable securities, or an assumption of liabilities. It is unlikely that in the near term, a sale would result in a premium that is significant enough over book value to generate a return to our investors. We may need to negotiate with a related party for additional capital. No assurance can be given that such funds will be available or, if available, will be on commercially reasonable terms satisfactory to us. Even if such financing is available, it may be on terms that are materially adverse to your interests with respect to dilution of book value, dividend preferences, liquidation preferences, or other terms.

23. Describe the material terms of any indebtedness of the issuer:

GapNurse has no debt at this time.

Creditor(s)	Amount Outstanding	Interest Rate	Maturity Date
N/A	N/A	N/A	N/A

24. What other exempt offerings has the Company conducted within the past three years?

1. None

25. Was or is the issuer or any entities controlled by or under common control with the issuer a party to any transaction since the beginning of the issuer's last fiscal year, or any currently proposed transaction, where the amount involved exceeds five percent of the aggregate amount of capital raised by the issuer in reliance on Section 4(a)(6) of the Securities Act during the preceding 12-month period, including the amount the issuer seeks to raise in the current offering, in which any of the following persons had or is to have a direct or indirect material interest:

Business Description

Here at GapNurse, we are on a mission to overcome ongoing staffing challenges and revive the health industry. Our FOCUS is and has always been - SIMPLIFICATION. We have developed a complex technology that is simple to use and caters to both existing employees and independent contractors available to care for people in need. Our goal is to provide nurses and health workers with a comfortable and stress-free working environment.

We find the best matches between licensed caregivers and the facilities that need them. Nurses using the GapNurse Mobile App can select their schedule and choose assignments that match their skills, experience, and comfort level. The platform makes it easier for these Clinicians to choose jobs based on their credentials, licenses, and skills. They can store these credentials on our platform in their secure vault for easy retrieval when needed. The technology allows providers to lower their recruiting and retention costs while offering clinicians higher hourly pay and even same-day pay. Nurses gain more experience and have an opportunity to discover specializations as they become introduced to various medical disciplines.

Nurses gain access to all these features through the GapNurse mobile app available on Google Play or the Apple Store. For Facility Managers, the GapNurse platform offers a proprietary portal for posting assignments to both employees and thoroughly vetted independent contractors and matched as shifts require. The distribution of orientation and training materials happens at the speed of light, and employee response eliminates employee favoritism concerns. Facility Managers easily meet or exceed required staffing ratios by clinicians who want to work. The app also features a geolocation service that makes it easy for a nurse, who may be unfamiliar with an assignment location, to get to the site without hassle.

For ages, nurses have been the face of patient care. But the work can be physically and emotionally exhausting and often takes a toll on their personal lives. Although staffing agencies have traditionally filled short-term staffing needs, they've failed to evolve. These agencies, together with a global nursing shortage, are causing financial and regulatory hardships for governments and healthcare employers, adding stress to the lives of most nurses and the people they care for. Before the Covid pandemic caregivers were burnt out and leaving nursing in record numbers.

By 2030, more than 50 million Americans will require some type of severe long-term service and support but 75% of employers in post-acute care (nursing homes, long-term care centers, home healthcare, hospice) don't believe they have the financial ability to make it to 2022 unless something changes.

Our MVP was completed in December of 2019. At that time, Covid wasn't recognized as a problem. Then, all of a sudden, Covid hit hard. The facilities we were working with went into lockdown, but the conversations continued. We were contacted by government officials. They'd heard we were out there, helping get nurses where and when they were needed most, but we were only in an MVP stage. Together we realized that if something isn't done when another crisis comes along, people will be in a lot of trouble. We also realized that we can't limit ourselves to post-acute care down the road, but we had to start somewhere. From there, we pulled our resources together and completed the full-scale development of what is GapNurse today. The build was completed in April 2021 and we started early marketing efforts in May.

Today we are running pilot programs in post-acute care facilities whose parent companies collectively own 1400 facilities and we're generating early revenues. Most importantly, we're alleviating some of the systemic stress that nurses are feeling.

Problem

The Cost and Effects of Turnover in the Nursing Industry

The cost of nurse turnover can have a considerable impact on a hospital's profit margin. According to the 2016 National Healthcare Retention & R.N. Staffing Report, the average cost of turnover a nurse ranges from $37,700 to $58,400. Hospitals can lose $5.2 million to $8.1 million annually. The turnover rate for R.N.s continues to rise. Turnover statistics for bedside R.N.s in 2014 were 16.4 percent, and they rose to 17.2 percent in 2015. Behavioral health and emergency medicine and surgery nurses also have a high turnover rate, but certified nursing assistant (CNA) nurses recorded the highest ratio at 23.8 percent.

As of March 2016, Streamline Verify ranked healthcare as a third of the top three industries with the highest turnover rates. Streamline Verify also found that 43 percent of newly licensed nurses who work in hospitals leave their jobs within three years. Additionally, 33.5 percent resign after two years, and 17.5 percent work for only one year. The overall vacancy rate for nurses is a little over 7 percent. When nurses leave a healthcare organization, they create a vacancy that can affect the cost of operation. The vacancy is also costly to other nurses, who may have to work overtime and experience burnout due to long hours and a high patient load.

A report published by Nursing Solutions, Inc. found that the average time it takes to fill a nursing position is 85 days – and more than three months for a specialized nursing position. The costs associated with filling a vacancy can include the following: employing in-house recruiters, job postings, applicant tracking systems, and hiring third-party staffing firms, not to mention the toll it places on existing staff with overtime requirements and emotional stresses.

Also, an increase in turnover will put most elderly citizens at risk because of the expanding population of citizens over the age of 65. The U.S. market for elder care services will exceed $700 billion in 2026, assuming there is a large enough workforce to contribute to the healthcare industry. The rising prevalence of dementia, Alzheimer's, heart disorders, respiratory ailments, and mental disorders is contributing to growth and activity in the long-term care setting over the coming years. While home healthcare dominates the market in terms of revenue, other care sectors, including hospice, assisted living, nursing care, and independent living, fuel provider expansion. There is a need to end the ongoing turnover and develop strategies that will actively motivate nurses to engage in their jobs.

Projected Need in the Workforce

With the increased demand in Labor, so many hospitals have introduced new approaches that are costly when dealing with staffing. The most popular strategies used to meet the scheduling needs include increasing reliance on agency/travel staff, overtime, internal resource pools, and authorizing critical staffing pay.

In 2019, healthcare jobs continued to grow and are trending up for 2020, with 58% of hospitals anticipating an increase in their total labor force and 59% projecting to increase their R.N. complement. This mandate to hire more employees will further strain Talent Acquisition. While hospitals expect to grow their total and R.N. workforce, only 29.7% anticipate an increase in the recruitment budget, and only 11.8% plan to increase their recruitment staff. Currently, the ratio of budgeted Full-Time Equivalents (FTEs) in Human Resources to hospital employees is 1:149.

To improve margins, hospitals plan to control labor costs by decreasing reliance (45.7%) on travel and agency staff. When comparing the cost difference between employed R.N.s vs. travel R.N.s, the amount is staggering. For every 20 travel R.N.s eliminated, a hospital can save, on average,

Solution

Here at GapNurse, we are on a mission to overcome ongoing staffing challenges and revive the health industry, spiraling out of control. We find the best matches between licensed caregivers and the facilities that need them. Nurses using the GapNurse Mobile App can select their schedule and choose assignments that match their skills, experience, and comfort level. The platform makes it easier for these Clinicians to choose jobs based on their credentials, licenses, and skills.

GapNurse is NOT a staffing agency but a technology platform that solves staffing issues. Realizing how damaging staffing agency fees and minimums can be to a healthcare budget, we built GapNurse as a modern alternative to an outdated staffing model. Through advanced technology, GapNurse matches well-qualified (meaning we included compliance and background checks in the platform) clinicians (RNs, LPNs, CNAs, Med-Assistants) with healthcare facilities (skilled nursing, assisted living, home health agencies, hospice agencies, and the like) for short-term and temporary assignments.

We understand that healthcare is about people caring for people, but we also recognize that compliance and budgeting enable our care. With well over a century of direct patient care experience, our mission is to seamlessly connect empowered healthcare workers with those facilities who value their skills and expertise to promote a safe, affordable and trustworthy community of care.

Nurses who participate in the GapNurse program run through extensive background checks, so facilities can rest assured that they receive the highest quality caregivers. Once vetted, nurses select assignments that fit their schedules and their level of comfort as a nurse. In addition to increased flexibility, the GapNurse platform promotes lower patient costs of care, higher and same-day pay, and access to online learning tools and continuing education.

Business Model

GapNurse is a Software WITH a Service technology platform that matches licensed healthcare workers with healthcare facilities who need their services. For nurses, the service is free. Employers select from a few different price models that determine their hourly transaction fees at rates far below traditional and online staffing agency models. Unlike agencies, these employers have total control over who works in their care facilities, and the quality of their workmanship. This leads to a safer environment and higher quality of care. As a bonus, when facilities find their perfect employees, or nurses find their perfect employer, GapNurse facilitates the marriage for a low monthly fee. The GapNurse platform consists of a marketing website with CRM integration, A Facility Manager's Private Portal, The Platform Manager's Customer Support Portal and the Nurse's Mobile app (found in AppStore and Google Play). In addition, the platform includes both a testing environment for product demonstrations and a full-scale HIPAA-Compliant production environment.

Traction & Customers

Sales began in May, 2021. Since then, we've initiated Pilot Studies in 9 regional facilities with affiliates across 1400 locations throughout the US and Europe. Our customers include industry leaders such as: HCR ManorCare/Promedica, Ensign Group/Endura, Anthem Memory Care, Avamere Family of Companies and more. Those customers that are using GapNurse tend to be placing both repeat orders and are now scheduling staffing requests an entire month in advance. In fact, they're already asking us to expand into their other markets as quickly as practical.

Investors

To date, GapNurse has been self-funded by its Founder(s). In addition, GapNurse was accepted into the KiwiTech Business Startup Program in June, 2021, where KiwiTech will help reduce future technology development costs by up to $300,000.

Market Projection

GapNurse was built to satisfy a global nursing crisis and its product is adaptable to any regulated markets. Although our intent is to license and white label the technology, by limiting our growth to only post-acute healthcare, our 5-year projections suggest:

1. Operating in 10 States
2. Capturing 12% market share among estimated 20% of agency hours currently in use
3. Capturing 15% of total available facilities in those 10 states
4. Average pay rate of $29.40 (includes CNAs, LPNs, and RNs)
5. Average hourly transaction rate of 30%
6. Post-transactional revenues over $310 million

Competition

Competition hails from the legacy models we will eventually replace. In other words, staffing agencies are already being replaced by Online models with companies like Gale Healthcare, IntelyCare or Nomad Health. Scheduling tools from companies like ScheduleBase, or EasyShits. On average, it takes 82 days to find a new nurse and the cost of turnover ranges between $50-90,000 – when using Indeed or Zip Recruiter. Credentialing is typically handled by ClearChecks or HireRight. Electronic Medical Records are done with tools from Allscripts, Point-Click-Care, or Mumms. Quality Assurance is typically biased and recorded on paper.

GapNurse, not only does all of this in one simple and affordable solution, but it also incorporates key compliance features for geolocation, orientation and training, and so much more. So why does this all matter? Well, despite operating on 5-9% margins, if a facility is reimbursed by government insurance (Medicare, Medicaid, etc) and fails to remain compliant, they are often hit with 20% or greater fees – and it happens all the time.

Our goal is to help nurses avoid burning out. Our competitors are focused on their profits. It just so happens that we can be very profitable while alleviating systemic pressures and ultimately, providing a better care environment both for the patients and the nurses who care for them.
