INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANT'S REVIEW REPORT

To the Stockholder
RocketTrader, Inc.
Rocklin, California

I have reviewed the accompanying financial statements of RocketTrader, Inc. (a Delaware corporation) which comprise the balance sheet as of December 31, 2020 and the related statements of income, shareholder's equity (deficit) and cash flows for the nine months then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements. A review includes primarily applying analytical procedures to management's financial data and making inquiries of Company management. A review is substantially less in scope than an audit, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion regarding the financial statement as a whole. Accordingly, I do not express such an opinion.

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and for designing, implementing, and maintaining internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statement.

My responsibility is to conduct the review in accordance with Statements on Standards for Accounting and Review Services issued by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. Those standards require me to perform procedures to obtain limited assurance as a basis for reporting whether I am aware of any material modifications that should be made to the financial statements for them to be in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. I believe that the results of my procedures provide a reasonable basis for my conclusion.

Based upon my review, I am not aware of any material modifications that should be made to the accompanying financial statements in order for them to be in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2020

Note 1. Summary of Accounting Policies

A summary of significant accounting policies is presented to assist in understanding the company's financial statements. These accounting policies conform to generally accepted accounting principles and have been consistently applied in the preparation of the financial statements.

A. Basis of Accounting

Revenue and expenses are reported on the accrual basis, which means that income is recognized as it is earned and expenses are recognized as they are incurred whether or not payment is received or amounts disbursed.

B. Depreciation/Amortization

The company's fixed assets (if any) will be depreciated over the estimated useful lives of the assets as estimated by management.

C. Income Taxes

The company is a regular C corporation for tax purposes. No provision has been included on this balance sheet for federal and state income taxes as any taxes due are considered immaterial.

D. Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, cash includes amounts on hand, on deposit at financial institutions, and liquid investments with a maturity of three months or less. The company occasionally will have amounts on deposit at financial institutions that exceed the $250,000 FDIC insurance limit. The company believes there is no significant risk with respect to these deposits.

E. Comprehensive income

Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 130, Reporting Comprehensive Income, requires the reporting of comprehensive income in addition to net income from operations. Comprehensive income is a more inclusive financial reporting methodology that includes disclosure of certain financial information that historically has not been recognized in the calculation of net income. The company has no comprehensive income.

F. Inventory

The company currently has no inventory.

Note 1. Summary of Accounting Policies

G. Estimates

Management might use estimates and assumptions in preparing this financial statement in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Those estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of any contingent assets and liabilities. Actual results could vary from the estimates that were used.

Note 2. Nature of Operations

RocketTrader, Inc. is a Registered Investment Advisor that will use automatic trading models to trade securities within a client account. RocketTrader, Inc. will operate under the D/B/A of Quants Compete. Clients are billed a flat rate of $3.99/month until reaching a $5,000 account balance threshold. After exceeding this threshold, clients are billed a monthly management fee of .95% of assets.
