RISK FACTORS

Investing in the Securities involves a high degree of risk and may result in the loss of your entire investment. Before making an investment decision with respect to the Securities, we urge you to carefully consider the risks described in this section and other factors set forth in this Form C. In addition to the risks specified below, the Company is subject to same risks that all companies in its business, and all companies in the economy, are exposed to. These include risks relating to economic downturns, political and economic events and technological developments (such as hacking and the ability to prevent hacking). Additionally, early-stage companies are inherently riskier than more developed companies. Prospective Investors should consult with their legal, tax and financial advisors prior to making an investment in the Securities. The Securities should only be purchased by persons who can afford to lose all of their investment.

Risks Related to the Company's Business and Industry

We have a limited operating history upon which you can evaluate our performance, and accordingly, our prospects must be considered in light of the risks that any new company encounters.

The Company is still in an early phase and we are just beginning to implement our business plan. There can be no assurance that we will ever operate profitably. The likelihood of our success should be considered in light of the problems, expenses, difficulties, complications and delays usually encountered by early stage companies. The Company may not be successful in attaining the objectives necessary for it to overcome these risks and uncertainties.

The amount of capital the Company is attempting to raise in this Offering may not be enough to sustain the Company's current business plan.

In order to achieve the Company's near and long-term goals, the Company may need to procure funds in addition to the amount raised in the Offering. There is no guarantee the Company will be able to raise such funds on acceptable terms or at all. If we are not able to raise sufficient capital in the future, we may not be able to execute our business plan, our continued operations will be in jeopardy and we may be forced to cease operations and sell or otherwise transfer all or substantially all of our remaining assets, which could cause an Investor to lose all or a portion of their investment.

We may face potential difficulties in obtaining capital.

We may have difficulty raising needed capital in the future as a result of, among other factors, our lack of revenues from sales, as well as the inherent business risks associated with our Company and present and future market conditions. Our business currently does not generate any sales and future sources of revenue may not be sufficient to meet our future capital requirements. We will require additional funds to execute our business strategy and conduct our operations. If adequate funds are unavailable, we may be required to delay, reduce the scope of or eliminate one or more of our research, development or commercialization programs, product launches or marketing efforts, any of which may materially harm our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Economic, political and social conditions could materially affect our business by reducing consumer spending on live theatre or could have an impact on our business and financial condition in ways that we currently cannot predict.

We depend on consumers voluntarily spending discretionary funds on leisure activities. We also compete for the public's leisure time and disposable income with other forms of entertainment, including sporting events, theme parks, concerts, movies and restaurants. Live theatre attendance may be affected by negative trends in the general economy that adversely affect consumer spending. A prolonged reduction in consumer confidence or disposable income in general may affect the demand for live theatre or severely impact the live theatre industry, which, in turn, could adversely affect our operations. If economic conditions are weak or deteriorate, or if financial markets experience significant disruption, it could materially adversely affect our results of operations, financial position and/or liquidity. For example, deteriorating conditions in the global credit markets could negatively impact our business partners which may impact our productions.

Theatre attendance may also be affected by political events, such as terrorist attacks on, or wars or threatened wars involving, the United States, health related epidemics and random acts of violence, any one of which could cause people to avoid our theatres or other public places where large crowds are in attendance.

In addition, due to our concentration in certain markets, natural disasters such as hurricanes, earthquakes and severe storms in those markets could adversely affect our overall results of operations. In addition, our ability to access capital markets may be restricted at times when the implementation of our business strategy may require us to do so, which could have an impact on our flexibility to react to changing economic and business conditions.

All of these factors could adversely affect our financial condition and results of operations.

Our production operates in a competitive environment.

The live theatre industry is fragmented and highly competitive. Theatres and other venues operated by national and regional circuits and by small independent exhibitors compete with other productions, particularly with respect to licensing productions and attracting patrons.

Significant declines in theatre attendance could reduce the attractiveness of our production and could reduce our revenue.

Our business is affected by the level of theatre attendance. If theatre attendance declines significantly over an extended time period, we may face financial difficulties and could be forced to close our production. Attendance may also decline if the venues at which our production is hosted fail to maintain their premises or otherwise provide amenities that consumers prefer.

Economic uncertainty or deterioration in economic conditions may adversely impact our business, operating results or financial condition.

The financial markets have experienced extreme disruption and volatility and certain parts of the world-wide economy remain fragile. A future decline in consumer confidence in the U.S. may lead to decreased demand for live theatre productions. As a result, our results of operations and financial condition could be adversely affected. These challenging economic conditions also may result in:

- increased competition for fewer advertising and entertainment programming dollars;
- pricing pressure that may adversely affect revenue and gross margin;
- reduced credit availability and/or access to capital markets;
- difficulty forecasting, budgeting and planning due to limited visibility into the spending plans of current or prospective customers; or
- customer financial difficulty and increased risk of uncollectible accounts.

Our production is vulnerable to the effects from the coronavirus outbreak which could cause customers to avoid public assembly seating and has delayed the release of other theatre and live productions.

The coronavirus outbreak could cause patrons to avoid cinemas and live theatres or other public places where large crowds are in attendance. Outbreaks of the coronavirus have caused cinemas and other public assembly venues to close throughout the world, including in areas where we anticipate our production to be venued. As the coronavirus, and its variants, continue to spread in the United States, the venues at which our production may be performed may elect on a voluntary basis to close, or governmental officials may order such closures. Certain studios and other production companies have delayed the release of other productions. There is no assurance that our production will occur as planned. As a result, our results of operations and financial condition could be adversely affected.

We operate in a highly competitive environment with many competitors who are significantly larger and may have significantly better access to funds than we do.

We are a comparatively small production company and face competition from much larger producers. These larger producers are able to offer more performances – including in higher-profile markets, such as New York city – than can we. Faced with such competition, we may not be able to get access to the venues we want, which may adversely affect our revenue and profitability.

We face competition from other sources of entertainment and other entertainment delivery systems.

Our operations face competition from “in-home” and mobile device sources of entertainment. These include competition from network, cable and satellite television, internet streaming video services, Video on Demand, the internet, video games and other sources of entertainment. The quality of “in-home” and mobile entertainment systems, as well as programming available on an in-home and mobile basis, has increased, while the cost to consumers of such systems (and such programming) has decreased in recent periods, and some consumers may prefer the security and/or convenience of an “in-home” or mobile entertainment experience to the more public and presentation-oriented experience offered by our cinemas and live theatres. The amount of programming (including without limitation, the live streaming of sporting, theatrical and political events) available on an “in-home” and mobile basis continues to increase. We also face competition from various other forms of entertainment, including sporting events, concerts, restaurants, casinos, video game arcades, and nightclubs. Also, social media offerings – such as Facebook, Instagram and Snapchat – appear to be commanding increasing portions of the recreational time of our potential audience.

Our business may be vulnerable to fears of terrorism and random shooter incidents and of exposure to infectious disease which could cause customers to avoid public assembly seating.

Political events, such as terrorist attacks, random shooter incidents and health-related epidemics, pandemics, such as the coronavirus outbreak discussed above and flu outbreaks, could cause patrons to avoid venues at which our production is performed.

Adverse economic conditions could materially affect our business by reducing discretionary income and by limiting or reducing sources of film and live theatre funding.

Going to a live theatre performance is a luxury, not a necessity. Consumer demand for better and better amenities and food offerings have resulted in an increase of the cost of a night at a live event. Accordingly, a decline in the economy resulting in a decrease in discretionary income, or a perception of such a decline, may result in decreased discretionary spending, which could adversely affect our business.

Government regulation could impact our business.

The application of existing laws and regulations to our business relating to issues such as user privacy, pricing, taxation, content, sweepstakes, copyrights, trademarks, advertising, and the characteristics and quality of our products and services can be unclear. We also may be subject to new laws and regulations related to our business. Although we endeavor to comply with all applicable laws and regulations and believe that we are in compliance, because of the uncertainty of existing laws and the possibility that new laws may be adopted, there is a risk that we will not be in full compliance. Our efforts to comply with these and other laws subject our business to additional costs, and failure to comply could expose our business to liability.

Our production may be less successful than anticipated.

We cannot accurately predict the commercial success of our production because the revenue derived from the distribution of our production depends primarily upon its acceptance by the public, which cannot be accurately predicted. The commercial success of our production also depends upon the public’s acceptance of competing publications, critical reviews, the availability of alternative forms of entertainment and leisure time activities, general economic conditions, and other tangible and intangible factors, none of which can be predicted with certainty. Additionally, if our production is not successful, or if our production loses some of its popularity, our operations will decline, which could have a material adverse effect on our business, prospects and financial condition.

If we fail to maintain positive relationships with our key licensors, creative talent and performers, as well as to develop relationships with other creative talent and performers, our business could be adversely affected.

Our business is highly dependent on maintaining strong relationships with our key licensors, creative talent and performers. Any weakening of these relationships, or the failure to develop successful new relationships, could have an adverse impact on our business and financial performance.

Declines or disruptions in the travel and tourism industry in the cities in which our production will be performed, such as those due to terrorist attack or pandemics such as COVID-19, or general economic slowdowns such as the current recession, could negatively affect our business.

Our production business relies on the health of travel and tourism industry. Travel and tourism are highly sensitive to traveler safety concerns, and thus has historically declined after acts of terrorism or pandemics such as the current COVID-19 pandemic. These effects, depending on their scope and duration, could significantly reduce travel and tourism in the cities in which our production will be performed, which in turn could negatively impact the demand for our services. Reductions in travel and tourism could negatively impact our business, and if continuing, could have a material adverse effect on our business, prospects and financial condition.

Trends and changes in the theater industry could adversely affect our revenues.

A significant portion of our revenue is expected to derive from our production. If theater attendance declines, the demand for our services in the industry could soften, adversely affecting our revenues. Further, economic downturns negatively affect the entertainment industry generally and attendance at live theatres shows in particular. Moreover, new shows may not open. As a result of the COVID-19 pandemic, and for example, shows on Broadway in New York city were closed from April 2020 until the middle of September 2021. If such closures were to occur in the future, or if other economic downturns are experienced in the theater industry, such as on Broadway, whether currently or in the future, our business could be adversely affected.

Labor disputes could adversely affect our revenue.

Any strikes or other labor disputes that cause the “lights to go off”, or to otherwise materially reduce or affect the number of venues offering live shows could adversely affect our revenues. Seasonal factors also could affect our operating results.

Investments in live theatre and exhibitions

There are certain risks inherent in investing in the pre-production, staging and performance of live theatre productions and exhibitions. This type of investment may be affected by various factors apart from the quality of the product itself, including general and local economic conditions, the ability of producers, financiers and licensees to meet their commitments, the number, type and quality of programming competing for consumer attention, critical reviews, public taste and new and developing technologies. Our production may face intense competition from other live theatre productions and exhibitions. Even if our production is a critical success, there is no assurance that it will be a commercial success. It is impossible to accurately predict how long our production will run or the ultimate success of any live theatre production. The cost of developing, marketing and presenting live theatrical productions is substantial. Royalties payable to creative and artistic personnel vary according to the commercial terms negotiated for the particular production, including our production, and fluctuate in accordance with the box office revenue earned thereby; these variations will reduce the revenue available for payment to persons financing the costs of production. We will be competing with other producers of live theatre for the directors, actors and creative personnel whose participation is essential for a successful production. There can be no assurance that we will be able to successfully compete in order to obtain the services of such individuals.

Factors such as labor disputes, death or disability of a star performer, shortages of necessary equipment, the loss of a theatre or any force majeure event may cause cost overruns and delay or hamper a production of live theatre. In the event of a substantial budget overrun, we may have to seek additional financing from outside sources in order to perform our production. There is no assurance that such additional financing will be available or, if available, that it will be on terms which are acceptable. In any event, we reserve the right at all times to abandon our production, and there is no guarantee that our production will be successful.

Performance Risks

The production of live theatre involves a number of specific risks and unforeseen difficulties. Insurance will be obtained in accordance with the general practices of the live theatre stage production industry. However, all insurance is limited in nature and amount and there can be no guarantee that the insurance obtained will be sufficient. Accordingly, there is a risk that insurance proceeds payable to us in respect of our production may not be sufficient to reimburse us for amounts expended by it in respect of the production of such Production.

Our success depends on external factors in the theatre industry.

Our success depends on the commercial success of our production, which is unpredictable. Our production is an individual artistic work, and inherently unpredictable audience reactions primarily determine commercial success. Generally, the popularity of theatre or other forms of exhibition depends on many factors, including the critical acclaim they receive, the format, the actors and other key talent, their genre and their specific subject matter. The commercial success of any exhibition also depends upon the quality and acceptance of other content in whatever form that our competitors release into the marketplace at or near the same time, critical reviews, the availability of alternative forms of entertainment and leisure activities, general economic conditions and other tangible and intangible factors, many of which we do not control and all of which may change. We cannot predict the future effects of these factors with certainty, any of which could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, operating results, liquidity and prospects. Our success will depend on the experience and judgment of our management to select and develop new content acquisition and investment opportunities. We cannot make assurances that our production will obtain favorable reviews or ratings, will perform well at the box office or in ancillary markets. The failure to achieve any of the foregoing could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, operating results, liquidity and prospects.

The success of our businesses is highly dependent on the existence and maintenance of intellectual property rights in the publishing and entertainment products and services we create.

The value to us of our licensed intellectual property rights is dependent on the scope and duration of our rights as defined by applicable laws in the United States and abroad and the manner in which those laws are construed. If those laws are drafted or interpreted in ways that limit the extent or duration of our rights, or if existing laws are changed, our ability to generate revenue from our intellectual property may decrease, or the cost of obtaining and maintaining rights may increase.

The unauthorized use of our intellectual property may increase the cost of protecting rights in our intellectual property or reduce our revenues. The unauthorized distribution and access to content generally continues to be a significant challenge for intellectual property rights holders. Inadequate laws or weak enforcement mechanisms to protect entertainment industry intellectual property in one country can adversely affect the results of the Company's operations worldwide, despite the Company's efforts to protect its intellectual property rights. COVID-19 may increase incentives and opportunities to access content in unauthorized ways, as negative economic conditions coupled with a shift in government priorities could lead to less enforcement. These developments may require us to devote substantial resources to protecting our intellectual property against unlicensed use and present the risk of increased losses of revenue as a result of unlicensed distribution of our content.

With respect to intellectual property developed by us and rights acquired by us from others, we are subject to the risk of challenges to our copyright, trademark and patent rights by third parties. Successful challenges to our rights in intellectual property may result in increased costs for obtaining rights or the loss of the opportunity to earn revenue from the intellectual property that is the subject of challenged rights.

We may implement new lines of business or offer new products and services within existing lines of business.

As an early-stage company, we may implement new lines of business at any time. There are substantial risks and uncertainties associated with these efforts, particularly in instances where the markets are not fully developed. In developing and marketing new lines of business and/or new products and services, we may invest significant time and resources. Initial timetables for the introduction and development of new lines of business and/or new products or services may not be achieved, and price and profitability targets may not prove feasible. We may not be successful in introducing new products and services in response to industry trends or developments in technology, or those new products may not achieve market acceptance. As a result, we could lose business, be forced to price products and services on less advantageous terms to retain or attract clients or be subject to cost increases. As a result, our business, financial condition or results of operations may be adversely affected.

We rely on other companies to provide components and services for our production.

We depend on suppliers and contractors for our production and conduct our operations. Our ability to meet our obligations may be adversely affected if suppliers or contractors do not provide the agreed-upon supplies or perform the agreed-upon services in compliance with our requirements and in a timely and cost-effective manner.

We rely on various intellectual property rights, including trademarks, in order to operate our business.

The Company relies on certain in-bound intellectual property rights to operate its business, including under a certain license agreement dated as of September 23, 2021. The Company's in-bound intellectual property rights may not be sufficiently broad or otherwise may not provide us a significant competitive advantage. Our failure to obtain or maintain intellectual property rights that convey competitive advantage, adequately protect our intellectual property or detect or prevent circumvention or unauthorized use of such property, could adversely impact our competitive position and results of operations.

The Company's success depends on the experience and skill of the Managing Member.

We are dependent on our Managing Member, which may not devote its full time and attention to the matters of the Company. The loss of our Managing Member could harm the Company's business, financial condition, cash flow and results of operations.

Although dependent on certain key personnel, the Company does not have any key person life insurance policies on any such people.

We are dependent on certain key personnel in order to conduct our operations and execute our business plan, however, the Company has not purchased any insurance policies with respect to those individuals in the event of their death or disability. Therefore, if any of these personnel die or become disabled, the Company will not receive any compensation to assist with such person's absence. The loss of such person could negatively affect the Company and our operations. We have no way to guarantee key personnel will stay with the Company, as many states do not enforce non-competition agreements, and therefore acquiring key man insurance will not ameliorate all of the risk of relying on key personnel.

Damage to our reputation, or the reputation of "Magic Mike," "Magic Mike XXL" or "Magic Mike Live" could negatively impact our business, financial condition and results of operations.

The reputation and the quality of our brand, and the "Magic Mike," "Magic Mike XXL" or "Magic Mike Live" brand, are critical to our business and success in existing markets and will be critical to our success as we enter new markets. Any incident that erodes consumer loyalty for such brands could significantly reduce its value and damage our business. We may be adversely affected by any negative publicity, regardless of its accuracy. Also, there has been a marked increase in the use of social media platforms and similar devices, including blogs, social media websites and other forms of internet-based communications that provide individuals with access to a broad audience of consumers and other interested persons. The availability of information on social media platforms is virtually immediate as is its impact. Information posted may be adverse to our interests or may be inaccurate, each of which may harm our performance, prospects or business. The harm may be immediate and may disseminate rapidly and broadly, without affording us an opportunity for redress or correction.

The Company is not subject to Sarbanes-Oxley regulations and may lack the financial controls and procedures of public companies.

The Company may not have the internal control infrastructure that would meet the standards of a public company, including the requirements of the Sarbanes Oxley Act of 2002. As a privately-held (non-public) Company, the Company is currently not subject to the Sarbanes Oxley Act of 2002, and its financial and disclosure controls and procedures reflect its status as a development stage, non-public company. There can be no guarantee that there are no significant deficiencies or material weaknesses in the quality of the Company's financial and disclosure controls and procedures. If it were necessary to implement such financial and disclosure controls and procedures, the cost to the Company of such compliance could be substantial and could have a material adverse effect on the Company's results of operations.

We operate in a highly regulated environment, and if we are found to be in violation of any of the federal, state, or local laws or regulations applicable to us, our business could suffer.

We are also subject to a wide range of federal, state, and local laws and regulations, such as local licensing requirements, and retail financing, debt collection, consumer protection, environmental, health and safety, creditor, wage-hour, anti-discrimination, whistleblower and other employment practices laws and regulations and we expect these costs to increase going forward. The violation of these or future requirements or laws and regulations could result in administrative, civil, or criminal sanctions against us, which may include fines, a cease and desist order against the subject operations or even revocation or suspension of our license to operate the subject business. As a result, we have incurred and will continue to incur capital and operating expenditures and other costs to comply with these requirements and laws and regulations.

We are not authorized to conduct business in New York.

Although our primary business address is in New York, we have not filed an application for authority as a foreign limited liability company with the Department of State of the State of New York. Thus, to the extent we are required to file such certificate, we may be, or may become, subject to penalties, fees, fines or taxes for any business operations transacted in Massachusetts without the required filings. The cost to the Company for such compliance could be substantial and could have a material adverse effect on the Company's results of operations, and, as a result, could impair the value of the Company and the Securities.

Risks Related to the Offering

State and federal securities laws are complex, and the Company could potentially be found to have not complied with all relevant state and federal securities law in prior offerings of securities.

The Company has conducted previous offerings of securities and may not have complied with all relevant state and federal securities laws. If a court or regulatory body with the required jurisdiction ever concluded that the Company may have violated state or federal securities laws, any such violation could result in the Company being required to offer rescission rights to investors in such offering. If such investors exercised their rescission rights, the Company would have to pay to such investors an amount of funds equal to the purchase price paid by such investors plus interest from the date of any such purchase. No assurances can be given the Company will, if it is required to offer such investors a rescission right, have sufficient funds to pay the prior investors the amounts required or that proceeds from this Offering would not be used to pay such amounts.

In addition, if the Company violated federal or state securities laws in connection with a prior offering and/or sale of its securities, federal or state regulators could bring an enforcement, regulatory and/or other legal action against the Company which, among other things, could result in the Company having to pay substantial fines and be prohibited from selling securities in the future.

The U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission does not pass upon the merits of the Securities or the terms of the Offering, nor does it pass upon the accuracy or completeness of any Offering document or literature.

You should not rely on the fact that our Form C is accessible through the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission's EDGAR filing system as an approval, endorsement or guarantee of compliance as it relates to this Offering. The U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission has not reviewed this Form C, nor any document or literature related to this Offering.

Neither the Offering nor the Securities have been registered under federal or state securities laws.

No governmental agency has reviewed or passed upon this Offering or the Securities. Neither the Offering nor the Securities have been registered under federal or state securities laws. Investors will not receive any of the benefits available in registered offerings, which may include access to quarterly and annual financial statements that have been audited by an independent accounting firm. Investors must therefore assess the adequacy of disclosure and the fairness of the terms of this Offering based on the information provided in this Form C and the accompanying exhibits.

The Company's management may have broad discretion in how the Company uses the net proceeds of the Offering.

Unless the Company has agreed to a specific use of the proceeds from the Offering, the Company's management will have considerable discretion over the use of proceeds from the Offering. You may not have the opportunity, as part of your investment decision, to assess whether the proceeds are being used appropriately.

The Company has the right to limit individual Investor commitment amounts based on the Company's determination of an Investor's sophistication.

The Company may prevent any Investor from committing more than a certain amount in this Offering based on the Company's determination of the Investor's sophistication and ability to assume the risk of the investment. This means that your desired investment amount may be limited or lowered based solely on the Company's determination and not in line with relevant investment limits set forth by the Regulation CF rules. This also means that other Investors may receive larger allocations of the Offering based solely on the Company's determination.

The Company has the right to extend the Offering Deadline.

The Company may extend the Offering Deadline beyond what is currently stated herein. This means that your investment may continue to be held in escrow while the Company attempts to raise the Target Offering Amount even after the Offering Deadline stated herein is reached. While you have the right to cancel your investment in the event the Company extends the Offering Deadline, if you choose to reconfirm your investment, your investment will not be accruing interest during this time and will simply be held until such time as the new Offering Deadline is reached without the Company receiving the Target Offering Amount, at which time it will be returned to you without interest or deduction, or the Company receives the Target Offering Amount, at which time it will be released to the Company to be used as set forth herein. Upon or shortly after the release of such funds to the Company, the Securities will be issued and distributed to you.

The Company may also end the Offering early.

If the Target Offering Amount is met after 21 calendar days, but before the Offering Deadline, the Company can end the Offering by providing notice to Investors at least 5 business days prior to the end of the Offering. This means your failure to participate in the Offering in a timely manner, may prevent you from being able to invest in this Offering – it also means the Company may limit the amount of capital it can raise during the Offering by ending the Offering early.

The Company has the right to conduct multiple closings during the Offering.

If the Company meets certain terms and conditions, an intermediate close of the Offering can occur, which will allow the Company to draw down on half of the proceeds committed and captured in the Offering during the relevant period. The Company may choose to continue the Offering thereafter. Investors should be mindful that this means they can make multiple investment commitments in the Offering, which may be subject to different cancellation rights. For example, if an intermediate close occurs and later a material change occurs as the Offering continues, Investors whose investment commitments were previously closed upon will not have the right to re-confirm their investment as it will be deemed to have been completed prior to the material change.

Risks Related to the Securities

The Securities will not be freely tradable under the Securities Act until one year from the initial purchase date. Although the Securities may be tradable under federal securities law, state securities regulations may apply, and each Investor should consult with their attorney.

You should be aware of the long-term nature of this investment. There is not now and likely will not ever be a public market for the Securities. Because the Securities have not been registered under the Securities Act or under the securities laws of any state or foreign jurisdiction, the Securities have transfer restrictions and cannot be resold in the United States except pursuant to Rule 501 of Regulation CF. It is not currently contemplated that registration under the Securities Act or other securities laws will be effected. Limitations on the transfer of the Securities may also adversely affect the price that you might be able to obtain for the Securities in a private sale. Investors should be aware of the long-term nature of their investment in the Company. Each Investor in this Offering will be required to represent that they are purchasing the Securities for their own account, for investment purposes and not with a view to resale or distribution thereof.

Investors will not be entitled to any inspection or information rights other than those required by law.

Investors will not have the right to inspect the books and records of the Company or to receive financial or other information from the Company, other than as required by law. Other security holders of the Company may have such rights. Regulation CF requires only the provision of an annual report on Form C and no additional information. Additionally, there are numerous methods by which the Company can terminate annual report obligations, resulting in no information rights, contractual, statutory or otherwise, owed to Investors. This lack of information could put Investors at a disadvantage in general and with respect to other security holders, including certain security holders who have rights to periodic financial statements and updates from the Company such as quarterly unaudited financials, annual projections and budgets, and monthly progress reports, among other things.

There is no present market for the Securities and we have arbitrarily set the price.

The Offering price was not established in a competitive market. We have arbitrarily set the price of the Securities with reference to the general status of the securities market and other relevant factors. The Offering price for the Securities should not be considered an indication of the actual value of the Securities and is not based on our asset value, net worth, revenues or other established criteria of value. We cannot guarantee that the Securities can be resold at the Offering price or at any other price.

There is no guarantee of a return on an Investor's investment.

There is no assurance that an Investor will realize a return on their investment or that they will not lose their entire investment. For this reason, each Investor should read this Form C and all exhibits carefully and should consult with their attorney and business advisor prior to making any investment decision.

IN ADDITION TO THE RISKS LISTED ABOVE, RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES NOT PRESENTLY KNOWN, OR WHICH WE CONSIDER IMMATERIAL AS OF THE DATE OF THIS FORM C, MAY ALSO HAVE AN ADVERSE EFFECT ON OUR BUSINESS AND RESULT IN THE TOTAL LOSS OF YOUR INVESTMENT.

BUSINESS

Description of the Business

MML Touring, LLC produces the North American touring production of the Las Vegas Style Revue Magic Mike Live. The show, which was written and directed by Channing Tatum, launched initially in Las Vegas in 2017 before opening resident productions in London and Berlin. Now, for the first time in North America, a self-contained touring version of the show in a custom venue will be crisscrossing the US, Canada and Mexico.

Business Plan

- Estimated total production funding of $9.2mm with approximately $4mm-$5mm as capitalization and $4mm-$5mm in the form of promoter advances and pre-paid expenses.
- The show not only receives 100% of the net box office proceeds, it also receives 100% of the net proceeds from the food and beverage business (contingent upon site selection and local requirements), VIP experiences, sponsorship income, and income from ticketing fees along with a share of the net profits from tour merchandise.
- The tour has almost double the capacity of the successful London show with over 6300 tickets available per week. Each city will include approximately 18-26 week runs with up to ten shows per week (with a potential 47 performance weeks per year).
- The show breaks even at 50%-60% of capacity and has net weekly profit potential of close to $300,000 per week from all sources, with total tour net profit in excess of $90,000,000 over the potential life of the tour.

The Company's Products and/or Services

Product / Service	Description	Current Market
Magic Mike Live Tour	The touring version of the international hit show Magic Mike Live.	Women 18-80, Couples, Gay men, celebrations (i.e. bachelorette parties, birthday parties, anniversaries, etc.)

Competition

Magic Mike Live has essentially created its own category of entertainment. The show reinvents the traditional male revue for a modern female audience with a focus on empowerment, sensuality, and fun. The show features some of the best dancers in the world performing one-of-a-kind dance routines in a 360-degree, custom-built pop-up venue. The show's proprietary touring venue allows for an intimate yet spectacular viewing experience with production values comparable to the most complex Broadway show. It also allows for a full beverage service before, during, and after the show as well as a dedicated VIP area, box office, and retail store. There are no other comparable productions currently on tour that specifically targets adult females and provides this level of curation and quality. The closest competitors are those in the more traditional male review space like Chippendales and Thunder From Down Under.

Customer Base

The customer base is primarily females (90%) ages 18-80 with a specific focus on females 18-45. We also target couples and gay men.

Intellectual Property and Supply Chain

We have an in-bound license to use, make derivative works of, and otherwise commercially exploit certain rights in the United States, Canada and Mexico, subject to certain terms and conditions. We do not own any registered intellectual property rights, such as registered trademarks, copyrights or patents.

The Company is a party to a certain Promoter Tour Agreement, dated as of November 1, 2021 (the “PTA”), under which the Company granted a certain promoter (the “Promoter”) certain exclusive and non-exclusive rights with respect to tour and ancillary rights, tour itinerary, tour events, sponsorship, advertising promotion and marketing, in exchange for certain compensation, including a certain guarantee to the Promoter. Additionally exchanged under the PTA, the Promoter agreed to remit to the Company a sum of Three Million Dollars ($3,000,000) upon the completion execution of the PTA, which remittance is considered non-refundable under the PTA. Lastly, The Company and the Promoter agreed to certain indemnification rights under the PTA.

Governmental/Regulatory Approval and Compliance

The Company is subject to and affected by the laws and regulations of U.S. federal, state and local governmental authorities. These laws and regulations are subject to change.

Litigation

The Company is not subject to any current litigation or threatened litigation.

USE OF PROCEEDS

The following table illustrates how we intend to use the net proceeds received from this Offering. The values below are not inclusive of payments to financial and legal service providers and escrow related fees, all of which were incurred in the preparation of this Offering and are due in advance of the closing of the Offering.

Use of Proceeds	% of Proceeds if Target Offering Amount Raised	Amount if Target Offering Amount Raised	% of Proceeds if Maximum Offering Amount Raised	Amount if Maximum Offering Amount Raised
Intermediary Fees	6%	$1,500	6%	$64,200
General corporate purposes	94%	$23,500	94%	$1,005,800
Total	100%	$25,000	100%	$1,070,000

The Company has discretion to alter the use of proceeds set forth above to adhere to the Company's business plan and liquidity requirements. For example, economic conditions may alter the Company's general marketing or general working capital requirements.

The funds raised by the Company, including from this Offering, will be utilized to mount the tour in the launch city. It is anticipated, as is the case in most live entertainment projects, that mounting the show will require the expenditure of the vast majority of the funds raised by the Company. If this Offering fails, the Company will still need to raise the remaining capitalization of the show from other source or the show will not be mounted. Since the vast majority of the money raised will go toward mounting the show, the Company's future liquidity will be based on its ability to achieve its weekly operating goals.

We intend to use 94% of the proceeds for general corporate purposes.

In addition, the doing of any act or the omission to do any act by the Managing Member (and/or its principal[s]), the effect of which may cause or result in loss or damage to the Company, if done in good faith and otherwise in accordance with the terms of the Operating Agreement, shall not subject the Managing Member (and/or its principal[s]) to any liability. FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Please see the financial information listed on the cover page of this Form C and attached hereto in addition to the following information. Financial statements are attached hereto as Exhibit A.

Operations

MML Touring LLC (the “Company”) was formed on April 15, 2021 under the laws of the State of Delaware, and is headquartered in New York, NY.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

As of October 31, 2021, the Company had an aggregate of $383,592 in cash and cash equivalents, leaving the Company with approximately 3 months of runway.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The proceeds from the Offering are essential to our operations. We plan to use the proceeds as set forth above under the section titled “Use of Proceeds”, which is an indispensable element of our business strategy. Concurrently with this Offering, the Company intends to engage in the private placement of its securities in reliance on the safe harbor set forth in Rule 506(b) under Regulation D of the Securities Act of 1933.

Capital Expenditures and Other Obligations

The Company does not intend to make any material capital expenditures in the near future, except that the Company will utilize the capital it raises (including the capital from this Offering) to mount the show in the initial touring city which will require large capital expenditures on all necessary production expenses. Following the opening, the weekly operating expenses will be paid by the weekly income of the production and large capital expenditures are rare. The Company will, however, move the tour to a new city approximately every six months. Each time the venue moves it incurs relocation costs of between $1.25mm-$2mm depending on the length and complexity of the move and expenses which vary from market to market. The move cost is accrued on a weekly basis during running weeks of the show.

Valuation

The Company has ascribed no pre-Offering valuation to the Company; the securities are priced arbitrarily.

Material Changes and Other Information

Trends and Uncertainties

After reviewing the above discussion of the steps the Company intends to take, potential Investors should consider whether achievement of each step within the estimated time frame will be realistic in their judgment. Potential Investors should also assess the consequences to the Company of any delays in taking these steps and whether the Company will need additional financing to accomplish them.

Please see the financial statements attached as Exhibit A for subsequent events and applicable disclosures.

TRANSACTIONS WITH RELATED PERSONS AND CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

From time to time the Company may engage in transactions with related persons. Related persons are defined as any director or officer of the Company; any person who is the beneficial owner of twenty percent (20%) or more of the Company’s outstanding voting equity securities, calculated on the basis of voting power; any promoter of the Company; any immediate family member of any of the foregoing persons or an entity controlled by any such person or persons. The Company has conducted the following transactions with related persons:

The Company entered into the Operating Agreement with its Managing Member under which:

- The Managing Member shall furnish office facilities to the Company (as said term is understood in the theatrical industry), which shall include office space, local telephone, stationery, secretary and like facilities (but not press department or legal or auditing services). The Managing Member will receive a one-time payment of $16,000 to offset overhead for pre-production for the Touring Production;
- Office facilities, electrical or other equipment of any kind or nature, drapes and/or props and any other physical production elements of any kind or nature, advertising services, theatres and other property may be furnished to the Company by the Managing Member and/or any company, partnership, corporation or other firm in which it is in any way interested. It is further agreed and acknowledged that the Company may enter into an agreement with any company, partnership, corporation or other firm in which the Managing Member is in any way interested, with respect to the publication and sale of souvenir programs, and other merchandising and commercial use products for which such parties shall be entitled to compensation deemed by the Managing Member to be fair and reasonable. The Managing Member may enter into additional agreements with respect to the disposition of any and all rights held by the Company in the Play, with the Managing Member and/or any Entity in which the Managing Member may be in any way interested. All such agreements with the Managing Member or such other Entities will be on terms and conditions no more favorable to them than those generally prevailing for transactions of this type. All sums derived by the Managing Member or any of such Entities shall belong solely to the parties providing such services, without obligation to account therefor to the Company or the Investing Members, and the Company shall not be entitled in any manner to share therein;

- It is anticipated that the Managing Member, in its capacity as executive producer, shall receive (i) a production fee in the amount of $150,000, (ii) a weekly fee in the amount of $3,000 commencing upon the commencement of rehearsals and continuing until the close of the Touring Production, and (iii) a weekly office fee at the rate of $750 for each week commencing two (2) weeks prior to the commencement of rehearsals of the Touring Production and continuing until four (4) weeks after the close of the Touring Production.
- The Managing Member may receive fair compensation for services performed other than those customarily rendered by a managing member, including, but not limited to the executive producer compensation in Section 6.5.1 of the Operating Agreement. The Company may enter into agreements including without limitation, those described in Section 6.6 of the Operating Agreement, with other corporations or entities in which the Managing Member may have an interest to furnish properties or services to the Company at the prevailing rates for such properties or services.
- In addition to the compensation paid to the Managing Member as described in Section 6.5 of the Operating Agreement, the Managing Member (and/or the Managing Member's principals and/or Affiliates) may now or hereafter engage in businesses which provide goods and/or services to the Company which otherwise would be provided by unrelated third parties. In particular, it is anticipated that marketing, production management, casting, and certain food and beverage related services will be provided by entities which are owned and/or operated by or are an Affiliate of the Managing Member, and that such entities shall be entitled to receive compensation and expenses in connection with such services.
- The Managing Member shall be reimbursed for all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses actually incurred on behalf of the Company and, if the Managing Member so elects, for any and all monies expended by it prior to the Full Capitalization of the Company, for developmental expenses incurred by it in connection with the Play (including, but not limited to, the costs of readings and/or workshops), for expenses which shall have been necessarily and reasonably incurred by it, including advances to any creative personnel, performers and others, and traveling and related expenses incurred in order to acquire rights and personnel and as required pursuant to the MM Rights License and the creative team agreements and, without limiting the foregoing, for any and all items which, if incurred by the Company, would constitute Production Expenses, Running Expenses and/or Other Expenses. To the extent, if any, that the Managing Member does not elect to be reimbursed for all such monies expended by them, each of such parties may elect to have the aggregate of such unreimbursed sums deemed Capital Contributions to the Company by such party as an Investing Member.
- Cash Flow to the extent of Net Profits shall be distributed as follows: (a) first, to the payment of any percentage share of Net Profits as may be required to be paid to any Persons or Entities in connection with their granting rights, or the provision of their services to the Company should the Managing Member so agree, including an anticipated share of 25% of 100% of the Net Profits payable to the Founders, increasing to 50% following 200% Recoupment; (b) second, the balance remaining (the "Adjusted Net Profits") shall be payable to the Investing Members in proportion to their Capital Interests in the Company until such time, if ever, that the Investing Members receive an additional amount equal to twenty percent (20%) of the Original Capital of the Company; and (c) thereafter, Adjusted Net Profits shall be distributed fifty (50%) percent to the Investing Members in proportion to their Capital Interests in the Company and fifty (50%) percent to the Managing Member (the "Adjusted Net Profits Distributions").

- Net Tax Profits for each fiscal year shall be allocated among the Members as follows: First, to the Managing Member until the aggregate amount of Net Tax Profits so allocated for the current and all prior years is equal to the aggregate amount of Net Tax Losses allocated to the Managing Member for all prior years under Section 8.2.3 of the Operating Agreement; Next, to the Members in proportion to their Capital Contributions until the aggregate amount of Net Tax Profits so allocated for the current year and all prior years is equal to the aggregate amount of Net Tax Losses allocated for all prior years under Section 8.2.2 of the Operating Agreement; Any remaining balance of Net Tax Profits shall be allocated fifty (50%) percent to the Investing Members in proportion to their interests in the Company and fifty (50%) percent to the Managing Member. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 8.1 of the Operating Agreement, to the extent that Net Tax Losses were allocated to a Member in any year by reason of the provisions of Section 8.3.1 of the Operating Agreement, Net Tax Profits for the current and subsequent years shall be allocated to such Member until equal to the amount of Net Tax Losses allocated to such Member pursuant to Section 8.3.1 of the Operating Agreement.

THE OFFERING AND THE SECURITIES

The Offering

The Company is offering a minimum amount of $25,000 (the “Target Offering Amount”) and up to a maximum amount of $1,070,000 (the “Maximum Offering Amount”) of Units of Capital Interest (the “Securities”) on a best-efforts basis as described in this Form C (this “Offering”). We must raise an amount equal to or greater than the Target Offering Amount by March 31, 2022 (the “Offering Deadline”). Unless we raise at least the Target Offering Amount by the Offering Deadline, no Securities will be sold in this Offering, all investment commitments will be cancelled and all committed funds will be returned. Potential purchasers of the Securities are referred to herein as “Investors” or “you”.

Concurrently with this Offering, the Company intends to engage in the private placement of its securities in reliance on the safe harbor set forth in Rule 506(b) under Regulation D of the Securities Act of 1933.

The price of the Securities was determined arbitrarily, does not necessarily bear any relationship to the Company’s asset value, net worth, revenues or other established criteria of value, and should not be considered indicative of the actual value of the Securities. The minimum amount that an Investor may invest in the Offering is $100 and the maximum amount that an Investor may invest in the Offering is $107,000, each of which is subject to adjustment in the Company’s sole discretion.

In order to purchase the Securities, you must make a commitment to purchase by completing the subscription process hosted by OpenDeal Portal LLC dba Republic (the “Intermediary”), including complying with the Intermediary’s know your customer (KYC) and anti-money laundering (AML) policies. If an Investor makes an investment commitment under a name that is not their legal name, they may be unable to redeem their Security indefinitely, and neither the Intermediary nor the Company are required to correct any errors or omissions made by the Investor.

Investor funds will be held in escrow with Prime Trust, LLC until the Target Offering Amount has been met or exceeded and one or more closings occur. Investors may cancel an investment commitment until up to 48 hours prior to the Offering Deadline, or such earlier time as the Company designates pursuant to Regulation CF, using the cancellation mechanism provided by the Intermediary. Investors using a credit card to invest must represent and warrant to cancel any investment commitment(s) by submitting a request through the Intermediary at least 48 hours prior to the Offering Deadline, instead of attempting to claim fraud or claw back their committed funds.

The Company will notify Investors when the Target Offering Amount has been reached through the Intermediary. If the Company reaches the Target Offering Amount prior to the Offering Deadline, it may close the Offering early provided (i) the expedited Offering Deadline must be twenty-one (21) days from the time the Offering was opened, (ii) the Intermediary must provide at least five (5) business days’ notice prior to the expedited Offering Deadline to the Investors and (iii) the Company continues to meet or exceed the Target Offering Amount on the date of the expedited Offering Deadline.

Material Changes

If any material change occurs related to the Offering prior to the current Offering Deadline the Company will provide notice to Investors and receive reconfirmations from Investors who have already made commitments. If an Investor does not reconfirm their investment commitment after a material change is made to the terms of the Offering within five (5) business days of receiving notice, the Investor’s investment commitment will be cancelled and the committed funds will be returned without interest or deductions. If an Investor does not cancel an investment commitment before the Target Offering Amount is reached, the funds will be released to the Company upon the closing of the Offering and the Investor will receive the Securities in exchange for their investment.

Intermediate Closings

In the event an amount equal to two (2) times the Target Offering Amount is committed and meets all required terms of the Offering prior to the Offering Deadline on such date or such later time the Company designates pursuant to Rule 304(b) of Regulation CF, the Company may conduct the first of multiple closings of the Offering early, provided (i) the early closing date must be twenty-one (21) days from the time the Offering opened and (ii) that all Investors will receive notice of such early closing date at least five (5) business days prior to such new offering deadline (absent a material change that would require an extension of the Offering and reconfirmation of all investment commitments). Investors who committed on the date such notice is provided or prior to the issuance of such notice will be able to cancel their investment commitment until 48 hours before such early closing date.

If the Company conducts an initial closing (the “Initial Closing”), the Company agrees to only withdraw half of the proceeds that are in escrow and will only conduct such Initial Closing if there are more than twenty-one (21) days remaining before the Offering Deadline as of the date of the Initial Closing. The Company may only conduct another close (a “Subsequent Closing”) before the Offering Deadline if the amount of investment commitments made as of the date of such Subsequent Closing exceeds two times the amount committed as of the date of the Initial Closing and there are more than twenty-one (21) days remaining before the Offering Deadline as of the date of such Subsequent Closing.

Any investment commitments received after an intermediate closing will be released to the Company upon a subsequent closing and the Investor will receive evidence of the Securities via electronic certificate/PDF in exchange for their investment commitment as soon as practicable thereafter.

The Company has agreed to return all funds to Investors in the event a Form C-W is ultimately filed in relation to this Offering, regardless of whether multiple closings are conducted.

Investment commitments are not binding on the Company until they are accepted by the Company, which reserves the right to reject, in whole or in part, in its sole and absolute discretion, any investment commitment. If the Company rejects all or a portion of any investment commitment, the applicable prospective Investor’s funds will be returned without interest or deduction.

PRIME TRUST, THE ESCROW AGENT SERVICING THE OFFERING, HAS NOT INVESTIGATED THE DESIRABILITY OR ADVISABILITY OF AN INVESTMENT IN THIS OFFERING OR THE SECURITIES OFFERED HEREIN. THE ESCROW AGENT MAKES NO REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES, ENDORSEMENTS, OR JUDGEMENT ON THE MERITS OF THE OFFERING OR THE SECURITIES OFFERED HEREIN. MML TOURING LLC
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
OCTOBER 31, 2021 AND DECEMBER 31, 2021
(unaudited)

1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

The Company

MML Touring LLC (the “Company”) was incorporated in the State of Delaware on April 15, 2021. The Company produces the North American touring production of the Las Vegas Style Revenue “Magic Mike Live”, which includes the actual paid performance, food and beverage service, retail sales and VIP services. The show, which was written and directed by Channing Tatum, launched initially in Las Vegas in 2017 before opening resident productions in London and Berlin. Now, for the first time in North America, a self-contained touring version of the show in a custom venue will be available to audiences in the US, Canada, and Mexico.

Going Concern

Since inception, the Company has relied on contributions from members to fund its operations. As of October 31, 2021, the Company will likely incur losses prior to generating sales revenues. These matters raise substantial concern about the Company’s ability to continue as a going concern. As of October 31, 2021, the Company is still mostly in the developmental process, with very limited revenue. The Company’s ability to continue as a going concern is dependent on the Company’s ability to raise short term capital, as well as the Company’s ability to finish the development of the generate funds through revenue producing activities.

Fiscal Year

The Company operates on a December 31st year-end.

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (US GAAP).

Use of Estimates

The preparation of the financial statement in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires the use of management’s estimates. These estimates are subjective in nature and involve judgments that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at period-end. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid financial instruments purchased with maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents. As of October 31, 2021, and December 31, 2020, the Company held no cash equivalents.

Risks and Uncertainties

The Company has a limited operating history. The Company’s business and operations are sensitive to general business and economic conditions in the United States. A host of factors beyond the Company’s control could cause fluctuations in these conditions.

The Coronavirus Disease of 2019 (COVID-19) has recently affected global markets, supply chains, employees of companies, and our communities. Specific to the Company, COVID-19 may impact various parts of its 2021 operations and financial results including shelter in place orders, material supply chain interruption, economic hardships affecting funding for the Company’s operations, and affects the Company’s workforce. Management believes the Company is taking appropriate actions to mitigate the negative impact. However, the full impact of COVID-19 is unknown and cannot be reasonably estimated as of October 31, 2021.

See independent accountant’s review report.

1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Accounts Receivable

The Company's trade receivables are recorded when billed and represent claims against third parties that will be settled in cash. The carrying value of the Company's receivables, net of the allowance for doubtful accounts, represents their estimated net realizable value.

The Company evaluates the collectability of accounts receivable on a customer-by-customer basis. The Company records a reserve for bad debts against amounts due to reduce the net recognized receivable to an amount the Company believes will be reasonably collected. The reserve is a discretionary amount determined from the analysis of the aging of the accounts receivables, historical experience and knowledge of specific customers. As of October 31, 2021, and December 31, 2020, the Company had no accounts receivable.

Production Costs

Production costs consist of all expenses incurred in mounting the production. The production costs of the Company are being amortized over the estimated life of the Production using the income forecast method.

Income Taxes

The Company is a limited liability company. Accordingly, under the Internal Revenue Code, all taxable income or loss flows through to its members. Therefore, no provision for income tax has been recorded in the statements. Income from the Company is reported and taxed to members on their individual tax returns.

The Company complies with FASB ASC 740 for accounting for uncertainty in income taxes recognized in a company's financial statements, which prescribes a recognition threshold and measurement process for financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. For those benefits to be recognized, a tax position must be more-likely-than-not to be sustained upon examination by taxing authorities. FASB ASC 740 also provides guidance on derecognition, classification, interest and penalties, accounting in interim periods, disclosure and transition. Based on the Company's evaluation, it has been concluded that there are no significant uncertain tax positions requiring recognition in the Company's financial statements. The Company believes that its income tax positions would be sustained on audit and does not anticipate any adjustments that would result in a material change to its financial position.

The Company is subject to franchise and income tax filing requirements in the State of Delaware.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Fair value is defined as the exchange price that would be received for an asset or paid to transfer a liability (an exit price) in the principal or most advantageous market for the asset or liability in an orderly transaction between market participants as of the measurement date. Applicable accounting guidance provides an established hierarchy for inputs used in measuring fair value that maximizes the use of observable inputs and minimizes the use of unobservable inputs by requiring that the most observable inputs be used when available. Observable inputs are inputs that market participants would use in valuing the asset or liability and are developed based on market data obtained from sources independent of the Company. Unobservable inputs are inputs that reflect the Company's assumptions about the factors that market participants would use in valuing the asset or liability. There are three levels of inputs that may be used to measure fair value:

|---------|--|
| Level 1 | - Observable inputs that reflect quoted prices (unadjusted) for identical assets or liabilities in active markets. |
| Level 2 | - Include other inputs that are directly or indirectly observable in the marketplace. |
| Level 3 | - Unobservable inputs which are supported by little or no market activity. |

The fair value hierarchy also requires an entity to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs when measuring fair value.

Fair-value estimates discussed herein are based upon certain market assumptions and pertinent information available to management as of Inception. Fair values were assumed to approximate carrying values because of their short term in nature or they are payable on demand.

Concentrations of Credit Risk

From time-to-time cash balances, held at a major financial institution may exceed federally insured limits of $250,000. Management believes that the financial institution is financially sound, and the risk of loss is low.

Revenue Recognition

The Company adopted Accounting Standards Codification 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers ("ASC 606"). Revenue is recognized when performance obligations under the terms of the contracts with our customers are satisfied. The Company generates revenues by selling tickets to live performances. The Company's payments are generally collected upfront. For the periods ending October 31, 2021, and December 31, 2020, the Company recognized nil in revenue, respectively.

Advertising Expenses

The Company expenses advertising costs as they are incurred.

Prepaid Expenses

The Company provides advanced compensation payments to their booking agent for the first 12 weeks of the tour. Such amounts will be expensed monthly on a straight-line basis starting after the 12-week period.

Organizational Costs

In accordance with FASB ASC 720, organizational costs, including accounting fees, legal fee, and costs of incorporation, are expensed as incurred.

New Accounting Pronouncements

From time to time, new accounting pronouncements are issued by the Financial Accounting Standards Board, or FASB, or other standard setting bodies and adopted by the Company as of the specified effective date. Unless otherwise discussed, the Company believes that the impact of recently issued standards that are not yet effective will not have a material impact on its financial position or results of operations upon adoption.

In February 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-02, Leases (Topic 842), or ASU 2016-02, which supersedes the guidance in ASC 840, Leases. The new standard requires lessees to apply a dual approach, classifying leases as either finance or operating leases based on the principle of whether or not the lease is effectively a financed purchase by the lessee. This classification will determine whether lease expense is recognized based on an effective interest method or on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease. A lessee is also required to record a right-of-use asset and a lease liability for all leases with a term of greater than 12 months regardless of their classification. Leases with a term of 12 months or less will be accounted for similar to existing guidance for operating leases today. This guidance is effective for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2021 for non-public entities. The adoption of ASU 2016-02 had no material impact on the Company's financial statements and related disclosures.

2. Commitments and Contingencies

The Company is not currently involved with and does not know of any pending or threatening litigation against the Company or its members.

There was no amortization expense for the periods ending October 31, 2021, and December 31, 2020 as the production had not yet commenced performance and no income has been generated.

4. Deferred Revenue

At October 31, 2021 deferred revenue primarily consists of sponsorship received from the Company's ticketing agency under an agreement. The agreement requires the Company to transact at least 800,000 ticket sales through the ticketing agencies' site that would be subject to certain agency fees over the 4-year term of the agreement. If the Company does not meet these requirements it is obligated to return a pro-rata share of the sponsorship equivalent to $1.25 per ticket shortfall.

4. Deferred Revenue (continued)

5. Equity

Members' Units and Members' Capital

From April 2021 through September 2021, the Company received contributions of member capital representing the total issuance of 73.84 member unit shares at unit value of $25,000 which totaled $1,845,975 and nil at October 31, 2021, and December 31, 2020. This capital was raised from approximately thirty-nine separate investors which included one founder.

6. Going Concern

These financial statements are prepared on a going concern basis. The Company registered on April 15, 2021, and has established a presence and operations in the United States. The Company's ability to continue is dependent upon management's plan to raise additional funds and achieve and sustain profitable operations. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might be necessary if the Company is not able to continue as a going concern.

7. Subsequent Events

Advances from Promoter

As of November 2021, the Company has entered into an agreement with a promoter which provides for, among other things, the first right to promote productions in cities throughout the North American tour. Under this agreement, in November 21, the Company expects to receive a non-refundable advance of funds from the promoter ranging from $3,000,000 to $4,000,000 as an advance on expenses related to the production in two cities that are scheduled to commence in April 2022. In exchange the promoter will be repaid from the profits of these first two cities and once the full advance is recouped, thereafter will share in all subsequent revenue streams generated by the production in those two cities in the proportion of 30% to the promoter and 70% to the Company. Promoter will have the further right to issue additional advances for subsequent cities which will be recouped on the same basis.

Crowdfunding Offering

The Company is offering (the "Crowdfunded Offering") up to $1,070,000 in Simple Agreements for Future Equity (SAFEs). The Company is attempting to raise a minimum amount of $100,000 in this offering and up to $1,070,000 maximum. The Company must receive commitments from investors totaling the minimum amount by the offering deadline listed in the Form C, as amended in order to receive any funds.

The Crowdfunded Offering is being made through OpenDeal Portal LLC (the "Intermediary" aka "Republic" or "Republic.co"). The Intermediary will be entitled to receive a 6% commission fee and 1.5% of the securities issued in this offering.

Managements Evaluation

The Company has evaluated subsequent events through November 23, 2021, the date through which the financial statement was available to be issued. It has been determined that no events require additional disclosure.

Magic Mike Live - The Tour

LogoHeadline*Slides*Tags*Pitch
text*Summary

- North American tour of the hit Vegas show opening spring 2022
- Ongoing productions in Las Vegas, London, and Berlin
- “Finding Magic Mike” premiering on HBO Max later this year
- Third film in franchise slated for 2022 (Channing Tatum, Steven Soderbergh)

Opportunity

[Insert Header]

Magic Mike Live is the international live show phenomenon created by Channing Tatum based on the hit films Magic Mike and Magic Mike XXL. The show has productions in Las Vegas, London and Berlin and is featured in Finding Magic Mike, a new series on HBO Max. For the first time, Magic Mike Live, will be launching an all-new tour of North America, with plans to visit 12 cities over the next seven years in its proprietary, one-of-a-kind pop-up venue. While the show has raised approximately $50mm from private investors around the world, the producing team is now joining forces with Republic to spread the Magic to a wider audience.

Locations

[Insert Header]

Magic Mike Live will perform in a custom-built, self-contained Spiegeltent designed by the Magic Mike team and constructed by renowned Belgian tent builder Het Spiegelpaleis. The new venue has 630 seats, a massive indoor-outdoor lobby and patio, full food and beverage facilities, a retail store, restrooms and everything else required to provide audiences with a live entertainment experience like no other.

The show will launch April, 2022 in Nashville, Tennessee for approximately six months before projected dates in Miami for fall, 2022. Additional cities for the tour currently under consideration include: New York, Chicago, Seattle, Tampa, Atlanta, Dallas, Houston, Minneapolis, Boston, Philadelphia, Charlotte, Toronto and Washington D.C. The show will focus on cities not substantially impacted by the existing production in Las Vegas.

Traction

- The original Magic Mike film grossed over $167,000,000 around the world on a budget of $7,000,000. The two films combined grossed over $275,000,000 with a third film in the franchise just announced for 2022.
- Magic Mike Live launched at the Hard Rock Hotel and Casino in Las Vegas on March 31, 2017 to sold out audiences.

- The London production of the show was announced in the UK in the late spring of 2018 at the Hippodrome Casino. Despite a venue of only 328 seats, the show opened with the fifth largest advance in West End history. The show currently has over $2mm in advanced sales.
- Magic Mike Live is featured in the new HBOMax television series Finding Magic Mike. The seven episode series premieres on December 16, 2021 and will provide substantial exposure for the live show.
- The third film in the Magic Mike franchise, inspired by the live show and starring Channing Tatum, is slated for release during the second half of 2022. Magic Mike's Last Dance will be directed by Academy Award Winning Director Steven Soderbergh.
- Magic Mike Live Berlin launched in January of 2019 only a few months prior to the worldwide pandemic. The show re-opened in September of 2021 and has extended its run through February, 2022.
- An all-new UK arena tour of Magic Mike has been announced for 2023.

Press

[Insert Header]

Magic Mike has now become a part of the pop-culture lexicon and Magic Mike Live has been one of the most consistently covered live entertainment productions in the world. The show has been featured on: The Ellen DeGeneres Show, This is Us, Late Night with James Corden, The Today Show, Britain's Got Talent, Germany's Next Top Model, Entertainment Tonight, Saturday Night Takeaway, Access Hollywood, Jack Whitehall: Travels With My Father, Graham Norton, Beauty and the Geek, among others.

Perhaps most critically, HBOMax will feature Magic Mike Live as part of a massive national advertising and press campaign for the new television show Finding Magic Mike.

Business Model

6100+ tickets available per week

- Estimated total production funding of $9.2mm with approximately $4mm-$5mm as capitalization and $4mm-$5mm in the form of promoter advances and pre-paid expenses.
- The show not only receives 100% of the net box office proceeds, it also receives 100% of the net proceeds from the food and beverage business (contingent upon site selection and local requirements), VIP experiences, sponsorship income, and income from ticketing fees along with a share of the net profits from tour merchandise.
- The tour has almost double the capacity of the successful London show with over 6300 tickets available per week. Each city will include approximately 18-26 week runs with up to ten shows per week (with a potential 47 performance weeks per year).
- The show breaks even at 50%-60% of capacity and has net weekly profit potential of close to $300,000 per week from all sources, with total tour net profit in excess of $90,000,000 over the potential life of the tour.

Market

[Insert Header]

Magic Mike Live was created with primarily a female audience in mind. Because we are now approaching over 1,000,000 tickets sold around the world, we have a clear understanding of who generally attends the show and how to reach those people.

We anticipate over 90% of our audience will be female, many of whom will be attending with friends or family members. Our core demographic is 21-45 but the show does well across all adult female age groups. The show is positioned as a premium product with a high net average ticket price but an accessible point of entry. There are incentives for large group purchases as well as VIP opportunities to meet the cast after the show.

This is the first time in the show's history that it will be readily accessible to US population centers outside of Las Vegas. The tour also has the advantage of limited availability, with an average of about 150,000 tickets available in each city so we anticipate strong demand and limited inventory.

Magic Mike Live has extensive experience dealing with the COVID-19 pandemic. We have successfully operated the show in London, Las Vegas and Berlin since re-opening the productions in 2021. We have the ability to institute robust COVID protocols if required and the entire cast and crew of the show will be fully vaccinated.

Competition

[Insert Header]

One of the interesting things about Magic Mike Live is that we have essentially invented our own category of entertainment. While there are more traditional male revues out there, Magic Mike Live is a curated, elevated experience that emphasizes empowerment and joy. The entire show is from a female point of view and every aspect of the production, from the cocktail curation to the diversity of the casting, to the fabric on the sofas and chairs in the venue delivers on the core message that our audience simply deserves....more. In most markets the show will be entering, the only direct competition comes from shows at the lower end of the market that offer a much less enticing, somewhat dated experience.

Vision

[Insert Header]

The time to associate yourself with the Magic Mike brand is now. We find ourselves at an extraordinarily rare moment: investors will receive the ancillary benefits of the incredible synergy of a major motion picture with a massive star and award-winning director, a seven-episode television series on a prestigious network, and a new live touring production reaching new audiences hungry for a singular, trusted entertainment experience. We believe this is just the beginning of our relationship with Republic and as the Magic Mike brand further expands in the coming years, we will find new ways of extending access to the brand for investors who share our vision.

3. Subscriber Representations. By executing this Agreement and the Omnibus Capital Interest Instrument, the Subscriber hereby represents and warrants to the Company and to the Custodian as follows:

- (l) The Subscriber further acknowledges that it has read, understood, and had ample opportunity to ask Company questions about its business plans, "Risk Factors," and all other information presented in the Company's Form C, as amended, and the offering documentation filed with the SEC.
- (m) The Subscriber understands the substantial likelihood that the Subscriber will suffer a TOTAL LOSS of all capital invested, and that Subscriber is prepared to bear the risk of such total loss.
- (n) The Subscriber understands and agrees that its Beneficial Interest does not entitle the Subscriber, as a holder of such interest, to vote, execute consents, or to otherwise represent the interests thereunder. The Subscriber acknowledges and agrees that the Custodian shall vote, execute consents, and otherwise make elections pursuant to the terms of the Omnibus Capital Interest Instrument.
- (o) The Subscriber understands and agrees that, except as otherwise agreed by the Company in its sole discretion, the Subscriber will not be entitled to exchange its Beneficial Interest for a Capital Interest in registered form or other form of security instrument not otherwise contemplated by this Agreement.

The Subscriber acknowledges that the Company has taken no action in foreign jurisdictions with respect to the Omnibus Capital Interest Instrument (and the Subscriber's Beneficial Interest therein) and the underlying securities.

- (q) If the Subscriber is an entity: (i) such entity is duly formed, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the state of its formation, and has the power and authority to enter into this Agreement; (ii) the execution, delivery and performance by the Subscriber of the Agreement is within the power of the Subscriber and has been duly authorized by all necessary actions on the part of the Subscriber; (iii) to the knowledge of the Subscriber, it is not in violation of its current organizational documents, any material statute, rule or regulation applicable to the Subscriber; and (iv) the performance the Agreement does not and will not violate any material judgment, statute, rule or regulation applicable to the Subscriber; result in the acceleration of any material indenture or contract to which the Subscriber is a party or by which it is bound, or otherwise result in the creation or imposition of any lien upon the Subscription Amount.

4. Dispute Resolution; Arbitration.

- (a) THE SUBSCRIBER AND THE COMPANY (I) WAIVE THE SUBSCRIBER'S AND THE COMPANY'S RESPECTIVE RIGHTS TO HAVE ANY AND ALL DISPUTES, CONTROVERSIES OR CLAIMS ARISING OUT OF, RELATING TO OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT RESOLVED IN A COURT, AND (II) WAIVE THE SUBSCRIBER'S AND THE COMPANY'S RESPECTIVE RIGHTS TO A JURY TRIAL. Instead, any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of, relating to or in connection with this Agreement, including the breach or validity thereof, shall be determined by final and binding arbitration administered by the American Arbitration Association (the "AAA") under its Commercial Rules. The award rendered by the arbitrator shall be final, non-appealable and binding on the parties and may be entered and enforced in any court having jurisdiction. There shall be one arbitrator agreed to by the parties within twenty (20) days of receipt by respondent of the request for arbitration or, in default thereof, appointed by the AAA in accordance with its Commercial Rules. The place of arbitration shall be New York, NY. Except as may be required by law or to protect a legal right, neither a party nor the arbitrator may disclose the existence, content or results of any arbitration without the prior written consent of the other parties.
- (b) No Class Arbitrations, Class Actions or Representative Actions. Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of, relating to or in connection with this Agreement is personal to the Subscriber and the Company and will be resolved solely through individual arbitration and will not be brought as a class arbitration, class action or any other type of representative proceeding. There will be no class arbitration or arbitration in which the Subscriber attempts to resolve a dispute, controversy or claim as a representative of another subscriber or group of subscribers. Further, a dispute, controversy or claim cannot be brought as a class or other type of representative action, whether within or outside of arbitration, or on behalf of any other subscriber or group of subscribers.

5. Miscellaneous.

- (a) Any provision of this Agreement may be amended, waived or modified only upon the written consent of the Company and the Subscriber or upon the written consent of the Company and the majority of the Holders by interest (calculated based on the Beneficial Interests of the Holders, not the number of Holders) (such terms as defined in the Omnibus Capital Interest Instrument).
- (b) Any notice required or permitted by this Agreement will be deemed sufficient when delivered personally or by overnight courier or sent by email to the relevant address listed on the signature page or otherwise provided, or 48 hours after being deposited in the U.S. mail as certified or registered mail with postage prepaid, addressed to the party to be notified at such party's address listed on the signature page, as subsequently modified by written notice.

- (c) Neither this Agreement nor the rights contained herein may be assigned, by operation of law or otherwise, by either party without the prior written consent of the other; provided, however, that this Agreement and/or the rights contained herein may be assigned without the Company's consent by the Subscriber to (i) to a member of the family of the Subscriber or the equivalent, to a trust controlled by the Subscriber, to a trust created for the benefit of a member of the family of the Subscriber or the equivalent, or in connection with the death or divorce of the Subscriber or other similar circumstance, (ii) any other entity who directly or indirectly, controls, is controlled by or is under common control with the Subscriber, including, without limitation, any general partner, managing member, officer or director of the Subscriber, or any venture capital fund now or hereafter existing which is controlled by one or more general partners or managing members of, or shares the same management company with, the Subscriber and that any such assignment shall require such transferee to assume the rights and obligations of the Subscriber's custody account agreement with the Custodian in accordance with the assignment provision thereof, or otherwise execute a custody account agreement with the designated Custodian ; and provided, further, that the Company may assign this Agreement in whole, without the consent of the Subscriber, in connection with a reincorporation to change the Company's domicile. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Agreement and any rights herein may be assigned or transferred by the Subscriber without the Company's consent when and if the Company registers the same class of securities under Section 12(g) of the Exchange Act or Section 15(d) of the Securities Act and such assignment or transfer is made in accordance with any applicable Lock-up Period.
- (d) In the event any one or more of the terms or provisions of this Agreement is for any reason held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, in whole or in part or in any respect, or in the event that any one or more of the terms or provisions of this Agreement operate or would prospectively operate to invalidate this Agreement, then such term(s) or provision(s) only will be deemed null and void and will not affect any other term or provision of this Agreement and the remaining terms and provisions of this Agreement will remain operative and in full force and effect and will not be affected, prejudiced, or disturbed thereby.
- (e) This Agreement does not create any form of partnership, joint venture or any other similar relationship between the Subscriber and the Company.
- (f) All rights and obligations hereunder will be governed by the laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to the conflicts of law provisions of such jurisdiction.
- (g) This Agreement and the Omnibus Capital Interest Instrument constitute the entire agreement between the Subscriber and the Company relating to the Omnibus Capital Interest Instrument (and the Subscriber's Beneficial Interest therein) and the underlying securities; provided further, that Subscriber agrees to be bound by the terms of the Omnibus Capital Interest Instrument applicable to Holders.
- (h) To the extent there is a vagueness, ambiguity, conflict, variation or inconsistency between the terms, conditions, covenants, representations or warranties of this Agreement and the terms, conditions, covenants, representations or warranties of any Transaction Agreement, the terms, conditions, covenants, representations or warranties of the Transaction Agreements shall control.

(a) The Company is a limited liability company duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the state of its formation, and has the power and authority to own, lease and operate its properties and carry on its business as now conducted.

(b) The execution, delivery and performance by the Company of this Omnibus Capital Interest Instrument is within the power of the Company and, other than with respect to the actions to be taken when equity is to be issued to Prime Trust, has been duly authorized by all necessary actions on the part of the Company. This Omnibus Capital Interest Instrument constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of the Company, enforceable against the Company in accordance with its terms, except as limited by bankruptcy, insolvency or other laws of general application relating to or affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally and general principles of equity. To the knowledge of the Company, it is not in violation of (i) its current charter or bylaws; (ii) any material statute, rule or regulation applicable to the Company; or (iii) any material indenture or contract to which the Company is a party or by which it is bound, where, in each case, such violation or default, individually, or together with all such violations or defaults, could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the Company.

(c) The performance and consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Omnibus Capital Interest Instrument do not and will not: (i) violate any material judgment, statute, rule or regulation applicable to the Company; (ii) result in the acceleration of any material indenture or contract to which the Company is a party or by which it is bound; or (iii) result in the creation or imposition of any lien upon any property, asset or revenue of the Company or the suspension, forfeiture, or nonrenewal of any material permit, license or authorization applicable to the Company, its business or operations.

(d) No consents or approvals are required in connection with the performance of this Omnibus Capital Interest Instrument, other than: (i) the Company's corporate approvals; (ii) any qualifications or filings under applicable securities laws; and (iii) necessary corporate approvals for the authorization of the issuable Capital Interests pursuant to Section 1.

(e) The Company is (i) not required to file reports pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act, (ii) not an investment company as defined in Section 3 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 (the "Investment Company Act"), and is not excluded from the definition of investment company by Section 3(b) or Section 3(c) of the Investment Company Act, (iii) not disqualified from selling securities under Rule 503(a) of Regulation CF, (iv) not barred from selling securities under Section 4(a)(6) of the Securities Act due to a failure to make timely annual report filings, (v) not planning to engage in a merger or acquisition with an unidentified company or companies, and (vi) organized under, and subject to, the laws of a state or territory of the United States or the District of Columbia.

(f) The Company has engaged, or shortly after the issuance of this Omnibus Capital Interest Instrument, will engage a transfer agent registered with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission to act as the sole registrar and transfer agent for the Company with respect to the Omnibus Capital Interest Instrument and the Capital Interests.

4. Prime Trust Representations

(a) Prime Trust has full legal capacity, power and authority to execute and deliver this Omnibus Capital Interest Instrument and to perform its obligations hereunder. This Omnibus Capital Interest Instrument constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of Prime Trust, enforceable in accordance with its terms, except as limited by bankruptcy, insolvency or other laws of general application relating to or affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally and general principles of equity.

5. Transfer Restrictions

(a) During the Lock-up Period, neither Prime Trust nor any Holder shall, without the prior written consent of the managing underwriter: (A) lend; offer; pledge; sell; contract to sell; sell any option or contract to purchase; purchase any option or contract to sell; grant any option, right, or warrant to purchase; or otherwise transfer or dispose of, directly or indirectly, any Capital Interests or any securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable (directly or indirectly) for Common Interests (whether such Interests or any such securities are then owned or are thereafter acquired); or (B) enter into any swap or other arrangement that transfers to another, in whole or in part, any of the economic consequences of ownership of such securities; whether any such transaction described in clause (A) or (B) above is to be settled by delivery of Common Interests or other securities, in cash, or otherwise.

(b) The foregoing provisions of Section 5(a) will: (x) apply only to the IPO and will not apply to the sale of any Capital Interests to an underwriter pursuant to an underwriting agreement; (y) not apply to the transfer of any Capital Interests to any trust for the direct or indirect benefit of the applicable party or the immediate family of such party, provided that the trustee of the trust agrees to be bound in writing by the restrictions set forth herein, and provided further that any such transfer will not involve a disposition for value; and (z) be applicable to Prime Trust and the Holders only if all officers and directors of the Company are subject to the same restrictions and the Company uses commercially reasonable efforts to obtain a similar agreement from all members individually owning more than 5% of the outstanding Common Interests or any securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable (directly or indirectly) for Common Interests. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the underwriters in connection with the IPO are intended third-party beneficiaries of Section 5(a) and will have the right, power and authority to enforce the provisions hereof as though they were a party hereto. Prime Trust and each Holder shall execute such agreements as may be reasonably requested by the underwriters in connection with the IPO that are consistent with Section 5(a) or that are necessary to give further effect thereto.

(c) In order to enforce the foregoing covenant, the Company may impose stop transfer instructions with respect to the registrable securities of the Company held by Prime Trust and the Holders (and the Company securities of every other person subject to the foregoing restriction) until the end of the Lock-up Period. A legend reading substantially as follows will be placed on all certificates representing all of the registrable securities of the Company held by Prime Trust and the Holders (and the securities of the Company held by every other person subject to the restriction contained in Section 5(a)):

THE SECURITIES REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE ARE SUBJECT TO A LOCK-UP PERIOD BEGINNING ON THE EFFECTIVE DATE OF THE COMPANY'S REGISTRATION STATEMENT FILED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED, AS SET FORTH IN AN AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE COMPANY AND THE ORIGINAL HOLDER OF THESE SECURITIES, A COPY OF WHICH MAY BE OBTAINED AT THE COMPANY'S PRINCIPAL OFFICE. SUCH LOCK-UP PERIOD IS BINDING ON TRANSFEREES OF THESE SECURITIES.

(d) No portion of this Omnibus Capital Interest Instrument (or any Beneficial Interest) or the underlying securities may be disposed of unless and until the transferee has agreed in writing for the benefit of the Company to make representations and warranties substantially similar to those made by the Subscribers and:

- (i) There is then in effect a registration statement under the Securities Act covering such proposed disposition and such disposition is made in accordance with such registration statement; or
- (ii) The applicable transferor shall have notified the Company of the proposed disposition and shall have furnished the Company with a detailed statement of the circumstances surrounding the proposed disposition and, if reasonably requested by the Company, an opinion of counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Company that such disposition will not require registration of such securities under the Securities Act.

(e) No disposition of this instrument (or any Beneficial Interest) or any underlying securities may be made to any of the Company's competitors, as determined by the Company in good faith.

(f) The Company will place the legend set forth below or a similar legend on any book entry or other forms of notation evidencing this Omnibus Capital Interest Instrument (or any Beneficial Interest) and any certificates evidencing the underlying securities, together with any other legends that may be required by state or federal securities laws, the Company's charter or bylaws or otherwise:

THIS INSTRUMENT HAS BEEN ISSUED PURSUANT TO SECTION 4(A)(6) OF THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED (THE "SECURITIES ACT"), AND NEITHER IT NOR ANY SECURITIES ISSUABLE PURSUANT HERETO HAVE BEEN REGISTERED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OR THE SECURITIES LAWS OF ANY STATE. THESE SECURITIES MAY NOT BE OFFERED, SOLD OR OTHERWISE TRANSFERRED, PLEDGED OR HYPOTHECATED EXCEPT AS PERMITTED BY RULE 501 OF REGULATION CROWDFUNDING UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT AND APPLICABLE STATE SECURITIES LAWS OR PURSUANT TO AN EFFECTIVE REGISTRATION STATEMENT OR EXEMPTION THEREFROM.

(g) Prime Trust shall use commercially reasonable efforts to facilitate a disposition contemplated in Section 5(d)(i).

6. Dividends, Distributions, Voting Rights

(a) Whenever Prime Trust shall receive any cash dividend or other cash distribution on the Capital Interests, Prime Trust shall distribute to the Holders such amounts of such sum as are, as nearly as practicable, in proportion to each Holder's Beneficial Interest; provided, however, that in case the Company or Prime Trust shall be required to and shall withhold from any cash dividend or other cash distribution in respect of the Capital Interests represented by the Beneficial Interest held by any Holder an amount on account of taxes, the amount made available for distribution or distributed in respect of Capital Interests subject to such withholding shall be reduced accordingly. Prime Trust shall distribute or make available for distribution, as the case may be, only such amount, however, as can be distributed without attributing to any Holder of Beneficial Interests a fraction of one cent, and any balance not so distributable shall be held by Prime Trust (without liability for interest thereon) and shall be added to and be treated as part of the next sum received by Prime Trust for distribution to Holders of Beneficial Interests then outstanding.

(b) Whenever Prime Trust shall receive any distribution other than cash on the Capital Interests, Prime Trust shall distribute to the Holders of Beneficial Interests such amounts of the securities or property received by it as are, as nearly as practicable, in proportion to the respective Beneficial Interests held by such Holder, in any manner that Prime Trust and the Company may deem equitable and practicable for accomplishing such distribution. If, in the opinion of Prime Trust after consultation with the Company, such distribution cannot be made proportionately among all Holders, or if for any other reason (including any requirement that the Company or Prime Trust withhold an amount on account of taxes), Prime Trust deems, after consultation with the Company, such distribution not to be feasible, Prime Trust may, with the approval of the Company, adopt such method as it deems equitable and practicable for the purpose of effecting such distribution, including the sale (at public or private sale) of the securities or property thus received or any part thereof, at such place or places and upon such terms as it may deem proper. The net proceeds of any such sale shall be distributed or made available for distribution, as the case may be, by Prime Trust to the Holders of Beneficial Interests as provided by Section 6(a) in the case of a distribution received in cash. The Company shall not make any distribution of such securities or property to the Holders of Beneficial Interests unless the Company shall have provided to Prime Trust an opinion of counsel stating that such securities or property have been registered under the Securities Act or do not need to be registered.

(c) Upon any change in par or stated value, split-up, combination or any other reclassification of the Capital Interests, or upon any recapitalization, reorganization, merger, amalgamation or consolidation affecting the Company or to which it is a party or sale of all or substantially all of the Company's assets, Prime Trust shall, upon the instructions of the Company: (i) make such adjustments in the Capital Interests as may be required by, or as is consistent with, the provisions of the articles of organization of the Company to fully reflect the effects of such split-up, combination or other reclassification of the Capital Interests, or of such recapitalization, reorganization, merger, consolidation or sale and (ii) treat any shares or other securities or property (including cash) that shall be received by Prime Trust in exchange for or upon conversion of or in respect of the Capital Interests as new securities held under this Agreement, and Beneficial Interests then outstanding shall thenceforth represent the proportionate interests of Holders thereof or the new securities so received in exchange for or upon conversion of or in respect of such Capital Interests. The Company shall cause effective provision to be made in the charter of the resulting or surviving corporation (if other than the Company) for protection of such rights as may be applicable upon exchange of the Capital Interests for securities or property or cash of the surviving corporation in connection with the transactions set forth above. The Company shall cause any such surviving corporation (if other than the Company) expressly to assume the obligations of the Company hereunder.

(d) Upon receipt of notice of any meeting at which the holders of the Capital Interests are entitled to vote, Prime Trust shall, as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, mail or provide electronically to the Holders of Beneficial Interests a notice, which shall be provided by the Company and which shall contain such information as is contained in such notice of meeting¹. Holder acknowledges that notwithstanding its receipt of such materials, all voting rights with respect to the Capital Interests shall be exercised by Prime Trust, and that Prime Trust intends to exercise such voting rights by voting the securities held by it in accordance with the vote of the majority of the Capital Interests held by persons other than Prime Trust that are voted on any matter, and Prime Trust will not exercise any discretion in voting any of the Capital Interests represented by the Beneficial Interests.

7. Miscellaneous

(a) Except as otherwise agreed by the Company in its sole discretion, Holders will not be entitled to exchange their Beneficial Interests in this Omnibus Capital Interest Instrument for Capital Interests in certificated form.

(b) Prime Trust agrees to take any and all actions determined in good faith by the Company's managers or board of directors (if applicable) to be advisable to reorganize this Omnibus Capital Interest Instrument and any Capital Interests issued pursuant to the terms of this Omnibus Capital Interest Instrument into a special purpose vehicle or other entity designed to aggregate the interests of the Holders.

(c) Any provision of this Omnibus Capital Interest Instrument may be amended, waived or modified only upon the written consent of the Company and the majority of the Holders (calculated based on the Beneficial Interests of the Holders).

(d) Any notice required or permitted by this Omnibus Capital Interest Instrument will be deemed sufficient when delivered personally or by overnight courier or sent by email to the relevant address listed on the signature page, or 48 hours after being deposited in the U.S. mail as certified or registered mail with postage prepaid, addressed to the party to be notified at such party's address listed on the signature page, as subsequently modified by written notice.

(e) Prime Trust through this Omnibus Capital Interests Instrument shall be considered legal record holder of the Capital Interests.

(f) Neither this Omnibus Capital Interest Instrument nor the rights contained herein may be assigned, by operation of law or otherwise, by either party without the prior written consent of the other; provided, however, that this Omnibus Capital Interest Instrument and/or the rights contained herein may be assigned without the Company's consent by Prime Trust to any other entity who directly or indirectly, controls, is controlled by or is under common control with Prime Trust, including, without limitation, any general partner, managing member, officer or director of Prime Trust; and provided, further, that the Company may assign this Omnibus Capital Interest Instrument in whole, without the consent of Prime Trust, in connection with a reincorporation to change the Company's domicile. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Agreement and any rights herein may be assigned or transferred without the Company's consent when and if the Company registers the same class of securities under Section 12(g) of the Exchange Act or Section 15(d) of the Securities Act and such assignment or transfer is made in accordance with any applicable Lock-up Period.

(g) In the event any one or more of the terms or provisions of this Omnibus Capital Interest Instrument is for any reason held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, in whole or in part or in any respect, or in the event that any one or more of the terms or provisions of this Omnibus Capital Interest Instrument operate or would prospectively operate to invalidate this Omnibus Capital Interest Instrument, then such term(s) or provision(s) only will be deemed null and void and will not affect any other term or provision of this Omnibus Capital Interest Instrument and the remaining terms and provisions of this Omnibus Capital Interest Instrument will remain operative and in full force and effect and will not be affected, prejudiced, or disturbed thereby.

(h) All securities issued under this Omnibus Capital Interest Instrument may be issued in whole or fractional parts.

(i) All rights and obligations hereunder will be governed by the laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to the conflicts of law provisions of such jurisdiction.

(j) Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of, relating to or in connection with this Omnibus Capital Interest Instrument, including the breach or validity thereof, shall be determined by final and binding arbitration administered by the American Arbitration Association (the “AAA”) under its Commercial Arbitration Rules and Mediation Procedures (“Commercial Rules”). The award rendered by the arbitrator shall be final, non-appealable and binding on the parties and may be entered and enforced in any court having jurisdiction. There shall be one arbitrator agreed to by the parties within twenty (20) days of receipt by respondent of the request for arbitration or, in default thereof, appointed by the AAA in accordance with its Commercial Rules. The place of arbitration shall be New York, NY. Except as may be required by law or to protect a legal right, neither a party nor the arbitrator may disclose the existence, content or results of any arbitration without the prior written consent of the other parties.

(k) Each Holder has, and at all times under this Omnibus Capital Interest Instrument will maintain, a custody account in good standing with Prime Trust pursuant to a valid and binding custody account agreement. To the extent any of the provisions of such custody account agreement shall conflict with the terms of this Omnibus Capital Interest Instrument, the terms of this Omnibus Capital Interest Instrument will control.

PRIME TRUST NEW ACCOUNT AGREEMENT

_____ (“Account Holder”, “Customer”, “you”, “your”) hereby requests and directs that Prime Trust, LLC (“Prime Trust”, “Custodian”, “we”, “our”, “us”), a Nevada chartered trust company, establish a Prime Asset Custody Account (“Account”) for and in the name of Account Holder, and to hold as custodian all assets deposited to, or collected with respect to such Account, upon the following terms and conditions:

1. APPOINTMENT OF CUSTODIAN:

Account Holder hereby appoints Prime Trust to be custodian of and to hold or process as directed all securities, currency, cryptocurrency, and other assets of Account Holder (hereinafter referred to as “Custodial Property”) that are delivered to Custodian by Account Holder or Account Holder’s Agent(s) (as defined below) to the Account in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

2. SELF-DIRECTED INVESTMENTS:

- a. This Account is a self-directed Account that is managed by Account Holder and/or Account Holder’s Agents. Prime Trust will act solely as custodian of the Custodial Property and will not exercise any investment or tax planning discretion regarding your Account, as this is solely your responsibility and/or the responsibility of advisors, brokers and others you designate and appoint as your agent for your Account (“Agents”), if any. Prime Trust undertakes to perform only such duties as are expressly set forth herein, all of which are ministerial in nature.
- b. As a self-directed Account, you acknowledge and agree that:
 - i. The value of your Account will be solely dependent upon the performance of any asset(s) chosen by you and/or your Agents.
 - ii. Prime Trust shall have no duty or responsibility to review or perform due diligence on any investments or other Custodial Property and will make absolutely no recommendation of investments, nor to supervise any such investments. You will perform your own due diligence on all investments and take sole responsibility for all decisions made for your Account.
 - iii. Prime Trust does not provide any valuation or appraisals of Custodial Property, nor does it hire or seek valuations or appraisals on any Custodial Property, provided, however, it may, at its option and with no obligation or liability, to the extent available for any particular asset, include recent price quotes or value estimates from various third-party sources, including but not limited to SEC-registered exchanges and alternative trading systems, digital asset exchanges, and real estate websites on your statement for any such Custodial Property. Prime Trust will not be expected or obligated to attempt to verify the validity, accuracy or reliability of any such third-party valuation, valuation estimates or prices and you agree that Prime Trust shall in no way be held liable for any such valuation estimates or price quotations. Prime Trust shall simply act in a passive, pass-through capacity in providing such information (if any) on your Account statements and that such valuation estimates or price quotations are neither verified, substantiated nor to be relied upon in any way, for any purpose, including, without limitation, tax reporting purposes. You agree to engage a professional, independent advisor for any valuation opinion(s) you want on any Custodial Property.
- c. Account Holder will not direct or permit its Agents to direct the purchase, sale or transfer of any Custodial Property which is not permissible under the laws of Account Holder’s place of residence or illegal under US federal, state or local law. Account Holder hereby warrants that neither you nor your Agents will enter into a transaction or series of transactions, or cause a transaction to be entered into, which is prohibited under Section 4975 of the Internal Revenue Code. Pursuant to the directions of the Account Holder or Agent(s), Prime Trust shall process the investment and reinvestment of Custodial Property as directed by Account Holder or its Agents only so long as, in the sole judgment of Prime Trust, such requested investments will not impose an unreasonable administrative burden on Prime Trust (which such determination by Prime Trust shall not to be construed in any respect as a judgment concerning the prudence or advisability of such investment). Custodian may rely upon any notice, instruction, request or other instrument believed by it to have been delivered from the Account Holder or its Agents, not only as to its due execution, validity and effectiveness, but also as to the truth and accuracy of any information contained therein.

- d. Buy and sell orders may, at Custodians discretion, be accepted verbally, including via telephone, or electronically, including email and internet-enabled devices and systems, provided, however, that Custodian may, but is not required to, require Account Holder or its Agents to promptly provide email, text or other confirmation to verify such instructions and any such instructions will not be deemed as received until verified in accordance with the Custodians then-in-effect policies and procedures. Account Holder acknowledges that any request to waive or change any policies or procedures for asset disbursements is done so at Account Holders risk. Prime Trust may decline to accept verbal asset transfer or trade instructions in its sole discretion and require written instructions, or instructions triggered from Account Holder or its Agents using tools while logged onto your account (either directly at www.primetrust.com or on any website or application that integrates into Prime Trust systems via API's ("Application Programming Interfaces"), which may or may not bear the Prime Trust brand. Account Holder bears complete and absolute responsibility for all buy, sell, transfer, and disbursement instructions for this Account and will immediately notify Prime Trust of any unauthorized transactions.
- e. Account Holder acknowledges and agrees that the custody of digital assets is generally subject to a high degree of risk, including without limitation, the risk of loss due to the blockchain or smart contract defects as well as forks and other events outside of the Custodian's control. Such Custodial Property is not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or by any Prime Trust insurance policies and so you are advised to directly obtain, at your sole cost and expense, any separate insurance policies you desire for such Custodial Property. Account Holder agrees that transfer requests, as well as sale and purchase orders, for digital assets may be delayed due to security protocols, time-zone differences, communication technology delays or fails, and/or enhanced internal compliance reviews. Accordingly, Prime Trust shall not be liable for any losses or damages, including without limitation direct, indirect, consequential, special, exemplary or otherwise, resulting from delays in processing such transactions.
- f. All instructions for the purchase and sale of securities and/or digital assets shall be executed through one or more broker-dealers or exchanges selected by either you or your Agents, or by Prime Trust, as an accommodation (and not in any capacity as a broker-dealer) and Prime Trust is hereby authorized to debit your account for any fees associated with such transaction(s) and remit those to the executing party.

3. SCHEDULE OF FEES:

The Custodian shall receive reasonable compensation in accordance with its usual Schedule of Fees then in effect at the time of service. The fees and charges initially connected with this Account may include:

- Account Fees: As detailed on Prime Trust's current fee schedule, which may change from time to time and is published on www.primetrust.com. Changes to the fee schedule shall not affect any charges for prior periods and will only be effective as of the date the changes were published.
- Statement Fee: $0.00 – there are no fees for electronically delivered and available statements
- Third-Party Fees – in the event that we are charged any fees by a third party in performing services on your behalf (e.g. transfer agent fees, legal fees, accounting fees, tax preparation fees, notary fees, exchange fees, brokerage fees, bank fees, blockchain settlement fees, etc.) then you agree to reimburse us for such reasonable charges at cost plus 25% (excluding broker-dealer commissions), and that no prior approval is required from you in incurring such expense.

You agree to pay all fees and expenses associated with your Account. Prime Trust is hereby authorized, at its option, in its sole discretion, to electronically debit the Account for payment of fees and expenses, including charging any linked credit or debit card, pulling funds from any linked bank account, or liquidating any of the Custodial Property without prior notice or liability. Unpaid fees are subject to interest at a rate of 1.50% per month on the outstanding balance and may be applied as a first lien on any Custodial Property. Prime Trust reserves the right to make changes to its fees for custodial services in its sole and absolute discretion.

4. ASSETS AND CUSTODY:

- a. Custodial Property which Prime Trust will generally agree to accept and hold on Account Holder's behalf includes: United States Dollars ("USD"), foreign currencies at the sole discretion of Prime Trust, title to real estate, certain digital assets, private equity and debt securities issued pursuant to laws and regulations of the United States, as well as equity and debt securities which are listed on any US exchange or alternative trading system (e.g. OTC, NASDAQ, NYSE, AMEX, etc.).
