What to expect moving forward

- Regular Reporting: We will keep investors updated on the progress of our portfolio companies and investment theses as new information comes available. Here are two strategy primers to review in the meantime:
 - Our Data Infrastructure investment thesis
 - Our Public Credit investment strategy
- Additional Diversification: We plan to continue sourcing and closing deals to expand your portfolio. You will automatically gain exposure to those new companies as deals are closed.

While we're proud of the progress we've already made toward creating unprecedented access to Venture Capital, we're even more excited about the journey ahead of us.
Thank you for your continued partnership.
