Unlock the Power of Private Tech Investing

Ever wondered how some venture capitalists consistently outperform the market? The secret lies in their access to high-growth private companies—especially in the tech sector.

The Private Market Advantage

While public markets offer liquidity, a large portion of the real tech revolution happens behind closed doors. Companies are staying private longer<sup>1</sup>, often experiencing their highest growth phases before going public.

Introducing the Fundrise Innovation Fund

Launched in 2022, the Fundrise Innovation Fund has built a gateway to this once-exclusive world of private tech investing.

What sets the Innovation Fund apart:

1. Curated Portfolio: Access to a carefully selected, $100+ million portfolio of pre-IPO tech companies
2. Democratized Access: Start with as little as $10

3. Long-term Growth Potential: Benefit from the value creation that occurs in private markets

Don't let the private tech boom pass you by. Better position your portfolio for the future with the Fundrise Innovation Fund.

Diversify Beyond Wall Street: The Tech Startup Revolution

The most exciting tech innovations often happen in private startups, often out of reach for most investors. These companies are driving industry-shaking change, attracting top talent, challenging industry giants, and generating billions of dollars in revenue.

Traditionally, access to these high-potential opportunities has been largely limited to venture capitalists and their institutional LPs. Until now.

Your Path to the Venture Ecosystem: The Fundrise Innovation Fund

Launched in 2022, the Fundrise Innovation Fund opens the door to this dynamic world of tech startups. And in today's rapidly changing economy, venture exposure can be crucial for a well-rounded investment strategy.

It's your turn to get in early. Enhance your portfolio with exposure to tomorrow's high-potential tech leaders through the Fundrise Innovation Fund.
