SEPTEMBER 14TH, 2022

BarRoom Launch

Investors,

We have officially launched Dick & Jane's BarRoom in Bed-Stuy. Grossing $70,000 for the month of August, with a limited schedule. We are quickly learning and adjusting to the market and to customers. Initially the food concept was small bar bites with only 4 mains. But we have quickly learned that our customers want more dining options. Thus, we have grown our main dish options to include NY Steak, Pork Chop and a Pesto Pasta dish. Additionally, in order to keep up with the pace and provide cocktails to customers with better efficiency. We have decided to revamp our cocktail menu. We will be rolling out a new cocktail menu and program beginning the first week of October. Shortly after we will be rolling out a weekend brunch menu as well. There are still design and build items we are working on around the bar/restaurant which is exciting. We've set small tables outside and are investing in our outdoor patio area to provide lighting and seating to customers dining outdoors.

Financial Condition

Dick and Jane's previously raised a regulation crowdfunding round of debt security, structured as a revenue share, via Mainvest.

The capital raised through Mainvest will make up the entirety of the Dick & Jane's Bar's fundraising. However, Dick & Jane's Bar may require additional funds from alternate sources at a later date.

Risk Factors

h5>You Might Lose Your Money

When you buy a certificate of deposit from a bank, the Federal government (through the FDIC) guarantees you will get your money back. Buying a Note is not like that at all. The ability of Dick & Jane's Bar to make the payments you expect, and ultimately to give you your money back, depends on a number of factors, including many beyond our control.

Limited Services

Dick & Jane's Bar operates with a very limited scope, offering only particular services to potential clients, making them vulnerable to changes in customer preferences.

Lack of Accounting Controls

Larger companies typically have in place strict accounting controls. Smaller companies typically lack these controls, exposing themselves to additional risk.

Competition

The market in which we operate is highly competitive and could become increasingly competitive with new entrants in the market. Dick & Jane's Bar competes with many other businesses, both large and small, on the basis of quality, price, location, and customer experience. Changes in customer preference away from Dick & Jane's Bar's core business or the inability to compete successfully against the with other competitors could negatively affect Dick & Jane's Bar's financial performance.

Reliance on Management

As a securities holder, you will not be able to participate in Dick & Jane's Bar's management or vote on and/or influence any managerial decisions regarding Dick & Jane's Bar. Furthermore, if the founders or other key personnel of Dick & Jane's Bar were to leave Dick & Jane's Bar or become unable to work, Dick & Jane's Bar (and your investment) could suffer substantially.

Financial Forecasts Risks

The financial forecasts provided by us herein are reasonable forecasts by us based upon assumption of stable economic conditions and other various assumptions regarding operations. The validity and accuracy of these assumptions will depend in large part on future events over which Dick & Jane's Bar and the key persons will have no control. Changes in assumptions or their underlying facts could significantly affect the forecasts. To the extent that the assumed events do not occur, the outcome may vary significantly from the projected outcomes. Consequently, there can be no assurance that the actual operating results will correspond to the forecasts provided herein. Additionally, Dick & Jane's Bar is a newly established entity and therefore has no operating history from which forecasts could be projected with.

Inability to Sell Your Investment

The law prohibits you from selling your securities (except in certain very limited circumstances) for 12 months after you acquire them. Even after that one-year period, a host of Federal and State securities laws may limit or restrict your ability to sell your securities. Even if you are permitted to sell, you will likely have difficulty finding a buyer because there will be no established market. Given these factors, you should be prepared to hold your investment for its full term.

The Company Might Need More Capital

Dick & Jane's Bar might need to raise more capital in the future to fund/expand operations, buy property and equipment, hire new team members, market its services, pay overhead and general administrative expenses, or a variety of other reasons. There is no assurance that additional capital will be available when needed, or that it will be available on terms that are not adverse to your interests as an investor. If Dick & Jane's Bar is unable to obtain additional funding when needed, it could be forced to delay its business plan or even cease operations altogether.

Changes in Economic Conditions Could Hurt Dick & Jane's Bar

Factors like global or national economic recessions, changes in interest rates, changes in credit markets, changes in capital market conditions, declining employment, changes in real estate values, changes in tax policy, changes in political conditions, and wars and other crises, among other factors are unpredictable and could negatively affect Dick & Jane's Bar's financial performance or ability to continue to operate. In the event Dick &

Jane's Bar ceases operations due to the foregoing factors, it can not guarantee that it will be able to resume operations or generate revenue in the future.

No Registration Under Securities Laws

The Notes will not be registered with the SEC or the securities regulator of any State. Hence, neither Dick & Jane's Bar nor the Notes will be subject to the same degree of regulation and scrutiny as if they were registered.

Incomplete Offering Information

Title III does not require us to provide you with all the information that would be required in some other kinds of securities offerings, such as a public offering of shares (for example, publicly-traded firms must generally provide investors with quarterly and annual financial statements that have been audited by an independent accounting firm). Although Title III does require extensive information, it is possible that you would make a different decision if you had more information.

Lack of Ongoing Information

Dick & Jane's Bar will be required to provide some information to investors for at least 12 months following the offering. However, this information is far more limited than the information that would be required of a publicly-reporting company; and Dick & Jane's Bar is allowed to stop providing annual information in certain circumstances.

Uninsured Losses

Although Dick & Jane's Bar will carry some insurance, Dick & Jane's Bar may not carry enough insurance to protect against all risks to the business. Additionally, there are some kinds of risks that are very difficult or impossible to insure against, at least at a reasonable cost. Therefore, Dick & Jane's Bar could incur an uninsured loss that could damage its business.

Changes in Laws

Changes in laws or regulations, including but not limited to zoning laws, environmental laws, tax laws, consumer protection laws, securities laws, antitrust laws, and health care laws, could negatively affect Dick & Jane's Bar's financial performance or ability to continue to operate. Specifically, any additional regulation on the industry could significantly negatively affect the business.

Conflict of Interest With Companies and Their Management

In many ways, your interests and the interests of Dick & Jane's Bar's management will coincide: you both want Dick & Jane's Bar to be as successful as possible. However, your interests might be in conflict in other important areas, including these: You might want Dick & Jane's Bar to act conservative to make sure they are best equipped to repay the Note obligations, while Dick & Jane's Bar might prefer to spend aggressively to invest in the business. You would like to keep the compensation of managers low, while managers want to make as much as they can.

Future Investors Might Have Superior Rights

If Dick & Jane's Bar needs more capital in the future and takes on additional debt or other sources of financing, the new investors might have rights superior to yours. For example, they might have the right to be paid before you are, to receive larger distributions, to have a greater voice in management, or otherwise.

The Company is Not Subject to the Corporate Governance Requirements of the National Securities Exchanges

Any company whose securities are listed on a national stock exchange (for example, the New York Stock Exchange) is subject to a number of rules about corporate governance that are intended to protect investors. For example, the major U.S. stock exchanges require listed companies to have an audit committee made up entirely of independent members of the board of directors (i.e., directors with no material outside relationships with Dick & Jane's Bar or management), which is responsible for monitoring Dick & Jane's Bar's compliance with the law. Dick & Jane's Bar will not be required to implement these and other investor protections.

You Have a Limited Upside

Notes include a maximum amount you can receive. You cannot receive more than that even if Dick & Jane's Bar is significantly more successful than your initial expectations.

You Do Have a Downside

Conversely, if Dick & Jane's Bar fails to generate enough revenue, you could lose some or all of your money.

Payments and Return Are Unpredictable

Because your payments are based on the revenue of Dick & Jane's Bar, and the revenue of Dick & Jane's Bar can go up or down (or even disappear altogether) unpredictably, it is impossible to predict how much you will receive and when. And because the payments are unpredictable, so is your ultimate return.

The Notes Are Unsecured and Uninsured

The Notes are not secured by any collateral, nor are they guaranteed or insured by the FDIC or any other entity.

Subordination

The Notes shall be subordinated to all indebtedness of Dick & Jane's Bar to banks, commercial finance lenders, leasing and equipment financing institutions, and/or other institutions regularly engaged in the business of lending money.

Lack of Guaranty

The Notes are not personally guaranteed by any of the founders or any other person.

Limitation of Individual Rights in Event of Default

In the event of a default under the Notes, you will not be able to enforce your rights individually (for example, by bringing a lawsuit). Instead, a representative will be appointed according to the procedures set forth in the Note Indenture. It's possible that you will not like the representative, or that the representative will do things you believe are wrong or misguided. If an event of default has occurred and a representative has been appointed, all of the representative's reasonable expenses must be paid before any further payments are made with respect to the Notes.

COVID-19 Impact

The ongoing COVID-19 pandemic may impact the Company's ability to generate revenue and/or continue operations. If operations are ceased due to COVID-19 restrictions, the Company can not guarantee that it will resume operations in the future.

This information is provided by Dick & Jane's BarRoom. Mainvest never predicts or projects performance, and has not reviewed or audited this information. For additional information, review the official Form C filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission on the EDGAR website. This is a preview. It will become public when you start accepting investment.

Chris, Absolutely - The DOB in New York has been slow and we've yet to secure our permits to build. Our expeditor believes we are a week away from receiving our permits. Which will allow us to finally begin construction. We anticipate 45 days to finish our build. Early on (June) we filed for our SLA application (lead time for the liquor license has been 4-6months). It's our hope we receive word on the liquor license in November and this timing would align perfectly for us to open in late November / December. We have begun tastings with our chef, and our new cocktail menus as we wait.

Michael G. Brooklyn, NY about 1 year ago

I'm very excited to invest in your business, but I can't help but not understand why you are willing to be an extremely high interest rate. If someone invest $100, they can get back a hundred and sixty. Banks are not always easy to deal with, but that rate is high.

Treis H. about 1 year ago Dick & Jane's BarRoom Entrepreneur

Fair question. But Mainvest for us was a way to allow our community to invest with us. We've been in business 10 years and can't stress how important community is. That $100 investment with $60 interest (over 5 years) is more than worth it to us. To be able to share in our hard work and give a little to those that support us. Broken down that $160 is 32/ year and $8 a quarter. Having 58 investors that are helping to ensure we succeed is far better than any bank.

Christopher L. Bloomfield, NJ about 1 year ago

I loved Casablanca! Sad to see it go, but happy to see life coming back! Wondering what the payment schedule would be? When do you project the first payment? Would it be a quarterly? Would the price point of drinks be similar to the location in Ft. Greene?

Treis H. about 1 year ago Dick & Jane's BarRoom Entrepreneur

Payments are made quarterly, and begin on our first sale. We anticipate opening in October, but when we open is really decided upon SLA and when we receive the license. And yes our cocktail prices will be $14 and we will have some $17 options as well, tap beer and a larger natural wine selection. The exciting part now is we are going to have a chef table in the kitchen where we will be able to host private events. Our Chef Sebastien is really excited about this.

Manuel B. about 1 year ago

Thanks. Will you extend the 1.8x return, or has that perk expired?

I will also add, we agreed with the landlords no dancing or club like atmosphere. It caused a lot of issues with tenants and neighbors. So the vibe will be much more casual and relaxed. Music yes, but playlists.

Dick & Jane's BarRoom isn't accepting investments right now, but is trying to get a sense of how they should structure their offering. You will not need to provide any money, and we won't be accepting money or selling securities, until all of its forms with the SEC and you have no obligation to ultimately invest. All investments must be done through Mainvest.com. Once the offering goes live, you'll be able to invest if you so choose.
