Hey Scott - Wow what a great time this week. Awesome getting everyone back together and really looking forward to helping both of our organizations grow.

As promised here is the information on the music application that I am helping launch. As you may already know, I am invested in a Music Application called Vocana and we have just launched a crowdfunding campaign that allows anyone to invest as little as $100.

I value your input and would like you to check out the site below and provide me with any feedback on what should be changed to improve the message and get people to Join the Movement and Invest in Vocana!

Lastly, Vocana is now Live and we are currently onboarding invitation only artists. If you know of anyone that would like to be a part of our beta phase have them sign up on our website and let me know. www.vocana.co.

Hope to grab drinks with you in Siesta Key soon. I am down here until next Wednesday.

Thank you,

Jim

Happy TGIF everyone,

Finally!! We have launched our fundraising campaign for the Music App (Vocana) that we have talked about.

This stage we are seeing what type of interest we can get and if we reach over $50,000 of pledges then we will file with the SEC and after that is done you will be asked if you are sure you want to invest. So bottom line is you can only Pledge at this time.

Please check out the site and provide me any feedback on what you think would need be to be changed to improve the message.

Feel free to forward this on to anyone you think would be interested. Also we are currently onboarding invitation only artists now so if you know of anyone that would like to be a part our beta phase have them sign up on our website and let me know. www.vocana.co
