what that means is that before the shares of the club are being sold publicly, we have a private period of people reserving or expressing interest in investment. This is not a binding commitment. When we go public you will then verify your commitment or heck make your investment even more. Then, on our launch day, we're able to show that we already have $X of investment so we can make a big splash. Now, you probably have questions. So we're holding a special zoom Q&A session where we can lay out our plan and you can ask questions on Tuesday night, August 24 at 7PM. You're invited to join us virtually. Register here for the event. If you can't make it, we will be holding more of these and a few in-person happy hours. And if you're considering becoming a larger investor, don't hesitate to reach out and we can schedule a coffee. We will also have a booth at the Minnesota State Fair in Fan Central to answer any questions. In the meantime, we encourage you to follow the team on social media and tell your friends. Thank you for your support. Andrea Yoch President/CEO
