You Might Lose Your Money

When you buy a certificate of deposit from a bank, the Federal government (through the FDIC) guarantees your money. Buying a Note is not like that at all. The ability of Drewrys Company to make the payments you expect depends on a number of factors, including many beyond our control.

Limited Services

Drewrys Company operates with a very limited scope, offering only particular services to potential customers. Changes in customer preferences.

Lack of Accounting Controls

Larger companies typically have in place strict accounting controls. Smaller companies typically lack such controls, which increases the additional risk.

Competition

The market in which we operate is highly competitive and could become increasingly competitive with time. Drewrys Company competes with many other businesses, both large and small, on the basis of quality and price. Changes in customer preference away from Drewrys Company's core business or the inability to compete with other competitors could negatively affect Drewrys Company's financial performance.

Reliance on Management

As a securities holder, you will not be able to participate in Drewrys Company's management or vote on major decisions regarding Drewrys Company. Furthermore, if the founders or other key personnel of Drewrys Company or become unable to work, Drewrys Company (and your investment) could suffer substantially.

Financial Forecasts Risks

The financial forecasts provided by us herein are reasonable forecasts by us based upon assumptions and other various assumptions regarding operations. The validity and accuracy of these assumptions will change over which Drewrys Company and the key persons will have no control. Changes in assumptions or the occurrence of events could significantly affect the forecasts. To the extent that the assumed events do not occur, the outcome may differ from projected outcomes. Consequently, there can be no assurance that the actual operating results will conform to the projected outcomes herein. Additionally, Drewrys Company is a newly established entity and therefore has no operating history to project with.

Inability to Sell Your Investment

The law prohibits you from selling your securities (except in certain very limited circumstances) for 12 months after the date of the offering.

The Notes will not be registered with the SEC or the securities regulator of any State. Hence, neither be subject to the same degree of regulation and scrutiny as if they were registered.

Incomplete Offering Information

Title III does not require us to provide you with all the information that would be required in some other as a public offering of shares (for example, publicly-traded firms must generally provide investors with statements that have been audited by an independent accounting firm). Although Title III does require that you would make a different decision if you had more information.

Lack of Ongoing Information

Drewrys Company will be required to provide some information to investors for at least 12 months following information is far more limited than the information that would be required of a publicly-reporting company allowed to stop providing annual information in certain circumstances.

Uninsured Losses

Although Drewrys Company will carry some insurance, Drewrys Company may not carry enough insurance the business. Additionally, there are some kinds of risks that are very difficult or impossible to insure. Therefore, Drewrys Company could incur an uninsured loss that could damage its business.

Changes in Laws

Changes in laws or regulations, including but not limited to zoning laws, environmental laws, tax laws, labor laws, antitrust laws, and health care laws, could negatively affect Drewrys Company's financial performance. Specifically, any additional regulation on the industry could significantly negatively affect the

Conflict of Interest With Companies and Their Management

In many ways, your interests and the interests of Drewrys Company's management will coincide: you want the company to be as successful as possible. However, your interests might be in conflict in other important areas, including the Company to act conservative to make sure they are best equipped to repay the Note obligations, while management might spend aggressively to invest in the business. You would like to keep the compensation of managers low, while they would like to keep it as much as they can.

Future Investors Might Have Superior Rights

If Drewrys Company needs more capital in the future and takes on additional debt or other sources of capital, they might have rights superior to yours. For example, they might have the right to be paid before you are, to receive a greater voice in management, or otherwise.
