(D) The Company's Business and Business Plan

Jamaican pop-up Red's House offers a vegan soup of red peas, It's like a hug in a bowl. - Soleil Ho Food Critic

Simmered with lots of thyme and spices and served with juicy pieces of corn on the cob and hot dog-shape dumplings. The soup is blended to mimic the thickening properties of ham hocks and chicken feet.

Red's House is finally ready to call a restaurant in the Bay Area home. After hustling for over 3 years in the SF pop-up restaurant scene, consistently testing, evolving and growing our concept to unprecedented new heights, Red's House is taking the next logical step.

Red's House is a Modern Caribbean Grill serving Jerk chicken, Ox-tail, and our famous Jerk Fried Chicken wings. We feature grilled-to-order proteins, local & seasonal vegetables, and house-made sauces & marinades. By leveraging new technology and our pre pandemic ghost kitchen experience, Red's House is on a mission to create a truly one of kind experience.

Red's House is redefining the dining experience, by not only capitalizing on the booming food delivery market, creating a one of a kind immersive dining experience and partnering with local food charities. We are focused on building a central hub that will provide the opportunity for numerous profitable and charitable opportunities.

Red's House will be launching an innovative new take on Sauces and Marinades, one of a kind events and partnerships with major sponsors and an immersive space where diners are able place reservations to have meals in person. The growth of our Takeout/Delivery business model will only add additional revenue to an already profitable financial projection.

We'd love your investment to help open Red's House in 2022!

Our Story

We are More than just a mother & son duo. Together we have created the ultimate Caribbean experience here in San Francisco. Red's house is a Caribbean Institution, inspired by backyard gatherings, where "time doesn't exist as we laugh, share dishes and tell stories".

- Creating dishes through experimentation that not only display creativity and depth but push the boundaries of what Caribbean food looks and tastes like.
- Share the heritage art of preparing and cooking traditional Jamaican dishes with San

- Owned and Operated by Mother & Son

Our Mission

Our mission has always been to take back control of our cultural narrative by retaining the Identity of our food and presenting it in an authentic and meaningful way.

- By creating an immersive dining experience through sight, sound, smell and taste
- Our goal is for you to gain an introspective appreciation for the evolution of our heritage through the dishes we share with you.
- I have been trained in the heritage art of preparing and cooking traditional caribbean dishes.

THE GOAL: TO OPEN THE FIRST AUTHENTIC

CARIBBEAN RESTAURANT IN SAN FRANCISCO

Over the last few years, Our humble pop-ups turned into a full fledged business model. I found Red's House a brick-and-mortar space, albeit in an impossible lease at 4 Embarcadero Center but COVID forced us to move, But the reviews were in and it turns out that customers liked having the ability to visit us when they had the urge for some jerk chicken or spicy pepper prawns, instead of chasing us around the bay.

Things were good, until they weren't and I found myself exiled to Daly City during the pandemic.

There's a harshness still in the air left by the cruelest winter in modern history that we've managed to miraculously survive. The effects of this global pandemic have devastated the restaurant industry and I believe it is far from over, though there is a glimmer of hope as we begin to understand the invisible enemy. This was a blessing in disguise because we built a successful takeout/delivery model that actually exceeded our expectations of what it could potentially be. We have garnered a whole new fan base that didn't know us before.

Sometimes I go for endless drives around the city, into different neighborhoods and imagine Red's House in one of these empty restaurant spaces. You would think that during a pandemic when there are "For Lease" signs on every commercial space in town that it would be easy to source one ... but no.

The structural racism that we faced before the pandemic has been permanently uncovered and because people don't need to pretend anymore, I feel like we are dealing with an unprecedented amount of inequity. It's astonishing to see real agents squirm at the thought of trying to sell a Black-owned business to a landlord, thus taking over one of their crown jewels in San Francisco. I'm stuck because landlords want so much more in a COVID-19 landscape from a Black-owned business and are unwilling to budge on their stubbornness. Even with our proven track record, I feel that our skin color plays a major role in their decision. As the economy is on its deathbed, we are being offered spaces as long as we can pay exorbitant prices, six to 12 months up front, a deposit of 3x-7x rent, and key money. I understand the severity of the situation, but at least give us a chance to negotiate. Instead the first offer is usually the only and final offer. But there is a light at the end of this tunnel because we have been working with a fabulous broker and he has secured us the option of 2 spaces as long as we can raise the funds to move into the one we choose. Help us change the landscape and create something long lasting that will impact the community in a meaningful way. We are excited to be here at this moment!

seriously at first. Now, years later, Red's House has become a survivor in a time when established restaurants and storied institutions are permanently closing all around us. It has taken years of work, sacrifice and pain. But when I read the reviews, and when I look into our customers' faces as I hand them their food, the joy that they exude makes me know that I'm doing something that affects people's lives in a positive way. Blood, sweat, burns, and many, many tears — it has been worth it!

If you do not affirmatively choose to invest, then your commitment will be cancelled, your funds will be returned to you, and you will not receive any securities.

(L) Price of the Securities

The Company is offering “securities” in the form of revenue sharing notes, which we refer to as “Notes.” The Notes are being offered at their face amount. For example, you will pay $1,000 for a Note with a face amount of $1,000.

(M) Terms of the Securities

Overview

The Company is offering “securities” in the form of revenue sharing notes, which we refer to as the “Notes.” The Terms of the Notes are set forth in the Revenue Share Agreement accompanying this Form C in Appendix A. Copies of the Note and Revenue Sharing Agreement are attached to this Form C.

Summary of Terms

Revenue Percentage ¹	0.76 - 3.8% ²
Payment Deadline	2028-04-01
Maximum Payment Multiple ³ - Early Investors - All Other Investors	1.8 x 1.6 x
Sharing Start Date	The first day after disbursement that the company has revenues greater than one ($1) dollar
First Payment Date	The last day of the calendar quarter ending not less than 90 days after the Sharing Start Date
Seniority	Subordinated
Securitization	Unsecured
Accrual Rate	0.86%

¹ as defined in the note agreement included in Appendix A

² The rate of revenue sharing is calculated on a linear scale with a minimum rate of 0.76% and a maximum rate of 3.8% and is rounded to the nearest 1/10th percent. The final rate is based on the amount raised and is calculated after the offering has successfully closed. As the amount raised in the offering increases, the rate of revenue sharing increases. For example, a hypothetical offering could result in the following revenue sharing percentages, depending on the amount raised:

Amount Raised	Revenue Sharing Percentage
$50,000	0.8%
$100,000	1.5%
$150,000	2.3%
$200,000	3.0%
$250,000	3.8%

³ To reward early participation, the investors who contribute the first $10,000.0 raised in the offering will receive a 1.8x cap. Investors who contribute after $10,000.0 has been raised in the offering will receive a 1.6x cap.

Your Right to Payments under the Note called the Revenue Sharing Agreement. Copies of the Note and Revenue Sharing Agreement are attached to this Form C. Additionally, general terms are outlined below and in the Company's offering page.

Obligation to Contribute Capital

Once you pay for your Note, you will have no obligation to contribute more money to the Company, and you will not be personally obligated for any debts of the Company. However, under some circumstances you could be required by law to return some or all of a distribution you receive from the Company.

No Right to Transfer

You should plan to hold the Notes until maturity. The Notes will be illiquid (meaning you might not be able to sell them) for at least four reasons:

- The Revenue Sharing Agreement prohibits the sale or other transfer of Notes without the Company's consent.
- If you want to sell your Note the Company will have the first right of refusal to buy it, which could make it harder to find a buyer.
- Even if a sale were permitted, there is no ready market for Notes, as there would be for a publicly-traded stock.
- By law, for a period of one year you won't be allowed to transfer the Investor Shares except (i) to the Company itself, (ii) to an "accredited" investor, (iii) to a family or trust, or (iii) in a public offering of the Company's shares.

Security

The Notes are not secured by any assets of the Company or any assets of persons associated with the Company.

Modification of Terms of Notes

The terms of the Notes and the Revenue Sharing Agreement may be modified or amended with the consent of Investors holding 50% of the Notes, measured by the total amount outstanding under each Note.

Other Classes of Securities

Name of Security	Limited Liability Company Interests
Number of Shares Outstanding	N/A
Describe Voting Rights of These Securities, Including Any Limitations on Voting Rights	N/A
How these securities differ from the revenue sharing notes being offered to investors	Limited Liability Company Interests are an equity interest, whereas Revenue Sharing Notes are a debt obligation of the Company.

Dilution of Rights

The Company has the right to create additional classes of securities, both equity securities and debt securities (e.g., other classes of promissory notes). Some of these additional classes of securities could have rights that are superior to those of the Notes. For example, the Company could issue promissory notes that are secured by specific property of the Company.

The People Who Control the Company

Each of these people owns 20% or more of the total voting power of the Company:

Name of Holder	% of Voting Power (Prior to Offering)
Christopher Russell	61%
Sharon Russell	30%

How the Exercise of Voting Rights Could Affect You

You will receive payments with respect to your Note only if the Company makes enough money to pay you, or, if the Company does not make enough money to pay you, if there is enough value in the collateral the Company pledged as security for the Notes.

The people with voting rights control the Company and make all the decisions about running its business. If they make good business decisions, it is more likely you will be paid. If they make poor business decisions, it is less likely you will be paid. For example, if they hire too many people and/or try to expand too quickly, the business could be harmed. The people with voting rights could also decide to file for bankruptcy protection, making it more difficult for you to be paid.

How the Notes are Being Valued

The Notes are being valued at their face value. We don't anticipate that we'll ever need to place a value on the Notes in the future.

(N) The Funding Portal

The Company is offering its securities through MainVest, Inc., which is a "Funding Portal" licensed by the Securities and Exchange Commission and FINRA. MainVest Inc.'s Central Index Key (CIK) number is 0001746059, their SEC File number is 007-00162, and their Central Registration Depository (CRD) number is 298384.
