(D) The Company's Business and Business Plan

The Team

DEREK LEES, Founder

Owner of BeerHole Inc. a craft brewery locator available on iTunes & Google Play, an avid traveler of breweries. Manager of my own Major League Baseball, Football and Basketball teams in fantasy land. Loving and proud father of 2 rambunctious boys under 4 years old. Loves long walks on the beach, Hold Em poker at a high stakes table, my gorgeous hard working CRNA wife and sipping on bourbon anywhere in no specific order. Oh and my momma says I drink too much beer, but look at me now!

Torrey, Bourbonologist

Bourbonologist and father of 3. Retired and finally doing what I've always wanted to do. Learning to brew, growing a beard, and being a first time grandpa. Not a big fan of long walks on the beach, but anything whiskey and Nashville I'm in! I'm also an unbelievable fan of the brewery mascot, "Lager D".

Nikki, General Manager/Owner

I'm dedicated to my first career in anesthesia and decided to dive into a new adventure with my husband Derek to spread our passion for craft beer to the community. I am a mother of two sweet blonde – blue eyed boys and the brewery mascot Lager Dog. I'm secretly an introvert and love to read (which is impossible with two littles). I love to travel and be outdoors as much as possible.

Alex, Manager

Meet Alex, she's a spicy Italian that floated down the Illinois river to gladly serve you at Slauterhouse Brewery. She's quick with a joke, or even a song recommendation, but don't ask her to sing for you any time soon. Besides being the most fashionable manager in house, she also can recommend the best craft beer for you. So come down to Slauterhouse Brewery and have Alex pour you a cold one.

Kole, Assistant Brewer

Assistant Brewer. With a passion for microbiology, brewing beer seemed like an obvious calling. My hobbies range from mycology to motorcycles and everything in between. I take every opportunity to refine my understanding of what makes a great brew. From historical techniques to the cutting edge, we give it our all to make the most of what goes into each pour.

Our Mission

At our core, the Slauterhouse team strives to brew exceptional beer with passion so that every single pint can be enjoyed by the community, our families and friends in a fun and welcoming environment.

- Our Practices: We support local businesses by using local ingredients and goods whenever possible.
- Our Experience: We foster an environment where the local community feels at home and make our brewery a place where distant travelers will want to return.
- Our Process: Our goal is to always experiment and try new things so the community is continually asking us "what's next?"
- Our Culture: Promote beer culture and continually educate ourselves and our customers about the craft beer industry.

Our Story

Slauterhouse Brewing company was opened for business March 2020. We began selling "To-Go" Vessels with the small staff of close family and friends. The popularity and support from the local community grew fast. through the first winter of the pandemic, we had a taproom filled with great supporters. Quickly, we realized that we would outgrow our small space and the need for a larger venue was a priority. When the opportunity presented itself, we purchased "Slauterhouse West" and the open lot to the east of the current taproom. We have already begun cleaning the open lot and have a great vision how we can bring the old space back to life!

- New cooling and refrigeration system to house kegs and cans
- Moving current tap lines to new building
- Second Story addition for back of house office and private lounge
- Private rooftop event space with seating and bar
- Lower level event center with commercial kitchen

Explanation

A “material change” means a change that an average, careful investor would want to know about before making an investment decision. If a material change occurs after you make an investment commitment but before the Offering closes, then the Company will notify you and ask whether you want to invest anyway. If you do not affirmatively choose to invest, then your commitment will be cancelled, your funds will be returned to you, and you will not receive any securities.

(L) Price of the Securities

The Company is offering “securities” in the form of revenue sharing notes, which we refer to as “Notes.” The Notes are being offered at their face amount. For example, you will pay $1,000 for a Note with a face amount of $1,000.

(M) Terms of the Securities

Overview

The Company is offering “securities” in the form of revenue sharing notes, which we refer to as the “Notes.” The Terms of the Notes are set forth in the Revenue Share Agreement accompanying this Form C in Appendix A. Copies of the Note and Revenue Sharing Agreement are attached to this Form C.

Summary of Terms

Revenue Percentage ¹	3.5 - 10.5% ²
Payment Deadline	2029-07-01
Maximum Payment Multiple ³ - Early Investors - All Other Investors	2.0 x 1.6 x
Sharing Start Date	The first day after disbursement that the company has revenues greater than one ($1) dollar
First Payment Date	The last day of the calendar quarter ending not less than 90 days after the Sharing Start Date
Seniority	Subordinated
Securitization	Unsecured
Accrual Rate	0.91%

¹ as defined in the note agreement included in Appendix A

² The rate of revenue sharing is calculated on a linear scale with a minimum rate of 3.5% and a maximum rate of 10.5% and is rounded to the nearest 1/10th percent. The final rate is based on the amount raised and is calculated after the offering has successfully closed. As the amount raised in the offering increases, the rate of revenue sharing increases. For example, a hypothetical offering could result in the following revenue sharing percentages, depending on the amount raised:

Amount Raised	Revenue Sharing Percentage
$50,000	3.5%
$75,000	5.2%
$100,000	7.0%
$125,000	8.8%
$150,000	10.5%

³ To reward early participation, the investors who contribute the first $20,000.0 raised in the offering will receive a 2.0x cap. Investors who contribute after $20,000.0 has been raised in the offering will receive a 1.6x cap.

Your Right to Payments under the Note

Your right to payments under the Note is set forth in the Note, together with a separate document called the Revenue Sharing Agreement. Copies of the Note and Revenue Sharing Agreement are attached to this Form C. Additionally, general terms are outlined below and in the Company's offering page.

Obligation to Contribute Capital

Once you pay for your Note, you will have no obligation to contribute more money to the Company, and you will not be personally obligated for any debts of the Company. However, under some circumstances you could be required by law to return some or all of a distribution you receive from the Company.

No Right to Transfer

You should plan to hold the Notes until maturity. The Notes will be illiquid (meaning you might not be able to sell them) for at least four reasons:

- The Revenue Sharing Agreement prohibits the sale or other transfer of Notes without the Company's consent.
- If you want to sell your Note the Company will have the first right of refusal to buy it, which could make it harder to find a buyer.
- Even if a sale were permitted, there is no ready market for Notes, as there would be for a publicly-traded stock.
- By law, for a period of one year you won't be allowed to transfer the Investor Shares except (i) to the Company itself, (ii) to an "accredited" investor, (iii) to a family or trust, or (iii) in a public offering of the Company's shares.

Security

The Notes are not secured by any assets of the Company or any assets of persons associated with the Company.

Modification of Terms of Notes

The terms of the Notes and the Revenue Sharing Agreement may be modified or amended with the consent of Investors holding 50% of the Notes, measured by the total amount outstanding under each Note.

Other Classes of Securities

Name of Security	Limited Liability Company Interests
Number of Shares Outstanding	N/A
Describe Voting Rights of These Securities, Including Any Limitations on Voting Rights	N/A
How these securities differ from the revenue sharing notes being offered to investors	Limited Liability Company Interests are an equity interest, whereas Revenue Sharing Notes are a debt obligation of the Company.

Dilution of Rights

The Company has the right to create additional classes of securities, both equity securities and debt securities (e.g., other classes of promissory notes). Some of these additional classes of securities could have rights that are superior to those of the Notes. For example, the Company could issue promissory notes that are secured by specific property of the Company.

The People Who Control the Company

Each of these people owns 20% or more of the total voting power of the Company:

Name of Holder	% of Voting Power (Prior to Offering)
Susan Lees	50%
Derek Lees	50%

How the Exercise of Voting Rights Could Affect You

You will receive payments with respect to your Note only if the Company makes enough money to pay you, or, if the Company does not make enough money to pay you, if there is enough value in the collateral the Company pledged as security for the Notes.

The people with voting rights control the Company and make all the decisions about running its business. If they make good business decisions, it is more likely you will be paid. If they make poor business decisions, it is less likely you will be paid. For example, if they hire too many people and/or try to expand too quickly, the business could be harmed. The people with voting rights could also decide to file for bankruptcy protection, making it more difficult for you to be paid.

How the Notes are Being Valued

The Notes are being valued at their face value. We don't anticipate that we'll ever need to place a value on the Notes in the future.

(N) The Funding Portal

The Company is offering its securities through MainVest, Inc., which is a "Funding Portal" licensed by the Securities and Exchange Commission and FINRA. MainVest Inc.'s Central Index Key (CIK) number is 0001746059, their SEC File number is 007-00162, and their Central Registration Depository (CRD) number is 298384.

(O) Compensation of the Funding Portal

MainVest will be paid 6.0% of the final offering amount, upon the successful completion of the offering. MainVest does not receive compensation if the offering does not succeed. MainVest, Inc. owns no interest in the Company, directly or indirectly, and will not acquire an interest as part of the Offering, nor is there any arrangement for MainVest to acquire an interest.

(P) Indebtedness of the Company
