Amendment No.1 to Form S-4 filed February 7, 2022

Questions and Answers About the Business Combination and General Meeting

Q: What are the U.S. federal income tax consequences to me of the Business Combination?, page xvii

1. We note your revised disclosure in response to prior comment 3 states that Kirkland & Ellis LLP "intends" to render to Noble its opinion to the effect that, based upon and subject to the assumptions, exceptions, limitations and qualifications set forth in the filing and in the tax opinion filed as an exhibit to the registration statement of which the proxy statement/prospectus forms a part, and the representations from Noble, Topco and Merger Sub, the Merger will qualify as a "reorganization" under Section 368(a) of the Code. We further note that you have filed a form of the tax opinion as Exhibit 8.1. Please file an executed tax opinion, and update your disclosure that Kirkland & Ellis "intends" to render such opinion. For guidance, please refer to Section III.D.2 of Staff Legal Bulletin No. 19 (CF).

Description of the Exchange Offer, page 118

3. We note your response to prior comment 9. That comment is reissued. It appears that from an Internet search that this transaction was announced in November 2021. Refer to Instruction 5 to Rule 14d-2(b) of Regulation 14D for the definition of "public announcement." Please see also the July 2001 3rd Supplement to the Compliance & Disclosure Interpretations, Section I.A. Q2 for further guidance. Your revised discussion of the availability of the cross-border exemptions for this transaction should detail how you calculated U.S. ownership, and as of what dates, within the parameters established by the Instructions to Rules 14d-1(c) and (d). We will revisit compliance with our prior comments relating to the tender offer rules once we have an understanding of what (if any) cross-border exemptions are available for this transaction, based on your revised analysis.
