Christine McDonald
Trainer

It took enormous courage to join above all Fitness Center; however, in April 2019, she decided to change herself. She was obese, extremely unhealthy and mentally/physically tired. The turning point for her was when she realized she was living with a quitter mindset but deep down she believed that she had the fighter mentality in her. She and committed herself to attaining her health/fitness goals. Throughout her journey with above all Fitness process: establishing new habits, setting a daily routine and managing setbacks which life can bring. She is opposed to self doubting and most of all, loving HERSELF.

Two years later, Christine has lost over 100 pounds and gained mental toughness and a determined mind as a person in so many ways. Through this experience, she realized how passionate and happy she is in the gym.

In July 2021, she received her Certified Personal Trainers License from International Sports and Science Association. She encourage others to reach their truest potentials. In her full-time roles, Christine is a mother and also an OB/GYN Surgeon.
