Rachel Stander

Producer at A Season of Rain
Los Angeles, California, United States

Summary

Rachel Stander is a Los Angeles-based producer working in narrative film and television. She recently completed post-production on SCRAP, an intimate indie drama about family, shame, and the secrets we keep from the people who love us the most. Written and directed by Vivian Kerr, and starring Kerr alongside Anthony Rapp, Lana Parrilla, Beth Dover, and Khleo Thomas, SCRAP will premiere in 2022.

Next on her slate is SÉANCE, a Gothic psychological thriller set in 1890s California, and her second feature film collaboration with filmmaker Vivian Kerr. SÉANCE completed principal photography in December 2022.

Rachel's previous work highlights include JULIAN, a dark comedy short film, and LYSISTRATA 2.0, a PSA-style get-out-the-vote project. Under the banner of her production company, A Season of Rain, Rachel is committed to cultivating and shepherding stories for the screen about challenging, complex women.

Before graduating Magna Cum Laude from the University of Southern California with a degree in Theatre, Rachel studied dance at Barnard College, Columbia University, as well as at NYU's Tisch School of The Arts and Interlochen Center for the Arts.
