Form 10-K for the Fiscal Year ended November 30, 2022

Risk Factors, page 7

1. We note that you have provided certain risk factor disclosures in the Preliminary Proxy Statements that you filed on December 12, 2022 and June 13, 2023, to explain in part that you would likely be considered a “foreign person” under the regulations administered by the Committee on Foreign Investment in the United States (CFIUS), because your Sponsor is controlled by an individual who resides in and is a citizen of Malaysia, and to discuss various risks associated with this designation.

We believe that you should provide similar risk factor disclosures in your periodic reports, having a clear focus on the prospect of completing your initial business combination and the concerns referenced in each of the following points.

- Discuss the risk to investors that you may not be able to complete an initial business combination with a U.S. target company if the transaction becomes subject to review by a U.S. government entity, such as the Committee on Foreign Investment in the United States (CFIUS), or ultimately prohibited.
- Explain that as a result, the pool of potential targets with which you could complete an initial business combination may be limited.
- Explain that the time necessary for government review of the transaction or a decision to prohibit the transaction could prevent you from completing an initial business combination and require you to liquidate.
- Discuss the consequences of liquidation to investors, such as the losses of the investment opportunity in a target company, any price appreciation in the combined company, and the warrants that would expire worthless.

Please submit the disclosures that you propose to include in your periodic reports.

We remind you that the company and its management are responsible for the accuracy and adequacy of their disclosures, notwithstanding any review, comments, action or absence of action by the staff.

You may contact Mark Wojciechowski, Staff Accountant, at (202) 551-3759 or John Cannarella, Staff Accountant, at (202) 551-3337 with any questions.

Sincerely,
