Financial Condition

No operating history

Mystic Picnic was established in December 2021. Accordingly, there are limited financial statements and info. When evaluating this investment opportunity, investors should consider factors outlined in the risk section a

Forecasted milestones

Mystic Picnic forecasts the following milestones:

Secure lease in Springfield, TN by February 2022.

Achieve $500,000 revenue per year by 2023.

Achieve 200,000 profit per year by 2023.

No other outstanding debt or equity

The capital raised through Mainvest will make up the entirety of the Mystic Picnic's fundraising. However, My funds from alternate sources at a later date.

Risk Factors

You Might Lose Your Money

negatively affect Mystic Picnic's financial performance.

Reliance on Management

As a securities holder, you will not be able to participate in Mystic Picnic's management or vote on and/or in regarding Mystic Picnic. Furthermore, if the founders or other key personnel of Mystic Picnic were to leave or stop working, Mystic Picnic (and your investment) could suffer substantially.

Financial Forecasts Risks

The financial forecasts provided by us herein are reasonable forecasts by us based upon assumption of stable and various assumptions regarding operations. The validity and accuracy of these assumptions will depend in large part on Mystic Picnic and the key persons will have no control. Changes in assumptions or their underlying facts could result in the forecasts being materially different. To the extent that the assumed events do not occur, the outcome may vary significantly from the projected results. There can be no assurance that the actual operating results will correspond to the forecasts provided herein. Additionally, Mystic Picnic is a newly established entity and therefore has no operating history from which forecasts could be projected with any degree of certainty.

Inability to Sell Your Investment

The law prohibits you from selling your securities (except in certain very limited circumstances) for 12 months after the end of that one-year period, a host of Federal and State securities laws may limit or restrict your ability to sell your securities. If you want to sell, you will likely have difficulty finding a buyer because there will be no established market. Given these restrictions, you may be forced to hold your investment for its full term.

The Company Might Need More Capital

Mystic Picnic might need to raise more capital in the future to fund/expand operations, buy property and equipment, market its services, pay overhead and general administrative expenses, or a variety of other reasons. There is no assurance that capital will be available when needed, or that it will be available on terms that are not adverse to your interests. If Mystic Picnic is unable to obtain additional funding when needed, it could be forced to delay its business plan or even cease operations.

Changes in Economic Conditions Could Hurt Mystic Picnic

Factors like global or national economic recessions, changes in interest rates, changes in credit markets, changes in consumer spending, declining employment, changes in real estate values, changes in tax policy, changes in political conditions, and other factors are unpredictable and could negatively affect Mystic Picnic's financial performance or ability to operate. If Mystic Picnic ceases operations due to the foregoing factors, it can not guarantee that it will be able to resume operations in the future.

No Registration Under Securities Laws

The Notes will not be registered with the SEC or the securities regulator of any State. Hence, neither Mystic Picnic nor the Notes will be subject to the same degree of regulation and scrutiny as if they were registered.

Changes in Laws

Changes in laws or regulations, including but not limited to zoning laws, environmental laws, tax laws, consumer protection laws, antitrust laws, and health care laws, could negatively affect Mystic Picnic's financial performance or ability to conduct business. Any additional regulation on the industry could significantly negatively affect the business.

Conflict of Interest With Companies and Their Management

In many ways, your interests and the interests of Mystic Picnic's management will coincide: you both want Mystic Picnic to succeed and to grow as large as possible. However, your interests might be in conflict in other important areas, including these: You might want Mystic Picnic to make sure they are best equipped to repay the Note obligations, while Mystic Picnic might prefer to spend money on other business. You would like to keep the compensation of managers low, while managers want to make as much money as possible for themselves.

Future Investors Might Have Superior Rights

If Mystic Picnic needs more capital in the future and takes on additional debt or other sources of financing, they might have superior rights to yours. For example, they might have the right to be paid before you are, to receive larger distributions of assets, to elect members of management, or otherwise.

The Company is Not Subject to the Corporate Governance Requirements of the National Securities Exchange Act

Any company whose securities are listed on a national stock exchange (for example, the New York Stock Exchange) is subject to the rules about corporate governance that are intended to protect investors. For example, the major U.S. stock exchanges require companies to have an audit committee made up entirely of independent members of the board of directors (i.e., directors with no material relationships with Mystic Picnic or management), which is responsible for monitoring Mystic Picnic's compliance with applicable laws. Mystic Picnic is not required to implement these and other investor protections.

You Have a Limited Upside

Notes include a maximum amount you can receive. You cannot receive more than that even if Mystic Picnic increases in value beyond your initial expectations.

You Do Have a Downside

Conversely, if Mystic Picnic fails to generate enough revenue, you could lose some or all of your money.

Payments and Return Are Unpredictable

Because your payments are based on the revenue of Mystic Picnic, and the revenue of Mystic Picnic can go up or down (and together) unpredictably, it is impossible to predict how much you will receive and when. And because the revenue of Mystic Picnic is not guaranteed, your ultimate return is uncertain.

The Notes Are Unsecured and Uninsured

The ongoing COVID-19 pandemic may impact the Company's ability to generate revenue and/or continue operations. Due to COVID-19 restrictions, the Company can not guarantee that it will resume operations in the future.

This information is provided by Mystic Picnic. Mainvest never predicts or projects performance, and has not. For additional information, review the official Form C filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission on Mainvest.com. This is a preview. It will become public when you start accepting investment.

Investor Discussion

Mystic Picnic isn't accepting investments right now, but is trying to get a sense of how they should structure. We will not provide any money, and we won't be accepting money or selling securities, until all of its forms with the SEC are approved. Ultimately, all investments must be done through Mainvest.com. Once the offering goes live, you'll be able to invest.
