Dear Besties on LinkedIn:

After almost 20 years in commercial real estate and a deep passion for blockchain/cryptocurrency, marrying these two was just inevitable.

As CEO and Co-Founder of ABC, I've spent the last few years researching securities law, developing technology, and assembling a team of leading commercial real estate experts.

I'm both proud and excited to announce that my company is entering a rapid growth phase, and through #Wefunder's crowdfunding portal, the investment opportunity has opened to everyone.

For those who don't know, ABC stands for "Asset-Backed Crypto", because ABC Tokens represent ownership in the underlying commercial real estate.

My goal has always been to democratize commercial real estate investing, making it simple and accessible for everyone.

And by utilizing Polymath's institutional grade blockchain protocol, specifically designed for regulated assets (like security tokens), we've lowered the capital minimum to invest while creating unprecedented liquidity.

Better yet, we're giving the average person a hedge against #inflation.

Better yet, we're giving the average person a hedge against #inflation.

Please check out the offering and support us if you can during this "Testing The Waters" period.

There's actually no commitment until the compliance review and filings are handled with the SEC, but we're nearly finished and more exciting news will be shared very soon.

Lastly, please call or DM me with your questions. I love talking about ABC and sincerely believe it will make a difference for many people in years to come.

Dear FB Family,

While it's rare for me to use social media for solicitation, I'm far too excited to keep quiet...
