RISK FACTORS

Investing in the Securities involves a high degree of risk and may result in the loss of your entire investment. Before making an investment decision with respect to the Securities, we urge you to carefully consider the risks described in this section and other factors set forth in this Form C. In addition to the risks specified below, the Company is subject to same risks that all companies in its business, and all companies in the economy, are exposed to. These include risks relating to economic downturns, political and economic events and technological developments (such as hacking and the ability to prevent hacking). Additionally, early-stage companies are inherently riskier than more developed companies. Prospective Investors should consult with their legal, tax and financial advisors prior to making an investment in the Securities. The Securities should only be purchased by persons who can afford to lose all of their investment.

Risks Related to the Company's Business and Industry

We have a limited operating history upon which you can evaluate our performance, and accordingly, our prospects must be considered in light of the risks that any new company encounters.

The Company is still in an early phase and we are just beginning to implement our business plan. There can be no assurance that we will ever operate profitably. The likelihood of our success should be considered in light of the problems, expenses, difficulties, complications and delays usually encountered by early stage companies. The Company may not be successful in attaining the objectives necessary for it to overcome these risks and uncertainties.

In order for the Company to compete and grow, it must attract, recruit, retain and develop the necessary personnel who have the needed experience.

Recruiting and retaining highly qualified personnel is critical to our success. These demands may require us to hire additional personnel and will require our existing management personnel to develop additional expertise. We face intense competition for personnel. The failure to attract and retain personnel or to develop such expertise could delay or halt the development and commercialization of our product candidates. If we experience difficulties in hiring and retaining personnel in key positions, we could suffer from delays in product development, loss of customers and sales and diversion of management resources, which could adversely affect operating results. Our consultants and advisors may be employed by third parties and may have commitments under consulting or advisory contracts with third parties that may limit their availability to us.

We operate in a competitive market and there is no assurance that we will be able to compete with more established companies.

Title insurance is a $16.4 billion industry in the United States dominated by a small handful of companies. It is estimated that these companies control an estimated 85-90% of the market and have leveraged their significant financial clout to maintain dominance. Like any industry dominated for many years by a handful of companies, it will be extremely difficult for us to break into the market and compete.

Security breaches and other disruptions could compromise our information and expose us to liability, which would cause our business and reputation to suffer.

We may directly (or indirectly through third-party service providers) collect and store sensitive data, including our proprietary business information and that of our customers, and personally identifiable information of our customers and employees. The secure processing, maintenance and transmission of this information is critical to our operations and business strategy. Despite our security measures, our information technology and infrastructure may be vulnerable to attacks by hackers or breached due to employee error, malfeasance or other disruptions. Any such breach could compromise the information stored there and result in unauthorized access, public disclosure or, lost or stolen information. Any such access, disclosure or other loss of information could result in legal claims or proceedings, liability under laws that protect the privacy of personal information, and potential regulatory penalties, disrupt our operations and the services we provide to customers, and damage our reputation, and cause a loss of confidence in our products and services, which could adversely affect our business/operating margins, revenues and competitive position.

An intentional or unintentional disruption, failure, misappropriation or corruption of our network and information systems could severely affect our business.

Such an event might be caused by computer hacking, computer viruses, worms and other destructive or disruptive software, "cyber attacks" and other malicious activity, as well as natural disasters, power outages, terrorist attacks and similar events. Such events could have an adverse impact on us and our customers, including degradation of service, service disruption, excessive call volume to call centers and damage to our plant, equipment and data. In addition, our future results could be adversely affected due to the theft, destruction, loss, misappropriation or release of confidential customer data or intellectual property. Operational or business delays may result from the disruption of network or information systems and the subsequent remediation activities. Moreover, these events may create negative publicity resulting in reputation or brand damage with customers.

The Company's success depends on the experience and skill of the managers and key employees.

In particular, the Company is dependent on Kerry Anne Schultz, who is the Manager of the Company, and Robert Rinke and Rhys Rinke, who are founding members of the Company. The loss of Kerry Anne Schultz or any manager or founder could harm the Company's business, financial condition, cash flow and results of operations.

The Company intends to use the proceeds from the Offering for unspecified working capital.

This means that the Company has ultimate discretion to use the proceeds as it sees fit and has chosen not to set forth any specific uses for you to evaluate. The net proceeds from this Offering will be used for the purposes that our management deems to be in our best interests in order to address changed circumstances or opportunities. As a result of the foregoing, our success will be substantially dependent upon our discretion and judgment with respect to application and allocation of the net proceeds of this Offering. The Company may choose to use the proceeds in a manner that you do not agree with and you will have no recourse. A use of proceeds that does not further the Company's business and goals could harm the Company and its operations and ultimately cause a Purchaser to lose all or a portion of his or her investment.

We have not prepared any audited financial statements.

Therefore, you have no audited financial information regarding the Company's capitalization or assets or liabilities on which to make your investment decision. If you feel the information provided is insufficient, you should not invest in the Company.

We are not subject to Sarbanes-Oxley regulations and lack the financial controls and safeguards required of public companies.

We do not have the internal infrastructure necessary, and are not required, to complete an attestation about our financial controls that would be required under Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002. There can be no assurance that there are no significant deficiencies or material weaknesses in the quality of our financial controls. We expect to incur additional expenses and diversion of management's time if and when it becomes necessary to perform the system and process evaluation, testing and remediation required in order to comply with the management certification and auditor attestation requirements.

The Company is not required to provide disclosure pursuant to the Securities & Exchange Act of 1934.

As such, the Company is not required to file quarterly or annual reports. In addition, the Company is not required to prepare proxy or information statements; our common stock will not be subject to the protection of the going private regulations; the Company will be subject to only limited portions of the tender offer rules; our officers, directors, and more than ten percent (10%) shareholders ("insiders") are not required to file beneficial ownership reports about their holdings in our Company; insiders will not be subject to the short-swing profit recovery provisions of the Exchange Act; and more than five percent (5%) shareholders of classes of our equity securities will not be required to report information about their ownership positions in the securities.

Changes in employment laws or regulation could harm our performance.

Various federal and state labor laws govern our relationship with our employees and affect operating costs. These laws include minimum wage requirements, overtime pay, healthcare reform and the implementation of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, unemployment tax rates, workers' compensation rates, citizenship requirements, union membership and sales taxes. A number of factors could adversely affect our operating results, including additional government imposed increases in minimum wages, overtime pay, paid leaves of absence and mandated health benefits, mandated training for employees, increased tax reporting and tax payment requirements for employees who receive tips, a reduction in the number of states that allow tips to be credited toward minimum wage requirements, changing regulations from the National Labor Relations Board and increased employee litigation including claims relating to the Fair Labor Standards Act.

The Company's business could be negatively affected by general economic and other conditions.

The Company's activities may be adversely affected from time to time by such matters as changes in general economic, industrial and national conditions, changes in local, state, and federal taxes, dynamic prices and costs, utility rate changes, employment and human resources issues, leasing and real estate market, and other factors of a general nature that are beyond the control of the Company.

The title insurance business is complex and heavily regulated.

We expect to devote substantial resources to compliance matters and could incur significant ongoing costs to comply with new and existing laws and governmental regulation. If we fail to operate our business in compliance with applicable laws and regulations, our business, reputation, financial condition and results of operations could be materially and adversely affected. Our failure to comply with all applicable federal, state and local laws could result in, among other things (i) loss of our licenses to engage in our businesses, (ii) government investigations and enforcement actions against us, (iii) fines, penalties and judgments against us, (iv) civil lawsuits, including class actions, (v) criminal liability, and (vi) breaches of covenants and representations under our servicing agreements, debt agreements or other agreements.

We will need to obtain licenses in all states or other jurisdictions that require a title insurance license or related business license.

If we cannot obtain a title insurance license in a given state where such a license is required, we will not issue title insurance in that state, which may limit our ability to grow our business and attract and retain customers (some of whom may require that we be licensed nationally or in certain jurisdictions to do business with us).

The Manager and/or the Founders may enter into a side letter or other similar agreement with a particular Member in connection with its admission to the Company as a Member without the approval of any other Member.

The side letters would have the effect of establishing rights under or altering or supplementing the terms of the Operating Agreement with respect to such Member in a manner more favorable to such Member than those applicable to other Members. Any rights or terms so established in a side letter with a Member will govern solely with respect to such Member and will not require the approval of any other Member notwithstanding any other provision of the Operating Agreement.

The interests of one or more of the Members of the Company and the Company may conflict from time to time.

Although the Manager, the Founders and their affiliates, agents and employees will devote as much time to the business of the Company as is reasonably necessary to manage and supervise the business and affairs of the Company and to accomplish the purposes of the Company, the Manager, the Founders and their affiliates, agents and employees may engage in other business ventures, some of which may be in competition with the Company, or may pursue business opportunities whether or not arising from the conduct of Company business. The Manager, the Founders and their affiliates, agents and employees may be subject to other obligations that affect their ability to perform their obligations to the Company.

Risks Related to the Offering

The Company's management may have broad discretion in how the Company uses the net proceeds of an offering.

Unless the Company has agreed to a specific use of the proceeds from an offering, the Company's management will have considerable discretion over the use of proceeds from their offering. You may not have the opportunity, as part of your investment decision, to assess whether the proceeds are being used appropriately.

The U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission does not pass upon the merits of any securities offered or the terms of the offering, nor does it pass upon the accuracy or completeness of any offering document or literature.

You should not rely on the fact that our Form C is accessible through the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission's EDGAR filing system as an approval, endorsement or guarantee of compliance as it related to this Offering.

Neither the Offering nor the Securities have been registered under federal or state securities laws, leading to an absence of certain regulation applicable to the Company.

No governmental agency has reviewed or passed upon this Offering, the Company or any Securities of the Company. The Company also has relied on exemptions from securities registration requirements under applicable state securities laws. Prospective Investors in the Company, therefore, will not receive any of the benefits that such registration would otherwise provide. Prospective Investors must therefore assess the adequacy of disclosure and the fairness of the terms of this Offering on their own or in conjunction with their personal advisors.

Compliance with the criteria for securing exemptions under federal securities laws and the securities laws of the various states is extremely complex, especially in respect of those exemptions affording flexibility and the elimination of trading restrictions in respect of securities received in exempt transactions and subsequently disposed of without registration under the Securities Act or state securities laws.

State and federal securities laws are complex, and the Company could potentially be found to have not complied with all relevant state and federal securities law in prior offerings of securities.

If the Company violates federal or state securities laws in connection with an offering and/or sale of its securities, federal or state regulators could bring an enforcement, regulatory and/or other legal action against the Company which, among other things, could result in the Company having to pay substantial fines and be prohibited from selling securities in the future.

Risks Related to the Securities

The Securities will not be freely tradable until one year from the initial purchase date. Although the Securities may be tradable under federal securities law, state securities regulations may apply, and each Prospective Investor should consult with his or her attorney.

You should be aware of the long-term nature of this investment. There is not now and likely will not be a public market for the Securities. Because the Securities have not been registered under the Securities Act or under the securities laws of any state or non-United States jurisdiction, the Securities have transfer restrictions and cannot be resold in the United States except pursuant to Rule 501 of Regulation CF. It is not currently contemplated that registration under the Securities Act or other securities laws will be affected. Limitations on the transfer of the Securities may also adversely affect the price that you might be able to obtain for the Securities in a private sale. Prospective Investors should be aware of the long-term nature of their investment in the Company. Each Prospective Investor in this Offering will be required to represent that it is purchasing the Securities for its own account, for investment purposes and not with a view to resale or distribution thereof.

There is no present market for the Securities and we have arbitrarily set the price.

The offering price was not established in a competitive market. We have arbitrarily set the price of the Securities with reference to the general status of the securities market and other relevant factors. The Offering price for the Securities should not be considered an indication of the actual value of the Securities and is not based on our net worth or prior earnings. We cannot assure you that the Securities could be resold by you at the Offering price or at any other price.

There is no guarantee of return on your investment in this Offering.

There is no assurance that a Purchaser will realize a return on its investment or that it will not lose its entire investment. For this reason, each Purchaser should read the Form C and all exhibits carefully and should consult with its own attorney and business advisor prior to making any investment decision.

A majority of the Company is owned by a small number of owners.

The Company is owned by three (3) members who hold Class A Membership Units, representing 80% of the Company. The concentration of ownership and control could delay or prevent a change in control of the Company or otherwise discourage a potential acquirer from attempting to obtain control of the Company, which in turn could reduce the price potential investors are willing to pay for the Company. In addition, these owners could use their influence to maintain the Company's existing management, delay or prevent changes in control of the Company, or support or reject other management proposals that could be subject to member approval.

Class B Member will have no voting rights as Class B Members of the Company other than as required by law.

A Class B Member will neither have the right to vote on the deployment of capital, nor the management of the day-to-day operations of the Company. The management of the Company will be left to the sole discretion of the Manager. Additionally, the Manager may only be removed under limited, specified circumstances.

Class B Membership Units are subject to dilution.

The Company may offer additional Class B Units to additional affiliated real estate agents in the future, which may be dilutive to existing Class B Members, including current Prospective Investors. The Class A Units are not subject to dilution in the event the Company issues additional Class B Units (such that the holders of Class A Units, collectively, will have the right to receive 80% of the distributions from the Company regardless of the number of Class B Units issued by the Company).

There is no assurance of cash distributions.

There can be no assurance that there will be any cash distributions made to the Company from the underlying businesses invested into by the Company or to the Class B Members of the Company or that any cumulative cash distributions by the Company will equal or exceed the amounts invested by a purchaser of Class B Units.

To the extent the Company incurs indebtedness, principal and interest payments on such indebtedness will have to be made when due, regardless of whether sufficient cash flow or income is available.

If payments on any debts and obligations are not made when due by these businesses, they may sustain a loss on its investment. Such a loss may result in substantial adverse consequences to the Company, including adverse income tax consequences.

Risks: Litigation

Incomplete due diligence on title policies could subject the Company to potential litigation.

As an insurer, Pure Title, LLC will perform due diligence with respect to the title of property. If we fail to identify title defects, whether because of a failure of technology, a failure of process, a misinterpretation of data, or otherwise, we could be exposed to unanticipated claims.

The Company is subject to risks related to personally identifiable information.

We will routinely collect, process, store, use and disclose personal information of homeowners, borrowers, and title insurance customers, including but not limited to names, addresses, social security numbers, bank account numbers, credit card numbers and credit history information. That kind of personal information is subject to various federal, state and other laws regarding data privacy and protection. The regulatory framework for data privacy and protection issues in the United States and internationally is constantly evolving and is likely to remain fluid for the foreseeable future. We may be required to expend significant time, money and other resources towards compliance with such laws, and we may be subject to orders, fines, penalties or other adverse consequences from governmental authorities, as well as lawsuits from consumers, if we fail to comply with such laws. An actual or perceived failure by the Company to properly safeguard and use sensitive personal information could severely damage our reputation and harm our business.

Risks: Legal

Limited Employment of Counsel.

Legal counsel for the Company does not represent the potential investors in connection with the business of Company or any offering of Class B Membership Units, and such counsel disclaims any fiduciary or attorney-client relationship with the Prospective Investors. Prospective Investors should obtain the advice of their own legal counsel regarding legal matters. Legal counsel for the Company was not requested to, and did not attempt to, verify or confirm any statement contained in this Form C and the exhibits hereto.

IN ADDITION TO THE RISKS LISTED ABOVE, RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES NOT PRESENTLY KNOWN, OR WHICH WE CONSIDER IMMATERIAL AS OF THE DATE OF THIS FORM C, MAY ALSO HAVE AN ADVERSE EFFECT ON OUR BUSINESS AND RESULT IN THE TOTAL LOSS OF YOUR INVESTMENT.

THE OFFERING AND THE SECURITIES

The Offering

The Company is offering up to a maximum amount of $50,000 (the “Maximum Offering Amount”) of Class B Membership Units (the “Securities”) on a best efforts basis as described in this Form C (this “Offering”). Potential purchasers of the Securities are referred to herein as “Prospective Investors” or “you”.

The price of the Securities was determined arbitrarily, does not necessarily bear any relationship to the Company’s asset value, net worth, revenues or other established criteria of value, and should not be considered indicative of the actual value of the Securities. The minimum amount that a Prospective Investor may invest in the Offering is $82.00, which is subject to adjustment in the Company’s sole discretion.

In order to purchase the Securities, you must make a commitment to purchase by completing the subscription process hosted by BRITE Investments, Inc. (the “Intermediary”), including complying with the Intermediary’s know your customer (KYC) and anti-money laundering (AML) policies. If a Prospective Investor makes an investment commitment under a name that is not their legal name, they may be unable to redeem their Security indefinitely, and neither the Intermediary nor the Company are required to correct any errors or omissions made by the Prospective Investor.

Prospective Investor funds will be held in escrow with Prime Trust, LLC until the Target Offering Amount has been met or exceeded and one or more closings occur. Prospective Investors may cancel an investment commitment until up to 48 hours prior to the Offering Deadline, or such earlier time as such earlier time the Company designates pursuant to Regulation CF, using the cancellation mechanism provided by the Intermediary. Prospective Investors using a credit card to invest must represent and warrant to cancel any investment commitment(s) by submitting a request through the Intermediary at least 48 hours prior to the Offering Deadline, instead of attempting to claim fraud or claw back their committed funds.

The Company will notify Prospective Investors when the Target Offering Amount has been reached through the Intermediary. If the Company reaches the Target Offering Amount prior to the Offering Deadline, it may close the Offering early provided (i) the expedited Offering Deadline must be twenty-one (21) days from the time the Offering opened and the Company, (ii) the Intermediary must provide at least five (5) business days’ notice prior to the expedited Offering Deadline to the Prospective Investors and (iii) the Company continues to meet or exceed the Target Offering amount on the date of the expedited Offering Deadline.

Material Changes

If any material change occurs related to the Offering prior to the current Offering Deadline the Company will provide notice to Prospective Investors and receive reconfirmations from Prospective Investors who have already made commitments. If a Prospective Investor does not reconfirm their investment commitment after a material change is made to the terms of the Offering within five (5) business days of receiving notice, the Prospective Investor’s investment commitment will be cancelled and the committed funds will be returned without interest or deductions. If a Prospective Investor does not cancel an investment commitment before the Target Offering Amount is reached, the funds will be released to the Company upon the closing of the Offering and the Prospective Investor will receive the Securities in exchange for their investment.

Intermediate Closings

In the event an amount equal to two (2) times the Target Offering Amount is committed and meets all required terms of the Offering prior to the Offering Deadline on such date or such later time the Company designates pursuant to Rule 304(b) of Regulation CF, the Company may conduct the first of multiple closings of the Offering early, provided (i) the new Offering Deadline must be twenty-one (21) days from the time the Offering opened and the Company and (ii) that all Prospective Investors will receive notice of the new offering deadline at least five (5) business days prior to such new offering deadline (absent a material change that would require an extension of the Offering and reconfirmation of all investment commitments). Prospective Investors who committed on the date such notice is provided or prior to the issuance of such notice will be able to cancel their investment commitment until 48 hours before the new offering deadline.

If the Company conducts an initial closing (the “Initial Closing”), the Company agrees to only withdraw half of the proceeds that are in escrow and will only conduct such Initial Closing if there are more than twenty-one (21) days remaining before the Offering Deadline as of the date of the Initial Closing. The Company may only conduct another close (a “Subsequent Closing”) before the Offering Deadline if the amount of investment commitments made as of the date of such Subsequent Closing exceeds two times the amount committed as of the date of the Initial Closing and there are more than twenty-one (21) days remain before the Offering Deadline as of the date of such Subsequent Closing.

Any investment commitments received after an intermediate closing will be released to the Company upon a subsequent closing and the Prospective Investor will receive evidence of the Securities via electronic certificate/PDF in exchange for their investment commitment as soon as practicable thereafter.

The Company has agreed to return all funds to Prospective Investors in the event a Form C-W is ultimately filed in relation to this Offering, regardless of whether multiple closings are conducted.

Investment commitments are not binding on the Company until they are accepted by the Company, which reserves the right to reject, in whole or in part, in its sole and absolute discretion, any investment commitment. If the Company rejects all or a portion of any investment commitment, the applicable Prospective Investor’s funds will be returned without interest or deduction.
