Notes to the Financial Statement
Fiscal year ended December 31, 2021 and 2020

1. Organization and Purpose

Access.Vet, Inc., (the “Company”) is corporation organized under the laws of the State of Delaware. The company operates a telehealth platform for veterinarians and their clients. Revenue is generated via a technology fee paid by the client for each virtual consult they have with their veterinarian.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

A summary of the Company’s significant accounting policies applied in the preparation of the accompanying financial statements as follows:

a) Basis of Accounting

The Company prepares its financial statements on accrual basis of accounting in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP). Under the accrual basis of accounting, revenues are recorded when earned and expenses are recorded at the time the liabilities are incurred.

b) Fiscal Year

The Company operates on a 52-week fiscal year ending on December 31.

c) Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include cash in bank, short term investments and short-term employee loans with maturity terms of 90 days or less.

d) Legal Fees

Legal fees include legal services provided for the creation of the Company and equity financing.

e) Use of Estimates

The preparation of the financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates

3. Subsequent Event

The Company has evaluated events and transactions subsequent to the period. No events require recognition or disclosure of the Company per the definitions and requirements of ASC Section 855-10, Subsequent Events
