LEAD INVESTOR

Nicole Wilson Lead Fan Investor

I invested in Flower City Union because they represent a direct investment in my community. Soccer in Rochester, NY has a fantastic history and our community has been without a team for too long. Flower City Union has shown a true commitment to developing a community-based, sustainable model for soccer in Rochester. When the opportunity to support and participate in the development of a team as a fan-owner presented itself, it was a no-brainer. With its participation in NISA, Flower City Union is bringing independent professional soccer back to Rochester. The team leadership is committed and passionate about building the best team possible and firmly rooting that team in our community. Given their experience, I think the Flower City Union team understands the challenges of bringing professional soccer back to Rochester and building a team from the ground up. I am thrilled that they have taken the fantastic approach of involving the fans and Rochester community directly.

ROOTED IN ROCHESTER

Flower City Union aims to be a club for the community, rooted in our hometown. We are a professional soccer club committed to positively impacting the City of Rochester and its surrounding communities by fielding a competitive, championship-caliber club while supporting the development of youth soccer locally. Passion and inclusion are our North Star, guiding how we live, how we act, how we play, how we serve. Rather than being a sports business operating in Rochester, we are a Flower City Business operating in sport. As such, we acknowledge our responsibility in nurturing social and economic connections through inclusive business practices. We actively embrace diversity and aim to reflect back the faces and voices of our region.
