SEPARABILITY OF PROVISIONS

All provisions relating to an Act, Title, chapter, subchapter, or the application of such provision regarding annual, semiannual, quarterly (and so forth) filings required in order to maintain said status as a Foreign Private Issuer and or the determination of eligibility in order to be considered a Foreign Private Issuer; and information required in a prospectus relating to the class and registration of securities; or any other rules, regulations, circumstances, or otherwise, which would lead to civil and/ or criminal liabilities; and/ or which would refuse, delay, or cause to be rejected and/ or rescinded regarding the offer and sell, and registration of securities referencing said Foreign Company; shall be held invalid and be in violation of applicable laws mentioned herein; Consequently, said Act, Title, provisions relating to a chapter, subchapter, circumstances, or the application of such provision does not apply to said Foreign Private Native SAN & Company Officer; evidenced by the following United States Statutes At Large: Securities Exchange Act of 1934; Separability of Provisions – June 6, 1934, ch. 404, title I, § 33, 48 Stat. 905 (15 U.S. Code § 78gg); Trust Indenture Act of 1939: Separability of Provisions – May 27, 1933, ch. 38, title III, § 328, as added Aug. 3, 1939, ch. 411, 53 Stat. 1177 (15 U.S. Code § 77bbb); Securities Act of 1933: Separability of Provisions – May 27, 1933, ch. 38, title I, § 26, 48 Stat. 88 (15 U.S. Code § 77z).

SYSTEM OF PEONAGE; DEBT PEONAGE; FOREVER ABOLISHED

The System of Peonage is forever prohibited; hence, abolished; evidenced by the following United States Statutes At Large: THIRTY-NINTH CONGRESS SESS. II CH. 187, 188, 1867; Page 546. All communications will be monitored in order to confirm whether or not “serious harm” and or “abuse or threatened abuse of law or legal process”, were utilized in any manner or for any purpose for which the law was not designed, in order to exert pressure on another person to cause that person to take some action or refrain from taking some action. In addition, it is recommended that an agency, department, commission, board, or other entity of a State and the United States and/ or representatives thereof as well as members of non-profit organizations review the following United States Statutes At Large: Jun 25, 1948, ch. 645, 62 Stat. 772; Pub. L. 103-322, title XXXIII § 330016(1)(K), Sept. 13, 1994, 108 Stat. 2147; Pub. L. 104-208, div. C, title II, § 218(a), Sept. 30, 1996, 110 Stat. 3009—573; Pub. L. 106-386, div. A, § 112(a)(1), Oct. 28, 2000, 114 Stat. 1486; Pub. L. 110-457, title II, § 222(b)(1), Dec. 23, 2008, 122 Stat. 5067; Pub. L. 115-392, § 11(1)(A), Dec. 21, 2018, 132 Stat. 5255.

Under no circumstances shall the Foreign Private Native SAN & Company Officer(s) are to be assumed or pressured to be organized, created, or to be an instrumentality of the United States or a State who is subjected to the Special Maritime and Territorial Jurisdiction of the United States; Consequently, no agency, department, commission, board, or other entity of a State and the United States, other persons, or courts within the United States have the authority to control substantial decisions nor able to exercise primary supervision over the administration of the Foreign Private entity Native SAN & Company. To think and act otherwise especially in order to cause “serious harm” and or “abuse or threatened abuse of law or legal process”, which would be utilized in any manner or for any purpose for which the law was not designed, in order to exert pressure on another person to cause that person to take some action or refrain from taking some action; would be a direct violation of United States Statutes At Large: THIRTY-NINTH CONGRESS SESS. II CH. 187, 188, 1867; 546; June 25, 1948, ch. 645, 62 Stat. 772; Pub. L. 106—386, div. A, § 112(a)(1), Oct. 28, 2000, 114 Stat. 1486; and other Public Laws relating to a System of Peonage, Debt Peonage, and so forth. All Unalienable Rights are Strictly and Explicitly Reserved.
