(a) if such transaction requires stockholder approval, with respect to all Common Stock that such Common Holder owns or over which such Common Holder otherwise exercises voting power (“Common Shares”), to vote (in person, by proxy or by action by written consent, as applicable) all Common Shares in favor of, and adopt, such Sale of the Corporation (together with any related amendment to this Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation required in order to implement such Sale of the Corporation) and to vote in opposition to any and all other proposals that could reasonably be expected to delay or impair the ability of the Corporation to consummate such Sale of the Corporation;

(b) if such transaction is a Stock Sale, to sell the same proportion of shares of capital stock of the Corporation beneficially held by such Common Holder as is being sold by the Selling Stockholders to the person or entity to whom the Selling Stockholders propose to sell their Class A Voting Common Stock, and, except as permitted in clause (iii) directly below, on the same terms and conditions as the Selling Stockholders;

(c) to execute and deliver all related documentation and take such other action in support of the Sale of the Corporation as shall reasonably be requested by the Corporation or the Selling Stockholders in order to carry out the terms and provision of this Article FOURTH.C, including without limitation executing and delivering instruments of conveyance and transfer, and any purchase agreement, merger agreement, indemnity agreement, escrow agreement, consent, waiver, governmental filing, share certificates duly endorsed for transfer (free and clear of impermissible liens, claims and encumbrances) and any similar or related documents;

(d) not to deposit, except as permitted by this Article FOURTH.C, any Common Shares owned by such party in a voting trust or subject any Common Shares to any arrangement or agreement with respect to the voting of such Common Shares, unless specifically requested to do so by the acquirer in connection with the Sale of the Corporation;

(e) to refrain from exercising any dissenters' rights or rights of appraisal under applicable law at any time with respect to such Sale of the Corporation; and

(f) if the consideration to be paid in exchange for the Common Shares pursuant to this Article FOURTH.C includes any securities and due receipt thereof by any Common Holder would require under applicable law (x) the registration or qualification of such securities or of any person as a broker or dealer or agent with respect to such securities or (y) the provision to any Common Holder of any information other than such information as a prudent issuer would generally furnish in an offering made solely to "accredited investors" as defined in Regulation D promulgated under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), the Corporation may cause to be paid to any such Common Holder in lieu thereof, against surrender of the Common Shares which would have otherwise been sold by such Common Holder, an amount in cash equal to the fair value (as determined in good faith by the Corporation) of the securities which such Common Holder would otherwise receive as of the date of the issuance of such securities in exchange for the Common Shares.

(iii) Exceptions. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a Common Holder will not be required to comply with clause (ii) directly above in connection with any proposed Sale of the Corporation (the "Proposed Sale") unless:

(a) any representations and warranties to be made by such Common Holder in connection with the Proposed Sale are limited to representations and warranties related to authority, ownership and the ability to convey title to such Common Holder's Common Shares, including but not limited to representations and warranties that (i) the Common Holder holds all right, title and interest in and to the Common Shares such Common Holder purports to hold, free and clear of all liens and encumbrances, (ii) the obligations of the Common Holder in connection with the transaction have been duly authorized, if applicable, (iii) the documents to be entered into by the Common Holder have been duly executed by the Common Holder and delivered to the acquirer and are enforceable against the Common Holder in accordance with their respective terms and (iv) neither the execution and delivery of documents to be entered into in connection with the transaction, nor the performance of the Common Holder's obligations thereunder, will cause a breach or violation of the terms of any agreement, law or judgment, order or decree of any court or governmental agency;

(b) the Common Holder shall not be liable for the inaccuracy of any representation or warranty made by any other party in connection with the Proposed Sale, other than the Corporation (except to the extent that funds may be paid out of an escrow established to cover breach of representations, warranties and covenants of the Corporation as well as breach by any stockholder of any of identical representations, warranties and covenants provided by all stockholders);

(c) the liability for indemnification, if any, of such Common Holder in the Proposed Sale and for the inaccuracy of any representations and warranties made by the Corporation in connection with such Proposed Sale, is several and not joint with any other party (except to the extent that funds may be paid out of an escrow established to cover breach of representations, warranties and covenants of the Corporation as well as breach by any stockholder of any of identical representations, warranties and covenants provided by all stockholders), and is pro rata in proportion to the amount of consideration paid to such Common Holder in connection with such Proposed Sale;

(d) liability shall be limited to such Common Holder's applicable share (determined based on the respective proceeds payable to all stockholders in connection with such Proposed Sale) of a negotiated aggregate indemnification amount that applies equally to all Common Holders but that in no event exceeds the amount of consideration otherwise payable to such Common Holder in connection with such Proposed Sale, except with respect to claims related to fraud by such Common Holder, the liability for which need not be limited as to such Common

Holder;

(e) upon the consummation of the Proposed Sale, (i) each holder of each class or series of the Corporation's stock will receive the same form of consideration for their shares of such class or series as is received by other holders in respect of their shares of such same class or series of stock, and (ii) each holder of Class A Voting Common Stock, Class B Non-Voting Common Stock and Class C Voting Common Stock will receive the same amount of consideration per share as is received by other holders in respect of their shares of such stock; and

(f) if such Common Holder is not an employee of the Corporation, such Common Holder is not required in connection with such Proposed Sale to agree to (i) any covenant not to compete with any party and/or (ii) any covenant not to solicit or hire customers, employees or suppliers of any party.

(iv) Irrevocable Proxy. To secure each Common Holder's obligations to vote the Common Shares in accordance with this Article FOURTH.C, each Common Holder hereby appoints the Chairman of the Board of Directors or the Chief Executive Officer of the Corporation, or either of them from time to time, or their designees, as such Common Holder's true and lawful proxy and attorney, with the power to act alone and with full power of substitution, to vote all of such Common Holder's Common Shares as set forth in this Article FOURTH.C. and to execute all appropriate instruments consistent with this Article FOURTH.C on behalf of such Common Holder if, and only if, such Common Holder (a) fails to vote, or (b) attempts to vote (whether by proxy, in person or by written consent), in a manner which is inconsistent with the terms of this Article FOURTH.C, all of such Common Holder's Common Shares or execute such other instruments in accordance with the provisions of this Article FOURTH.C within five (5) days of the Corporation's or any other party's written request for such Common Holder's written consent or signature. The proxy and power granted by each Common Holder pursuant to this clause (iv) are coupled with an interest and are given to secure the performance of such party's duties under this Article FOURTH.C. Each such proxy and power will be irrevocable for the term hereof. The proxy and power, so long as any party hereto is an individual, will survive the death, incompetency and disability of such party or any other individual Common Holder of Common Shares and, so long as any party hereto is an entity, will survive the merger, consolidation, conversion or reorganization of such party or any other entity holding Common Shares.

(v) Remedies.

(a) Specific Enforcement. The Common Holders acknowledge and agree that each stockholder and the Corporation will be irreparably damaged in the event any of the provisions of this Article FOURTH.C are not performed by the Common Holders in accordance with their specific terms or are otherwise breached.

Accordingly, it is agreed that the Corporation shall be entitled to an injunction to prevent breaches of this Article FOURTH.C and to specific enforcement of this Article FOURTH.C and its terms and provisions in any action instituted in any court of the United States or any state having subject matter jurisdiction without the need to post any bond.

(b) Remedies Cumulative. All remedies, either under this Article by law or otherwise afforded to any party, shall be cumulative and not alternative.

(vi) Term. The provisions of this Article FOURTH.C shall continue in effect until and shall terminate upon the earliest to occur of (a) the consummation of a “Public Offering” (as defined below), or (b) the consummation of a transaction, in one transaction or a series of related transactions, that constitutes a Stock Sale, provided that the provisions of this Article FOURTH.C will continue after the closing of any Stock Sale to the extent necessary to enforce the provisions of this Article FOURTH.C with respect to such Stock Sale. “Public Offering” means the Corporation’s sale of its common stock in a underwritten public offering pursuant to a registration statement pursuant to the Securities Act, covering the offer and sale of common stock for the account of the Corporation or a direct listing public offering pursuant to a registration statement pursuant to the Securities Act covering the offer and sale of common stock for the account of the Corporation and/or security holders of the Corporation.
