LEAD INVESTOR

Patricia Perez

I highly recommend investing in plans, because I have known the co-founders since 2015, and I have been very impressed with the hard work, creativity, and dedication that Adnan Kharuf and Muhamed Causevic have put into developing this amazing app. I know that these young men will not rest once the app is on the market. They will be determined to continue to expand and update the app to be the best social media can offer. I personally invested in Plans, because I have used the app since its inception in 2021, and it is unique in that one is able to organize the event, promote the event, message people, and post pictures prior, during and after the event. It is a complete social media app that has a personal platform feel to it, unlike any other social media app I have ever used.

Plans: Eventbrite meets Instagram.

The Problem

Yet organizing and promoting an event is fragmented. It requires event planners to use one platform to organize the event and then use separate platforms to promote the event resulting in poor productivity, lack of focus, and weak analytics.

P

It takes too many tools, time and cost to drive event marketing and engagement.

88% of event planners are using social media on event marketing to increase awareness about their events.

Most organizations spend more than 25% of their marketing budgets on events.

80% of B2B marketing professionals ranked event engagement as an important KPI for determining an event's success.

Our Solution

Plans is an intelligent audience network for business event marketing and engagement to reduce cost, number of tools, and time required to drive a successful event.
