Summary

I'm a technologist and a product leader with expertise and passion in e-commerce, digital payments, search, healthcare systems, and ML driven applications. On occasion, I speak at tech conferences and write tech articles and news pieces. I'm currently serving as vice chair of CompTIA's AI advisory council to collaborate and build AI/ML resources. And more importantly, I'm a self-proclaimed age of empires champion and a part-time carpenter
