GAUGING INTEREST in an investment opportunity. We are creating a multi-season TV series called "Testament" and the plan is to partner with Angel Studios for distribution, the same studio that brought you "The Chosen."

We are not accepting funds at this time but are gauging interest to see who would be interested in investing in the series "Testament" if we launched a crowdfunding investment.

"Testament" is a modern-day retelling of the Book of Acts. It follows a small group of believers as they seek to defy the empire and temple elite.

"Testament" will answer the question: "What would the story of history's most powerful movement look like if set in the modern world? What sort of story could be told of an ancient faith creating a revolution in a contemporary setting?"

Check out the short video for "Testament" and the potential investment opportunity at angel.com/testament

Persecution can birth powerful movements. No movement has proven as powerful as that of the early Christian church. Despite the perils of persecution and against overwhelming odds, the message of the gospel swept through ancient Jerusalem, Judea, and all the way to the ends of the earth. Peter, Paul, James, and a small group of Christ followers turned the world of antiquity upside down.

But what would the story of history's most powerful movement look like if set in the modern world? What sort of story could be told of an ancient faith creating a revolution in a contemporary setting?

Bible stories are full of excitement, danger, and hope, but sometimes people can find the text hard to engage with or struggle to relate to historical adaptations.

But what would the story of history's most powerful movement look like if set in the modern world? What sort of story could be told of an ancient faith creating a revolution in a contemporary setting?

We are creating a multi-season TV series called "Testament" that explores this idea and you can help make it. By setting "Testament" in the modern day, we hope to connect audiences to the Bible in a way that's fresh and highly applicable.

Disclosure: Testament is "testing the waters" to gauge investor interest in an offering under Regulation Crowdfunding. No money or other consideration is being solicited, and, if sent, will not be accepted. No offer to buy the securities can be accepted and no part of the purchase price can be received until the offering statement is filed and only through an intermediary's platform. A prospective purchaser's indication of interest is non-binding.

Testament has entered into a Campaign Booster and Loan Agreement with Angel Studios, Inc. and granted Angel Studios an option to distribute its series as consideration for Angel Studios providing a monetary loan as well as assistance and expertise in the television/film production and advertising space while Testament is trying to raise money to fund the production of the series. If Angel Studios exercises the option to distribute Testament series, Angel Studios will share in the revenues generated by the series. Testament may also use a portion of the proceeds to repay the loan from Angel Studios.

ANGEL STUDIOS

Hey Angel fans,

As you well know, our commitment is to bring you stories that amplify light. In keeping with that mission, I'm really excited to introduce you to Testament, a modern retelling of the book of Acts. Created by the talented up-and-coming Director, Paul Syrstad, the Testament series delves into the dramatic spread of the Christian faith.

Armed with nothing but their testimony and the Holy Spirit, these Christian followers will journey through danger and persecution to make the truth known: that He is risen.

Express Interest

Persecution births powerful movements. No movement has proven as powerful as that of the early Christian church. This series will capture all of the excitement, danger, and hope of the book of Acts while avoiding the challenges some face when engaging historical adaptations. By setting Testament in the modern day, we hope to connect audiences to the Bible in a way that's fresh and highly relatable. For these reasons and many more, this is just the kind of story we're proud to partner with.

You can learn more about Testament by watching last week's livestream where I talked with Paul about the project, as he opens up about why he is passionate about telling this story.

Disclosure: Testament is "testing the waters" to gauge investor interest in an offering under Regulation Crowdfunding. No money or other consideration is being solicited, and, if sent, will not be accepted. No offer to buy the securities can be accepted and no part of the purchase price can be received until the offering statement is filed and only through an intermediary's platform. A prospective purchaser's indication of interest is non-binding.

Testament has entered into a Campaign Booster and Loan Agreement with Angel Studios, Inc. and granted Angel Studios an option to distribute its series as consideration for Angel Studios providing a monetary loan as well as assistance and expertise in the television/film production and advertising space while Testament is trying to raise money to fund the production of the series. If Angel Studios exercises the option to distribute Testament series, Angel Studios will share in the revenues generated by the series. Testament may also use a portion of the proceeds to repay the loan from Angel Studios.
