

A FILM FROM THE DIRECTOR OF POSSE

OUTLAWS

THE STORY

It's the turn of the century. America was young. Power dynamics were being established and the WEST WAS WILD...

Inspired by Mario Van Peebles' Posse, Outlaws is based on historical characters and events set in a special time in America, 1908—the dawn of the Age of Invention. CHIEF (Van Peebles) returns from years of hiding in Mexico to claim gold hidden in the hills of Montana. In his quest, he reunites an ensemble of fresh and familiar faces—together they fight off ANGEL, whose rationale to the gold leaves a trail of deception. Along the journey, Chief is forced to confront deep-seated issues, choices and sacrifices of fatherhood, loyalty, and an America planting the seeds for a progressive future. Where in this great country belongs an aging cowboy in a new world order??
