Contingent Interest

If the Index closing level on any Review Date is greater than or equal to the Interest Barrier, you will receive on the applicable Interest Payment Date the Contingent Interest Payment equal to Interest Rate.

If the Index closing level on any Review Date is less than the Interest Barrier, no Contingent Interest Payment will be made on that Review Date.

Payment at Maturity

If the Ending Index level is greater than the Initial Index Level, you will receive a cash payment that provides you with a return per $1,000 principal amount note equal to the Index Return, subject to the Maximum Total Return.

If the Ending Index Level is equal to or greater the Trigger Level, you will receive the principal amount of your notes at maturity. If the Ending Index Level is less than the Trigger Level, you will lose 1% of the principal amount of your notes for every 1% that the Ending Index Level is less than the Initial Index Level.

Selected Benefits

- Provides the opportunity to earn an unleveraged return at maturity equal to the Index Return, up to the Maximum Return.
- Pays principal back at maturity if the Ending Index Level is greater than or equal to the Trigger Level.
- Offer the potential to earn a Contingent Interest Payment in connection with each annual Review Date equal to the Interest Rate. No Contingent Interest Payment will be payable on the Maturity Date.
- Potential for Long Term Capital Gains tax treatment if held longer than one year. Contingent Interest Payments are reported as ordinary income.

Selected Risks

- Your investment in the notes may result in a loss.
- Your maximum gain on the notes is limited to the Maximum Return plus any Contingent Interest Payments.
- The notes do not provide for regular interest payments and may not pay any interest at all.
- Payment on the notes at maturity is subject to our credit risk. Therefore the value of the notes prior to maturity will be subject to changes in the market's view of our creditworthiness.
- The benefit provided by the Trigger Level may terminate on the final review date.
- You will not have voting rights or rights to receive cash dividends.
- The tax consequences of the notes may be uncertain. You should consult your tax adviser regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences of an investment in the notes.
- JPMS' estimated value does not represent future values and may differ from others' estimates.
- The value of the notes which may be reflected in customer account statements may be higher than JPMS' current estimated value for a limited time period.
- Lack of liquidity: JPMorgan Securities, LLC, acting as agent for the Issuer (and who we refer to as JPMS), intends to offer to purchase the notes in the secondary market but is not required to do so. The price, if any, at which JPMS will be willing to purchase notes from you in the secondary market, if at all, may result in a significant loss of your principal.
- Potential conflicts: we and our affiliates play a variety of roles in connection with the issuance of notes, including acting as calculation agent and hedging our obligations, and making the assumptions used to determine the pricing of the notes and the estimated value of the notes. It is possible that such hedging or other trading activities of JPMorgan or its affiliates could result in substantial returns for JPMorgan and its affiliates while the value of the notes decline.

The risks identified above are not exhaustive. Please see "Risk Factors" in the applicable product supplement and "Selected Risk Considerations" in the applicable term sheet for additional information.
