Recognition:

Independent Event Creatives, LLC (DBA Mesmerize) has been in business since 2018 and their clients have included Netflix, Fender Guitars, Twix, Red Bull, among many others. They also have thrown immersive events under the name MESMERIZE. This allowed them to explore ideas without the constraint of client expectations. In 2020 after the peak of the pandemic, stir-crazy with a surplus of paint, they created "Enter the Multiverse," transforming a 2,500 sq. foot event space into an explorable world that followed the story of "Mesmer," an artist and amateur tinkerer who discovers a secret: we and our universe are not alone. In the course of 9 months, they sold over 18K tickets and amassed 12K followers. Their next journey called, "Mind Over Matter" will be even bigger and will introduce a new cast of Mesmerize characters who discover a magic-meteorite inside an abandoned building. As guests inspect the building, they will discover a gateway to an ever-changing dream realm and come face-to-face with their own expansiveness.

About:

Independent Event Creatives, LLC (DBA Mesmerize) produces multi-sensory & immersive installations for entertainers, brands, artists, agencies, and community organizations. Their next project is "Mind Over Matter", which is an elaborate exploration through the inner dimensions of the mind, imagination, and consciousness. Clayton Lillard & Mateo Gutierrez each share roles as Creative Directors and General Managers, and are responsible for overseeing the day to day operations. They've spent the past decade bending minds through installation art and community events as Independent Event Creatives, a multi-disciplinary creative production company based out of South Austin.
