Registration Statement on Form S-1 filed April 5, 2023

General

1. We note your disclosure on page 24 and elsewhere that each public shareholder may elect to redeem its public shares irrespective of whether they vote for or against the proposed transaction. Please revise to disclose whether the shareholders will be permitted to redeem their shares if they do not vote, or abstain from voting.

Prospectus Summary, page 1

2. When discussing the initial business combination of IPAX on page 2 and elsewhere, please clearly disclose the amount and percent of the public shareholders that redeemed their shares.

Risk Factors, page 35

3. Please include a risk factor that describes the potential material effect on your shareholders of the stock buyback excise tax enacted as part of the Inflation Reduction Act in August 2022. If applicable, include in your disclosure that the excise tax could reduce the trust account funds available to pay redemptions or that are available to the combined company following a de-SPAC. Describe the risks of the excise tax applying to redemptions in connection with:
- liquidations that are not implemented to fall within the meaning of “complete liquidation” in Section 331 of the Internal Revenue Code,
 - extensions, depending on the timing of the extension relative to when the SPAC completes a de-SPAC or liquidates, and
 - de-SPACs, depending on the structure of the de-SPAC transaction.
- Also describe, if applicable, the risk that if existing SPAC investors elect to redeem their shares such that their redemptions would subject the SPAC to the stock buyback excise tax, the remaining shareholders that did not elect to redeem may economically bear the impact of the excise tax.

Executive Compensation, page 122

4. We note the disclosure that "Commencing on the date of this prospectus through the earlier of consummation of our initial business combination and our liquidation, we will pay an aggregate of $27,083.33 per month for the services of Peter Ondishin, Chief Financial Officer, and Kevin Shannon, Chief of Staff." Please clearly disclose the material terms of these agreements. See Item 402(o)(1) of Regulation S-K. Please file the agreements as exhibits. See Item 601(b)(10)(iii) of Regulation S-K. Lastly, please provide your analysis as to why Mr. Shannon is not an executive officer.
