Draft Registration Statement on Form S-1

Prospectus Summary, page 1

1. Please revise your prospectus summary to explain briefly at first use each of the following scientific terms:
  - Iron chelators,
  - Rapamycin,
  - Ames test
  - Metalloproteinases (MMP) inhibitor, and
  - Eurofins BioMap studies and Eurofins invitro studies.

2. We note your reference on page 2 regarding a “sizeable patient population.” With reference to your 150,000 patient estimate (2018-2022) on page 54, please revise the Summary to quantify the size of the patient population.
3. We note your disclosure on page 2 that in preclinical stage testing, TELOMIR-1 is “shown” to have “better” metal complexing than Doxycycline, an FDA-approved metalloproteinases (MMP) inhibitor. Please balance this statement with the disclosure on page 14 that your conclusions based on your pre-clinical data may prove inaccurate, and is not indicative of future results.

4. We note your disclosure identifying your founder, Jonnie R. Williams, Sr. as the inventor of TELOMIR-1. Please revise to discuss Mr. Williams scientific training and, as applicable, his background in developing novel small molecules. Disclose when he first commenced working on TELOMIR-1.
5. Please revise here and elsewhere in the prospectus, where appropriate, to explain what a provisional patent application is and how it differs from a nonprovisional patent application. Revise your risk factor disclosure to explain the risks associated with not having patent coverage for the work you are conducting.
6. We note your reference to MIRALOGX filing two provisional patent applications. We also note your disclosure on page 30 that MIRALOGX holds the patent rights to TELOMIR-1, which are currently comprised of a pending U.S. provisional patent application. Please clarify whether there are one or two provisional patent applications.
7. Discuss the current plans, if applicable, for filing nonprovisional patent applications relating to the TELOMIR-1 technology. Discuss the timing and indicate whether funding is needed to prepare the applications. Absent a filed nonprovisional patent application, revise to remove the disclosure highlighting patent protection extending through September 2053.
8. Revise the Summary to explain the invention(s) addressed in the two provisional patent applications as well as the filing and expirations dates for these applications. Also revise the Business section to provide additional material information concerning the provisional patent applications, including the application numbers.

9. With reference to your disclosure on page 11, please expand the disclosure in the seventh bullet point on page 4 to highlight that Dr. Christopher Chapman, who serves as your Chief Executive Officer, Chief Medical Officer and Chairman, and Erez Aminov, who is your President, are both expected to work on a part-time and as-needed basis.

Implications of Being an Emerging Growth Company, page 6

10. Your disclosure on page 6 indicates that you intend to avail yourselves of the extended transition period for complying with new or revised accounting standards. The cover page indicates the opposite. Please revise to address this apparent inconsistency.

Risk Factors, page 10

11. Please add risk factor disclosure concerning related-party arrangements and conflicts of interest with MIRALOGX and Jonnie. R. Williams, Sr.. Also, tell us whether any other officers, directors or principal shareholders are affiliated with MIRALOGX.
12. Please disclose any risks or potential risks of conflict of interest, if material, resulting from the relationship between you and MIRA Pharmaceuticals. In this regard, we note your senior management and certain members of your Board of Directors are also officers and directors at MIRA Pharmaceuticals.

Overview, page 46

13. Your disclosure here and in the Summary section indicate that you have completed several pre-clinical proof-of-concept studies that were designed to demonstrate that TELOMIR-1 is not mutagenic and has good biological and metal binding capabilities. Please revise the Business section to describe each such study and explain how each study supports your claims concerning TELOMIR-1's potential. Discuss whether each study was powered for statistical significance. In terms of studies, we note that you do not appear to discuss or present data from the Ames test or the multiple Eurofins BioMap studies that you reference on pages 2 and 46.
14. Explain why you conducted one or more studies comparing TELOMIR-1 to Doxycycline, and present the data in support of the claims on page 2 and 46 concerning the comparison results.
15. Explain, if true, why you conducted a side-by-side comparison of TELOMIR-1 and rapamycin. Discuss whether rapamycin is approved to treat hemochromatosis or side effects associated with post-chemotherapy recovery in cancer patients.

16. With respect to footnote 1, the URL appears to be inactive. Please revise or remove the URL.

Mechanism of Action of TELOMIR-1, page 48

17. The disclosure in the first sentence references multiple preclinical studies; however, it appears that you only provide a brief discussion of one such study. Please revise to discuss each of these referenced studies with sufficient detail to explain the basis for your belief.

18. Revise this section and the Summary, where applicable, to clearly indicate whether you or a third party conducted the preclinical trial depicted and described on pages 48-49. For instance, we note that the disclosure at the top of page 49 appears to indicate that a third-party conducted this study of TELOMIR-1 back in 2004 or earlier. Explain why TELOMIR-1 is compared to Diethylenetriamine (Dien).
19. Please revise to clarify what each graphic depicts. Also explain how the test was conducted and whether it involved serum testing.

20. Discuss your relationship, if any, with Evotec.

Ongoing Pre-Clinical Proof-of Concept Studies, page 49

21. Please revise to discuss in greater detail each of the eight on-going studies. Indicate when each one commenced and the expected timeframe for the testing.

22. Please clarify, if true, that the "Human" and "human liver" in the "Species" column are in reference to in vitro studies.

Potential Market in Post-Chemotherapy, page 55

23. We note your reference that the FDA “will” determine TELOMIR-1 can be given as a standalone compound or in conjunction with existing therapies to accelerate recovery from chemotherapy. Please remove any statements regarding conclusions about FDA determinations.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm, page F-2

27. We note that your audit report does not fully conform to the format required by AS 3101. For example, we note that in the third paragraph your auditors' report references that it is required to be independent with respect to the company in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to [your] audit. However, this language does not comply with AS 3101. We also note the auditors' report indicates their audits were conducted in accordance with the "auditing standards" of the PCAOB rather than the "standards" of the PCAOB.
