THE OFFERING AND THE SECURITIES

The Offering

The Issuer is offering a minimum amount of $50,000 (the “Target Offering Amount”) and up to a maximum amount of $1,000,000 (the “Maximum Offering Amount”) of Class B Non-Voting Common Stock (the “Securities”) on a best efforts basis as described in this Form C (this “Offering”). The price per Security will be (i) $5.00 per Security if the Subscriber has signed prior to the Company receiving $300,000 in investment commitments in the Offering and (ii) $6.50 per Security thereafter through the end of the Offering. It will be in the discretion of the intermediary and/or the Company to determine if an investment was made prior to change in the price. The investment will be made through Ampere Technologies CF SPV, LLC, a special purpose investment vehicle exempt from registration under the Investment Company Act pursuant to Rule 270.3a-9 promulgated under that Act. The Minimum Individual Purchase Amount is $250, other than the maximum individual purchase amounts under Regulation CF, there is no maximum individual purchase amount in this Offering. The Issuer reserves the right to amend the Minimum Individual Purchase Amount, in its sole discretion. In particular, the Issuer may elect to participate in one of the Intermediary’s special investment programs and may offer an alternative Minimum Individual Purchase Amounts to Investors participating in such programs without notice. The Issuer must raise an amount equal to or greater than the Target Offering Amount by April 29, 2024 (the “Offering Deadline”). Unless the Issuer receives investment commitments, which are fully paid for and meet all other requirements set by this Offering, in an amount not less than the Target Offering Amount by the Offering Deadline, no Securities will be sold in this Offering, all investment commitments will be canceled and all committed funds will be returned.

The price of the Securities was determined arbitrarily, does not necessarily bear any relationship to the Issuer’s asset value, net worth, revenues or other objective established criteria of value, and should not be considered indicative of the actual value of the Securities.

In order to purchase the Securities, you must make a commitment to purchase by completing the purchase process hosted by the Intermediary (as defined above), including complying with the Intermediary’s know your customer (KYC) and anti-money laundering (AML) policies. If an Investor makes an investment commitment under a name that is not their legal name, they may be unable to redeem their Security indefinitely, and neither the Intermediary nor the Issuer are required to correct any errors or omissions made by the Investor.

Investor funds will be held in escrow with a qualified third party escrow agent meeting the requirements of Regulation CF (“Escrow Agent”) until the Target Offering Amount has been met or exceeded and one or more closings occur. Investors may cancel an investment commitment until up to 48 hours prior to the Offering Deadline or an intermediate close, using the cancellation mechanism provided by the Intermediary. Investors using a credit card to invest must represent and warrant to cancel any investment commitment(s) by submitting a request through the Intermediary at least 48 hours prior to the Offering Deadline, instead of attempting to claim fraud or claw back their committed funds. If the Investor does not cancel an investment commitment before the 48-hour period prior to the Offering Deadline, the funds will be released to the Issuer and the Investor will receive their Securities.

The Issuer will notify Investors when the Target Offering Amount has been reached through the Intermediary. If the Issuer reaches the Target Offering Amount prior to the Offering Deadline, it may close the Offering early provided (i) the expedited Offering Deadline must be twenty-one (21) days from the time the Offering was opened, (ii) the Intermediary must provide at least five (5) business days' notice prior to the expedited Offering Deadline to the Investors and (iii) the Issuer continues to meet or exceed the Target Offering Amount on the date of the expedited Offering Deadline.

The Deal Page

A description of our products, services and business plan can be found on the Issuer's profile page on the Intermediary's website under <https://republic.com/ampere> (the "Deal Page"). The Deal Page can be used by prospective Investors to ask the Issuer questions and for the Issuer to post immaterial updates to this Form C as well as make general announcements. You should view the Deal Page at the time you consider making an investment commitment. Updates on the status of this Offering can also be found on the Deal Page.

Material Changes

If any material change occurs related to the Offering prior to the current Offering Deadline the Issuer will provide notice to Investors and receive reconfirmations from Investors who have already made commitments. If an Investor does not reconfirm their investment commitment after a material change is made to the terms of the Offering within five (5) business days of receiving notice, the Investor's investment commitment will be canceled and the committed funds will be returned without interest or deductions.

Intermediate Closings

In the event an amount equal to two (2) times the Target Offering Amount is committed and meets all required terms of the Offering prior to the Offering Deadline on such date or such later time the Issuer designates pursuant to Rule 304(b) of Regulation CF, the Issuer may conduct the first of multiple closings of the Offering early, provided (i) the early closing date must be twenty-one (21) days from the time the Offering opened and (ii) that all Investors will receive notice of such early closing date at least five (5) business days prior to such new offering deadline (absent a material change that would require an extension of the Offering and reconfirmation of all investment commitments). Investors who committed on the date such notice is provided or prior to the issuance of such notice will be able to cancel their investment commitment until 48 hours before such early closing date.

If the Issuer conducts an initial closing (the "Initial Closing"), the Issuer agrees to only withdraw seventy percent (70%) of the proceeds that are in escrow and will only conduct such Initial Closing if there are more than twenty-one (21) days remaining before the Offering Deadline as of the date of the Initial Closing. The Issuer may only conduct another close (a "Subsequent Closing") before the Offering Deadline if the amount of investment commitments made as of the date of such Subsequent Closing exceeds two times the Target Offering Amount as of the date of the Initial Closing and there are more than twenty-one (21) days remaining before the Offering Deadline as of the date of such Subsequent Closing.

Any investment commitments received after an intermediate closing will be released to the Issuer upon a subsequent closing and the Investor will receive evidence of the Securities via electronic certificate/PDF in exchange for their investment commitment as soon as practicable thereafter.

The Issuer has agreed to return all funds to Investors in the event a Form C-W is ultimately filed in relation to this Offering, regardless of whether multiple closings are conducted.

Investment commitments are not binding on the Issuer until they are accepted by the Issuer, which reserves the right to reject, in whole or in part, in its sole and absolute discretion, any investment commitment. If the Issuer rejects all or a portion of any investment commitment, the applicable prospective Investor's funds will be returned without interest or deduction.

RISK FACTORS

Investing in the Securities involves a high degree of risk and may result in the loss of your entire investment. Before making an investment decision with respect to the Securities, we urge you to carefully consider the risks described in this section and other factors set forth in this Form C. In addition to the risks specified below, the Issuer is subject to the same risks that all companies in its business, and all companies in the economy, are exposed to. These include risks relating to economic downturns, political and economic events and technological developments (such as hacking and the ability to prevent hacking). Additionally, early-stage companies are inherently riskier than more developed companies. Prospective Investors should consult with their legal, tax and financial advisors prior to making an investment in the Securities. The Securities should only be purchased by persons who can afford to lose all of their investment.

Risks Related to the Company and Its Business

The company is currently operating at a net loss. The company's wholly owned subsidiary, Ampere, LLC, incurred a net loss of $922,533 and $1,336,075 for the years ended December 31, 2022 and December 31, 2021, respectively. The likelihood of the company's creation of a viable business must be considered in light of the problems, expenses, difficulties, complications, and delays frequently encountered in connection with the growth of a business, operation in a competitive industry, and the continued development of its products. There is no assurance that the company will be profitable in the next three years or generate sufficient revenues to pay dividends to the holders of the shares. You should consider the business, operations and prospects in light of the risks, expenses and challenges faced as an emerging growth company.

We have an amount of debt which may be considered significant for a company of our size which could adversely affect our financial condition and our ability to react to changes in our business. As of December 31, 2022, the company had $1,621,791 in current liabilities and $1,333,185 in long term liabilities. We believe this is an amount of indebtedness which may be considered significant for a company of our size and current revenue base.

Our substantial debt could have important consequences to us. For example, it could:

- make it more difficult for us to satisfy our obligations to the holders of our outstanding debt, resulting in possible defaults on and acceleration of such indebtedness;
- require us to dedicate a substantial portion of our cash flows from operations to make payments on our debt, which would reduce the availability of our cash flows from operations to fund working capital, capital expenditures or other general corporate purposes;
- increase our vulnerability to general adverse economic and industry conditions, including interest rate fluctuations;
- place us at a competitive disadvantage to our competitors with proportionately less debt for their size;
- limit our ability to refinance our existing indebtedness or borrow additional funds in the future;
- limit our flexibility in planning for, or reacting to, changing conditions in our business; and
- limit our ability to react to competitive pressures or make it difficult for us to carry out capital spending that is necessary or important to our growth strategy.

Any of the foregoing impacts of our substantial indebtedness could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

The auditor has included a “going concern” note in the audit report. The audit report notes that the company has suffered recurring losses from operations, negative cash flows, and a capital deficiency and that the company has stated that substantial doubt exists about the company's ability to continue as a going concern. We may not have enough funds to sustain the business until it becomes profitable. Even if we raise funds through a crowdfunding round, we may not accurately anticipate how quickly we may use the funds and if it is sufficient to bring the business to profitability.

We may not be able to generate sufficient cash to service all of our debt or refinance our obligations and may be forced to take other actions to satisfy our obligations under such indebtedness, which may not be successful. Our ability to make scheduled payments on our indebtedness or to refinance our obligations under our debt agreements, will depend on our financial and operating performance, which, in turn, will be subject to prevailing economic and competitive conditions and to the financial and business risk factors we face as described in this section, many of which may be beyond our control. We may not be able to maintain a level of cash flows from operating activities sufficient to permit us to pay the principal, premium, if any, and interest on our indebtedness.

If our cash flows and capital resources are insufficient to fund our debt service obligations, we may be forced to reduce or delay capital expenditures or planned growth objectives, seek to obtain additional equity capital or restructure our indebtedness. In the future, our cash flows and capital resources may not be sufficient for payments of interest on and principal of our debt, and such alternative measures may not be successful and may not permit us to meet scheduled debt service obligations. In the absence of such operating results and resources, we may be required to dispose of material assets to meet our debt service obligations. We may not be able to consummate those sales, or, if we do, we will not control the timing of the sales or whether the proceeds that we realize will be adequate to meet debt service obligations when due.

For example, as of March 31, 2024, we owed certain lenders an aggregate of over $600,000 with mature dates ranging from August 2024 to July 2026, and owe over $200,000 in loans with either a longer maturity or payments based on revenue. If we are in breach of any of these loans, our creditors may have the right to accelerate our payment obligations and we may not have sufficient assets to repay them and we could experience a material adverse effect on our financial condition and results of operations.

We are past the maturity date on one of our loans. We have approximately $101,185.06 outstanding in aggregate under a Kickfurther loan. The loan was due in full on April 8, 2023. We have negotiated a payment schedule with our lender going forward. While we will continue to make payments with the lender and are confident we will be able to repay this loans with our operating capital, we may not be able to do so. In that case, the lender may accelerate all amount payable under this loan. Such action could not only deplete our cash but could also impact our ability to obtain credit, including with suppliers, and therefore materially adversely affect our ability to grow our business.

The company's parent will be entitled to receive fees and expenses in addition to any dividends paid to the shareholders. Pursuant to two license agreements between the parent and our wholly owned subsidiary, Ampere LLC, our parent is entitled to receive fees equal to 10% of the subsidiary's gross revenue. Additionally, pursuant to an agreement between the parent and our subsidiary, the parent is entitled to have certain fees and costs reimbursed by the subsidiary. These fees and costs will reduce the amount of cash available to our subsidiary and to us to grow our business.

If the company cannot raise sufficient capital, it may not succeed. The company is offering up to 701,289 shares of Class B Non-Voting Common Stock in this Offering on a best-efforts basis and may not raise the complete amount. Even if the maximum amount is raised, the company will need additional funds in the future to grow. If it cannot raise those funds for whatever reason, including reasons relating to the company itself or to the broader economy, it may not survive. If the company manages to raise a substantially lesser amount than the maximum amount it seeks, it will have to find other funding sources for some of the plans outlined in “Use of Proceeds.”

Future fundraising may affect the rights of investors. In order to expand, the company is likely to raise funds again in the future, either by offerings of securities or through borrowing from banks or other sources. The terms of future capital-raising, such as debt securities or loan agreements, may include covenants that give creditors greater rights over the financial resources of the company.

Management discretion as to use of proceeds. The company’s success will be substantially dependent upon the discretion and judgment of its management team with respect to the application and allocation of the proceeds of this Offering. The use of proceeds described in “Use of Proceeds” is an estimate based on the company’s current business plan. Further, we are accepting “in kind” investments, which means we will not be receiving cash for all our investments. The company, however, may find it necessary or advisable to re-allocate portions of the net proceeds reserved for one category to another, and it will have broad discretion in doing so.

We use celebrities and influencers. We use and pay celebrities and influencers to market our products and improve the profile of our company. We have provided these individuals guidance as to what they can say, but to the extent their statements, the timing of those statements or their actions are inappropriate, or they have failed to include proper disclosure we may suffer reputational harm and/or have liability with respect to their statements and actions. Either of which can materially adversely affect the company’s business, reputation, results of operations and financial condition.

The company depends on component and product manufacturing and logistical services provided by outsourcing partners, located in China. All the company’s manufacturing is performed in whole or in part by outsourcing partners located in China. To the extent there are any trade or other tensions between the United States and China our ability to seamlessly design, build, market and sell our products will be negatively impacted. Changes or additions to the company’s supply chain require considerable time and resources and involve significant risks and uncertainties. While the company relies on its partners to adhere to its supplier code of conduct, violations of the supplier code of conduct occur from time to time and can materially adversely affect the company’s business, reputation, results of operations and financial condition.

Any failure of these partners to perform can have a negative impact on the company’s cost or supply of components or finished goods. In addition, manufacturing or logistics in China or transit to final destinations can be disrupted for a variety of reasons, including natural and man-made disasters, information technology system failures, commercial disputes, armed conflict, economic, business, labor, environmental, public health or political issues, or international trade disputes.

Our business is subject to the risks inherent in global sourcing activities. As a company engaged in sourcing on a global scale, we are subject to the risks inherent in such activities, including, but not limited to:

- imposition of additional duties, taxes and other charges or restrictions on imports or exports;
- unavailability of, or significant fluctuations in the cost of, raw materials;
- compliance by us and our independent manufacturers and suppliers with labor laws and other foreign governmental regulations;
- increases in the cost of labor;
- compliance by our independent manufacturers and suppliers with applicable compliance policies;
- compliance with applicable laws and regulations, including other laws and regulations regarding the sourcing of materials in the company's products, the FCPA and other global anti-corruption laws, as applicable, and other U.S. and international regulations and requirements;
- regulation or prohibition of the transaction of business with specific individuals or entities and their affiliates or goods manufactured in certain regions by any government or regulatory authority in the jurisdictions where we conduct business, such as the listing of a person or entity as a Specially Designated National or Blocked Person by the U.S. Department of the Treasury's Office of Foreign Assets Control and the issuance of Withhold Release Orders by the U.S. Customs and Border Patrol;
- disruptions or delays in shipments whether due to port congestion, other shipping capacity constraints or other factors, which may result in increased inbound freight costs;
- loss or impairment of key manufacturing or distribution sites;
- inability to engage new independent manufacturers that meet the company's cost-effective sourcing model;
- product quality issues;
- political unrest, including protests and other civil disruption;
- public health crises, such as pandemic and epidemic diseases, and other unforeseen outbreaks;
- natural disasters or other extreme weather events, whether as a result of climate change or otherwise;
- acts of war or terrorism and other external factors over which we have no control.

We are subject to labor laws governing relationships with employees, including minimum wage requirements, overtime, working conditions, and citizenship requirements. Compliance with these laws may lead to increased costs and operational complexity and may increase our exposure to governmental investigations or litigation.

In addition, we require our independent manufacturer and suppliers to operate in compliance with applicable laws and regulations; however, we do not control this manufacturer or suppliers or their labor, environmental or other business practices. The violation of labor, environmental or other laws by an independent manufacturer or supplier, or divergence of an independent manufacturer's or supplier's labor practices from those generally accepted as ethical or appropriate in the U.S., could interrupt or otherwise disrupt the shipment of our products, harm our trademarks or damage our reputation. The occurrence of any of these events could materially adversely affect our business, financial condition and the results of operations.

We are dependent on a limited number of distribution and sourcing centers. Our ability to meet the needs of our customers and our retail stores and e-commerce sites depends on the proper operation of these centers. If any of these centers were to shut down or otherwise become inoperable or inaccessible for any reason we could suffer a substantial loss of inventory and/or disruptions of deliveries to our retail and wholesale customers. While we have business continuity and contingency plans for our sourcing and distribution center sites, significant disruption of manufacturing or distribution for any of the above reasons could interrupt product supply, result in a substantial loss of inventory, increase our costs, disrupt deliveries to our customers and our retail stores, and, if not remedied in a timely manner, could have a material adverse impact on our business.

Because our distribution centers include automated and computer-controlled equipment, they are susceptible to risks, including power interruptions, hardware and system failures, software viruses, and security breaches. The warehousing of the company's merchandise, store replenishment, and processing of direct-to-customer orders is handled by these centers, and prolonged disruption in these operations could materially adversely affect our business and operations.

The company's financial performance is subject to risks associated with changes in the value of the U.S. dollar relative to local currencies. The company's primary exposure to movements in foreign currency exchange rates relates to non-U.S. dollar-denominated sales, cost of goods and operating expenses worldwide. Most of our products are sold in the United States, and most of our products are sourced overseas, specifically in China. Therefore, foreign currency exchange rate fluctuations could materially affect gross margins on the company's products.

A strengthening of foreign currencies, specifically the Chinese Yuan, relative to the U.S. dollar, may increase the company's cost of product components denominated in those currencies, thus adversely affecting gross margins.

In addition, the company's foreign currency-denominated sales and earnings could cause the company to reduce international pricing and incur losses on its foreign currency derivative instruments, thereby limiting the benefit.

Conversely, the weakening of foreign currencies relative to the U.S. dollar adversely affects the U.S. dollar value of the company's foreign currency-denominated sales and earnings and generally leads the company to raise international pricing, potentially reducing demand for the company's products. In some circumstances, for competitive or other reasons, the company may decide not to raise international pricing to offset the U.S. dollar's strengthening, which would adversely affect the U.S. dollar value of the gross margins the company earns on foreign currency-denominated sales.

The growth of our business depends on the successful execution of our growth strategies, including our omni-channel expansion efforts and our ability to acquire and retain new customers in a cost-effective manner. Our growth depends on our ability to acquire and retain new customers in a cost-effective manner. Omni channel expansion efforts, aka digital marketing, is costly. The company's continued success relies on acquiring and retaining new customers. Failure by the company to successfully utilize digital marketing could adversely affect its business operations.

Our success depends, in part, on attracting, developing, and retaining qualified employees, including key personnel. The ability to successfully execute our goals is heavily dependent on attracting, developing, and retaining qualified employees, including Reid Covington and Chase Larson, our senior management team. Competition in our industry to attract and retain these employees is intense and is influenced by our ability to offer competitive compensation and benefits, employee morale, our reputation, recruitment by other employers, perceived internal opportunities, non-competition and non-solicitation agreements and macro unemployment rates. Our operational efficiency initiatives, acquisitions, and related integration activity may intensify this risk.

We depend on the guidance of our senior management team and other key employees who have significant experience and expertise in our industry and our operations. There can be no assurance that these individuals will remain with us or that we will be able to identify and attract suitable successors for these individuals. The loss of one or more of our key personnel or the direct or indirect consequences of results thereof, or any negative public perception with respect to these individuals or the loss of these individuals, could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, and financial condition.

Significant competition in our industry could adversely affect our business. We face intense competition in the product lines and markets in which we operate, including from many competitors with greater resources than ours. Dusk's main competitors will likely be other companies offering smart sunglasses or photochromic lenses. This includes brands like Ray-Ban, Oakley, Smith Optics, Transitions Optical, and Bose. While these companies offer different products and features, they are all competitors to Dusk in the broader market for smart sunglasses and photochromic lenses. We also see competition alongside other consumer electronics brands that focus on travel tech, like Belkin, Native Union and Anker. There is a risk that our competitors may develop new products or product categories that are more popular with our customers or that the size and resources of some of our competitors may allow them to compete more effectively. We may be unable to anticipate the timing and scale of such product introductions by competitors, which could harm our business. Our ability to compete also depends on the strength of our brand, whether we can attract and retain key talent, and our ability to protect our trademarks and design patents. A failure to compete effectively could adversely affect our growth and profitability.

The development of new products requires a lot of capital. The company must make significant investments in R&D. There can be no assurance that these investments will achieve expected returns, and the company may not be able to successfully develop and market new products and services.

Our business may be subject to increased costs due to excess inventories and a decline in profitability as a result of increasing pressure on margins if we misjudge the demand for our products. Our industry is subject to significant pricing pressure caused by many factors, including intense competition and a highly promotional environment, fragmentation in the retail industry, pressure from retailers to reduce the costs of products, and changes in consumer spending patterns. If we misjudge the market for our products or demand for our products are impacted by an unforeseen factor, such as the COVID-19 pandemic, we may be faced with significant excess inventories for some products and missed opportunities for other products. If that occurs, we may be forced to rely on destruction, donation, markdowns, or promotional sales to dispose of excess, slow-moving inventory, which may negatively impact our gross margin, overall profitability and efficacy of our brands.

The company is reliant on third-party manufacturers to maintain amicable relationships, create products pursuant to exact specifications and protect trade secrets. The company relies on third-party manufacturers to produce its products pursuant to specifications provided by the company. The company trusts that the manufacturers will (i) produce its products exactly as directed so that the brand integrity of the products is maintained and (ii) use reasonable efforts to protect trade secrets. The company cannot assure you that the manufacturers will (i) produce products that are uniform in design and quality and (ii) not unintentionally or willfully, disclose the company's trade secrets to competitors or other third parties. Variations in the production or failure of the manufacturer to maintain trade secrets could have a material adverse effect on the company's consolidated financial results and on your investment.

The success of our business relies heavily on price integrity, product integrity, brand integrity, exceptional customer experience and our ability to respond to changing fashion and retail trends in a timely manner. Any misstep in price integrity, product integrity, design, executive leadership, exceptional customer service, and or marketing, could negatively affect the image of our brand with our customers. Furthermore, the products we have historically marketed and those we plan to market in the future are becoming increasingly subject to rapidly changing fashion trends and consumer preferences, including the shift to digital brand engagement and social media communication. If we do not anticipate and respond promptly to changing customer preferences and fashion trends in the design, production, and styling of our products, as well as create compelling marketing campaigns that appeal to our customers, our sales and results of operations may be negatively impacted. Our success also depends in part on our and our executive leadership team's ability to execute on our plans and strategies. Even if our products, marketing campaigns and retail environments do meet changing customer preferences and/or stay ahead of changing fashion trends, our brand image could become tarnished or undesirable in the minds of our customers or target markets, which could materially adversely impact our business, financial condition, and results of operations.

Our operating results are subject to seasonal and quarterly fluctuations. The company's results are typically affected by seasonal trends. We have historically realized, and expect to continue to realize, higher sales and operating income in the fourth quarter of our fiscal year. Poor sales in the company's fourth fiscal quarter would have a material adverse effect on its full year operating results and result in higher inventories. In addition, fluctuations in net sales, operating income and operating cash flows of the company in any fiscal quarter may be affected by the timing of wholesale shipments and other events affecting retail sales, including adverse weather conditions or other macroeconomic events, including the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic.

The company is subject to complex and changing laws and regulations worldwide, which exposes the company to potential liabilities, increased costs and other adverse effects on the company's business. The company's global operations are subject to complex and changing laws and regulations related to our development of prescription sunglasses through our DUSK Rx line. Compliance with these laws and regulations is onerous and expensive. New and changing laws and regulations can adversely affect the company's business by increasing the company's costs, limiting the company's ability to offer a product, service or feature to customers, impacting customer demand for the company's products and services, and requiring changes to the company's supply chain and its business. New and changing laws and regulations can also create uncertainty about how such laws and regulations will be interpreted and applied.

Risks Related to Global Economic Conditions and Legal and Regulatory Matters

The company's results of operations may be negatively impacted by the coronavirus outbreak.

The continued spread of COVID-19 has led to severe disruption and volatility in the global capital markets, which could increase the company's cost of capital and adversely affect its ability to access the capital markets in the future. It is possible that the continued spread of COVID-19 could cause a further economic slowdown or recession or cause other unpredictable events, each of which could adversely affect the company's business, results of operations, or financial condition. The extent to which COVID-19 affects the company's financial results will depend on future developments, which are highly uncertain and cannot be predicted, including new information which may emerge concerning the severity of the COVID-19 outbreak and the actions to contain the outbreak or treat its impact, among others. Moreover, the COVID-19 outbreak has had and may continue to have indeterminable adverse effects on general commercial activity and the world economy, and the company's business and results of operations could be adversely affected to the extent that COVID-19 or any other pandemic harms the global economy generally.

Actual or threatened epidemics, pandemics, outbreaks, or other public health crises may adversely affect the company's business. The company's business could be materially and adversely affected by the risks, or the public perception of the risks, related to an epidemic, pandemic, outbreak, or other public health crisis, such as the recent outbreak of COVID-19. The risk, or public perception of the risk, of a pandemic or media coverage of infectious diseases could adversely affect the value of the Class B Non-voting Common Stock and the financial condition of the company's investors or prospective investors, resulting in reduced demand for the Class B Non-voting Common Stock generally. Further, such risks could result in persons avoiding appearing at in-person health care appointments. "Shelter-in-place" or other such orders by governmental entities could also disrupt the company's operations, if those employees of the company who cannot perform their duties from home are unable to report to work.

Economic conditions could materially adversely affect our financial condition, results of operations and consumer purchases of our products. Our results can be impacted by a number of macroeconomic factors, including but not limited to consumer confidence and spending levels, tax rates, unemployment, consumer credit availability, raw materials costs, pandemics and natural disasters, fuel and energy costs (including oil prices), global factory production, commercial real estate market conditions, credit market conditions and the level of customer traffic in malls and shopping centers.

Demand for our products is significantly impacted by trends in consumer confidence, general business conditions, interest rates, foreign currency exchange rates, the availability of consumer credit, and taxation. Consumer purchases of discretionary items, such as the company's products, tend to decline during recessionary periods or periods of sustained high unemployment, when disposable income is lower.

Our business is subject to computer system disruption and cyber security threats, including a personal data or security breach, which could damage our relationships with our customers, harm our reputation, expose us to litigation and adversely affect our business. We depend on digital technologies for the successful operation of our business, including corporate email communications to and from employees, customers, stores and vendors, the design, manufacture and distribution of our finished goods, digital marketing efforts, collection and retention of customer data, employee and vendor information, the processing of credit card transactions, online e-commerce activities and our interaction with the public in the social media space. The possibility of a cyber-attack on any one or all of these systems is a serious threat. The retail industry, in particular, has been the target of many recent cyber-attacks. As part of our business model, we collect, retain, and transmit confidential information over public networks. In addition to our own databases, we use third party service providers to store, process and transmit this information on our behalf. Although we contractually require these service providers to implement and use reasonable and adequate security measures, we cannot control third parties and cannot guarantee that a personal data or security breach will not occur in the future either at their location or within their systems. We also store all designs, goods specifications, projected sales and distribution plans for our finished products digitally. We have enterprise class and industry comparable security measures in place to protect both our physical facilities and digital systems from attacks. Despite these efforts, however, we may be vulnerable to targeted or random personal data or security breaches, acts of vandalism, computer malware, misplaced or lost data, programming and/or human errors, or other similar events.

Awareness and sensitivity to personal data breaches and cyber security threats by consumers, employees and lawmakers is at an all-time high. Any misappropriation of confidential or personal information gathered, stored or used by us, be it intentional or accidental, could have a material impact on the operation of our business, including severely damaging our reputation and our relationships with our customers, employees and investors. We may also incur significant costs implementing additional security measures to protect against new or enhanced data security or privacy threats, or to comply with current and new state, federal and international laws governing the unauthorized disclosure of confidential and personal information which are continuously being enacted and proposed such as the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) in the E.U. and the California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA) and the California Privacy Rights Act (CPRA) in the U.S.A., as well as increased cyber security and privacy protection costs such as organizational changes, training employees, engaging third-party experts and consultants and lost revenues resulting from unauthorized use of proprietary information including our intellectual property. Lastly, we could face sizable fines, significant breach containment and notification costs to supervisory authorities and the affected data subjects, and increased litigation as a result of cyber security or personal data breaches.

In addition, we have e-commerce in the U.S. Given the robust nature of our e-commerce presence and digital strategy, it is imperative that we maintain uninterrupted operation of our: (i) computer hardware, (ii) software systems, (iii) customer marketing databases, and (iv) ability to email our current and potential customers. Despite our preventative efforts, our systems are vulnerable from time to time to damage, disruption or interruption from, among other things, physical damage, natural disasters, inadequate system capacity, system issues, security breaches, email blocking lists, computer malware or power outages. Any material disruptions in our e-commerce presence or information technology systems could adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Failure to adequately protect our intellectual property and curb the sale of counterfeit merchandise could injure our brands and negatively affect sales. We believe our trademarks, copyrights, patents, and other intellectual property rights are extremely important to our success and our competitive position. We devote significant resources to the registration and protection of our trademarks and to anti-counterfeiting efforts worldwide. Despite our efforts, counterfeiting still occurs and if we are unsuccessful in challenging a third party's rights related to trademark, copyright, or patent this could adversely affect our future sales, financial condition, and results of operations. We are aggressive in pursuing entities involved in the trafficking and sale of counterfeit merchandise through legal action or other appropriate measures. We cannot guarantee that our actions to curb counterfeiting and protect our intellectual property will be adequate to protect the brand and prevent counterfeiting in the future. Our trademark applications may fail to result in registered trademarks or provide the scope of coverage sought. Furthermore, our efforts to enforce our intellectual property rights are often met with defenses and counterclaims attacking the validity and enforceability of our intellectual property rights. Unplanned increases in legal fees and other costs associated with defending our intellectual property rights could result in higher operating expenses. Finally, many countries' laws do not protect intellectual property rights to the same degree as U.S. laws.

Risks Related to Securities in this Offering

The company could potentially be found to have not complied with securities law in connection with this Offering related to a Reservation Campaign (also known as "Testing the Waters")

Prior to filing this Form C, the Issuer engaged in a Reservation Campaign (also known as "testing the waters") permitted under Regulation Crowdfunding (17 CFR 227.206), which allows issuers to communicate to determine whether there is interest in the offering. All communication sent is deemed to be an offer of securities for purposes of the antifraud provisions of federal securities laws. Any Investor who expressed interest prior to the date of this Offering should read this Form C thoroughly and rely only on the information provided herein and not on any statement made prior to the Offering. The communications sent to Investors prior to the Offering are attached as Exhibit E. Some of these communications may not have included proper disclaimers required for a Reservation Campaign.

There is no current market for any shares of the company's stock. You should be prepared to hold this investment for several years or longer. More importantly, there is no established market for these securities and there may never be one. As a result, if you decide to sell these securities in the future, you may not be able to find a buyer. Investors should assume that they may not be able to liquidate their investment for some time, or be able to pledge their shares as collateral.

We are offering non-voting interests in the company and holders of the company's Class A Voting Common Stock control the Board of Directors. GGTR LLC holds 100% of the company's voting stock as of March 5, 2024. Our certificate of incorporation gives the holder of Class A Voting Common Stock the exclusive right to elect the members of our board of directors. Therefore, investors in this offering will have a limited ability to influence our policies or any other corporate matter, including the election of directors, changes to our company's governance documents, approving a stock option plan or expanding the employee option pool, and any merger, consolidation, sale of all or substantially all of our assets, or other major action requiring stockholder approval.

No guarantee of return on investment. There is no assurance that a purchaser will realize a return on its investment or that it will not lose its entire investment. For this reason, each purchaser should read the Form C and all Exhibits carefully and should consult with its own attorney and business advisor prior to making any investment decision.

You will not be investing directly into the company, but into a special purpose vehicle. Changes to the securities laws that went into effect March 15, 2021, permit us to use a “special purpose vehicle” or “SPV” in this offering. That means that you will invest in Ampere Technologies CF SPV, LLC and with the money you pay, it will buy our convertible notes by becoming a member of Ampere Technologies CF SPV, LLC. A condition to using an SPV is that the SPV pass on the same economic and governance rights that are set out in the convertible notes. However, it may not always be possible to replicate those rights exactly, because the SPV is an LLC formed under Delaware law, as opposed to a Delaware corporation. This sort of arrangement has not been used for investing before, and there may be unforeseen risks and complications. You will also be relying on us, as the Manager of the SPV, to make sure the SPV complies with Delaware law and functions in accordance with securities law. The structure of the SPV is explained further in “Securities Being Offered”. The SPV will terminate and distribute the securities it holds to you, so that you may hold them directly, in certain circumstances. Again, this has not been done before, so there may be delays, complications and unexpected risks in that process.

Our valuation and our offering price have been established internally and are difficult to assess. The company has set the price of its Class B Non-voting Common Stock at either $5.00 or $6.50 per share, depending on the timing of investment, see “Securities Being Offered” for further details on this fee. This fee is intended to offset transaction costs and though this fee is counted towards the amount the company is seeking to raise under Regulation Crowdfunding and the limit each investor may invest pursuant to Regulation Crowdfunding, we did not value it in determining our valuation. Including this fee will increase our valuation for which you are paying for shares in our company accordingly. Valuations for companies at this stage are generally purely speculative. Our valuation has not been validated by any independent third party and may decrease precipitously in the future. It is a question of whether you, the investor, are willing to pay this price for a percentage ownership of a start-up company. The issuance of additional shares of Common Stock, or additional option grants may dilute the value of your holdings, this includes the issuance of shares to our employees of our parent company, see “Transactions with Related Persons and Conflicts of Interest-- Shares to our Parent’s Employees” below. You should not invest if you disagree with this valuation. See “Dilution” for more information.

We are offering discounts to some investors in this Offering both in the form of a lower offering price as well as Bonus Shares, which is effectively a discount on our stock price. Certain investors in this Offering are entitled to receive additional membership interests in the special purpose vehicle representing shares of Class B Non-Voting Common Stock (effectively a discount) based on the amount invested. The number of Bonus Shares will be determined by the amount of money they invest in this Offering and will effectively act as a discount to the price at which the company is offering its stock. In addition, certain class of individuals are also entitled to Bonus Shares and investors who invest in the first $300,000 in this Offering will pay a lower price than those who invest after we have received that amount. That said, the lowest effective price an investor will pay with a discount will be $3.077. For example, an investor who invests $100,000 (not including the Investor Transaction Fee) in this Offering will be eligible for 100% Bonus Shares for investing over $100,000 (capped at the lowest effective price which would mean such investor would have 62.5% Bonus Shares while the price is $5.00 and 100% Bonus Shares while the price is $6.50). Further if such investor were to invest early in the Offering they would pay $5.00 for each membership interest representing a share of Class B Non-Voting Common Stock rather $6.50 for the same membership interest. Accordingly, that investor would receive 20,000 membership interests in the Crowdfunding SPV representing 20,000 shares of the company's Class B Non-Voting Common Stock plus an additional 12,499 Bonus Shares, effectively purchasing 32,499 shares of Class B Non-Voting Common Stock for the same price paid for 20,000 shares of Class B Non-Voting Common Stock or effectively paying a per share price of $3.077 if purchased when eligible for the $5.00 per share purchase price. For more details, including all of the Bonus Shares being offered, see "Bonus Share and Perks" below. Consequently, the value of shares of investors who pay the full price or are entitled to a smaller amount of Bonus Shares in this Offering will be immediately diluted by investments made by investors entitled to the discount, who will pay less for their stake in the company.

Using a credit card to purchase shares may impact the return on your investment as well as subject you to other risks inherent in this form of payment. Investors in this offering have the option of paying for their investment with a credit card, which is not usual in the traditional investment markets. Transaction fees charged by your credit card company (which can reach 5% of transaction value if considered a cash advance) and interest charged on unpaid card balances (which can reach almost 25% in some states) add to the effective purchase price of the shares you buy. The cost of using a credit card may also increase if you do not make the minimum monthly card payments and incur late fees. Using a credit card is a relatively new form of payment for securities and will subject you to other risks inherent in this form of payment, including that, if you fail to make credit card payments (e.g. minimum monthly payments), you risk damaging your credit score and payment by credit card may be more susceptible to abuse than other forms of payment. Moreover, where a third-party payment processor is used, as in this offering, your recovery options in the case of disputes may be limited. The increased costs due to transaction fees and interest may reduce the return on your investment.

The SEC's Office of Investor Education and Advocacy issued an Investor Alert dated February 14, 2018 entitled Credit Cards and Investments – A Risky Combination, which explains these and other risks you may want to consider before using a credit card to pay for your investment.

The Subscription Agreement has a forum selection provision that requires disputes be resolved in state or federal courts in the State of New York, regardless of convenience or cost to you, the investor. As part of this investment, each investor will be required to agree to the terms of the Subscription Agreement. In the agreement, investors agree to resolve disputes arising under the subscription agreement in state or federal courts located in the State of New York, for the purpose of any suit, action or other proceeding arising out of or based upon the agreement. Section 22 of the Securities Act creates concurrent jurisdiction for federal and state courts over all suits brought to enforce any duty or liability created by the Securities Act or the rules and regulations thereunder. The company believes that the exclusive forum provision applies to claims arising under the Securities Act, but there is uncertainty as to whether a court would enforce such a provision in this context. Section 27 of the Exchange Act creates exclusive federal jurisdiction over all suits brought to enforce any duty or liability created by the Exchange Act or the rules and regulations thereunder. As a result, the exclusive forum provision will not apply to suits brought to enforce any duty or liability created by the Exchange Act or any other claim for which the federal courts have exclusive jurisdiction. You will not be deemed to have waived the company's compliance with the federal securities laws and the rules and regulations thereunder. This forum selection provision may limit your ability to obtain a favorable judicial forum for disputes with us. Although we believe the provision benefits us by providing increased consistency in the application of California law in the types of lawsuits to which it applies and in limiting our litigation costs, to the extent it is enforceable, the forum selection provision may limit investors' ability to bring claims in judicial forums that they find favorable to such disputes, may increase investors' costs of bringing suit and may discourage lawsuits with respect to such claims. Alternatively, if a court were to find the provision inapplicable to, or unenforceable in an action, the company may incur additional costs associated with resolving such matters in other jurisdictions, which could adversely affect its business, financial condition or results of operations.

IN ADDITION TO THE RISKS LISTED ABOVE, RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES NOT PRESENTLY KNOWN, OR WHICH WE CONSIDER IMMATERIAL AS OF THE DATE OF THIS FORM C, MAY ALSO HAVE AN ADVERSE EFFECT ON OUR BUSINESS AND RESULT IN THE TOTAL LOSS OF YOUR INVESTMENT.

BUSINESS

Description of the Business

GGTR, LLC, serves as our parent company and owns 100% of our Class A Voting Stock. Ampere LLC is our wholly owned operating subsidiary. Although we were only organized in the State of Delaware on March 15, 2023, our parent company has been operating since 2019, and our operating subsidiary has been active since 2019 as well. We design, market, and sell consumer electronics and accessories through both traditional (wholesale) retail channels and online (direct-to-consumer, or "DTC"). Our consumer electronics and accessories can be found on our website at www.ampere.shop, on Amazon, and through other channels. The content on the Ampere website is not incorporated by reference into this Form C or any other report or document we file with the SEC.

The Crowdfunding SPV, Ampere Technologies CF SPV, LLC, was recently organized and serves solely to hold the securities to be issued by our company and pass through the rights related to those securities. Our mission: To make fun, functional tech that people love using every day.

In 2019, we launched Unravel, our patented 3-in-1 wireless charger. When the COVID pandemic emerged in 2020, we adeptly pivoted into the smart home space by introducing Shower Power, our patent-pending hydro-powered shower speaker.

In 2021, we turned our attention to the outdated eyewear industry, where traditional sunglasses have fixed tint levels and photochromic lenses, which react chemically to light but often change too slowly or at the wrong time. To address these issues and gaps in the market, we launched Dusk, the world's first app-enabled electrochromic smart sunglasses, that allow users to choose the tint of the lenses they want, instantly.

Following Dusk's launch, our revenue experienced a nearly 700% year-over-year growth from 2021 to 2022. As a result, expanding the Dusk line became our top priority.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The $323B global eyewear industry is built on outdated tech. The existing options on the market, a) fixed lenses or b) photochromic Transition lenses do not empower wearers to see in changing light conditions.

We created Dusk, the world's first light and touch responsive smart glasses with instant electronic tint control, to address this gap. We have positioned Ampere as the market leader in this new and exciting technology that we believe will revolutionize the eyewear market.

We've spent 2023 putting ourselves in a position to capitalize on the next wave of growth. And we've managed to accomplish this while sustaining growth and improving profitability in 2023.*

Outside of sales and numbers, it continues to be amazing to see the world's interest in Dusk and the new smart eyewear category we are pioneering. This is evidenced by 50 million+ organic social media views, top-tier media accolades (WIRED's Best Sunglasses) and consistent viral videos like @Beebomco's 54-second video with 14M views & 1M likes.

Dusk is not only extremely fun and eye-catching, Ampere's game-changing technology is also genuinely useful. Thanks to our state-of-the-art Japanese manufacturing and world leading flexible liquid crystal technology, Dusk's revolutionary lenses allow users to adjust the tint level with 1% precision in 0.1 seconds and offer unparalleled optical clarity with low haze. Dusk lenses transition from dark to light and light to dark virtually instantly, a mind-blowing 1800x faster than Transitions lenses (or anything else we have seen on the market).

As a result, tens of thousands are loving using Dusk every day, validating Ampere's technology foothold in the eyewear market.

We've made great progress in expanding all of our Dusk sales channels from D2C and Amazon to wholesale retail and distribution. In particular, we are excited to see back-to-back years of the Dusk wholesale/retail business growing 4x+. We have retail pilots planned with 3 of the 10 biggest optical retailers in the world (the 2nd biggest in the world, 1 in the top 5 and 1 in the top 10). All 3 of which have several thousand stores globally and a successful pilot. In addition to many other pilots we have planned across optical, consumer electronics, specialty, DIY, mass, travel & airports and sports action adventure. Last, but not least, 2023 Dusk airport sales grew over 500% YoY.* With the success of Dusk in Dubai and Singapore airports, we are looking to immediately expand into more top airports around the world.

All of this is just the very beginning. The current version of Dusk is generation 1 (technically V 1.6). We only offer it in one style with two color options. It is limited in functionality as well as in style offerings and has a premium price tag.

Now that we've

- proven demand and demonstrated our tech foothold in the eyewear market,
- proven our ability to rapidly innovate and market,
- established a solid consumer base along with sales and marketing channels,

we believe we can

- increase volume, optimize supply chain and reduce COGS
- and thereby reduce the price to consumers making it more accessible,
- scale our existing product aggressively,
- refine and expand upon our product offering to keep improving market fit and winning share.

In 2023, we reduced Dusk COGS by almost 20%. We have put together a roadmap that we believe will dramatically reduce COGS over the next 3 years so we eventually can price Dusk below $150, making it much more accessible and unlocking mass consumer volumes.

In 2023, we launched two new versions of Dusk, Dusk Sport and Dusk Rx (the next generation of Dusk that can support prescription or non-prescription lenses). We spent the last three years crafting and refining this next generation of Dusk based on thousands of pieces of customer feedback.

New features include:

- our patent-pending InstaOptic™ technology, that allows the lenses to automatically adapt to changing light conditions in as little as 0.1 seconds (the #1 request from customers),
- our widest tint range yet thanks to new HVL™ and Xpanse™ lenses, which offer an unmatched visible light transmission (VLT%) range from a near transparent 63% down to a deeply tinted 6%,
- our all-new premium open-ear audio experiences
- and support for prescription glasses.

Both Dusk Sport and Dusk Generation 2 (Dusk Rx) have won CES Innovation awards, the highest honor in consumer tech. Ampere has now won four CES Innovation Awards in four years.

Dusk Rx expands our total addressable market (TAM) to include more than 80% of the $323B eyewear market. And with the launch of Dusk Sport, we further expand our TAM to include the $671B global sporting goods market.

We will continue to listen closely to our customers' needs and rapidly iterate on our product offerings. Our business model is designed to bring innovative products to market as efficiently as possible and we believe we do it better than anyone else in consumer tech. By the time our competition introduces generation 1, we believe we will be several generations ahead.

We are excited to unveil Ampere's new mission statement: to leverage technology to empower the world to see beyond 20-20. The current generation of Dusk products allow users to see clearly in changing light conditions, an area that traditional glasses have fallen short. Within the next 5-10 years, we believe that there will be mass consumer adoption of our next-generation technology. But smart glasses that simply allow wearers to see clearly is only the beginning and there is so much more that we believe our technology can empower our wearers to do.

In particular, we are excited about integrating augmented reality (AR) and displays into Dusk. We process the world through our eyes. In short, anything we are currently doing on our smartphones (and eventually more powerful computers) we can do directly in our glasses instead, which we believe will eliminate the need to get out our phones, and skipping the cumbersome process of typing and tapping. We anticipate that we will be able to control glasses through our eyes and our speech. We are working on a version of Dusk that houses a waveguide + micro-LED, single color, single lens display that will have the ability to show notifications, navigation, voice to text and translation, biometric data, speed and even integrate with AI. From there, we plan on developing a smaller, lighter, multi-color, two-lens display that would allow for even more functionality.

Direct to Consumer

Our Direct-to-Consumer business, encompassing our website Ampere.Shop, Amazon, and product crowdfunding projects launched on Kickstarter.com, Indiegogo.com, and BackerKit.com, accounted for over 90% of our net revenue in 2022. Net Revenues experienced significant growth, increasing to nearly $3 million in 2022 from approximately $340,000 in 2021, representing an almost 700% growth.

This growth is largely due to the launch of Dusk, and we believe several other factors have also contributed:

- We have invested in performance marketing and conduct weekly ad testing — adhering to our core value of “test everything and assume nothing.”

- We have established key service provider partnerships to enhance our business operations and growth.

Net Revenue during the period was $3 million and $340,000 for the 2022 and 2021, respectively. Gross revenue in a Non-GAAP measure. Gross revenue includes items not typically included in revenue under U.S. GAAP such as amounts related to discounts and returns. See the discussion below in “Financial Statements” regarding non-GAAP financial measures.*

Wholesale Customers

In addition to direct-to-consumer sales, Ampere also engages in wholesale distribution of its products. Our wholesale channel, although relatively new, has experienced significant growth — with wholesale net revenue increasing nearly 500% from $31,517 in 2021 to $175,206 in 2022.

Manufacturer and Supplier

our parent has an exclusivity agreement with its primary manufacturer for the wearables line (Dusk). This agreement grants our parent exclusive rights to all patents and technology related to the Dusk product in the United States, developed by the factory. See “Intellectual Property” below.

Fulfillment Facilities

Ampere relies on third-party logistics partners (3PLs) to fulfill product orders for end customers. We utilize SPNS in Shenzhen, China, and Cobalt in Knoxville, Tennessee, for this purpose. The majority of orders within the United States are fulfilled by Cobalt, while most orders from outside the United States are fulfilled by SPNS.

We work with various freight forwarders, both air and sea, to identify the fastest and most cost-effective methods for shipping products to the warehouses. Our company regularly evaluates demand and shipping costs to consolidate or expand distribution capabilities in other regions worldwide.

Market Overview

Below is a brief overview of some of the markets in which we sell our products:

Global Eyewear Market

According to recent market research, the global eyewear market was valued at approximately $169 billion in 2022 and is expected to reach a value of over $300 billion by 2030, growing at a CAGR of around 8.4% during the forecast period.

Dusk, is a new entrant into the global eyewear market, which includes various types of eyewear, such as prescription glasses, sunglasses, contact lenses, and protective eyewear.

Dusk's unique selling proposition is the ability for users to control the tint level of their lenses using an app, providing a solution to the problem of changing light conditions while outdoors. Additionally, Dusk's built-in speakers and microphone offer users the ability to listen to music or take phone calls hands-free, further setting the brand apart from traditional eyewear products.

We believe that Dusk is positioned within the premium segment of the eyewear market, appealing to consumers who value innovation, technology, and style. The brand's target market consists of tech-savvy individuals interested in the latest advancements in wearable technology, as well as fashion-conscious consumers willing to invest in high-end eyewear.

Despite being a comparatively new player, we believe that Dusk has the potential to disrupt the traditional eyewear market and capture a significant share of the growing global eyewear industry, particularly with the increasing demand for smart wearable technology.

Wearables Market

According to recent market research, the global wearables market was valued at approximately $60 billion in 2022 and is expected to reach a value of over $283 billion by 2030, growing at a CAGR of around 14.6% during the forecast period.

Dusk fits into the global wearables market as a niche product that offers unique features to consumers looking for wearable technology that integrates seamlessly into their daily lives.

The wearables market includes a wide range of devices, such as fitness trackers, smart watches, smart glasses, smart clothing, and earbuds, that provide users with various features, such as monitoring health and fitness, receiving notifications, and controlling other smart devices.

Dusk's unique selling proposition is its electrochromic lenses that can be controlled through an app, allowing users to adjust the tint level to suit changing light conditions. Additionally, Dusk's built-in speakers and microphone offer users the ability to listen to music or take phone calls hands-free, making it a convenient device for those on the go.

While Dusk's features may not be as comprehensive as other wearables, such as smartwatches or fitness trackers, we believe it provides a unique and innovative solution to the problem of changing light conditions while outdoors. Additionally, Dusk's integration with smartphones and other smart devices allows it to provide users with added convenience and utility.

Dusk has the potential to appeal to consumers who prioritize innovation, style, and convenience in their wearable technology.

Photochromic Lens Market

The photochromic lens market refers to the industry that produces and sells eyeglass lenses that darken automatically in response to sunlight and UV radiation. Photochromic lenses are also known as transition lenses or adaptive lenses.

According to recent market research, the global photochromic lens market was valued at almost $6 billion in 2022 and is expected to reach a value of over $8 billion by 2028, growing at a CAGR of around 7.1% during the forecast period.

Dusk is a new and innovative type of smart sunglasses that combines the functionality of photochromic lenses with modern technology. While traditional photochromic lenses change their tint in response to UV light, Dusk's electrochromic lenses allow wearers to control the tint level themselves using an app or a button on the frame.

As such, Dusk offers a unique value proposition compared to traditional photochromic lenses. It provides users with more control over their eyewear, allowing them to adjust the tint to their specific needs and preferences. Additionally, Dusk's built-in technology and smart features, such as the ability to take calls and listen to music, offer added convenience and functionality.

In this way, Dusk can be seen as an innovative alternative to traditional photochromic lenses that meets the evolving needs of modern consumers. While the photochromic lens market has been dominated by established players for many years, Dusk presents a fresh and exciting new option for those looking for a more customizable and high-tech experience.

Competition

While smart sunglasses brands are on the rise, currently there are no other brands making app-enabled electrochromic smart sunglasses. Therefore, there is no direct competition, and we are currently a market leader in app-enabled electrochromic smart sunglasses.

However, Dusk's main competitors will likely be other companies offering smart sunglasses or photochromic lenses. Some of the most prominent competitors in this space include:

- Ray-Ban: One of the largest and most well-known eyewear brands in the world, Ray-Ban offers a range of photochromic lenses as well as a limited selection of smart sunglasses.
- Oakley: A subsidiary of Luxottica, Oakley offers a range of photochromic lenses and smart sunglasses with advanced features such as voice-activated controls and integrated earbuds.
- Smith Optics: A division of Safilo Group, Smith Optics offers a range of photochromic lenses as well as a small selection of smart sunglasses with features such as Bluetooth connectivity.
- Transitions Optical: A leading provider of photochromic lenses, Transitions Optical offers a range of products designed to meet different consumer needs and preferences.
- Bose: While not a traditional eyewear company, Bose offers a range of audio sunglasses with built-in speakers and other features.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Please see the financial information listed on the cover page of this Form C and attached hereto in addition to the following information. Financial statements are attached hereto as Exhibit A.

We are providing the following financial statements:

- Financial Statements for the Ampere Technologies Inc. for the period from March 15, 2023 (inception) to March 31, 2023
- Financial Statements for Ampere LLC for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2022 and December 31, 2021
- Financial Statements for Ampere Technologies CF SPV LLC for the period from March 21, 2023 (inception) to March 31, 2023

The financial statements were audited by Fruci & Associates II, PLLC. The following discussion should be read in conjunction with our audited financial statements and the related notes included in this Offering Statement. The following discussion also includes information based on our unaudited operating data for 2023 and 2024 and is subject to change once we complete our fiscal years, prepare our consolidated financial statements and our accountant completes a financial review and/or audit of those statements.

All of the company's operations will be in Ampere LLC, the company's operating subsidiary. The operating results reflect the performance of our subsidiary for the years ended December 31, 2022 and December 31, 2021.

To supplement our subsidiary's financial statements, which are prepared and presented in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States (US GAAP), we present gross revenue, a non-US GAAP financial measure, in addition to net revenue, a US GAAP financial measure. Gross revenue includes items not typically included in revenue under US GAAP such as amounts related to discounts and returns.

These non-US GAAP financial measures are not intended to be considered in isolation or as a substitute for, or superior to, financial information prepared and presented in accordance with US GAAP. These measures may be different from non-US GAAP financial measures used by other companies, limiting their usefulness for comparison purposes.

We generate revenue from DTC sales and wholesale sales of our products. Revenue is influenced by advertising, discounts and promotions, merchandising, packaging, and in the wholesale channel, all of which have a significant impact on consumers' buying decisions.

The company's gross revenue includes sale returns and discounts.

We deduct promotional discounts and refunds issued to determine net revenue. Customers who receive a damaged product or are dissatisfied with a product may receive a full or partial refund, full or partial credit against future purchase, or replacement, at our sole discretion. Continued growth of net revenues and profits will depend, substantially, on the continued popularity of new and existing products, the ability to effectively manage the sales channels, and the ability to maintain sufficient product supply to meet expected growth in demand. We may periodically provide promotional offers, including discounts, such as percentage discounts off current purchases and other similar offers. These offers are treated as a reduction to the purchase price of the related transaction and are reflected as an adjustment to arrive to net revenues. Such offers are discretionary, and we expect incentive offers to vary from period to period as a percentage of sales for the foreseeable future.

Cost of sales includes actual product cost and the cost of transportation to the company's distribution facilities.

Operating expenses largely consist of selling, advertising & marketing, consultants & contractors, SaaS subscriptions and general and administrative expenses.

Results of Operations

Gross revenues from wholesale gross revenue increased by $143,689 (or 456%), to $175,206 for Fiscal 2022, from $31,517 for Fiscal 2021. The increase in gross revenue relates to stronger Unravel and Dusk gross revenue at $84,303 and $61,093, respectively.

The following chart reconciles gross revenue and net revenue:

	Years ended December 31,

The company includes sales returns and discounts in gross revenue for DTC sales, the amount of gross revenue related to sales returns and discounts were $1,237,850 and $165,649, respectively for Fiscal 2022 and Fiscal 2021.

Net revenue for DTC sales was $2,568,515 and $313,365 for Fiscal 2022 and Fiscal 2021, respectively. Net revenue and gross revenue were the same for wholesale sales.

- a $98,939 increase in Consultants & Contractors to bring on and maintain high quality talent for project-based work.

Other Income (Expense)

The subsidiary had interest expenses of $144,722 in Fiscal 2022 compared to $9,564 in interest expenses in Fiscal 2021. The increase in the interest expense primarily is due to the higher amount of debt (including credit card debt) related to increased marketing activity and inventory purchasing activity.
