ANGEL
STUDIOS

Hey Angel fans,

We've partnered with many amazing projects recently, and I am so excited to introduce you to The German King which tells the true story of an African Hero, Rudolf Douala Manga Bell. Their team is full of talented Hollywood professionals who have worked on huge productions like The Expanse, Edge of Tomorrow, Captain America: Winter Soldier and so many more! Click here to help make this series possible and EXPRESS INTEREST in The German King.

EXPRESS INTEREST

I love that Angel Studios' mission has attracted people with huge filmmaking experience. Adetokunbo M'Cormack, actor and creator of The German King, has told me himself how tired he is of the roles Hollywood wants to cast him in, so he has set out to tell stories that matter to him. His passion and tenacity helped him create an award-winning short film version of The German King. When I first saw it, I knew we could help him turn this into a multi-season series.

Set during The Scramble For Africa leading up to the First World War, The German King is inspired by the true story of Rudolf Douala Manga Bell. Estranged from his homeland, Rudolf returns to Cameroon only to find oppression, grief, and death. Confronted with injustice and compelled to act, Rudolf leads a rebellion against Kaiser Wilhelm II, a man Rudolf once counted as a brother. This is a moving series about one of Africa's greatest forgotten heroes. This series will tell Rudolf's story in such a way as to reclaim and immortalize a royal heritage of bravery, nobility, and love.

You can learn more about The German King by watching last week's livestream where I talked with Adetokunbo M'Cormack about the project, as he opens up about why he is telling this story.

Hello,

In 2018, you were one of the first people to believe in The German King. With your help, we raised enough money to create a beautiful short film. That short film received many recognitions and awards and is now being made into a multi-season series! We have partnered with Angel Studios to gauge the interest in the crowd for a potential investment round.

This is an exciting opportunity to let our fans be a part of the making of The German King. By expressing interest, you are letting us know you would be interested in investing in The German King multi-season series. We aren't accepting money right now, but if we gain enough interest, we plan to go to the crowd to raise funds for this production. It would be a chance to be a part of something meaningful and share in any profits of the project as well.

The true story of Rudolf Duala Manga Bell follows the hero's journey much like our favorite superheroes do. As a multi-season series, we can show this piece of forgotten history. We believe that this story blends politics and personal valor creating a compelling world that will draw fans from several genres. The German King celebrates the royal threads and fantastic settings that make up the tapestry of African culture. Our hope is that we can pull back the veil of underrepresentation and showcase the forgotten stories of African history.

We have taken the short film worldwide, not only has it won many awards, but it has opened eyes and changed hearts. That is why we are so excited to explore this piece of history through multiple generations. There is such a rich back story to the life of Rudolf Duala Manga Bell. We hope to explore the intricacies that lead up to WWI and include some key characters from history that we are familiar with like Queen Victoria and Kaiser Wilhelm II. It will have the epic feel of Game of Thrones and the political intrigue of The Crown.

Help us make this series by expressing interest now.
