Did you know the German title Kaiser came from the Latin name Caesar? Caesar was a family name but over time became a generic term for "ruler" or "emperor." Germany was not the only country to adopt the name Caesar as a title for ruler or emperor. The title Tsar is the Russian variant of this name that carries the same meaning.

Rudolf Douala Manga Bell was born in 1873 in Douala. He was the grandson of King Ndumbe Lobe Bell — who signed the Treaty of Protection with the German Empire in 1884. Rudolf Douala Manga Bell went to study in Germany before returning to what was then called Kamerun to help his father govern the Kingdom of Douala. He succeeded him on September 2, 1908. After becoming the King of Douala, he dedicated his life to freeing his people from German oppression.

Cameroon was a German colony from 1884 until 1916. The goal was to expand Germany's agricultural economy. Large estates were established in southwestern Cameroon to provide tropical produce for Germany. Traders, plantation owners, and government officials competed for labor, and force was used to obtain it. The system established was harsh, and many workers died serving German interests.

3 Ways to celebrate JUNETEENTH as an ally

Z.Bryant | @zysaidso

EDUCATE YOURSELF

Learning about the true history of Juneteenth is an important first step to fighting against the whitewashing of its significance.

Z.Bryant | @zysaidso

But not everyone in Confederate territory would immediately be free. Even though the Emancipation Proclamation was made effective in 1863, it could not be implemented in places still under Confederate control. As a result, in the westernmost Confederate state of Texas, enslaved people would not be free until much later. Freedom finally came on June 19, 1865, when some 2,000 Union troops arrived in Galveston Bay, Texas. The army announced that the more than 250,000 enslaved black people in the state, were free by executive decree. This day came to be known as "Juneteenth," by the newly freed people in Texas.

SUPPORT A CAUSE

If you have the means, give to a Black-led mutual aid initiative in your community!

Movements require resources in order to do the necessary work to push for collective liberation.

NEED HELP?

- START by following the Black organizers in your community
- SEARCH based on your interests, there is likely a Black-led org/initiative that you can support (bail funds, community food justice programs, abortion funds, environmental/sustainability initiatives, etc.)

Z.Bryant | @zysaidso

SUPPORT A BLACK-OWNED BUSINESS

According to crunchbase, in 2021 Black-founded businesses only received approx. 1.3% in venture capital $. Black entrepreneurs are severely underfunded. Supporting Black-owned businesses is one way to help build equity & redistribute resources in Black communities.
