The Company

Business Summary

Lifeshirt Products, Inc (“Lifeshirt” or the “Company”) is a corporation organized under the laws of the state of Delaware. The Company was initially organized as Marine Safety Products, LLC (“MSP”), a Florida limited liability company in August 2012 for the sole purpose of developing the Lifeshirt concept. It also received several international patents and trademarks for the proprietary design and engineering of its personal flotation devices (PFD). In 2023, the MSP members converted the company to Lifeshirt Products, Inc in advance of this Regulation CF offering. MSP Member Units were converted to equivalent shares of Lifeshirt Products, Inc., and after all MSP assets are assigned to Lifeshirt Products, Inc., MSP will be dissolved.

As the Company transitions to an operational phase, the board intends to hire an experienced executive team from the athletic or marine apparel industry to manage daily operations. To date, the Company has been solely capitalized by private seed-level investment and has issued a total of ~2,706,213 shares. The Company owns its property and assets free and clear of all mortgages, liens, pledges, security interests, claims, and encumbrances.

Assets, Awards, and Recognition

The Company’s primary asset is its suite of intellectual property. The Company has moved to protect its IP rights through trademark and patent applications for product designs and proprietary concepts. To date, the Company has been issued utility patents in the U.S., Australia, and Canada for technologies defining a “Splash-Resistant Automatically Inflatable Flotation Device” (US 9,139,271). It has also received several national and international design patents including “Flotation Shirt with Inflation Components”, “Inflator Housing” and “Loose-fitting Flotation Shirt with Inflation Components”. In total, the Company has filed patent applications for proprietary technologies in 44 countries, with patents issued in 27 so far. Additionally, the Company has successfully registered several U.S. and international trademarks, namely, “LifeShirt” in class 009 (safety devices) and “world’s most comfortable flotation device” for uses associated with life-saving equipment just as life jackets.

LifeShirt has already received numerous design awards derived from selective “pre-launch” product line debuts. These awards include:

- Best New Technical Apparel Product at ICAST - the world’s largest sportfishing trade show
- Innovations in Life Jacket Design by BoatUS - the oldest and largest association for boater regulations
- Best New Product (accessories) by ISPO BRANDNEW - world's largest trade fair for sporting goods
- 2022 TOP PRODUCTS, by Boating Industry Magazine – a leading boating industry publication

Products

The Company has developed a LifeShirt product range for children, youths, and adults. The product line consists of both “sports fit” devices intended for active watersports and a “relaxed fit” range intended for more leisurely water activities such as boating and fishing. In addition to flotation, all products use the most advanced marine grade fabrics that include UPF 50+ to help protect users from ultraviolet sun rays. All LifeShirt models will include manual inflation via a pull handle or oral inflation tube located in the front of the shirt. Premium models will also be equipped with the Company’s patented splash resistant auto-inflation technology.

The Classic model is the first UL approved LifeShirt and comes with an integrated Level 70 inflatable PFD with manual-only inflation accessed via a pull cord or oral inflation tube. The pull chord provides instant inflation while the oral tube gives the wearer flexibility in terms of when and how much air to put in the internal bladder. This model is currently certified for sale in both North America and international markets including Europe and Australia. The Company understood that market adoption of the premium LifeShirt models will create competition, specifically from the larger generic PFD market with lower price points. As a result, the Company reprioritized its development effort to leverage more generic inflation and bladder technology combined with the LifeShirt form factor concept. As a result, the Classic LifeShirt is an attractively priced device ideal for large volume sales either through large chain department and sporting goods stores, training centers, tourism boards and general recreational use.

LifeShirt’s Stronghold® model is a Level 70 compression-fit PFD providing 70 newtons of buoyancy and a form fit to enhance athletic performance. The Stronghold® features both manual and the Company’s patented automatic inflation technology. While the shirt is designed for use during more active water activities such as surfing, it will be a preferred option for buyers looking for premium style and performance. The Stronghold is currently undergoing ISO testing in the UK and is expected to be approved for international sales in 2024. Separately, samples have been delivered to Underwriter’s Laboratory to begin testing in 2024 for North America.

The Safeguard® model is a Level 70 relaxed fit inflatable PFD that comes in warm or cool weather models. The Safeguard® is ideal for recreational boating, fishing, paddle sports, or a day at the beach. The Safeguard is currently undergoing ISO testing in the UK and is expected to be approved for international sales in 2024. Separately, samples have been delivered to Underwriter’s Laboratory to begin testing in 2024 for North America.

The Watchdog® model is a Level 50 device that includes models with manual-only or patented automatic inflation technology for small children under the age of 10. It will be certified for international markets only.

Product Summary Table

Model	Fit (Age / Sex)	Certification	Target ASP
Classic	Adult / Universal	All	$199
Stronghold	Adult / Men	All	$219
Safeguard	Adult / Men	All	$219
Watchdog	Kids / Universal	International Only	$199

Lastly, each LifeShirt model requires a CO2 consumable cartridge to inflate the LifeShirt and each cartridge provides one inflation. As a result, the company will also sell CO2 LifeShirt Rearming Kits which will include 3 cartridges. While these are common devices for inflatable life jackets on the market today, most PFDs only work with specific cartridges due to varying thread count specs, cartridge dimensions and capacities. Consequently, this creates an opportunity for repeat customers and a high margin recurring revenue stream.

Current stage and roadmap

Lifeshirt Products, Inc. has been working with various testing houses and certification bodies around the world with the goal of receiving relevant certifications prior to market entry. The LifeShirt Classic is the entry-level model which was first certified for international markets in 2019 but not yet brought to market. Based on that certification, Lifeshirt Products, Inc. is preparing to go to the market in the United States. The four focus areas of the company are: (i) cash flow, (ii) manufacturing & supply chain, and (iii) sales and marketing. The Company investigated multiple options to raise equity and has decided to pursue a Reg CF crowdfund. It has partnered with multiple vendors to provide the broker-dealer services, the technology platform, payment processing, escrow account, legal, and marketing to facilitate the crowdfund.

The funding generated from the crowdfund will primarily be used to pay for the first production run of both the Classic and Watchdog LifeShirts. All UL approved products must be assembled by a UL certified manufacturer. The Company's development partner OU Lude has manufacturing capacity through eastern Europe and has a final UL factory review of a sample production run in November in order to receive its UL certification to produce LifeShirts sold in the US. In addition, the Company is working with a manufacturer with facilities throughout southeast Asia that is already UL certified and capable of building the initial LifeShirts.

As part of the marketing effort, Lifeshirt Products, Inc. is leveraging its online assets and partnerships with a premier ecommerce marketing company to market LifeShirt on google in over a dozen countries including, but not limited to, the United States, Canada, United Kingdom, France, Germany, Spain, China, Japan, and Australia. Finally, with the expectation of a successful Regulation CF offering and product launch, the next step would be additional funding to meet growth objectives via a Regulation D or Regulation A offering.

Competition

The marketplace for life vests or life jackets is competitive and continues to grow as the number of individuals participating in water-based activities continues to increase. A vast majority of brands today have been in the industry for many years. The market for life jackets or flotation devices is segmented into commercial, government and recreational. Most major competitor brands primarily focus on commercial while some compete in all three or focus on non-Commercial segments. Additionally, almost all competitor commercial brand life jackets and flotation devices are sold via a multi-channel sales approach. This means they sell their product direct to consumer from their branded website, they use online marketplaces such as Amazon and then they also sell wholesale so their products can be available in sporting good or outdoor type stores. Lastly, the life jacket market has seen only incremental innovation over the last 50 years as new materials are introduced to make traditional foam jackets less bulky and uncomfortable. However, inflatable technology is becoming more popular and attracting new entrants and product offerings.

Kent Outdoors is a private equity firm owned life jacket company. It offers snowboards, wakeboards, water ski equipment, outdoor apparel, and 6 life jacket brands: Kent, Full Throttle, Hyperlite, Obrien, Connelly and Onyx. Onyx has pioneered the inflatable life jacket segment. The products provide premium watersport experiences.

Stearns has been a popular life jacket brand since the 1920s. In 1971, federal law changes allowed companies to create Type III PFDs, which Stearns took advantage of. In 2008, The Coleman Company acquired Stearns and added it to their recreational outdoor collection. In 2021, Mustang Survival acquired Stearns' Government and Commercial Marine business from The Coleman Company. Stearns' life jackets are the economy models for mass market.

O'Neill is a renowned name in the action sports world, renowned for designing neoprene wetsuits. In 2008, Logo International B.V. purchased the worldwide and European rights for the brand to help increase market share. Stohlquist is another popular life jacket brand popular for kayaking and fishing, combining foam and minimal shoulder straps. Body Glove and Astral are other smaller brands with niche products. Private label life jackets are also available from Dick's Sporting Goods, Bass Pro Shops, and Cabella's. Bluestorm, Onyx, and Hyde Wingman offer newer inflatable life jackets, with the latter two having bladders meant to be worn around the neck and shoulders, and Hyde Wingman offering back support and a vest to be worn over clothing.

In summary, the market for life jackets and personal flotation devices is highly fragmented. The last two decades have been shaped by private company mergers and acquisitions. In addition, each brand focuses on different markets such as Government, Commercial or Recreation. Within the Recreation market, brands have further differentiated based on different price points or activities.

Risk Factors

Any investments in the company involves a high degree of risk and should only be made by investors who can afford the loss of their entire investment.

The purchase of securities is speculative and involves substantial risk. In making an investment decision, investors must rely on their own examination of the issuer and the terms of the offering, including the merits and risks involved. These securities have not been recommended or approved by any federal or state securities commission or regulatory authority.

The U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission does not pass upon the merits of any securities offered or the terms of the offering, nor does it pass upon the accuracy or completeness of any offering document or literature. These securities are offered under an exemption from registration; however, the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission has not made an independent determination that these securities are exempt from registration.

The SEC requires the company to identify risks that are specific to its business and financial condition. The company is still subject to all the same risks that all companies in its business, and all companies in the economy are exposed to. These include risks relating to economic downturns, political and economic events, and more. Additionally, early-stage companies are inherently more risky than more developed companies. You should consider the general risks as well as specific risks when deciding to make an investment.

Economic Risk Factors

MARKET, INFLATION, AND INTEREST RATE

Any investment is subject to general market risk. Market risk is the impact of the overall condition of financial markets. When the markets are doing well, that sentiment generally carries over to individual securities - and vice versa. Geopolitical, economic, and other uncertainties can impact the markets significantly - creating increased volatility. Generally, volatile markets can be a cause for reduced valuations of companies and investments. Inflation and interest rate risk can operate separately or in tandem. Interest rate risk impacts a business by potentially increasing their costs to do business e.g., borrowing costs. If you couple this rise in rates due to inflation, then the value of the dollars the company earns is worth less. Not all businesses can pass on higher costs to their customers. And this increases the possibility that customers may be feeling the pinch and pull back from purchases.

FORCE MAJEURE

There is the possibility that a natural disaster or other event beyond the control of the Company could cause damage to the equipment or progress of projects that the Company is involved in. This may cause unexpected replacement costs and negatively impact financial returns for the Company. While the equipment would be subject to insurance policies, during the construction period, and during the operating term, and these policies may cover replacement costs for potential damage, all possible damage may or may not be covered by the insurance company, depending on what insurance is secured for each project.

PUBLIC HEALTH EMERGENCIES

COVID-19 or similar public health emergencies may impact the Company's ability to fulfill contracts. Contractors, suppliers and access to building premises could experience delays or additional unexpected expenses. Vendors may experience unexpected financial difficulties given unemployment rates and illness amongst employees and thus default on or delay their contractual obligations which in turn would impact the Company's to meet its obligations. In the event that suppliers and contractors in certain impacted industries lose their jobs or remain unemployed, it could impact their ability to make payments or meet objectives.

Industry Risk Factors.

FAILURE TO STAY COMPETITIVE

The markets in which we participate are competitive, and if we do not compete effectively, our operating results could be harmed. We believe that the market for our products will continue to grow and that the growth of the market will prompt other companies to develop and market products such as those we offer. We expect that our competitors may range from start-up organizations to large institutions that internally develop products that compete with our products directly or that are superior to ours.

We expect that many of our potential competitors will have greater name recognition, longer operating histories, more established customer relationships, larger marketing budgets, and greater resources than us. These competitors may be able to respond more quickly and effectively than we can to new or changing opportunities, technologies, standards, and customer requirements.

For these reasons, we may not be able to compete successfully against our future competitors, which would harm our business, operating results and financial condition.

Company Risks Factors

LIMITED OPERATING HISTORY

The Company and its business plans, the contractual relationships required, and other components that will make the Company a success are continuing to be developed, in part, with the proceeds of the Offering. The likelihood of success should be considered in light of the problems, expenses, difficulties, complications and delays usually encountered by companies in their early stages of development, regardless of the experience of the management team. The Company may not be successful in attaining the objectives necessary for it to overcome these risks and uncertainties.

FAILURE TO EXPAND SALES AND MARKETING

Failure to Expand Sales and Marketing Failure to effectively develop and expand our sales and marketing capabilities could harm our ability to increase our customer base and achieve broader market acceptance of our products.

Our business and operating results will be harmed if our sales and marketing efforts do not generate significant increases in revenue. We may not achieve anticipated revenue growth from expanding our sales force if we are unable to hire, develop, integrate, and retain talented and effective sales personnel, if our new and existing sales personnel are unable to achieve desired productivity levels in a reasonable period of time, or if our sales and marketing programs and advertising are not effective.

KEY PERSONNEL

The Company is very dependent on its founders and key personnel. In the event of a catastrophic occurrence affecting the founders of the Company, the future of the Company could be at risk. The Company's success depends on the experience and skill of the board of directors, its executive officers, and key employees. To be successful, the Company needs people to run the day-to-day operations. As the Company grows, it may on occasion need to attract and hire key personnel or contract for additional services like marketing, sales, development, finance, legal, and other areas. The Company may not be able to locate these personnel when needed. The Company may make hiring mistakes. Not attracting the right personnel or making hiring mistakes could adversely affect the business, financial condition, and operating results. Competition for highly skilled personnel is frequently intense.

COMPETITION

There is the threat of competition, as it is possible that other companies may target the same markets and customers that the Company intends to. Competitions may lead to a decrease in expected sales and increase in costs to acquire customers if such competitors are able to achieve similar pricing and performance measures.

NO HISTORICAL PROFIT

The Company may not attain profitability. If the Company does not achieve or sustain profitability in the future, it may be unable to continue its operations or operate as a going concern. The Company has not had significant revenue since its formation. After the Offering, the Company may continue to incur significant operating losses and negative cash flows in the future. The Company may not attain profitability. Even if the Company does attain profitability, it may not be able to sustain it in the future.

LEGAL

The Company may be subject to lawsuits and litigation in the future. Even if the Company is successful in defending any claims made against it, the costs of defending against such claims would drain the Company's resources. This could delay or prevent the Company from achieving profitability and impact its ability to obtain financing to fund its operations in the future or to attract an acquiring Company.

BUSINESS PROJECTIONS

There can be no assurance that the Company will meet its projections. There can be no assurance that the Company will be able to find sufficient demand for the product, that people think it's a better option than a competing product, or that we will be able to provide the service at a level that allows the Company to make a profit and still attract business.

VALUATION DIFFICULT TO ASSESS

The valuation for the offering was established by the Company. Unlike listed companies that are valued publicly through market-driven stock prices, the valuation of private companies, especially startups, is difficult to assess and you may risk overpaying for your investment.

LIMITED TRANSFERABILITY OF THE SECURITIES

Any Common Stock purchased through this crowdfunding campaign is subject to SEC limitations of transfer. This means that the stock/note that you purchase cannot be resold for a period of one year. The exception to this rule is if you are transferring the stock back to the Company, to an "accredited investor," as part of an offering registered with the Commission, to a member of your family, trust created for the benefit of your family, or in connection with your death or divorce.

ILLIQUID INVESTMENT

You should be prepared to hold this investment for several years or longer. For the 12 months following your investment there will be restrictions on how you can resell the securities you receive. More importantly, there is no established market for these securities and there may never be one. As a result, if you decide to sell these securities in the future, you may not be able to find a buyer.

FUTURE FINANCING

The Company anticipates needing access to credit in order to support working capital requirements. It is possible the Company will be forced to raise additional capital, modify growth plans, or take other actions. Issuing more equity may require bringing on more investors and securing more investors could require pricing our equity below its current price. If so, your investment could lose value as a result of additional dilution. In addition, even if the equity is not priced lower, your ownership percentage could decrease with addition of more investors.

TERMS OF SUBSEQUENT FINANCINGS MAY ADVERSELY IMPACT YOUR INVESTMENT

We will need to engage in common equity, debt, or preferred stock financings in the future, which may reduce the value of your investment. Interest on debt securities could increase costs and negatively impact operating results. Preferred stock could be issued in series from time to time with such designation, rights, preferences, and limitations as needed to raise capital. The terms of preferred stock could be more advantageous to those investors than to the holders of Common Stock. In addition, if we need to raise more equity capital from the sale of Common Stock, institutional or other investors may negotiate terms that are likely to be more favorable than the terms of your investment, and possibly a lower purchase price per share.

MANAGEMENT DISCRETION AS TO USE OF PROCEEDS

Our success will be substantially dependent upon the discretion and judgment of our management team with respect to the application and allocation of the proceeds of this Offering. The use of proceeds described below is an estimate based on our current business plan. We, however, may find it necessary or advisable to re-allocate portions of the net proceeds reserved for one category to another, and will have broad discretion in doing so.

PROJECTIONS: FORWARD LOOKING INFORMATION STATEMENTS

Any projections or forward-looking statements regarding our anticipated financial or operational performance are hypothetical and are based on management's best estimate of the probable results of our operations and will not have been reviewed by our independent accountants. These projections will be based on assumptions which management believes are reasonable. Some assumptions invariably will not materialize due to unanticipated events and circumstances beyond management's control. Therefore, actual results of operations will vary from such projections, and such variances may be material. Any projected results cannot be guaranteed.

SOME PRODUCTS ARE STILL PROTOTYPES

It is possible that there may never be an operational product or that the product may never be sold. It is possible that the failure to release a product is the result of a change in business model upon the Company's making a determination that the business model, or some other factor, will not be in the best interest of the Company and its stockholders.

SECURITIES WITH NO VOTING RIGHTS

An investor buying Class B Common Shares will not have any voting rights associated with them.. You are trusting in management discretion in making good business decisions that will grow your investments. Furthermore, in the event of a liquidation of our company, you will only be paid out if there is any cash remaining after all of the creditors of our company have been paid out.

THE OFFERING ALLOWS ROLLING CLOSINGS

Once we meet our target amount for this offering, we may request that the broker dealer instruct the escrow agent to disburse offering funds to us. At that point, investors whose subscription agreements have been accepted will become our investors. All early-stage companies are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties, and it is not uncommon for material changes to be made to the offering terms, or to companies' businesses, plans or prospects, sometimes on short notice. When such changes happen during the course of an offering, we must file an amendment to our Form C, with the SEC, and investors whose subscriptions have not yet been accepted will have the right to withdraw their subscriptions and get their money back. Investors whose subscriptions have already been accepted, however, will already be our investors and will have no such right.

PATENTS, TRADEMARKS, COPYRIGHTS AND OTHER INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

Intellectual property is a complex field of law in which few things are certain. It is possible that competitors will be able to design around our intellectual property, find prior art to invalidate it, or render the patents unenforceable through some other mechanism. If competitors are able to bypass our trademark and copyright protection without obtaining a sublicense, it is likely that the Company's value will be materially and adversely impacted. This could also impair the Company's ability to compete in the marketplace. Moreover, if our trademarks and copyrights are deemed unenforceable, the Company will almost certainly lose any potential revenue it might be able to raise by entering into sublicenses. This would cut off a significant potential revenue stream for the Company.

COPYRIGHT LITIGATION

Trademark and copyright litigation has become extremely expensive. Even if we believe that a competitor is infringing on one or more of our trademarks or copyrights, we might choose not to file suit because we lack the cash to successfully prosecute a multi-year litigation with an uncertain outcome; or because we believe that the cost of enforcing our trademark(s) or copyright(s) outweighs the value of winning the suit in light of the risks and consequences of losing it; or for some other reason. Choosing not to enforce our trademark(s) or copyright(s) could have adverse consequences for the Company, including undermining the credibility of our intellectual property, reducing our ability to enter into sublicenses, and weakening our attempts to prevent competitors from entering the market. As a result, if we are unable to enforce our trademark(s) or copyright(s) because of the cost of enforcement, your investment in the Company could be significantly and adversely affected.

SPECULATIVE

The Company's business objectives must be considered highly speculative, and investing is speculative, involves a high degree of risk, and is suitable only for persons who are able to assume the risk of losing their entire investment. No assurance can be given that an Investor will realize their investment objectives or will realize a substantial return (if any) in their investment or that they would not lose their entire investment in the Company. As a result, each prospective Investor should carefully read this Form C. Each prospective investor should consult with his/her/its attorneys, accountants, and business advisors prior to making an investment.

NO TAX ADVICE

No assurance or warranty of any kind is made with respect to any tax consequences relating to an investment in the Company. Each prospective Investor should consult with and rely solely upon the advice of his, her or its own tax advisers.

UNDERCAPITALIZATION

In order to achieve the Company's near and long-term goals, the Company may need to procure funds in addition to the amount raised in the Offering. There is no guarantee the Company will be able to raise such funds on acceptable terms or at all. If we are not able to raise sufficient capital in the future, we may not be able to execute our business plan, our continued operations will be in jeopardy and we may be forced to cease operations and sell or otherwise transfer all or substantially all of our remaining assets, which could cause a Purchaser to lose all or a portion of his or her investment. As a result, precisely planning the Company's expected financial results is difficult and impacts its forecasted need for capital.

RISKS RELATED TO CERTAIN CORPORATE ACTIONS

Events such as corporate reorganization, merger, acquisition, additional issuances of securities, and share repurchases, may disproportionately affect minority shareholders. The effects may include the dilution of the value of shares, and the loss of the holder's voting rights, if any were available, and others.

CANCELLATION RESTRICTIONS

Once you make an investment commitment for a crowdfunding offering, you will be committed to make that investment (unless you cancel your commitment within a specified period of time).

LIMITED DISCLOSURE

The Company may disclose only limited information about the Company, its business plan, the Offering, and its anticipated use of proceeds, among other things. The Company is also only obligated to file information annually regarding its business, including financial statements, and certain companies may not be required to provide annual reports after the first 12 months. A publicly listed company, in contrast, is required to file annual and quarterly reports and promptly disclose certain events — continuing disclosure that you can use to evaluate the status of your investment. In contrast, an Investor may have only limited continuing disclosure about their crowdfunding investment.

POSSIBILITY OF FRAUD

As with other investments, there is no guarantee that crowdfunding investments will be immune from fraud.

In addition to the risks listed above, risks and uncertainties not presently known, or which we consider immaterial as of the date of this Form C, may also have an adverse effect on our business and result in the total loss of your investment.

Investing Process

To invest in an offering, Investors must go to Texture Capital's platform. Texture Capital collects certain personal information to run a Know-Your-Customer and Anti-Money Laundering check on each investor at no cost to the investor. An individual must be 18 years of age to invest. Investors that are non-US residents may not be able to participate in the Offering due to local securities laws.

You will also need to sign a Subscription Agreement for the investment you have selected in order to purchase the Securities and select your payment method. The Purchaser's funds for payment will be deducted and then held in escrow with West Town Bank & Trust, an independent escrow agent, during the raise.

Subscription Agreement

Subscription Agreements are an investor's application to participate in the crowdfunding offering and include the Terms of the investment attached as Appendix 2 to the Subscription Agreement. It is a two-way agreement between the issuer to sell and the investor to purchase an agreed-upon amount of securities at an agreed-upon price. A Subscription Agreement is typical with private security offerings like those under Regulation Crowdfunding. The Subscription Agreement is not binding on the Company until accepted by the Company, which reserves the right to reject, in whole or in part, in its sole and absolute discretion, any subscription. If the Company rejects all or a portion of any subscription, the applicable prospective Purchaser's funds for the investment amount will be returned without interest or deduction. Certain payment methods may have additional fees that will be disclosed at time of purchase; those additional fees will be returned to the investor if their transaction is canceled.

Progress During an Offering

Texture Capital's investor platform will display on the issuer's Offering Page, an investment progress bar and Updates regarding the Offering. For those with investment commitments in the offering already, you will receive certain email notifications from Texture Capital.

Target Offering Amount and Maximum Offering Amount

A company selects a minimum Target Offering Amount for a raise and may also select a Maximum Offering Amount. If the total amount of investor commitments does not meet or exceed the Target Offering Amount by the deadline for the Offering (Close Date), the Offering is canceled, no securities will be sold, investors will receive a full refund of their investment commitment, with no interest or deductions, and the issuer will not receive funds.

Cancellation

Investors may cancel an investment commitment for any reason up until 48 hours prior to the deadline (Close date) of the Offering period. The Close date can be found in the Offering materials and on the Issuer's Offering page on Texture Capital's portal. For example, if the deadline is Dec 24th, you can cancel until Dec 22 at 11:59 PM EST. Once within the 48 hours of the Close date, you can no longer cancel your investment commitment, even if your investment commitment was submitted within the 48 hour time period.

CANCELLATION PROCESS

The intermediary will notify investors when the target offering amount has been met.

If the issuer reaches the target offering amount prior to the deadline identified in the offering materials, it may close the offering early if it provides notice about the new offering deadline at least five business days prior to such new offering deadline (absent a material change that would require an extension of the offering and reconfirmation of the investment commitment).

If an investor does not cancel an investment commitment before the 48-hour period prior to the offering deadline, the funds will be released to the issuer upon closing of the offering and the investor will receive securities in exchange for his or her investment.

If an investor does not reconfirm his or her investment commitment after a material change is made of the offering, the investor's investment commitment will be cancelled and the committed funds will be returned.

An investor may cancel your investment commitment directly on the Texture Capital's portal.

CANCELING A COMMITMENT TO PURCHASE

Investors may cancel an investment commitment until 48 hours prior to the deadline identified in these offering materials.

The intermediary will notify investors when the target offering amount has been met.

If the issuer reaches the target offering amount prior to the deadline identified in the offering materials, it may close the offering early if it provides notice about the new offering deadline at least five business days prior to such new offering deadline (absent a material change that would require an extension of the offering and reconfirmation of the investment commitment).

If an investor does not cancel an investment commitment before the 48-hour period prior to the offering deadline, the funds will be released to the issuer upon closing of the offering and the investor will receive securities in exchange for his or her investment.

If an investor does not reconfirm his or her investment commitment after a material change is made to the offering, the investor's investment commitment will be canceled and the committed funds will be returned.

The Close date can be found in the Offering materials and on the Issuer's Offering page.

An investor may cancel your investment commitment directly on the Texture Capital's portal.

Related Party Transactions

A related party is defined as: any director or officer of the issuer; any person who is, as of the most recent practicable date but no earlier than 120 days prior to the date the offering statement or report is filed, the beneficial owner of 20 percent or more of the issuer's outstanding voting equity securities, calculated on the basis of voting power; if the issuer was incorporated or organized within the past three years, any promoter of the issuer; any member of the family of any of the foregoing persons, which includes a child, stepchild, grandchild, parent, stepparent, grandparent, spouse or spousal equivalent, sibling, mother-in-law, father-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, brother-in-law, or sister-in-law, and shall include adoptive relationships. The term spousal equivalent means a cohabitant occupying a relationship generally equivalent to that of a spouse.

There are no related transactions between the Company and a related party over the past twelve months.

Financial Condition

This section contains certain forward-looking financial statements and/or projections. Actual results could differ materially from those projected in such forward-looking statements and projections as a result of various factors, including the risks typically associated with this type of enterprise and changes in the market. The Company undertakes no obligation to publicly release the result of any revisions to these forward-looking statements and projections that may be made to reflect events or circumstances that occur after the date of this offering statement or to reflect the occurrence of any unanticipated events.

Operating History

Lifeshirt Products, Inc (“LifeShirt” or the “Company”) is a corporation organized under the laws of the state of Delaware. The Company was initially organized as Marine Safety Products, LLC (“MSP”), a Florida limited liability company, in August 2012 for the sole purpose of developing the LifeShirt concept.

Current Condition and Historical Results

Reviewed financials of the Company for 2021 and 2022 showed little change in cash on the balance sheet and modest losses. As of December 2022, the Company’s balance sheet shows $1,101,243 in intellectual property which has been capitalized as development costs.

PRE-RAISE LIQUIDITY

The proceeds from the Offering are essential to continued operations. We plan to use the proceeds of this offering as set forth above under the section titled “Use of Proceeds,” which is an indispensable element of our business strategy. The Company currently has little cash and liquid current assets and is expected to use all of it in the near future.

POST-RAISE LIQUIDITY

We anticipate the capital from this Offering to be deployed quickly. Changing business strategies could make it last much longer, or shorter. Proceeds from the Offering will greatly enhance our liquidity position and will enable us to continue operations, expand our services, and grow the Company.

CAPITAL RESOURCES

The Company has no debt financing and has not sought any grants. We rely on capital infusions from investors. The current assets and future investment are necessary to support the growth that the Company is projecting.

DEPENDENCY ON THE OFFERING

The Company’s viability depends upon near-term sales that demonstrate to investors that the projected growth is achievable. Since the Offering provides funds to accelerate the sales of the Company’s products, it contributes to the Company’s viability.

Note 3 New Accounting Pronouncements

i) In August 2018, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (the "FASB") issued ASU No. 2018-13, "Fair Value Measurement (Topic 820), Disclosure Framework – Changes to the Disclosure Requirements for Fair Value Measurement". This ASU removed the following disclosure requirements: (1) the amount of and reasons for transfers between Level 1 and Level 2 of the fair value hierarchy; (2) the policy for timing of transfers between levels; and (3) the valuation processes for Level 3 fair value measurements. Additionally, this update added the following disclosure requirements: (1) the changes in unrealized gains and losses for the period included in other comprehensive income and loss for recurring Level 3 fair value measurements held at the end of the reporting period; (2) the range and weighted average of significant unobservable inputs used to develop Level 3 fair value measurements. For certain unobservable inputs, an entity may disclose other quantitative information (such as the median or arithmetic average) in lieu of the weighted average if the entity determines that other quantitative information would be a more reasonable and rational method to reflect the distribution of unobservable inputs used to develop Level 3 fair value measurements. ASU No. 2018-13 will be effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2020 with early adoption permitted.

ii) In February 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-02, Leases (Topic 842) ("ASU 2016-02"), which sets out the principles for the recognition, measurement, presentation and disclosure of leases for both parties to a contract (i.e., lessees and lessors). The new standard requires lessees to apply a dual approach, classifying leases as either finance or operating leases based on the principle of whether or not the lease is effectively a financed purchase by the lessee. This classification will determine whether lease expense is recognized based on an effective interest method or on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease. In addition, a lessee is required to record (i) a right-of-use asset and a lease liability on its balance sheet for all leases with accounting lease terms of more than 12 months regardless of whether it is an operating or financing lease and (ii) lease expense in its statement of operations for operating leases and amortization and interest expense in its consolidated statement of operations for financing leases. Leases with a term of 12 months or less may be accounted for similar to prior guidance for operating leases today. In July 2018, the FASB issued ASU No. 2018-11, Leases (Topic 842), which added an optional transition method that allows companies to adopt the standard as of the beginning of the year of adoption as opposed to the earliest comparative period presented. In November 2019, the FASB issued guidance delaying the effective date for all entities, except for public business entities. For nonpublic entities, this guidance is effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2020. In June 2020, the FASB issued additional guidance delaying the effective date for all entities, except for public business entities. For public entities, ASU 2016-02 was effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2018, including interim periods within those fiscal years. For nonpublic entities, this guidance is effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2021. Early adoption is permitted. The Company is currently evaluating the impact that the adoption of ASU 2016-02 will have on its financial statements.

iii) In March 2020, the FASB issued ASU 2020-04, Facilitation of the Effects of Reference Rate Reform on Financial Reporting which provides optional expedients and exceptions for applying GAAP to contracts, hedging relationships, and other transactions affected by the discontinuation of the London Interbank Offered Rate ("LIBOR") or by another reference rate expected to be discontinued. This guidance is effective for all entities upon issuance on March 12, 2020 and may be applied through December 31, 2022. The expedients and exceptions in this guidance are optional, and the Company is evaluating the potential future financial statement impact of any such expedient or exception that it may elect to apply as the Company evaluates the effects of adopting this guidance on its financial statements.
