RISK FACTORS

Risks Related to the Company's Business and Industry

The Company is in the development stage.

We are subject to all of the risks inherent in the establishment of a new business enterprise, including, but not limited to, limited operating history, reliance on key personnel, the lack of developed products, insufficient capital, and the lack of sufficient sales and marketing capabilities. We may not be successful in developing our business or operating our business profitably. In fact, we may never complete our development, or operate at a profit. If our plans prove to be unsuccessful, investors may lose all or a substantial part of their investment. Our success will depend on our Board's and management's ability to address the risks encountered by development stage companies and to implement the "Business and Commercial Development Strategy" outlined in the investor deck provided in conjunction with this Agreement. Additionally, the Board has a right to discretionary use of proceeds from this offering. We may not be successful in implementing the Business and Commercial Development Strategy, and, in such event, the Company will likely fail, which could lead to a complete loss of your investment. The Board may also exercise its discretion poorly in how the proceeds from this offering are used, and, in such event, the Company will likely fail, which could lead to a complete loss of your investment.

We may not be able to manage future growth effectively.

If our business plan is successful, we may experience significant growth in a short period of time and potential scaling issues. Should we grow rapidly, our financial, management and operating resources may not expand sufficiently to adequately manage our growth. If we are unable to manage our growth, our costs may increase disproportionately, our future revenues may stop growing or decline and we may face dissatisfied customers. Our failure to manage our growth may adversely impact our business and the value of your investment.

We may plan to implement new lines of business or offer new products and services within existing lines of business.

There are substantial risks and uncertainties associated with these efforts, particularly in instances where the markets are not fully developed. In developing and marketing new lines of business and/or new products and services, we may invest significant time and resources. Initial timetables for the introduction and development of new lines of business and/or new products or services may not be achieved, and price and profitability targets may not prove feasible. We may not be successful in introducing new products and services in response to industry trends or developments in technology, or those new products may not achieve market acceptance. As a result, we could lose business, be forced to price products and services on less advantageous terms to retain or attract clients, or be subject to cost increases. As a result, our business, financial condition, or results of operations may be adversely affected.

The proceeds raised in this offering may not be sufficient to enable the Company to develop its business.

In order to achieve the Company's near and long-term goals, the Company will need to procure funds in addition to the amount raised in the Offering. There is no guarantee the Company will be able to raise such funds on acceptable terms or at all. If we are not able to raise sufficient capital in the future, we will not be able to execute our business plan, our continued operations will be in jeopardy and we may be forced to cease operations and sell or otherwise transfer all or substantially all of our remaining assets, which could cause an Investor to lose all or a portion of his or her investment. Even if we are able to raise additional capital in the future, there is no assurance that such amount will be sufficient or will be on favorable terms.

The speculative nature of our business could result in unpredictable results and a loss of your investment.

The water-soluble bags industry is extremely competitive, and the commercial success of any product is often dependent on factors beyond our control, including but not limited to market acceptance, distributor performance, and retailers' prominently shelving and selling our products. We may experience substantial cost overruns in manufacturing and marketing our products and may not have sufficient capital to meet our goals. We may also incur uninsured losses for liabilities which arise in the ordinary course of business, or which are unforeseen, including but not limited to trademark infringement, copyright infringement, patent infringement, product liability, and employment liability.

We may require more capital than we currently anticipate and if we are unable to secure such additional capital, the Company may fail, and you may lose your entire investment.

Our anticipated capital needs and the revenue we anticipate generating may not be sufficient in achieving our desired growth goals. We may not be able to generate as much revenue as is currently anticipated and our development costs may increase such that we may require more capital than we currently anticipate. If this were to occur, we may be forced to secure additional sources of capital. If we cannot secure the additional capital we may require, the Company may fail, which will result in the loss of your investment.

The Company's success depends on the experience and skill of the board of directors, its executive officers, and key employees.

In particular, the Company is dependent on Mike Latham, who is the President, Chief Growth Officer, Secretary, and Treasurer, and Cristian Olivares, who is the Chief Executive Officer, of the Company. The Company has entered into an employment agreement with Mike Latham and has not but may enter into an employment agreement with Cristian Olivares, although there can be no assurance that it will do so or that they will continue to be employed by the Company for a particular period of time. The loss of Mike Latham and/or Cristian Olivares could harm the Company's business, financial condition, cash flow and results of operations.

Although dependent on Mike Latham and Cristian Olivares, we do not have any key man life insurance policies on Mike Latham and Cristian Olivares.

We are dependent on Mike Latham and Cristian Olivares in order to conduct our operations and execute our business plan, however, we have not purchased any insurance policies with respect to them in the event of his death or disability. Therefore, if Latham and/or Olivares dies or become disabled, we will not receive any compensation to assist with such person's absence. The loss of such person could negatively affect our Company and our operations.

In order for the Company to compete and grow, it must attract, recruit, retain and develop the necessary personnel who have the needed experience.

Recruiting and retaining highly qualified personnel is critical to our success. These demands may require us to hire additional personnel and will require our existing management personnel to develop additional expertise. We face intense competition for personnel. The failure to attract and retain personnel or to develop such expertise could delay or halt the development and commercialization of our product candidates. If we experience difficulties in hiring and retaining personnel in key positions, we could suffer from delays in product development, loss of customers and sales and diversion of management resources, which could adversely affect operating results. Our consultants and advisors may be employed by third parties and may have commitments under consulting or advisory contracts with third parties that may limit their availability to us.

We are not subject to Sarbanes-Oxley regulations and lack the financial controls and safeguards required of public companies.

We do not have the internal infrastructure necessary, and are not required, to complete an attestation about our financial controls that would be required under Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002. There can be no assurance that there are no significant deficiencies or material weaknesses in the quality of our financial controls. We expect to incur additional expenses and diversion of management's time if and when it becomes necessary to perform the system and process evaluation, testing and remediation required in order to comply with the management certification and auditor attestation requirements.

We are subject to income taxes as well as non-income based taxes, such as payroll, sales, use, value-added, net worth, property and goods and services taxes, in the U.S.

Significant judgment is required in determining our provision for income taxes and other tax liabilities. In the ordinary course of our business, there are many transactions and calculations where the ultimate tax determination is uncertain. Although we believe that our tax estimates are reasonable: (i) there is no assurance that the final determination of tax audits or tax disputes will not be different from what is reflected in our income tax provisions, expense amounts for non-income based taxes and accruals and (ii) any material differences could have an adverse effect on our financial position and results of operations in the period or periods for which determination is made.

We have not prepared any audited financial statements.

Our independent accountant has reviewed our financial statements; however, our financial statements have not been audited and therefore have not been subject to the more rigorous review required by an audit. Accordingly, you have no audited financial information regarding our capitalization or assets or liabilities on which to make your investment decision. If you feel the information provided is insufficient, you should not invest in our Company.

The Company has indicated that it has engaged in certain transactions with related persons.

Please see the section of this Form C/A entitled "Transactions with Related Persons and Conflicts of Interest" for further details.

The development and commercialization of our water-soluble products is highly competitive.

We face competition with respect to any products that we may seek to develop or commercialize in the future. Our competitors include major companies worldwide. Many of our competitors have significantly greater financial, technical, and human resources than we have and superior expertise in research and development and marketing approved water-soluble products and thus may be better equipped than us to develop and commercialize water-soluble products. These competitors also compete with us in recruiting and retaining qualified personnel and acquiring technologies. Smaller or early-stage companies may also prove to be significant competitors, particularly through collaborative arrangements with large and established companies. Accordingly, our competitors may commercialize products more rapidly or effectively than we are able to, which would adversely affect our competitive position, the likelihood that our water-soluble products will achieve initial market acceptance and our ability to generate meaningful additional revenues from our products.

We rely on other companies to provide raw materials for our products.

We depend on these suppliers to meet our contractual obligations to our customers and conduct our operations. Our ability to meet our obligations to our customers may be adversely affected if suppliers do not provide the agreed-upon supplies or perform the agreed-upon services in compliance with customer requirements and in a timely and cost-effective manner. Likewise, the quality of our products may be adversely impacted if companies to whom we delegate manufacturing for our products, or from whom we acquire such items, do not provide raw materials which meet required specifications and perform to our and our customers' expectations. Our suppliers may be less likely than us to be able to quickly recover from natural disasters and other events beyond their control and may be subject to additional risks such as financial problems that limit their ability to conduct their operations. The risk of these adverse effects may be greater in circumstances where we rely on only one or two subcontractors or suppliers for a particular raw material.

Quality management plays an essential role in determining and meeting customer requirements, preventing defects, improving the Company's products and services, and maintaining the integrity of the data that supports the safety and efficacy of our products.

Our future success depends on our ability to maintain and continuously improve our quality management program. An inability to address a quality or safety issue in an effective and timely manner may also cause negative publicity, a loss of customer confidence in us or our current or future products, which may result in the loss of sales and difficulty in successfully launching new products. In addition, a successful claim brought against us in excess of available insurance or not covered by indemnification agreements, or any claim that results in significant adverse publicity against us, could have an adverse effect on our business and our reputation.

Our operations, if conducted outside of the U.S., are required to comply with the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act and similar anti-bribery laws in other jurisdictions and with U.S. and foreign export control, trade embargo and customs laws.

If we fail to comply with them, we could suffer civil and criminal sanctions.

We rely on various intellectual property rights, including patents and trademarks in order to operate our business.

Such intellectual property rights, however, may not be sufficiently broad or otherwise may not provide us a significant competitive advantage. In addition, the steps that we have taken to maintain and protect our intellectual property may not prevent it from being challenged, invalidated, circumvented or designed-around, particularly in countries where intellectual property rights are not highly developed or protected. In some circumstances, enforcement may not be available to us because an infringer has a dominant intellectual property position or for other business reasons, or countries may require compulsory licensing of our intellectual property. Our failure to obtain or maintain intellectual property rights that convey competitive advantage, adequately protect our intellectual property or detect or prevent circumvention or unauthorized use of such property, could adversely impact our competitive position and results of operations. We also rely on nondisclosure and noncompetition agreements with employees, consultants and other parties to protect, in part, trade secrets and other proprietary rights. There can be no assurance that these agreements will adequately protect our trade secrets and other proprietary rights and will not be breached, that we will have adequate remedies for any breach, that others will not independently develop substantially equivalent proprietary information or that third parties will not otherwise gain access to our trade secrets or other proprietary rights.

As we expand our business, protecting our intellectual property will become increasingly important. The protective steps we have taken may be inadequate to deter our competitors from using our proprietary information. In order to protect or enforce our patent rights, we may be required to initiate litigation against third parties, such as infringement lawsuits. Also, these third parties may assert claims against us with or without provocation. These lawsuits could be expensive, take significant time and could divert management's attention from other business concerns. The law relating to the scope and validity of claims in the technology field in which we operate is still evolving and, consequently, intellectual property positions in our industry are generally uncertain. We cannot assure you that we will prevail in any of these potential suits or that the damages or other remedies awarded, if any, would be commercially valuable.

From time to time, third parties may claim that one or more of our products or services infringe their intellectual property rights.

Any dispute or litigation regarding patents or other intellectual property could be costly and time-consuming due to the complexity of our technology and the uncertainty of intellectual property litigation and could divert our management and key personnel from our business operations. A claim of intellectual property infringement could force us to enter into a costly or restrictive license agreement, which might not be available under acceptable terms or at all, could require us to redesign our products, which would be costly and time-consuming, and/or could subject us to an injunction against development and sale of certain of our products or services. We may have to pay substantial damages, including damages for past infringement if it is ultimately determined that our products infringe on a third party's proprietary rights. Even if these claims are without merit, defending a lawsuit takes significant time, may be expensive and may divert management's attention from other business concerns. Any public announcements related to litigation or interference proceedings initiated or threatened against us could cause our business to be harmed. Our intellectual property portfolio may not be useful in asserting a counterclaim, or negotiating a license, in response to a claim of intellectual property infringement. In certain of our businesses, we rely on third party intellectual property licenses, and we cannot ensure that these licenses will be available to us in the future on favorable terms or at all.

Maintaining, extending and expanding our reputation and brand image are essential to our business success.

We seek to maintain, extend, and expand our brand image through marketing investments, including advertising and consumer promotions, and product innovation. Increasing attention on marketing could adversely affect our brand image. It could also lead to stricter regulations and greater scrutiny of marketing practices. Existing or increased legal or regulatory restrictions on our advertising, consumer promotions and marketing, or our response to those restrictions, could limit our efforts to maintain, extend and expand our brands. Moreover, adverse publicity about regulatory or legal action against us could damage our reputation and brand image, undermine our customers' confidence and reduce long-term demand for our products, even if the regulatory or legal action is unfounded or not material to our operations.

In addition, our success in maintaining, extending, and expanding our brand image depends on our ability to adapt to a rapidly changing media environment. We increasingly rely on social media and online dissemination of advertising campaigns. The growing use of social and digital media increases the speed and extent that information or misinformation and opinions can be shared. Negative posts or comments about us, our brands or our products on social or digital media, whether or not valid, could seriously damage our brands and reputation. If we do not establish, maintain, extend and expand our brand image, then our product sales, financial condition and results of operations could be adversely affected.

We must correctly predict, identify, and interpret changes in consumer preferences and demand, offer new products to meet those changes, and respond to competitive innovation.

Consumer preferences of our products change continuously. Our success depends on our ability to predict, identify, and interpret the tastes and habits of consumers and to offer products that appeal to consumer preferences. If we do not offer products that appeal to consumers, our sales and market share will decrease. We must distinguish between short-term fads, mid-term trends, and long-term changes in consumer preferences. If we do not accurately predict which shifts in consumer preferences will be long-term, or if we fail to introduce new and improved products to satisfy those preferences, our sales could decline. In addition, because of our varied customer base, we must offer an array of products that satisfy the broad spectrum of consumer preferences. If we fail to expand our product offerings successfully across product categories, or if we do not rapidly develop products in faster growing and more profitable categories, demand for our products could decrease, which could materially and adversely affect our product sales, financial condition, and results of operations.

In addition, achieving growth depends on our successful development, introduction, and marketing of innovative new products and line extensions. Successful innovation depends on our ability to correctly anticipate customer and consumer acceptance, to obtain, protect and maintain necessary intellectual property rights, and to avoid infringing the intellectual property rights of others and failure to do so could compromise our competitive position and adversely impact our business.

We are vulnerable to fluctuations in the price and supply of ingredients, packaging materials, and freight.

The prices of the ingredients, packaging materials and freight are subject to fluctuations in price attributable to, among other things, changes in supply and demand of raw materials and fuel prices. The sales prices to our customers are a delivered price. Therefore, changes in our input costs could impact our gross margins. Our ability to pass along higher costs through price increases to our customers is dependent upon competitive conditions and pricing methodologies employed in the various markets in which we compete. To the extent competitors do not also increase their prices, customers and consumers may choose to purchase competing products or may shift purchases to lower-priced private label or other value offerings which may adversely affect our results of operations.

We use significant quantities of raw materials, as well as packaging materials provided by third-party suppliers. We buy from a variety of producers and manufacturers, and alternate sources of supply are generally available. However, the supply and price are subject to market conditions and are influenced by other factors beyond our control. We do not have long-term contracts with many of our suppliers, and, as a result, they could increase prices or fail to deliver. The occurrence of any of the foregoing could increase our costs and disrupt our operations.

Substantial disruption to production at our third-party manufacturing and distribution facilities could occur.

A disruption in production at our third-party manufacturing facilities could have an adverse effect on our business. In addition, a disruption could occur at the facilities of our suppliers or distributors. The disruption could occur for many reasons, including fire, natural disasters, weather, water scarcity, manufacturing problems, disease, strikes, transportation or supply interruption, government regulation, cybersecurity attacks or terrorism. Alternative facilities with sufficient capacity or capabilities may not be available, may cost substantially more or may take a significant time to start production, each of which could negatively affect our business and results of operations.

Changes in raw material and manufacturing input prices could adversely affect our business and results of operations.

In the event that we sign into long-term sales contracts with any customer, we may have very limited ability to pass along fluctuations in costs to customers after pricing has been established. The cost of raw materials and energy can be volatile and are susceptible to rapid and substantial increases due to factors beyond our control, such as changing economic conditions, political unrest, instability in energy-producing nations, and supply and demand considerations. For example, if the cost of oil increases, our shipping costs may rise higher than expected, which may then be passed onto us from our third-party manufacturers and distributors, decreasing our operating margins. Raw material and energy price increases and general volatility could adversely affect our business and results of operations.

Product liability claims could adversely impact our business and reputation.

Our business exposes us to potential product liability risk, as well as warranty and recall claims that are inherent in the design, manufacture, sale and use of our products. We may sell products in industries such as retail, food and beverage, and supermarkets and grocery stores, where the impact of product liability risk is high. In the event our products actually or allegedly fail to perform as expected and we are subject to such claims above the amount of insurance coverage, outside the scope of our coverage, or for which we do not have coverage, our results of operations, as well as our reputation, could be adversely affected. Our products may be subject to recall for performance or safety-related issues. Product recalls subject us to harm to our reputation, loss of current and future customers, reduced revenue, and product recall costs. Product recall costs are incurred when we, either voluntarily or involuntarily, recall a product through a formal campaign to solicit the return of specific products due to a known or suspected performance issue. Any significant product recalls could have an adverse effect on our business and results of operations.

We may incur additional expenses and delays due to technical problems or other interruptions at our third-party manufacturing facilities.

Disruptions in operations due to technical problems or other interruptions such as floods or fire would adversely affect the manufacturing capacity of our third-party manufacturing partners. Such interruptions could cause delays in production and cause us to incur additional expenses such as charges for expedited deliveries for products that are delayed. Any such disruptions may adversely affect our business and results of operations.

The Company's business operations may be materially adversely affected by a pandemic such as the Coronavirus (COVID-19) outbreak.

In December 2019, a novel strain of coronavirus was reported to have surfaced in Wuhan, China, which spread throughout other parts of the world, including the United States. On January 30, 2020, the World Health Organization declared the outbreak of the coronavirus disease (COVID-19) a "Public Health Emergency of International Concern." On January 31, 2020, U.S. Health and Human Services Secretary Alex M. Azar II declared a public health emergency for the United States to aid the U.S. healthcare community in responding to COVID-19, and on March 11, 2020 the World Health Organization characterized the outbreak as a "pandemic." COVID-19 resulted in a widespread health crisis that adversely affected the economies and financial markets worldwide. The Company's business could be materially and adversely affected. The extent to which COVID-19 impacts the Company's business will depend on future developments, which are highly uncertain and cannot be predicted, including new information which may emerge concerning the severity of COVID-19 and the actions to contain COVID-19 or treat its impact, among others. If the disruptions posed by COVID-19 or other matters of global concern continue for an extended period of time, the Company's operations may be materially adversely affected.

We face risks related to health epidemics and other outbreaks, which could significantly disrupt the Company's operations and could have a material adverse impact on us.

The outbreak of pandemics and epidemics could materially and adversely affect the Company's business, financial condition, and results of operations. If a pandemic occurs in areas in which we have material operations or sales, the Company's business activities originating from affected areas, including sales, materials, and supply chain related activities, could be adversely affected. Disruptive activities could include the temporary closure of facilities used in the Company's supply chain processes, restrictions on the export or shipment of products necessary to run the Company's business, business closures in impacted areas, and restrictions on the Company's employees' or consultants' ability to travel and to meet with customers, vendors, or other business relationships. The extent to which a pandemic or other health outbreak impacts the Company's results will depend on future developments, which are highly uncertain and cannot be predicted, including new information which may emerge concerning the severity of a virus and the actions to contain it or treat its impact, among others. Pandemics can also result in social, economic, and labor instability which may adversely impact the Company's business.

If the Company's employees or employees of any of the Company's vendors, suppliers or customers become ill or are quarantined and in either or both events are therefore unable to work, the Company's operations could be subject to disruption. The extent to which a pandemic affects the Company's results will depend on future developments that are highly uncertain and cannot be predicted.

Risks Related to the Securities

Neither the Offering nor the Securities have been registered under federal or state securities laws, leading to an absence of certain regulation applicable to the Company.

No governmental agency has reviewed or passed upon this Offering, the Company or any Securities of the Company. The Company also has relied on exemptions from securities registration requirements under applicable state securities laws. Investors in the Company, therefore, will not receive any of the benefits that such registration would otherwise provide. Prospective investors must therefore assess the adequacy of disclosure and the fairness of the terms of this Offering on their own or in conjunction with their personal advisors.

No Guarantee of Return on Investment

There is no assurance that a Purchaser will realize a return on its investment or that it will not lose its entire investment. For this reason, each Purchaser should read the Form C/A and all Exhibits carefully and should consult with its own attorney and business advisor prior to making any investment decision.

The terms of this Offering have been arbitrarily determined.

If you purchase the securities in this Offering, you will pay a price that was not established in a competitive market. Rather, you will pay a price that was arbitrarily determined by us. The Offering price for the Securities may bear no relationship to our assets, book value, historical results of operations or any other established criterion of value and may not be indicative of the fair value of the securities. The trading price, if any, of the Securities that may prevail in any market that may develop in the future, for which there can be no assurance, may be higher or lower than the price you pay.

The Crowd Notes will not be freely tradable until one year from the initial purchase date. Although the Crowd Notes may be tradable under federal securities law, state securities regulations may apply, and each Purchaser should consult with his or her attorney.

You should be aware of the long-term nature of this investment. There is not now and likely will not be a public market for the Crowd Notes. Because the Crowd Notes have not been registered under the Securities Act or under the securities laws of any state or non-United States jurisdiction, the Crowd Notes have transfer restrictions and cannot be resold in the United States except pursuant to Rule 501 of Regulation CF. It is not currently contemplated that registration under the Securities Act or other securities laws will be effected. Limitations on the transfer of the Crowd Notes may also adversely affect the price that you might be able to obtain for the Crowd Notes in a private sale. Purchasers should be aware of the long-term nature of their investment in the Company. Each Purchaser in this Offering will be required to represent that it is purchasing the Securities for its own account, for investment purposes and not with a view to resale or distribution thereof.

No public market for our Securities currently exists, and an active trading market may not develop or be sustained following this Offering.

A public market does not currently exist for the Securities, and we cannot predict whether an active market for our Securities will ever develop in the future. In the absence of an active trading market, investors may have substantial difficulty selling their Securities or any securities underlying the Securities or getting any liquidity on their investment.

The lack of an active market impairs our investors' ability to sell the Securities at the time they wish to sell them or at a price that they consider reasonable. The lack of an active market may also reduce the fair market value of shares of the Securities. An inactive market may also impair our ability to raise capital to continue to fund operations by selling additional Securities or any other of our securities and may impair our ability to expand our operations through acquisitions by using our securities as consideration.

Purchasers will be unable to declare the Security in "default" and demand repayment.

Unlike convertible notes and some other securities, the Securities do not have any "default" provisions upon which the Purchasers will be able to demand repayment of their investment. With respect to Purchasers who invest less than $25,000 in the Securities, the Company has ultimate discretion as to whether or not to convert the Securities upon a future equity financing and such Purchasers have no right to demand such conversion. Only in limited circumstances, such as a liquidity event, may such Purchasers demand payment and even then, such payments will be limited to the amount of cash available to the Company.

You will not have a vote or influence on the management of the Company.

All decisions with respect to the management of the Company will be made exclusively by the officers, directors, managers, or employees of the Company. You, as a Purchaser of Crowd Notes, will have no ability to vote on issues of Company management and will not have the right or power to take part in the management of the company and will not be represented on the board of directors or managers of the Company. Accordingly, no person should purchase a Security unless he or she is willing to entrust all aspects of management to the Company.

The Company may never elect to convert the Securities or undergo a liquidity event.

The Company may never receive a future equity financing or, with respect to those Purchasers who invest less than $25,000, elect to convert the Securities upon such future financing. In addition, the Company may never undergo a liquidity event such as a sale of the Company or an initial public offering ("IPO"). If neither the conversion of the Securities nor a liquidity event occurs, the Purchasers could be left holding the Securities in perpetuity. The Securities have numerous transfer restrictions and will likely be highly illiquid, with no secondary market on which to sell them. The Securities are not equity interests, have no ownership rights, have no rights to the Company's assets or profits and have no voting rights or ability to direct the Company or its actions.

Upon conversion of the Crowd Notes, Purchasers who are not "Major Investors" will grant a proxy to vote their underlying securities to the Intermediary or its affiliate, and, thus, will not have the right to vote on any matters coming before the holders of the Company's membership units for a vote. By granting this proxy you are giving up your right to vote on important matters, including significant corporate actions like mergers, amendments to our certificate of formation, a liquidation of our Company and the election of our directors.

Upon conversion of the Crowd Notes and by virtue of a provision contained in the Crowd Notes, if you are not a Major Investor, that is, an investor who has purchased at least $25,000 in principal amount of the Crowd Notes, you will grant a proxy to the intermediary or its affiliate to vote the underlying securities that you will acquire upon conversion on all matters coming before the holders of the Company's membership units for a vote. The intermediary does not have any fiduciary duty to you to vote membership units of the Company in a manner that is in your best interests. Accordingly, the intermediary may vote its proxy in a manner that may not be in the best interests of you as a security holder. For example, the intermediary may vote the proxy in favor of an amendment to our charter that adversely affects the rights of the holders of your class of securities in order to allow for a new investment to occur where the new investor requires senior rights.

Affiliates of the Company, including officers, directors, and existing members of the Company, may invest in this Offering and their funds will be counted toward the Company achieving the Minimum Amount.

There is no restriction on affiliates of the Company, including its officers, directors and existing members, investing in the Offering. As a result, it is possible that if the Company has raised some funds, but not reached the Minimum Amount, affiliates can contribute the balance so that there will be a closing. The Minimum Amount is typically intended to be a protection for investors and gives investors confidence that other investors, along with them, are sufficiently interested in the Offering and the Company and its prospects to make an investment of at least the Minimum Amount. By permitting affiliates to invest in the offering and make up any shortfall between what non-affiliate investors have invested and the Minimum Amount, this protection is largely eliminated. Investors should be aware that no funds other than their own and those of affiliates investing along with them may be invested in this Offering.

A majority of the Company is owned by a small number of owners.

Prior to the Offering, the Company's current owners of 20% or more beneficially own up to 82.44% of the Company. Subject to any fiduciary duties owed to our other owners or investors under Florida law, these owners may be able to exercise significant influence over matters requiring owner approval, including the election of directors or managers and approval of significant Company transactions, and will have significant control over the Company's management and policies. Some of these persons may have interests that are different from yours. For example, these owners may support proposals and actions with which you may disagree. The concentration of ownership could delay or prevent a change in control of the Company or otherwise discourage a potential acquirer from attempting to obtain control of the Company, which in turn could reduce the price potential investors are willing to pay for the Company. In addition, these owners could use their voting influence to maintain the Company's existing management, delay or prevent changes in control of the Company, or support or reject other management and board proposals that are subject to owner approval.

The Company has the right to conduct multiple closings during the Offering.

If the Company meets certain terms and conditions an intermediate close of the Offering can occur, which will allow the Company to draw down on a portion of the proceeds of the offering committed and captured during the relevant period. The Company may choose to continue the Offering thereafter. Purchasers should be mindful that this means they can make multiple investment commitments in the offering, which may be subject to different cancellation rights. For example, if an intermediate close occurs and later a material change occurs as the Offering continues, Purchasers previously closed upon will not have the right to re-confirm their investment as it will be deemed completed.

The Company has the right to extend the Offering deadline. The Company has the right to end the Offering early.

The Company may extend the Offering deadline beyond what is currently stated herein. This means that your investment may continue to be held in escrow while the Company attempts to raise the Target Amount even after the Offering deadline stated herein is reached. While you have the right to cancel your investment in the event the Company extends the Offering, if you choose to reconfirm your investment, your investment will simply be held until such time as the new Offering deadline is reached without the Company receiving the Target Amount, at which time it will be returned to you without interest or deduction, or the Company receives the Target Amount, at which time it will be released to the Company to be used as set forth herein. Upon or shortly after release of such funds to the Company, the Securities will be issued and distributed to you.

The Company may also end the Offering early; if the Offering reaches its target Offering amount after 30-calendar days but before the deadline, the Company can end the Offering with five business days' notice. This means your failure to participate in the Offering in a timely manner, may prevent you from being able to participate – it also means the Company may limit the amount of capital it can raise during the Offering by ending it early.

In addition to the risks listed above, businesses are often subject to risks not foreseen or fully appreciated by the management. It is not possible to foresee all risks that may affect us. Moreover, the Company cannot predict whether the Company will successfully effectuate the Company's current business plan. Each prospective Purchaser is encouraged to carefully analyze the risks and merits of an investment in the Securities and should take into consideration when making such analysis, among other, the Risk Factors discussed above.

THE SECURITIES OFFERED INVOLVE A HIGH DEGREE OF RISK AND MAY RESULT IN THE LOSS OF YOUR ENTIRE INVESTMENT. ANY PERSON CONSIDERING THE PURCHASE OF THESE SECURITIES SHOULD BE AWARE OF THESE AND OTHER FACTORS SET FORTH IN THIS FORM C/A AND SHOULD CONSULT WITH HIS OR HER LEGAL, TAX AND FINANCIAL ADVISORS PRIOR TO MAKING AN INVESTMENT IN THE SECURITIES. THE SECURITIES SHOULD ONLY BE PURCHASED BY PERSONS WHO CAN AFFORD TO LOSE ALL OF THEIR INVESTMENT.

Operations

The Company sells water soluble bag products to commercial customers. In order to facilitate its sales strategy, the company offers potential customers product samples. Upon receiving an order for its products, Solubag sends an order request to one of its manufacturing partners, who fulfills the order. The Company believes this strategy is financially beneficial in order to reduce its capital expenditures.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

To fund its operations, the company has raised capital by issuing a convertible note and Class C Common Stock. The company devotes considerable resources to inventory and compensation and anticipates needing capital to increase its inventory of product samples and to execute large order requests.

As of March 2023, the company had $83,000 of cash on hand. The Company does not have any other material sources of capital aside from this capital raise.

Capital Expenditures and Other Obligations

The Company does not intend to make any material capital expenditures in the future.

Trends and Uncertainties

After reviewing the above discussion of the steps the Company intends to take, potential Purchasers should consider whether achievement of each step within the estimated time frame is realistic in their judgment. Potential Purchasers should also assess the consequences to the Company of any delays in taking these steps and whether the Company will need additional financing to accomplish them.

The financial statements are an important part of this Form C/A and should be reviewed in their entirety. The financial statements of the Company are attached hereto as Exhibit A.

THE OFFERING AND THE SECURITIES

The Offering

The Company is offering up to $1,235,000 in principal amount of Crowd Notes. The Company is attempting to raise a minimum amount of $25,000 in this Offering (the "Minimum Amount"). The Company must receive commitments from investors in an amount totaling the Minimum Amount by November 13, 2023 (the "Offering Deadline") in order to receive any funds. If the sum of the investment commitments does not equal or exceed the Minimum Amount by the Offering Deadline, no Securities will be sold in the Offering, investment commitments will be cancelled and committed funds will be returned to potential investors without interest or deductions. The Company has the right to extend the Offering Deadline at its discretion. The Company will accept investments in excess of the Minimum Amount up to $1,235,000 (the "Maximum Amount"), and the additional Securities will be allocated at the Company's discretion.

The price of the Securities does not necessarily bear any relationship to the asset value, net worth, revenues, or other established criteria of value, and should not be considered indicative of the actual value of the Securities.

In order to purchase the Securities, you must make a commitment to purchase by completing the Subscription Agreement. Purchaser funds will be held in escrow with Silicon Valley Bank, a division of First-Citizens Bank & Trust Company, until the Minimum Amount of investments is reached. Purchasers may cancel an investment commitment until forty-eight (48) hours prior to a closing or the Offering Deadline, whichever comes first, using the cancellation mechanism provided by the Intermediary. The Company will notify Purchasers when the Minimum Amount has been reached. If the Company reaches the Minimum Amount prior to the Offering Deadline, it may close the Offering at least five (5) days after reaching the Minimum Amount and providing notice to the Purchasers.

If any material change (other than reaching the Minimum Amount) occurs related to the Offering prior to the Offering Deadline, the Company will provide notice to Purchasers and receive reconfirmations from Purchasers who have already made commitments. If a Purchaser does not reconfirm his or her investment commitment after a material change is made to the terms of the Offering, the Purchaser's investment commitment will be cancelled, and the committed funds will be returned without interest or deductions.

In the event that at least $75,000 in investments is committed and received and more than thirty (30) days remain before the Offering Deadline, the Company may, at the discretion of the Intermediary, conduct the first of multiple closings of the Offering (an "Intermediate Close") and withdraw funds, provided that all investors receive notice that an Intermediate Close will occur and funds will be released to the Company, at least five (5) business days prior to the Intermediate Close (absent a material change that would require an extension of the offering and reconfirmation of the investment commitment). Investors who committed on or before such notice will have until 48 hours before the Intermediate Close to cancel their investment commitment.

Thereafter, the Company may, at the discretion of the Intermediary, only conduct another Intermediate Close before the Offering Deadline if (i) the amount of investment commitments made and received exceeds $125,000 since the time of the last Intermediate Close, and (ii) more than thirty (30) days remain before the Offering Deadline.

The Company has agreed to return all funds to investors in the event a Form C-W is ultimately filed in relation to this Offering, regardless of any subsequent closes.

If a Purchaser does not cancel an investment commitment before an Intermediate Close or before the Offering Deadline, the funds will be released to the Company upon the closing of the Offering, and the Purchaser will receive the Securities in exchange for his or her investment. Any Purchaser funds received after the initial closing will be released to the Company upon a subsequent closing, and the Purchaser will receive Securities in exchange for his or her investment as soon as practicable thereafter.

Subscription Agreements are not binding on the Company until accepted by the Company, which reserves the right to reject, in whole or in part, in its sole and absolute discretion, any subscription. If the Company rejects all or a portion of any subscription, the applicable prospective Purchaser's funds will be returned without interest or deduction.

The price of the Securities was determined arbitrarily. The minimum amount that a Purchaser may invest in the Offering is $250.00.

The Offering is being made through MicroVenture Marketplace Inc., the Intermediary. The following two fields below set forth the compensation being paid in connection with the Offering.

Commission/Fees

The Company shall pay to the Intermediary at the conclusion of the Offering a fee consisting of five percent (5%) commission based on the amount of investments raised in the Offering and paid upon disbursement of funds from escrow at the time of closing.

Stock, Warrants and Other Compensation

The Intermediary will receive a number of Crowd Notes of the Issuer that is equal to two percent (2%) of the total number of Crowd Notes sold by the Issuer in the Offering.

Transfer Agent and Registrar

The Company will act as transfer agent and registrar for the Securities.

The Securities

We request that you please review our offering materials and the Crowd Note instrument(s) in conjunction with the following summary information.

Not Currently Equity Interests

The Securities are not currently equity interests in the Company and can be thought of as the right to receive equity at some point in the future upon the occurrence of certain events.

Valuation Cap

$50 million

Dividends

The Securities do not entitle the Investors to any dividends.

General

A Crowd Note is similar to a SAFE (Simple Agreement for Future Equity) security where an investor makes a cash investment in our company but receives company stock at a later date in connection with a specific event. Although the security is called a Crowd Note, the Crowd Note is not a debt instrument. It is intended to be an alternative to a convertible note.

Events Triggering Conversion of Crowd Notes

If you are a Major Investor, which is defined as an investor who invests at least $25,000 in this offering, then the specified event upon which the Crowd Notes would convert into capital stock of our company is (i) a Qualified Equity Financing, which we define below, or (ii) a Corporate Transaction, which we define below, if instead of receiving two times (2X) the outstanding principal of your Crowd Note, your Crowd Note converts immediately prior to the closing of the Corporate Transaction.

If you are not a Major Investor, then the Crowd Notes will only convert into capital stock of our company upon the earlier of (i) our company's election to convert your Crowd Note, including upon a Qualified Equity Financing if our company elects to convert your Crowd Note then, or (ii) a Corporate Transaction, if instead of receiving two times (2X) the outstanding principal of your Crowd Note, your Crowd Note converts immediately prior to the closing of the Corporate Transaction.

Qualified Equity Financing

The Crowd Note defines "Qualified Equity Financing" as the first sale (or series of related sales) by us of our preferred stock following the closing of this offering from which we receive gross proceeds of not less than $1,000,000.00 (excluding the aggregate amount of securities converted into preferred stock in connection with such sale (or series of related sales)).

If the Crowd Note converts into equity in connection with a Qualified Equity Financing, then we will convert the Crowd Note into shares of our preferred stock that are issued in connection with the Qualified Equity Financing, which we refer to as Conversion Shares, equal to the quotient obtained by dividing the outstanding principal amount of the Crowd Note by the Conversion Price, which is defined below. The issuance of Conversion Shares will be on the same terms and conditions applicable to the stock sold in the Qualified Equity Financing; provided, however, that if you are not a Major Investor, you will receive shares of a shadow series, as we describe below, with certain limited rights. The Conversion Price applicable to a Qualified Equity Financing is the lower of:

- (i) the product of (a) one minus any applicable Discount, and (b) the price paid per share for preferred stock by the investors in the Qualified Equity Financing, or
- (ii) the quotient resulting from dividing (a) the Valuation Cap by (b) the total number of our shares of capital stock that are outstanding on a fully diluted basis (assuming for this purpose the exercise, exchange, or conversion of all securities exercisable or exchangeable for, or convertible into, our capital stock), immediately prior to the closing of the Qualified Equity Financing.

Any investor who is not a Major Investor will receive a shadow series of preferred stock upon conversion of such investor's Crowd Note. A shadow series is a series of our preferred stock that is identical in all respects to the shares of preferred stock issued in the Qualified Equity Financing (e.g., if the Company sells Series A Preferred Stock in the Qualified Equity Financing, the shadow series would be Series A-1 Preferred Stock), except that the liquidation preference per share of the shadow series shall equal the Conversion Price and the following additional differences will apply:

(i) shadow series shareholders will grant their vote on any matter that is submitted to a vote or for the consent of the stockholders of our company (except for on matters required by law) by irrevocable proxy; and

(ii) shadow series shareholders will receive quarterly business updates from the company through the Platform but will have no additional information or inspection rights (except with respect to such rights which are required by law).

Corporate Transaction and Corporate Transaction Payment

The Crowd Note defines “Corporate Transaction” as:

(i) the closing of the sale, transfer, or other disposition of all or substantially all of our assets,

(ii) the consummation of the merger or consolidation of our company with or into another entity (except a merger or consolidation in which the holders of capital stock of our company immediately prior to such merger or consolidation continue to hold at least 50% of the voting power of the capital stock of our company or the surviving or acquiring entity),

(iii) the closing of the transfer (whether by merger, consolidation or otherwise), in one transaction or a series of related transactions, to a person or group of affiliated persons (other than an underwriter of our securities), of securities of our company if, after such closing, such person or group of affiliated persons would hold 50% or more of the outstanding voting stock of our company (or the surviving or acquiring entity), or

(iv) the initial public offering, liquidation, dissolution or winding up of our company; provided, however, that a transaction shall not constitute a Corporate Transaction if its sole purpose is to change the state of our incorporation or to create a holding company that will be owned in substantially the same proportions by the persons who held our securities immediately prior to such transaction.

In the event of a Corporate Transaction (defined above), you will receive the higher value of (i) an amount equal to two times (2X) the price you paid for your Crowd Note (i.e., 2X your principal amount) or (ii) the number of shares of preferred stock of the Company calculated by (a) multiplying the price you paid for your Crowd Note by the total number of our shares of capital stock that are outstanding on a fully diluted basis (assuming for this purpose the exercise, exchange or conversion of all securities exercisable or exchangeable for, or convertible into, our capital stock), immediately prior to the closing of the Qualified Equity Financing, and (b) dividing the product of that calculation by the Valuation Cap.

If there are not enough funds to pay you and other Crowd Note investors in full, then proceeds from the respective transaction will be distributed with equal priority and pro rata among the Crowd Note investors in proportion to their Purchase Price.

Termination of Crowd Note

The Crowd Notes will terminate upon the earlier of (i) a conversion of the entire purchase price under the Crowd Notes into Conversion Shares; or (ii) the payment of amounts due to the investor pursuant to a Corporate Transaction.

No Voting Rights, No Shareholders Agreement and No Anti-Dilution Rights

The Crowd Notes do not have any voting rights. Further, upon conversion of the Crowd Notes into Conversion Shares, shadow series shareholders shall grant their vote on any matter that is submitted to a vote or for the consent of the members of the Company (except for on matters required by law) by irrevocable proxy.

The Company does not have any shareholder/equity holder agreements in place.

The Securities do not have anti-dilution rights.

Restrictions on Transfer

Any Securities sold pursuant to Regulation CF being offered may not be transferred by any Purchaser of such Securities during the one-year holding period beginning when the Securities were issued, unless such Securities are transferred: (i) to the Company, (ii) to an accredited investor, as defined by Rule 501(d) of Regulation D promulgated under the Securities Act, (iii) as part of an IPO or (iv) to a member of the family of the Investor or the equivalent, to a trust controlled by the Purchaser, to a trust created for the benefit of a member of the family of the Investor or the equivalent, or in connection with the death or divorce of the Investor or other similar circumstances. “Member of the family” as used herein means a child, stepchild, grandchild, parent, stepparent, grandparent, spouse or spousal equivalent, sibling, mother / father / daughter / son / sister / brother-in-law and includes adoptive relationships. Remember that although you may legally be able to transfer the Securities, you may not be able to find another party willing to purchase them.

Additional Transfer Restrictions

Prior to making any transfer of the Securities or any Securities into which they are convertible, such transferring Purchaser must either make such transfer pursuant to an effective registration statement filed with the SEC or provide the Company with an opinion of counsel stating that a registration statement is not necessary to effect such transfer.

The Purchaser may not transfer the Securities or any Securities into which they are convertible to any of the Company’s competitors, as determined by the Company in good faith.

IPO Lock Up

Upon the event of an IPO, the capital stock into which the Securities are converted will be subject to a lock-up period and may not be sold for up to 180 days following such IPO.

Other Material Terms

The Company does not have the right to repurchase the Securities.

SOLUBAG USA, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (UNAUDITED)
DECEMBER 31, 2022 & 2021

NOTE A- ORGANIZATION AND NATURE OF ACTIVITIES

Solubag USA, Inc. ("the Company") is a corporation organized under the State of Florida. The Company specializes in the development of eco-friendly, water-soluble materials to minimize the use of plastics and bio-based substitutes.

In 2021, the Company reorganized as a Florida corporation. Previously, the Company was organized as a Delaware corporation. Solubag, SPA holds a majority ownership in the Company.

NOTE B- GOING CONCERN MATTERS

The financial statements have been prepared on the going concern basis, which assumes that the Company will continue in operation for the foreseeable future. However, management has identified the following conditions and events that created an uncertainty about the ability of the Company to continue as a going concern. The Company sustained net operating losses in 2022 of $617,204 and 2021 of $877,243.

The following describes management's plans that are intended to mitigate the conditions and events that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. The Company plans to raise funds to continue operations through a Reg CF offering. The Company's ability to meet its obligations as they become due is dependent upon the success of management's plans, as described above.

These conditions and events create an uncertainty about the ability of the Company to continue as a going concern through May 16, 2024 (one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued). The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might be necessary should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern.

NOTE C- SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("US GAAP"). The Company's fiscal year ends December 31.

Significant Risks and Uncertainties

The Company is subject to customary risks and uncertainties associated with development of new technology including, but not limited to, the need for protection of intellectual property, dependence on key personnel, costs of services provided by third parties, the need to obtain additional financing, and limited operating history.

SOLUBAG USA, INC.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Changes in estimates are recorded in the period they are made. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include all cash balances, and highly liquid investments with maturities of three months or less when purchased.

Inventory

The Company values inventory at the lower of historic cost or market value.

Accounts Receivable

The Company grants trade credit to certain customers when business conditions warrant. Management's experience suggests that losses on accounts receivables are likely to be infrequent. As of December 31, 2022, the Company has accrued a reserve of $0 for doubtful accounts.

Related Party Notes Receivable

In prior years, the Company issued a series of promissory notes to related parties in exchange for cash ("the Related Party Note Receivable"), to be received at a later date. The receivables do not accrue interest and have no scheduled repayment due date. As of December 31, 2022, the Company has accrued a reserve of $0 for doubtful accounts.

Related Party Transactions

The Company entered into an agreement to license intellectual property from Solubag, SPA which is described further in the Intellectual Property disclosure mentioned below on page 7.

Advertising

The Company records advertising expenses in the year incurred.

Revenue

ASC Topic 606, "Revenue from Contracts with Customers" establishes principles for reporting information about the nature, amount, timing and uncertainty of revenue and cash flows arising from the entity's contracts to provide goods or services to customers. Revenues are recognized when control of the promised goods or services are transferred to a customer, in an amount that reflects the consideration that the Company expects to receive in exchange for those goods or services. The Company applies the following five steps in order to determine the appropriate amount of revenue to be recognized as it fulfills its obligations under each of its agreements: 1) identify the contract with a customer; 2) identify the performance obligations in the contract; 3) determine the transaction price; 4) allocate the transaction price to performance obligations in the contract; and 5) recognize revenue as the performance obligation is satisfied.

SOLUBAG USA, INC.

Revenue streams have been derived from the sale of its film and fabric bags.

Rent & Security Deposit

The Company occupied office space under a non-cancellable operating lease. The lease expired on September 30, 2022, and was not renewed at the option of the Company.

As part of the lease arrangement, a refundable security deposit was paid amounting to $8,910. After the lease expired, the Company was refunded its security deposit.

Royalties Expense

The Company's royalty-based obligations were used to offset a portion of the notes receivable from its licensor, Solubag SPA, amounting to $18,556.

Intellectual Property

During 2020, the Company entered into an agreement to license certain intellectual property from Solubag SPA, which includes rights to trademarks and the use of patents ("the Intellectual Property").

The 2020 Intellectual Property agreement calls for 5.0% of net sales for products, services, or processes that are manufactured or offered under the license, to be paid to the licensor as a royalty. Such royalties will be payable at the end of each quarter.

Unearned Revenue

During 2021, the Company received revenue advances for future sales. Once performance obligations are met, revenue advances are recognized as income.

In 2022, the Company took the revenue advances into income after performance obligations were met.

Deferred Compensation

The Company settled with certain founding members to defer their compensation and to take payment at a later date.

Equity Based Compensation

The Company accounts for stock options issued to employees under ASC 718 (Stock Compensation). Under ASC 718, share-based compensation cost to employees is measured at the grant date, based on the estimated fair value of the award, and is recognized as an item of expense ratably over the employee's requisite vesting period. The Company has elected early adoption of ASU 2018-07, which permits measurement of stock options at their intrinsic value, instead of their fair value. An option's intrinsic value is defined as the amount by which the fair value of the underlying stock exceeds the exercise price of an option. In certain cases, this means that option compensation granted by the Company may have an intrinsic value of $0.

SOLUBAG USA, INC.

The Company measures compensation expense for its non-employee stock-based compensation under ASC 505 (Equity). The fair value of the option issued or committed to be issued is used to measure the transaction, as this is more reliable than the fair value of the services received. The fair value is measured at the value of the Company's common stock on the date that the commitment for performance by the counterparty has been reached or the counterparty's performance is complete. The fair value of the equity instrument is charged directly to expense and credited to additional paid-in capital.

Income Taxes

The Company is subject to tax filing requirements as a corporation in the federal jurisdiction of the United States. The Company sustained net operating losses during fiscal years 2022 and 2021. Net operating losses will be carried forward to reduce taxable income in future years. Due to management's uncertainty as to the timing and valuation of any benefits associated with the net operating loss carryforwards, the Company has elected to recognize an allowance to account for them in the financial statements, but has fully reserved it. Under current law, net operating losses may be carried forward indefinitely.

The Company is subject to franchise tax filing requirements in the State of Florida.

Net Income Per Share

Net earnings or loss per share is computed by dividing net income or loss by the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding during the period, excluding shares subject to redemption or forfeiture. The Company presents basic and diluted net earnings or loss per share. Diluted net earnings or loss per share reflect the actual weighted average of common shares issued and outstanding during the period, adjusted for potentially dilutive securities outstanding. Potentially dilutive securities are excluded from the computation of the diluted net loss per share if their inclusion would be anti-dilutive.

NOTE D- DEBT

Convertible Note

In 2020, the company issued a convertible promissory note in exchange for cash for the purpose of funding continuing operations. The Note and any associated accrued interest converted to equity automatically upon the conditions set forth in the agreement. The note accrued interest at the rate of 20% per annum and its total outstanding amount was converted into equity in 2021 amounting to $512,835.

NOTE E- EQUITY

Under the Company's Amended Articles of Incorporation, the Company is authorized to issue up to 16,000,000 shares of $0.00001 par-value Common Stock. Common Stock is divided into 10,000,000 shares of Class A Common Stock, and 3,000,000 shares of Class B Common Stock,

After the reorganization of the Company, management was made aware of an administrative error which omitted the Class C Common Stock from the Amended Articles of Incorporation. As a result, management filed an amendment with the state to correct the inaccuracy. As of this review report date, the filing has yet to be finalized by the state. Once the amendment is certified by the state, the company will be authorized to issue

Management considered events subsequent to the end of the period but before May 16, 2023, the date that the financial statements were available to be issued.

Subsequent to the period, the Company executed a non-cancellable operating lease for the use of warehouse space. WHY IT'S INTERESTING

When was the last time you used a plastic water bottle or carried your groceries with a plastic bag? The use of plastic is a forefront issue in contemporary news, and you've likely even seen commercials or news segments that highlight this problem. Plastic is almost too prevalent to stay clear from, as the world is producing about twice as much plastic waste as we were two decades ago.ⁱⁱ To put our plastic use into perspective, the world's oceans may contain more plastic than fish, measured by weight, by 2050 if we don't do anything to curb our reliance on plastic.ⁱⁱⁱ With nearly 200 million tons of plastic in our oceans today,^{iv} the use of harmful chemicals to produce the material,^v and the advent of microplastics in human blood,^{vi} plastic bans have begun to pop up in the last decade. Following California's ban of single use plastic bags in 2014, 10 U.S. states today have banned single use plastic bags, and many other states have enacted plastic bag fees to further limit their use.^{vii}

What if you could use a plastic bag and dissolve it in water once you are done? What if there was another way to create a plastic-like material without the negative environmental consequences and harmful chemicals that put us and our environment at risk? Solubag USA (Solubag) is the exclusive licensee in the U.S. of a patented raw material that can be used to make plastic-like products without the plastic. Completely dissolvable in water, this material can be used to make grocery bags, dog waste bags, liquidless laundry detergent, and more. Moreover, the technology behind its water-soluble products is completely non-toxic, meaning you can drink the water the soluble product dissolves in. Companies like H-E-B, Sysco, and Frutisa have already begun using this technology, which Solubag believes validates its market acceptance as it seeks to bring the technology to North America.

The company has already reported notable traction to date. In its first full year of business (2021), the company generated $20,936 in product sales, which increased approximately 1,500% in 2022 to $350,133. Since inception, Solubag has raised more than $1.7 million in investments and is currently seeking $1.235 million to further execute its strategy and distribute its products across North America.

EXECUTIVE SNAPSHOT

In 2014, Solubag SPA, based in Santiago, Chile, invented a proprietary new raw material, made of a synthesis of calcium carbide (limestone) and/or natural gas derivatives to potentially replace single-use plastic bags. This raw material can replace polyethylene film and non-woven propylene currently used for non-biodegradable, single-use shopping bags, bubble wrap, and other plastic products. Solubag is also developing rigid materials to create products for several market applications including feminine hygiene, golf, utensils, and beverages.

In 2020, Florida-based Solubag USA (which is controlled by Solubag SPA) was founded as the exclusive U.S. licensee of the award-winning water-soluble technology,^{viii} future pending patents, and other proprietary expertise owned by Solubag SPA.

COMPANY SUMMARY

Opportunity

Our reliance on single-use plastics is becoming a global climate and health issue. Recycling may be thought of as a solution to this issue, however recycling single-use plastics is facing a scaling issue over the upcoming years, according to a report released by the Minderoo Foundation.^{ix} Additionally, the sheer quantity of single-use plastics produced is too much to collect. Some of these single-use plastics, like the ones used by fast food restaurants, aren't even recyclable, according to a 2022 report by Greenpeace.^x

More specifically, our reliance on single-use plastic bags is astounding, as over 2 trillion plastic bags have been produced in 2023 thus far (through June 2023), which is the equivalent of 160,000 bags per second.^{xi} These plastics bags don't break down completely. Instead, they photo-degrade into tiny plastic particles called microplastics.^{xii} These particles, which are five millimeters or smaller in size,^{xiii} create several environmental problems as they can potentially emit toxic substances into the soil^{xiv} and water^{xv}—they can even be inhaled.^{xvi} On top of that, an estimated 300 million bags enter the Atlantic Ocean alone each year and stay in their complete form until eventually being broken down into microplastics, both of which can be devastating to hundreds of species such as seabirds, turtles, whales, and fish.^{xvii} Current estimates reveal that over one million marine animals die each year due to plastic debris in the ocean.^{xviii}

Founded in 2020, Solubag is on a mission to deliver environmentally friendly and water-soluble products to consumers around the world. The company offers a portfolio of non-toxic and plastic-free products including grocery bags, dog waste bags, and liquidless laundry detergent. All of which are made from natural substances that can be completely dissolved in water within minutes and even eaten by humans or animals without causing harm. The company was founded by a group of eco-conscious Chilean scientists, entrepreneurs, and managers who are passionate about finding solutions to the problems of plastic and its waste.

Product

Solubag produces 100% plastic-free products that are fully dissolvable and contain no microplastics, oils, or harmful toxins. The company's products are based on patented technology made from polyvinyl alcohol (PVA) and other natural substances, resulting in an environmentally friendly and water-soluble substance. Solubag has designed most of its products to dissolve almost instantly at temperatures of 185°F or above and more slowly over time (about five minutes) in any other liquid environment. Although it's not recommended, the company's bags can be eaten by animals or humans without harming them. Solubag's products range from thick to thin and from cold water-soluble to hot water-soluble, with the company providing several adjustment options across its product portfolio.

Traditional Bags

Solubag offers three variations of traditional bags including The Flat Bag, The T-Shirt Bag, and The Die-cut Bag. These bags can be dissolved instantly by placing them into 185°F water or more slowly in colder water.

The Flat Bag resembles the reusable bag many use at the grocery store. Compared to thinner bags, the Flat Bag is more resistant and can be reused multiple times. The bag is 16" x 14" and has a load capacity of 11.2 lbs.

The T-Shirt Bag is a variation of the standard plastic grocery bag. The bag can be reused multiple times, is 19.13" x 13" x 3", and has a load capacity of 8.81 lbs.

The Die-cut bag is a plastic-free bag designed to carry bottles or other cylinder-shaped objects. The bag can be reused multiple times, is 11.25" x 14.5", and has a load capacity of 13.22 lbs.

Gusset Bags

Solubag offers three plastic-free Gusset Bags which vary in size. These bags are made from PVA fabric which enable them to be more resistant and reused multiple times. Similar to the company's traditional bags, the Gusset Bags can be dissolved instantly by placing them into 185°F water or slower in colder water. The company's current size variations include:

- The Short Gusset – 15.25" x 11" x 4" and has a load capacity of 13.22 lbs.
- The Long Gusset – 12" x 15.25" x 4" and has a load capacity of 13.22 lbs.
- The Mega Gusset – 19.125" x 15.25" x 8" and has a load capacity of 17.6 lbs.

Dog Waste Bags

Solubag offers dissolvable dog waste bags that are plastic-free and non-toxic. The bags are cold water-soluble and completely dissolve in as little as five minutes. Furthermore, the bags can either be thrown in a trash can or flushed down a toilet. The company sells a starter package called the Blister which comes with a leash dispenser plus two rolls of 10 bags each. Replacement bags can be purchased in four packs or eight packs.

Liquidless Laundry Detergent

Solubag has developed a paper-like alternative to liquid laundry detergent which typically comes in plastic bottles or bags. Solubag's liquidless laundry detergent is non-toxic, plastic-free, and completely dissolves upon completion of a wash. The detergent is sold in packs of 24 strips (1 strip per load) and comes in an environmentally friendly box.

Laundry Bag

The Solubag Laundry Bag is a film-based bag that is both cold and hot water-soluble. The bag is fully constructed from the company's proprietary raw materials, resulting in a 100% eco-friendly solution upon dissolving. The laundry bag is currently sold in packs of four rolls, with each roll containing 25 bags.

USER TRACTION

IP Adoption

The Solubag IP has been used by notable customers, including H-E-B, Sysco, and Frutisa. It should be noted these customers did not purchase from Solubag USA, Inc., the issuer in this offering, but instead purchased from Solubag LATAM, a subsidiary of Solubag SPA and another licensee of the water-soluble bag technology, which conducts operations within Latin America. Solubag USA, the exclusive licensee of the technology within the U.S., views these international customers as validation for its efforts to win large accounts within the U.S.

Solubag has also seen traction from local governments and advocacy groups looking to ban or mitigate plastic bag usage. In 2023, the company agreed to provide Florida's Key Biscayne Community Foundation with its bags through an initiative called "Plastic Free Key Biscayne." According to Solubag, the foundation plans to give out its dissolvable bags to businesses and residents throughout the greater community.

INDUSTRY AND MARKET ANALYSIS

Green Technology and Sustainability

According to Precedence Research, the Green Technology and Sustainability market was valued at $46.54 billion in 2022 and is projected to grow at a 21.6% compound annual growth rate (CAGR) until 2030, at which point the industry is expected to be valued at $417.35 billion. Around the world, governments and corporations are adopting policies in favor of green technology in part due to the rise in carbon emissions. Water-Soluble Bags

The Water-Soluble Bags market consists of companies developing biodegradable bags that completely dissolve in cold and hot water. According to Future Market Insights, the industry was valued at $1.7 billion in 2022, projected to grow at a 5.6% CAGR over the next decade, becoming a $2.9 billion market in 2032. One of the primary materials used in creating water-soluble bags is polyvinyl alcohol (PVA), a biodegradable and water-soluble resin that reportedly dissolves in water and nature without leaving any waste behind. From 2022-2032, sales of PVA water-soluble bags are expected to double to $1.5 billion in 2032. The adoption of sustainable packaging solutions throughout the packaging industry is expected to drive sales throughout various industries including cosmetics, consumer goods, and personal care. Moreover, government intervention to reduce the consumption of single-use plastics is expected to accelerate growth in water-soluble bags.^{xxv}

Within thirty days of a final award by the single arbitrator, either party may appeal the award for reconsideration by a three-arbitrator panel. No administrator or arbitrator shall have the power or authority to waive, modify, or fail to enforce this paragraph, and any attempt to do so, whether by rule, policy, and arbitration decision or otherwise, shall be invalid and unenforceable. Any challenge to the validity of this paragraph shall be determined exclusively by a court and not by the administrator or any arbitrator. If this paragraph shall be deemed unenforceable, then any proceeding in the nature of a class action shall be handled in court, not in arbitration.

The Company's agreements with each Investor are separate agreements, and the sales of the Crowd Notes to each Investor are separate sales.

6. Dispute Resolution.

- a. General Rule. Any dispute under this Crowd Note will be resolved through arbitration, not through the court system. All arbitration will be conducted in the state in which the executive office of the Company is located at such time of dispute unless both parties agree otherwise in writing in a specific case. All arbitration will be conducted before a single arbitrator in following the rules of the American Arbitration Association. Except as required by law, neither a party nor the arbitrator may disclose the existence, content or results of any arbitration without the prior written consent of the other parties.

No party may join, consolidate, or otherwise bring claims for or on behalf of two or more individuals or unrelated corporate entities in the same arbitration unless those persons are parties to a single transaction. An award in arbitration shall determine the rights and obligations of the named parties only, and only with respect to the claims in arbitration, and shall not (i) determine the rights, obligations, or interests of anyone other than a named party, or resolve any claim of anyone other than a named party, or (ii) make an award for the benefit of, or against, anyone other than a named party. If this paragraph shall be deemed unenforceable, then any proceeding in the nature of a class action shall be handled in court, not in arbitration.

7. Approval. The Company hereby represents that its Board of Directors, in the exercise of its fiduciary duty, has approved the Company's execution of this Crowd Note based upon a reasonable belief that the Purchase Price provided hereunder is appropriate for the Company after reasonable inquiry concerning the Company's financing objectives and financial situation. Investor agrees that his or her electronic signature is the legal equivalent of his or her manual signature on this Crowd Note. The Solubag Revolution

In 2014, Solubag SPA, based in Santiago, Chile, invented a proprietary new raw material, made using a synthesis of calcium carbide and natural gas, designed to eliminate single-use plastic bags.

This raw material was developed to replace materials currently used for non-biodegradable, single-use plastic bags, other similar products, and non-soluble fabric used for reusable bags, face masks, and other PPE.

The environmentally friendly bags and other products manufactured by Solubag can be completely dissolved in hot water in less than a few minutes.

Solubag USA, Inc. is a Florida corporation headquartered in Key Biscayne, Florida. The Company is the exclusive licensee in the U.S. of certain patents and other proprietary expertise owned by Solubag SPA. The Company also anticipates to target Canada.

Mike Latham:

This is Mike Latham. I'm here with Cristian Olivares, our co-founder of Solubag. We want to eliminate single-use plastics within the industry globally. Solubag was founded in 2014 in Chile with four friends who were in the plastic industry, and everyone was excited to figure out a way to eliminate single-use plastics.

As it became a real problem not only in Chile but in Latin America, they come up, they came up with a raw material, polyvinyl alcohol, that substituted for plastic. It dissolves in water or dissolves in a landfill or a compostable facility. So, we have patents, not only on the process of making the bags but utility patents on each of our individual bags.

We're currently headquartered in Miami, Florida, and Solubag USA is the exclusive licensee in the United States and Canada for those patents that are owned by Solubag SPA. We currently have 3 verticals that we use: film bags, fabric bags, and rigid materials.

Our film bags look and behave like plastic. You'd never know they were not plastic, but they contain no plastic or microplastics and dissolve in water or in the landfills and compost facilities. The second are nonwoven reusable bags. They look exactly like the nonwoven bags in stores that you currently participate in; however, they dissolve in water or landfill or compost facilities.

They contain no harmful substances, no phthalates, no heavy metals. They're safe to ingest. It's a food grade material that's been determined by the FDA, and you've been using PVA pretty much your whole life. PVA surrounds the capsule of a vitamin, Listerine strip, a Tylenol capsule, eye drops, etcetera.

Our value proposition is that we do have patents on our raw material as well as our products. We've engineered it to dissolve in hot or cold water and we can temper the temperature of that raw material based upon the final use of the bag. We look for compounders that make our raw material as well as converters that convert the raw material and film into a final product like a bag or a firm product like a golf tee.

We have testing certifications by SGS. That's a world-renowned testing agency for no plastic, no microplastic, no phthalates, no heavy metals, safe to ingest, fully decomposes in a landfill or in a compost facility.

And the product is designed to be 100% environmentally friendly. And now I'd like to turn it over to our co-founder, Cristian Olivares.

Cristian Olivares:

OK, I will, I will talk a little bit about the vision of this company, how we start this. We start with four friends living in a country that ban plastic bag and was a social impact behind that nobody realized that there is a social impact behind when you eliminate the plastic bag.

A lot of people that live in cities in Chile use the plastic bag to throw the garbage. I use the plastic bag to throw my garbage and when you eliminate the plastic bag, you push these people to start buying garbage bags. The vision, the mission of this company was to create a solution for that social impact.

Because we were pushing people that do not have the money to buy plastic garbage bag and start using that instead of the free ones that everybody was using that all grocery store give for free. A big issue here was that the people were started to throw outside the house is the garbage was a big impact for the environment of the city, for everybody.

Communities do not understand, and they didn't realize that this will happen. And when you decide to eliminate single plastic, you have a solution behind and that is why we decide to make this invention. That is why we analyze all the materials that are in the market that are amazing materials like corn starch, PLA, sugarcane, and all the biodegradable materials that really, really performs and really are amazing.

But you need a possible facility to buy the goods. And when you make this analysis all around the world, even the United States or in Latin America, you will find only some places where you can dispose of biodegradable product. And that was our game changer when we decide to create Solubag solution.

Let's talk a little bit about the market. Everybody knows that this is a big market. What is happening? We need to have a solution right now, and we need to find a solution that really works.

Solubag is a solution that really works. Why? How Mike says, you can dispose this product in a compostable landfill because liquid or water will dissolve it or biodegrade. Or you can dispose this in a traditional landfill. That's amazing when you try to push a product in the market, because you don't change the behavior of the people. People have and maintain the same, doing the same.

But they know now they have a non-plastic material in their hands and they can dispose it wherever they want. If this bag go to the ocean, go to the river, go to the recycling bin, go to the garbage bin. Wherever it goes, when it starts touching water, will get dissolved.

Mike Latham:

So, the plastic bag market today is about $1.65 billion in 2021. It's got an annual growth rate of a little more than 12% and that's a projection between 2022 and 2030. The industry size by 2030 is almost $4.6 billion.ⁱ Keep in mind today that the plastic bag industry makes 5 trillion bags per year.ⁱⁱ All of those go either in a landfill or a compost facility where they don't degrade, or it is polluted into the environment, whether that's the waterways or on the earth somewhere.

The major drivers for our industry are increasing demand for renewable and bio-based raw materials, which we call our compound.... Government regulations, which you're seeing globally.ⁱⁱⁱ India has just recently banned bags.^{iv} Africa's banned bags. Canada banned plastic bags.^v

Delaware^{vi} and New Jersey^{vii} are the latest states that are banning bags and then some of the cities that have had the ban in place for a while or San Francisco, Seattle, Boston, Chicago, and Los Angeles.^{viii}

Cristian Olivares:

We can show some products that are ready to go to the market.

They are in the market. You can buy our products for the retail B2C side, and we have some products for the B2B side. Also, we're creating products like bubble wrap. We're creating envelopes for delivery for some clients, and these are the products that are right now in the market ready to go. You can go directly to our web page and buy these different products. We have doggie bags, reusable bags, and different types.

We have film bags like t-shirt, like laundry bags, and they're ready to go to the market, ready to scale the market, and you can go inside and see what are the Solubag products. You can Google "Solubag" if you want. You can see that we have created the first raw material and patented the raw material a few years ago.

We start going to the market. We were four years finishing the IP, try to have patents ready to go. We have patents that are issued.

We have three types of products. One in the flexible that is old packaging, film, bubble wrap, all that look like a plastic and it's in a flexible size. Then we have the fabric. With the fabric, we can make reducible bags we can make everything that looks like a normal traditional

Everything that look like a normal traditional polypropylene non-woven fabric. We have made different type of product, but we can develop anything that we want that look like a fabric, and you have the rigid size that is make products like golf tee products that are rigid. We are creating and developing different types of products that will reach the market in the future that we're working on the I.

For our company, the more important thing is create the IP before we launch the market to have a protection there and to be sure that our product will be unique in the market. Another thing that we create and we design when we create this company is that we can use the same raw material, the same machinery, that is right now processing plastic products.

If you are processing a bag in in polyethylene or in plastic, you only have to clean your machinery and start using Solubag raw material and you were able to make the same, the same product with the same characteristics of a traditional product but you will have this option or the Solubag characteristic.

That is amazing because make the company or make the product scale very fast because you have a lot of companies right now processing the traditional plastic and are coming a lot of laws, a lot of laws that are banning plastic bags and we can help the communities to this companies do not go down or broke.

This is another important thing for us that is help the industry to create 100% environmentally product. What that means is that we can scale, we can grow without investing in machinery, because we have the whole market ready to scale with us and would have all the industry ready to scale with us if we're able to do this.

Mike Latham:

So to distinguish the difference between our bag and biodegradable bag is our bags dissolve harmlessly in water. They're produced by a chemical reaction which is polyvinyl alcohol.

Dissolves in landfills and in compost facilities. We don't require contents to be separated. They can be ingested by animals safely. As we said earlier, it's a FDA food-grade material and it dissolves in the environment within days. Biodegradable bags don't dissolve in water. They require some type of food product which a lot of times is listed as starch.

So, in order to continue with biodegradable products, we have to grow food to make a bag versus growing food to feed the world. They do not decompose in a landfill. They are required to be placed into a compost facility. You've got to separate the contents because any type of waste such as like a dog waste bag, you can't place feces in a compost facility.

Animals or people cannot ingest the bag and it will never decompose if it's left in the environment, whether that's in the ocean or on the land.

So our marketing sales strategy is pretty simple. Today, we have sales associates that we pay commissions to around the country. We have a B2C side as Cristian mentioned earlier, and we use our website for that as well as SEO to drive sales to that. We've got a social media push with all the different social media platforms.

And our last is a license agreement strategy where we would sell our raw material to a manufacturer who already has a product that they sell to a customer and they literally change out their plastic resin with our resin, we then get a royalty on every product that they produce.

The management team is myself and Cristian. My background is in... I was a cancer researcher.

I met Cristian through a mutual friend who had been contacted by the Florida Economic Development Council looking for someone to help run this company in the U.S. And that's How I Met Cristian.

Cristian:

I'm an entrepreneur with 20 years doing startups, always in the environmental area.

I work with two other peoples. One is my brother-in-law who start this company trying to replace single-use plastic Solubag. I have created another one few years ago when I was in the college called Plastix with an "X". I recycle products in all Latin America and make final products and with the plastic garbage I made plastic products, end products.

I have been around the environmental thing my last 10-15 years, trying to find a product, try to find a product that really make it real impact, really is able to scale and make a global impact. That is what we're doing here. We want to make an important impact. We have people working with us, we have...

People from the different industries, we have a 1099 that are our sales team that are around United

State, and they work for us ,and they work with the purpose of the company. We choose people that like the company because of what we're doing and what we want to do and the final purpose that is pushed by the biodegradable environmental product in the market, but a real one that really worked and not these products that are amazing like biodegradable products are amazing. And in the future will be a bad impact and will be bad for the market.

That's what we do. We are... the purpose of this company is more important thing of this management team. We search people that have the same purpose, and we search people that understand what we want to do in the future.

In United States, we have this issued patents. We have the detergent strips composition. The detergent strip is what is...we eliminate the plastic of the plastic jar like this big 3 liters of liquid detergent. We take the plastic, the jar, and we put all this liquid with our raw material, and we create this...like this sheets or strips, and when the water touches the strip, it dissolves and release the concentrated detergent.

Then we have the water soluble shopping bag and the method that is issued. This is a film. It's a method to make the film and to create a shopping bag that is soluble. The dissolves in water and all the characteristics that we just explained.

We have pending a doggie bag that are flushable. It's a non-plastic doggie bag that is ready to go to the market now and the idea of this doggie bag is that you can use it or you can use ten, five, whatever you want, but you are using a non-plastic material that will make you feel comfortable because we're not using traditional plastic.
