Summary

20 years experience in Enterprise Tech and Start-Ups in international markets. My journey has been built on the advice of battle hardened mentors, companies like IBM & HP investing in early career development, and continuous persistence to seek out solutions with the proven belief that everything is possible.

I'm pursuing a purpose driven journey to change how we view and treat mental health recovery. Too many people struggling with mental health and addiction issues relapse because they can't find the right support system. I was one of them. My goal is to harness my tech and recovery experience to make a meaningful impact on improving the lives of millions of people by making recovery more accessible, affordable, and shame-free.

Through our revolutionary mobile app, we are making long-term mental wellness a reality. We're incentivizing healthy habits to eliminate destructive behaviors by providing digital rewards for progress and exclusive discounts from partner brands in the Marketplace that help achieve a joyful way of living and an enhanced quality of life.

Our objective is clear - to help people reach their highest potential and create a more positive mentality. We are friends in recovery who are investing effort on furthering this mission of progress and prevention. Through innovative rewards-based systems, we're striving to improve lives by establishing healthier behavioral patterns than the traditional shame-based ones of the past! It's all part of our journey that seeks nothing less than improving - and saving - countless lives around us.

We want to hear from you...whether it be advice or stories, sharing your experiences, learning something new, finding a great product in the marketplace or just saying hello - come join the Oberit family!
