(D) The Company's Business and Business Plan

Our Story

Like many of us, owner Kynara Davis tapped into a childhood passion during the pandemic. On July 7, 2020, Kynara Davis established Kynara's Kitchen as a home-based baker. Since then, business has evolved into operating in a commercial ghost kitchen as Something Sweet Bake Shoppe.

- Kynara learned her way around the kitchen at a very early age, and she gleaned from her mother, grandmother, and aunts, who are all gifted where food is concerned.
- Throughout the pandemic, Kynara's Kitchen continued to operate as home-based, and provided menu items that included custom cakes, wedding cakes, dessert-style cakes, cupcakes, and cookies.
- After over a year of being in business, Kynara's Kitchen decided to rebrand in October of 2021, as Something Sweet Bake Shoppe.
- The new name was created in honor of Kynara's grandmother - Lela Mae Davis, who's known for saying, "I wish I had something sweet," when she's in the mood for dessert. Even in her 90s, she still enjoys cakes, pies, or cookies after a good meal. The name is a reminder of Kynara's southern roots, and a continuation of the legacy Mrs. Lela Mae has created in the kitchen for her family.
- On October 1, 2022, Something Sweet Bake Shoppe entered a partnership with Cup o' Vibes coffee shop, located in Arlington, TX.
- Something Sweet Bake Shoppe purchased a commercial oven, 20 qt mixer, worktop freezer, and other supplies, in order to provide wholesale baked goods exclusively to Cup o' Vibes to resell on their menu.
- In addition to the wholesale agreement, Something Sweet Bake Shoppe agreed to a facility agreement to utilize the kitchen space outside of CoV business hours at $14/hour for 30 hours per month.
- The agreement also allowed clients the opportunity to order online at www.something-sweet.co and pick-up in store at CoV.
- Less than a year into the partnership, Something Sweet Bake Shoppe soon realized that the demand far outweighed the amount of orders that could physically be produced in the space.
- Today we are seeking funding through grants, investors, donations, and small business loans to open our first storefront by 2025.

If you do not affirmatively choose to invest, then your commitment will be cancelled, your funds will be returned to you, and you will not receive any securities.

(L) Price of the Securities

The Company is offering “securities” in the form of revenue sharing notes, which we refer to as “Notes.” The Notes are being offered at their face amount. For example, you will pay $1,000 for a Note with a face amount of $1,000.

(M) Terms of the Securities

Overview

The Company is offering “securities” in the form of revenue sharing notes, which we refer to as the “Notes.” The Terms of the Notes are set forth in the Revenue Share Agreement accompanying this Form C in Appendix A. Copies of the Note and Revenue Sharing Agreement are attached to this Form C.

Summary of Terms

Revenue Percentage ¹	3.0 - 3.7% ²
Payment Deadline	2031-12-31
Maximum Payment Multiple ³ - Early Investors - All Other Investors	1.4 x 1.3 x
Sharing Start Date	The first day after disbursement that the company has revenues greater than one ($1) dollar
First Payment Date	The last day of the calendar quarter ending not less than 90 days after the Sharing Start Date
Seniority	Subordinated
Securitization	Unsecured
Accrual Rate	4.61%

¹ as defined in the note agreement included in Appendix A

² The rate of revenue sharing is calculated on a linear scale with a minimum rate of 3.0% and a maximum rate of 3.7% and is rounded to the nearest 1/10th percent. The final rate is based on the amount raised and is calculated after the offering has successfully closed. As the amount raised in the offering increases, the rate of revenue sharing increases. For example, a hypothetical offering could result in the following revenue sharing percentages, depending on the amount raised:

Amount Raised	Revenue Sharing Percentage
$100,000	3.0%
$106,000	3.2%
$112,000	3.4%
$118,000	3.5%
$124,000	3.7%

³ To reward early participation, the investors who contribute the first $50,000.0 raised in the offering will receive a 1.4x cap. Investors who contribute after $50,000.0 has been raised in the offering will receive a 1.3x cap.

Your Right to Payments under the Note

Your right to payments under the Note is set forth in the Note, together with a separate document called the Revenue Sharing Agreement. Copies of the Note and Revenue Sharing Agreement are attached to this Form C. Additionally, general terms are outlined below and in the Company's offering page.

Obligation to Contribute Capital

Once you pay for your Note, you will have no obligation to contribute more money to the Company, and you will not be personally obligated for any debts of the Company. However, under some circumstances you could be required by law to return some or all of a distribution you receive from the Company.

No Right to Transfer

You should plan to hold the Notes until maturity. The Notes will be illiquid (meaning you might not be able to sell them) for at least four reasons:

- The Revenue Sharing Agreement prohibits the sale or other transfer of Notes without the Company's consent.
- If you want to sell your Note the Company will have the first right of refusal to buy it, which could make it harder to find a buyer.
- Even if a sale were permitted, there is no ready market for Notes, as there would be for a publicly-traded stock.
- By law, for a period of one year you won't be allowed to transfer the Investor Shares except (i) to the Company itself, (ii) to an "accredited" investor, (iii) to a family or trust, or (iii) in a public offering of the Company's shares.

Security

The Notes are not secured by any assets of the Company or any assets of persons associated with the Company.

Modification of Terms of Notes

The terms of the Notes and the Revenue Sharing Agreement may be modified or amended with the consent of Investors holding 50% of the Notes, measured by the total amount outstanding under each Note.

Other Classes of Securities

Name of Security	Limited Liability Company Interests
Number of Shares Outstanding	N/A
Describe Voting Rights of These Securities, Including Any Limitations on Voting Rights	N/A
How these securities differ from the revenue sharing notes being offered to investors	Limited Liability Company Interests are an equity interest, whereas Revenue Sharing Notes are a debt obligation of the Company.

Dilution of Rights

The Company has the right to create additional classes of securities, both equity securities and debt securities (e.g., other classes of promissory notes). Some of these additional classes of securities could have rights that are superior to those of the Notes. For example, the Company could issue promissory notes that are secured by specific property of the Company.

The People Who Control the Company

Each of these people owns 20% or more of the total voting power of the Company:

Name of Holder	% of Voting Power (Prior to Offering)
Kynara Shavonne Davis-Willis	100%

How the Exercise of Voting Rights Could Affect You

You will receive payments with respect to your Note only if the Company makes enough money to pay you, or, if the Company does not make enough money to pay you, if there is enough value in the collateral the Company pledged as security for the Notes.

The people with voting rights control the Company and make all the decisions about running its business. If they make good business decisions, it is more likely you will be paid. If they make poor business decisions, it is less likely you will be paid. For example, if they hire too many people and/or try to expand too quickly, the business could be harmed. The people with voting rights could also decide to file for bankruptcy protection, making it more difficult for you to be paid.

How the Notes are Being Valued

The Notes are being valued at their face value. We don't anticipate that we'll ever need to place a value on the Notes in the future.

(N) The Funding Portal

The Company is offering its securities through MainVest, Inc., which is a "Funding Portal" licensed by the Securities and Exchange Commission and FINRA. MainVest Inc.'s Central Index Key (CIK) number is 0001746059, their SEC File number is 007-00162, and their Central Registration Depository (CRD) number is 298384.

(O) Compensation of the Funding Portal

Upon successful funding of the Offering, the Funding Portal will receive as the "Revenue Securement Fee"; 4.5% of the amount of the Offering raised by In-Network Users of the Platform plus 9.0% of the amount of the Offering raised by all other investors. "In-Network Users" means a user of Mainvest.com who who have utilized the Company's specified in-network link on the Site.

(S) The Company’s Financial Condition

Historical milestones

Kynara Davis discovered her way around the kitchen at a very young age with her mother, grandmother, and aunts. Southern, homemade meals and desserts from scratch were the norm in her childhood home located in Malakoff, Texas. Like many of us, Kynara tapped into one of her childhood passions during the pandemic. On July 7, 2020, Kynara Davis established Kynara's Kitchen as a home-based baking business. Since then, business has evolved into operating in a commercial ghost kitchen as Something Sweet Bake Shoppe.

Throughout the pandemic, Kynara's Kitchen continued to operate as a home-based business, and provided menu items that included custom cakes, wedding cakes, dessert-style cakes, cupcakes, and cookies. After being in business for over a year, Kynara's Kitchen rebranded in October of 2021, as Something Sweet Bake Shoppe. The new name is in honor of her grandmother, Lela Mae Davis, who's known for saying, “I wish I had Something Sweet,” when she's in the mood for dessert. Even in her 90s, she still enjoys cakes, pies, or cookies after a good meal. The name is dedicated to continuing the legacy Lela has created in the kitchen for her family.

Over the next year, the brand continued to grow, and on October 1, 2022, Something Sweet Bake Shoppe entered a partnership with Cup o' Vibes coffee shop, located at 800 E. Sublett Rd. Suite 170 Arlington, TX 76018. The process included obtaining a food manager certification, and a food wholesale license, to transition from operating in a home based environment to a commercial space. In addition, Something Sweet Bake Shoppe purchased a full size electric commercial oven, 20 qt mixer, worktop freezer, and other supplies to operate in the commercial kitchen space. Something Sweet Bake Shoppe currently provides blueberry muffins, banana nut muffins, cranberry almond muffins, and chocolate chip cookies to Cup o' Vibes at a wholesale rate. In addition to the wholesale agreement, Something Sweet Bake Shoppe has a monthly kitchen facility agreement to utilize the commercial kitchen space outside of CoV business hours at $14/hour for 30 hours per month.

As a solo entrepreneur, Kynara dedicates an average of 30 hours per month in production to operate Something Sweet Bake Shoppe as an online, by appointment only bake shoppe. Responsibilities include baking, cake decorating, responding to inquiries, scheduling consultations, purchasing inventory and supplies, completing order deliveries, attending trade shows, marketing and social media management, photography, videography, and the best part: “quality control”.

Less than a year into the partnership with Cup o' Vibes, Something Sweet Bake Shoppe soon realized that the demand far outweighed the amount of orders that could physically be produced in the available CoV kitchen space. In fact, Something Sweet Bake Shoppe reached a milestone of over $6,000 in monthly gross sales May 1st through May 31st, 2023, while only producing at 30 hours per month. With a storefront and support staff open 7 days a week for roughly 256 hours per month, there is a projection of over $41,000 in monthly sales and $497,000 in annual revenue.
